ARIES (March 21 to April 19) The typically tidy Ram or Ewe might want to butt out until things are settled on the home front. But get involved and let your Ovine sense of order help restore domestic tranquility.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) The Bovine's flair for fine-tuning complicated fiscal dealings comes in handy when an unexpected financial problem arises. Stay with it until it's resolved to your satisfaction.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Family aspects remain strong. There might be some unresolved difficulties, but continued attempts to smooth things over eventually prove to be successful. A major purchase looms.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A promise that was made but never kept suddenly re-emerges in your life. You now have to decide if you're still interested in what it offers or if you've moved past it.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Romance comes to unattached Leos and Leonas who have been waiting for Cupid to target them for far too long. Domestic purr-fection is also enhanced for paired Felines.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You need to take a much-needed break from that demanding project before too much energy-draining tension sets in. And don't be ashamed to ask for help.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Change makes demands that you might find unwelcome at this time. But instead of concentrating on the short run, look toward potential benefits down the road.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You have a gift for reviving projects that seem beyond repair. Use that same ability to restore a relationship that seems to have turned from loving to lifeless.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Expect to be asked to use your combined wisdom and humor to resolve a problem. After all, folks not only value your advice, they also like how you give it.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Most people consider you solid and steady. But you also can be quite capricious (which is a Latin word for "describing the behavior of Goats") when it suits your needs.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) People treat you as you wish to be treated. So if you want a change in your relationship, make it happen. Also expect someone to reveal some long-held secrets.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Stay with the decision you made, despite a sudden torrent of advice to the contrary from well-meaning people. Remember: You know your needs better than anyone.

BORN THIS WEEK: You like things tidy, with no loose ends. You also enjoy research and would make an excellent investigative reporter or scientist.

Piedmont Pets
 August 26, 2021 By Paulette Dean

We are convinced that microchipping dogs and cats provides the best chance that a lost animal can be reunited with a home. It is becoming more common for people to pick up strays and decide to keep them and a microchip is an undeniable proof of ownership.

When the Danville Area Humane Society first took over operation of the city animal shelter in 1984, the popular method of proving ownership in cats and dogs was tattooing. Unbelievably, the owner's Social Security number was tattooed on the inner part of one of a dog's or cat's back legs! Can you imagine that in today's world?

A lot has changed since 1984, except for the reality that millions of lost dogs and cats enter shelters each year, and relatively few are returned to the owner, unless that owner has been diligent about providing an easy way home for the animal. In Virginia, shelters and rescue groups are required by law to make a reasonable effort to contact owners within 48 hours of an animal's arrival in their facility, if the animal has some form of identification on it.

State and local dog license laws are supposed to help return lost dogs to their owner, but very few localities require the licensing of cats. In addition, collars and tags can easily get lost. What, then, can an owner do to increase the odds that their beloved missing pet can be found and returned home?

996 South Boston Rd.,
 Danville, VA 24540
 Phone: (434) 799-0843

We keep a lost and found registry of animals, but that system has weaknesses. What an owner describes to us may not be what we see in an animal.

A microchip the size of a grain of rice can be the proof of ownership that is needed to reunite you with your beloved pet.

The advantages are numerous. The process is quick and no more painful than a vaccination. The chip does not get lost, and a simple procedure with a scanner alerts a shelter that a microchip has been inserted. The owner's name and address can be registered on a national or regional database.

We strongly urge everyone to protect your pet by having your dog or cat microchipped and to register the chip with your current contact information.

HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD — British actor Rege-Jean Page made a splash in Shondra Rhimes' Netflix series "Bridgerton" on Christmas night of 2020. He became an overnight sensation. Fans of the show were shocked when he announced he'd be leaving the series after the first season. When he hosted "Saturday Night Live," he confirmed he'd left the show. Netflix knew what they had and immediately signed him to star in the $200 million film "The Gray Man," opposite Ana de Armas, Chris Evans and Ryan Gosling, expected to be released for streaming next year. Then Paramount Pictures cast him opposite Chris Pine and Michelle Rodriguez in "Dungeons & Dragons" (due March 3, 2023).

