Ripple River Gallery features two artists through August 15

"Forest Grid (Three Birds)" - Judith Bergerson, acrylic and colored pencil.

What happens when two artists accustomed to working alone decide to collaborate? Painter Judith Bergerson and potter Pedar Hegland decided to find out. A show of the artists' individual work, as well as collaborative pieces for the first time, will be featured through August 15 at Ripple River Gallery near Bay Lake.

"This past pandemic year closed off some of the usual avenues for artists," said Pedar Hegland, a full-time studio potter since 1976 and a veteran of over 400 art fairs across a dozen states. "However, it opened up opportunities to explore other experiences."

Painter Judith Bergerson

agrees. "The past year and a half have proven to be truly memorable for all of us, for many reasons. I spent more time observing and appreciating the natural world around me." Bergerson established a forest path, giving her greater access to the woodlands. "The mere act of walking this path was a calming meditation," she said. "How can you obsess about the nation's seeming chaos when you are surrounded by the wonders of nature?"

She also spent more time in her studio. "That expanded time gave me the incentive to experiment more, to play with new media and to explore new approaches to creating my art. To work on a three-dimensional surface—a pot—is a new experience for me."

Both Hegland and Bergerson live and work in Sartell. "It is my great luck to have Judy as a next door neighbor," Hegland said. Their collaborative journey began with Hegland making a pot in stoneware, sometimes adding a bit of color or glaze, then challenging Bergerson to respond to the form of the pot with acrylic paint, colored pencil and collage. "Whatever she did was totally her solution to the problem," Hegland said.

Construction crews began work on Highway 210 between Aitkin and Deerwood. The work is expected to continue during week days until late October. ## Where's Munchy? Scavenger Hunt

Lily Williams found Munchy at Red Threads by following Clue #5 (week of June 30-July 6) and won a T-shirt.

Where's Munchy? is a weekly scavenger hunt where participants search for the Munchy the Miner figurine, which will be hidden at participating downtown businesses in plain sight.

Clue #7: Week of July 14-20

Following the war, Myron G. (Munchy) Perpich was injured on Good Friday when a farm tractor tumbled on top of him while filling a ditch. He managed to kick the tractor over despite suffering a broken collarbone and severe cuts to his face that resulted in reconstructive surgery of the nose. If around today, Munchy would have filled his pain medication prescription at this location.

Enter to win

1. Read the clues each week

2. Search for Munchy the Miner (hidden in plain sight) at local participating businesses

3. Take a selfie with Munchy Miner, tag the business (#Business Name), and post the photo on the C-I Sidewalk Scoop Facebook Page. Photos can also be emailed to brielle@cuyunallakes.com.

4. Your name will be entered into the weekly and grand prize drawings.

Prizes Participants have a chance to win some swag from local businesses each week of the promotion. All participants will also be entered into the grand prize drawing for a gift basket of items and gift cards from local businesses. ## Senator Carrie Ruud session’s end

After months of work, the Minnesota 2021 Legislature has officially adjourned. The Legislature is typically in Session for four to six months per year, but due to the pandemic, the Senate was in a constant state of Session, dating back to March of 2020. Minnesota’s budget is finalized, bills are signed... and our state can begin moving forward through the post-COVID era. We had a productive legislative session, and there is much to celebrate.

As the Chair of the Senate Environment Policy & Legacy Finance committee, one of my biggest priorities was to build a Legacy bill that preserves, protects, and maintains our state’s natural resources for future generations. During the pandemic, our parks and public areas experienced an unprecedented number of visitors—therefore, I was focused on delivering a bill that continues funding Minnesota’s lands, habitats, and waters. In addition, we funded grants for county fairs, Veteran Memorials, and civics education. This year the Legacy bill passed with unanimous bipartisan support in the Senate—and was one of the first budget bills signed by the Governor. I am very proud of the final Legacy bill we put together.

We also passed a public safety budget that prioritizes the safety, security, and well-being of all Minnesotans. Our law enforcement organizations have faced many challenges in the past year and were often met with lukewarm support. In the end, the Legislature passed strong public safety measures that support law enforcement officers by providing raises and the resources necessary to do their jobs safely. We stopped attempts to defund or disband the police in any capacity, and instead reaffirmed a commitment to public safety for all Minnesotans.

Further worsened by COVID. I authored legislation for meat cutting and butchery program grants, and this important funding was included in the final Agriculture budget. This funding will provide an opportunity for growth in these specific industries, so we can train our students and keep young entrepreneurs in our State.

