and expertise made the difference during a hard time, and being able to help people brought him great joy. Steve dedicated his life to serving others as a pastor, youth pastor, and music director. He was blessed with a spectacular voice, and he loved to share his gift through his ministry, leading the congregation in hymns, directing the choir, and through many solos and duets with Cathy. Outside of church was no different, and no holiday or family gathering was complete without Big Steve leading everyone in a few songs. Bringing people to the Lord was his greatest priority in life, and he carried a worshipful heart with him everywhere he went. He coached his children in football, soccer, and baseball as soon as they were old enough to join a team, and continued his enthusiastic support through Amy's college playing and softball coaching career, rarely missing a game within driving distance. When she led her team to the 2021 NCAA Regional Championships in Athens, GA, their biggest fan was in attendance. "It was the most fun I've had in a long time," he said of the tournament. "I loved it." The greatest pride in Steve's life was his three granddaughters, who will remember their Pops beaming with encouragement and love and making a joyful noise unto the Lord. He was preceded in death by his father, Billy Joe Tudor; and his mother, Gladys Bolles Tudor. Survivors include his wife, Cathy, nee Estep; daughter, Amy; son, Steven; daughter-in-law, Jamie; granddaughters, Atley Grace, Ava Claire, and Amelia Jean; brother, Terry Tudor; sister, Cathy Tudor Forester; niece, Hayley Forester; cousins, Peggie Wells, Martha Waid Nichols, and Beth Bell (David) Arnold. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Cathy Tudor's relief fund to help her get back on her feet. LYNCHBURG FUNERAL HOME, Lynchburg, TN. (931)759-4444.

Meet... Poppy

Poppy is a 3 year old Hound/Boxer Mix! Unfortunately, her owner's health isn't as good as it was before and thinks it's time for Poppy to get rehomed to someone that is able to give her the attention and life that she deserves. Poppy is a talkative diva, so if you ever need someone to talk to, she will be right there listening! She loves sleeping under blankets to feel safe and of course, extra cozy. She is extremely playful and loves her toys, but she also loves to cuddle and watch television. She has been good with kids, other dogs, and cats in her previous home, she is an inside/outside dog and is house trained, but she does love playing outside enjoying nice weather. If you're interested in Poppy, please go to the homepage of Tullahoma.Petfinder.com and fill out the adoption application.

Please visit the shelter to choose your pet. The shelter has an ongoing need for donations of dog food, collars, leashes, treats, stainless steel food bowls and monetary donations to provide medical care. We greatly appreciate all donations made to the shelter.