Paramount was so impressed with him that they've handed Rege-Jean the plum title role of "The Saint" in the reboot of the 1962 British series that starred Roger Moore, a future James Bond (1962-69), then Ian Ogilvy in "The Return of the Saint" (1978-79) and finally Val Kilmer in the 1997 theatrical film, which flopped.

Paramount Pictures is in a dangerous place. They agreed to release "A Quiet Place 2" for 90 days into theaters after "A Quiet Place" grossed $350 million. But then they decided to cut the time in theaters in half so they could boost their Paramount+ downloading platform. Producers John Krasinski and Michael Bay, plus its star, Emily Blunt, were poised to receive a big bonus from the theatrical release, and they now are demanding that Paramount make up the monies they've lost due to the shortened release in theaters. Stars such as Tom Cruise and Mark Wahlberg are watching closely to see what Paramount will do, since both of them have major film releases upcoming through that studio. What Paramount does could affect the entire industry and some or all of the streaming platforms.

Joseph Sinclair/AGBO

Rege-Jean Page in "Bridgerton"

Meanwhile, MGM has been accused by director Andrew Levitas of trying to bury his film "Minamata" because of the personal negative baggage of its star, Johnny Depp. The film was acquired last fall after MGM relaunched American International Pictures (the studio that gave us the "Beach Party" movies with Frankie Avalon and Annette Funicello in the 1960s). This comes on the heels of Warner Brothers asking Depp to resign from his role of Grindelwald in the Harry Potter spinoff franchise "Fantastic Beasts."

Depp's messy divorce and battles with Amber Heard have been sensational tabloid fodder, which caused his last film, "Waiting for the Barbarians," co-starring Robert Pattinson and Mark Rylance, to tank at the box office with an embarrassing $761,361 gross. MGM is not the powerful studio they were in their heyday and want no part of the public relations nightmare that could go with releasing this film or the hassles of dealing with Johnny Depp's woes! "#21 Dump Street!"

CITY COUNCIL PLEADS FOR CITIZENS TO GET VACCINE

Mayor Alonzo Jones and other members of Danville City Council pleaded Tuesday night for citizens to get inoculated against COVID-19 amid a surge in cases.

"I don't understand why it is such a battle for people wanting to take care of themselves," Jones said at last night's meeting of the City Council. "Here we have something (a vaccine) that can help us, but because of the politics we are willing to risk not only our lives but the lives of the kids."

His comments followed comments from Vice Mayor Dr. Gary Miller and Councilman Lee Vogler.

Miller said the Delta variant is affecting children now, while Vogler lamented COVID has been politicized.

"There are folks who are big supporters of our current president, and there are folks who are big supporters of our previous president," Vogler said. "There's probably not a lot of things that Joe Biden and Donald Trump have in common, but there's one thing they do have in common, they both got the vaccine. I think everyone should get it."

Miller said he visited the intensive care unit at Sovah Health-Danville earlier in the day.

"There are 14 people on a ventilator. Twelve of them have COVID-19. None were vaccinated," Miller said. "Anybody that doesn't think we have another crisis has their head buried in the sand."

Councilman Sherman Saunders talked about citizens expressing theological excuses against getting the vaccine.

"God will provide, yeah, God gave you common sense too," Saunders said.

Councilman Lawrence Campbell, who battled COVID and lost his wife to COVID, again shared his experience.

"To have experienced having the virus and in the process thinking you are going to die. You can't breathe. You can't walk. ... I don't know why I am sitting here. Honestly, if anybody should be alive, it should be my wife. ... My wife was a holy lady."

Campbell added, "You (those who remain unvaccinated) are going to play around with life and death when you have an opportunity to not only protect yourself but your family and friends? We know what is going down. This is serious."

Councilman Barry Mayo talked about the surge in COVID cases and how it could place in jeopardy the return of children to the school classrooms.

"It is almost a begging moment to ask the parents who have not even thought about taking the vaccine to look at how serious of a situation this is," Mayo said. "... What is it going to take to say, 'I need to do this (get the vaccine)'. Don't fool yourself."

Mayor Jones agreed, saying, "I want to encourage everybody to do what it takes, if not for you, then for your kids. I don't see schools staying open if it (surge in COVID cases) keeps going like it is."