The pandemic made it very clear that broadband is no longer a luxury, but a necessity, and we have work to do in that area. Therefore, included in the agriculture budget was important funding for broadband expansion. Last year we provided a large investment for expansion efforts to our rural communities—and we again, this year invested in broadband expansion, thanks to federal funding from the American Recovery Plan. This continuous investment shows our commitment to ensuring Greater Minnesota is no longer left behind in broadband expansion.

Housing was a significant topic this year—we passed the Eviction Moratorium off-ramp, and many hours were spent discussing this important legislation: the goal is to wind down the moratorium in a balanced way that benefits both tenants and landlords. The solution was a well-vetted program that establishes RentHelpMN.com as a resource for tenants to receive financial help to pay back rent owed to landlords. It was important that we implement a phased-in approach to protect Minnesotans facing true economic hardships, while also allowing landlords the ability to evict tenants that have broken the law or have put the safety of others at risk. This bipartisan solution is well-thought out—and will help our housing industry begin its post-COVID recovery.

I am pleased we were able to secure nearly $1 billion in tax relief for Minnesotans—we live in a wonderful and beautiful state, but that often comes in tandem with higher taxes. After a year of unimaginable financial hardship, it was a top priority to ensure relief for families across the state. This meant voting “no” on tax increases, passing Paycheck Protection loan forgiveness, and spending our budget responsibly.

Aside from items listed above, we funded roads and bridges, lowered healthcare costs, held the line on no new watercraft fees, cracked down on aquatic invasive species management, and funded grants to help our friends and neighbors of the Northwest Angle. Much good came from the 2021 Session—we also fought to stop numerous poor measures: no new social studies standards in our schools, no gas tax increase, no single-pay-structure with Legal Process with Force, 1 Gross Misdemeanor 5th Degree Narcotics, 4 Gross Misdemeanor Trespass on Critical Infrastructure, 2 Citations issued for Misdemeanor Trespass.

Those arrested included two Californians, one from Wisconsin, one Iowa resident, a visitor from Massachusetts and one Minnesotan. They were detained in the Aitkin County jail for processing and eventually released. During detention a number of

Rep. Dale Lueck legislative update

Our part of Minnesota enjoyed a wonderful Independent Day celebration this past 4th of July. It was great to enjoy the parades and other festivities celebrating the birth of our great country. Thank you to all that worked so hard to organize these impressive community events.

Our freedom of speech is a seriously matter, however we continue to see that right abused. On July 6, local law enforcement arrested six individuals that went far beyond what most would consider a reasonable exercise of speech guaranteed under the U.S. Constitution.

The individuals were charged with a variety of criminal acts. The behavior that resulted in the charges included blocking public roads, employing spikes to cause flat tires, blocking entry into private property, employing sleeping dragon obstructions that were endowed with feces and the possession of illegal narcotics.

The six arrests included the following criminal charges:

- 1 Gross Misdemeanor Obstruct with Legal Process with Force,
- 1 Gross Misdemeanor 5th Degree Narcotics,
- 4 Gross Misdemeanor Trespass on Critical Infrastructure,
- 2 Citations issued for Misdemeanor Trespass

Those arrested included two Californians, one from Wisconsin, one Iowa resident, a visitor from Massachusetts and one Minnesotan. They were detained in the Aitkin County jail for processing and eventually released. During detention a number of their cohorts occupied the county courthouse grounds. During the occupation, the area around the memorial to Aitkin County law enforcement officers that lost their life in the line of duty was defaced. The graffiti demonstrated contempt and shameful disrespect for local peace officers that died in the line of duty.

The message this group sent to the people of Aitkin County and especially those with family and friends involved in public safety was quite clear: utter contempt and disrespect for those that sacrificed their life to keep our community safe.

I don’t always enjoy putting

Farmers to families

It was humbling to participate in the food distribution in Crosby the past few months. Every Tuesday, whether it was at the Crosby Immanuel Lutheran Church, the Hallett Community Center or in front of the Taconite Canteen in Ironton, the volunteers showed up in the cold, the rain, and finally the heat, to do their part in getting food to anyone who drove through. The Deerwood, Cuyuna, and Crosby law enforcement officers were there to provide safety and they even found time to deliver boxes to their communities. Deerwood, Ironton, and Crosby Fire Departments consistently stepped up to deliver to their communities as well. The amazing efforts of Mabel Semler, Kristine Brown, Misti Rose, Crosby Mayor Jim Hunter, kept the volunteers back on my old journalist hat but, as a former newspaper publisher, it’s important that the public is exposed to all the facts. It seems in fashion today for local, regional and national media to focus primarily on glorifying those that oppose the construction of Enbridge Line 3.

In the tradition of a famous radio voice from the past, Paul Harvey, I will say, “for the rest of the story” and pictures, visit the Northern Lights Alliance Task Force Facebook page.

Please have a safe and enjoyable weekend.
