A CLOSETED BAUBLE COLLECTOR

It has been a while since we have talked about Baubles. Can you believe that someone actually asked me what a Bauble was?! A Bauble is a tiny trinket and usually when referring to jewelry it means cheap. In the DBL (Deborah Burgoon London) Dictionary, Bauble refers to all jewelry; big, small, shiny, cheap, sparkly, new, used, etcetera. This closeted obsession, literally in my closet, started for me in my Prime. Well my early Prime, now is My Prime. Perchance I was in my late twenties. It began with anything that could wrap around my boney little fingers. Tiny band, wide band, plain band, band with big outrageous décor on them, Excellent! The first real ring purchase I recall was in Lake Placid, at an antique store. I am embarrassed to say, but in my Bauble Box there are cheap rings galore. Then it moved onto the other kind of band. The one that wraps around your wrists; bracelets. So maybe I have a few less than rings, not bad, right? The real disgrace is the necklaces, because I do not even wear many necklaces. But when you see a cheap one hanging in a store and it looks so pretty, you just never know when it might be just the perfect accessory. I might have more of these than bracelets. The one that really snuck up on me was earrings. No wonder, it does have ring in the name. It began with a respectable metal hoop and little diamond"ish" studs and next thing you know, there are more cheap earrings than rings. This situation does not take into account the pins and other shiny whatnots. In my defense, some of these items were gifted to me and none have any monetary value. During our 2016 house fire, my husband's fishing and hunting gadgets were rescued first, out the upstairs window and down the ladder. Um, "what about my Baubles?" It seemed so unjust at the time, but finally rays of hope came through the night sky and my big beautiful Bauble Box appeared out the window and down the ladder. My Mom was in charge of packaging the Baubles and truth be told it took her considerable time. She may have mentioned that she saw a problem with my fondness for collecting cheap Baubles. However, the problem almost happened when just before we got rid of the damaged box, I noticed she had missed an entire drawer. Goodness Gracious, that would have been quite tragic. Losing all my cosmetics was one thing, but not the Baubles, that was unthinkable. A couple months back in Batavia, the nice sales lady who greeted me, told me to look around and feel free to try on anything- even if it was just for fun. Oh no no no, it was too much temptation. At least my purchase consisted of the tiniest pair of sparkly cross earrings so I know I am square with the Man Above. If it helps to redeem myself, I have tried to donate some of it and have willed a few fun pieces to my Nieces. So I can sleep good knowing that.

THE LAW AND YOU

BY NATHAN D. PACE
ATTORNEY AT LAW

EMPLOYMENT LAW IN AN UNCERTAIN TIME

Pandemic employment and hiring practices exposed myriad problems during recent uncertain times. Switching to remote working, many business's timekeeping practices shifted or evaporated entirely. Employees seeking "work from home" cost reimbursement and pressure to work beyond typical business hours created chaos and legal ramifications for employers. Frontline workers found themselves forced to choose between their health or the job as employers weighed economic benefits of reopening or expanding in-person services with protective employee health protocols and local mandates. This created many employment law issues. Business reopening pitfalls include hastily written, if any, policies. Employees returning to the workplace are faced with vaccination requirements (or lack thereof), discrimination, and disclosures of private health information.

The last thing you need to deal with while trying to run your business is a legal matter. This is why you need the representation of a hard-working business law attorney who will fight for you, taking some of the burden off of your shoulders so you can continue running your business. No matter what your business needs may be, the Law Office of MACK & PACE will make sure you get the best possible solution. Call us at (585)798-1000 to schedule your initial consultation. We emphasize business law, family law, estate planning, and criminal law.

The Insurance Policy that Protects Trapping in New York State.

The New York State Trappers Association was formed in 1938 by a small group of trappers at O.L. Butcher's Adirondack camp on the Blue Ridge. In attendance was E.J. Dailey, O.L. Butcher and Pete Rickard. We believe the first New York State Trappers Association Convention was held in 1941 at Piseco Lake on Labor Day Weekend and has been held on this weekend ever since. It was held at Piseco Lake until the NYSTA outgrew the facilities. In 1978 it was moved to West Winfield and until 1994 was moved from fairground to fairground statewide. In 1994 we were welcomed by the Herkimer County Fair Board. A close alliance was formed with them and the New York State Trappers Association has hosted their Labor Day weekend Convention and Sportsman's Show at the Herkimer County Fairgrounds ever since. At the convention and Sportsmen show you can find all kinds of sportsman supplies, kid's activities, trapping supplies, tanned fur, wildlife paintings and photographs, and more. At the NYSTA booth in dealer building #1, you can purchase a membership, and pick up some cool T-shirts, sweatshirts, hats and NYSTA merchandise of all types. This year the New York State Trappers Association welcomes Rose Anna Moore to our convention. Rose was one of the participants featured on season 8 of the History Channel's "Alone" series on television that aired in July and August of this year. Rose will have a booth in building #1 to meet and visit with anyone that stops by. On Friday, September 3rd, Rose will give a special presentation, in the demo area, about her experiences on the series and what it was like being "Alone" for months on Grizzly Island. Don't miss this special presentation!