On Tuesday, there were 53 new cases of COVID-19 reported in Danville and Pittsylvania County. That number was the highest since February. The spike in caseloads also prompted Sovah Health-Danville to impose restrictions on visitors.

The Centers for Disease Control lists both Danville and Pittsylvania County as areas with high transmission. The CDC uses a four-tiered system to measure a community's level of transmission: low, moderate, substantial, and high.

A community's level of transmission is based on just two metrics: new Covid-19 cases per 100,000 people and the positivity rate, both measured over the last seven days.

Council members also offered their thoughts and prayers to Danville police officer Bonnie Jones and her family. Jones is hospitalized and on a ventilator at Sovah Health-Danville because of COVID.

* If you keep a couple of crackers in your sugar jar, they'll keep the sugar from caking.

* Cucumber is a speedy diuretic. Try snacking on slices for a cool treat. Or deseed slices and slip a few in your glass of cold water.

* "When we go to the doctor with our youngest, we bring a few crayons. She'll lie down on the exam table paper, and we draw her outline. Then she can fill in her face and other details. This usually calms her while she is waiting. The doctor even has used the outline to talk about her body to her." -- E.S. in Georgia

* "In older houses, you might have a problem with cracking drywall when trying to hang pictures. You can solve this by placing a bit of clear tape over the spot where you're going to drive a nail. It goes right in. If you're nailing into wood, drag your nail through some soap (bar soap is fine) before striking. It does the same thing, keeping the wood from splitting." -- P.K. in New Jersey

* To prevent garbage cans from filling with water during rainstorms, drill several holes in the bottom, near the sides. This also will help bags to come out of the can easier.

* Boost your metabolism by drinking green tea ... hot or cold. Try it over ice with honey and a sprig of mint.

1. Who wrote and released "Suzanne"?
2. Which solo artist got a start with Humble Pie and the Herd?
3. Where did the Orlons get their name?
4. Who wrote and released "Swingtown"?
5. Name the song that contains these lyrics: "You think you're gonna take me and put me on the shelf, Girl, I'd rather die than see you with somebody else."

Answers

1. Leonard Cohen, in 1967. Cohen eventually lost the rights to the song because of signing a document he didn't read.
2. Peter Frampton. His material and master tapes were lost in the Universal Studios fire in 2008, along with hundreds of other artists.
3. It was a nod to a competitor, the Cashmeres.
4. Steve Miller of the Steve Miller Band. The song is the basis for a particularly controversial chant at the University of Wisconsin-Madison between sections O and P in the stadium during football games. The college has been unable to curtail use of the song or the chant.
5. "Never Give You Up," by Jerry Butler in 1968. The song stayed on the Hot 20 for 14 weeks and was later covered by numerous artists, including Rod Stewart in 2009.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Lucie Winborne

* Autism is more common than childhood cancer, diabetes and AIDS combined.

* A bizarre dream in which cannibals surrounded him and prepared to cook him as they waved spears helped inspire Elias Howe's invention of the sewing machine. When he awoke, he remembered that the spears had holes in their shafts and moved up and down.

* "Bhang lassi" is an Indian milkshake whose main ingredient is marijuana.

* According to British law, any unclaimed swan swimming in the open waters of England and Wales belongs to the queen. The law originated in medieval times when swans were a delicacy for the wealthy.

* "Gingerphobia" is a fear of redheads.

* The Russians arrived 12 days late to the 1908 Olympics because they were using the wrong (i.e., Julian) calendar.

* In 1995 a woman in Sweden lost her wedding ring while cooking for Christmas. Understandably distraught, she looked everywhere for it and even pulled up her kitchen floor, but didn't see it again until 16 years later, when, while gardening, she discovered it encircling a carrot that had sprouted in the middle of it.

* The amount of copper on the Arizona capitol building roof is equivalent to nearly 5 million pennies.

* Bumblebees can fly higher than Mt. Everest.

* Because he got a 25% profit share of merchandise, Elvis Presley manager Colonel Tom Parker was always in search of new ways to get fans to lay down some cash. One of the most notable was marketing to Presley's haters with badges that read "I Hate Elvis" and "Elvis is a Jerk."

Thought for the Day: "The mark of the immature man is that he wants to die nobly for a cause, while the mark of the mature man is that he wants to live humbly for one." -- J.D. Salinger
