HOLLYWOOD by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD - Jake Gyllenhaal's breakout film was "The Day After Tomorrow" (2004), which grossed $552 million. It was followed by "Brokeback Mountain" (2005), which featured romantic scenes with the late Oscar-winning actor Heath Ledger, shocking to some, but still able to win Oscars for its director, adapted screenplay and musical score, and a best-actor nomination for Ledger.

Gyllenhaal's voiceover in the animated film "Spirit Untamed," with Julianne Moore, opened in June and managed to gross $38.6 million despite the pandemic. His Danish crime thriller "The Guilty," with Ethan Hawke, Riley Keough and Peter Sarsgaard, was well-received at The Toronto Film Festival. He's just wrapped-up Michael Bay's action thriller "Ambulance," with Eliza Gonzalez, about two brothers who steal an ambulance with a female paramedic and a critical patient in the back, due Feb. 18 in theaters.

Despite the success of "Brokeback Mountain," it has taken 16 years for a major studio to make a romantic comedy about two men. Billy Eichner stars in "BROS," which he co-wrote with Nicholas Stoller (who's directing), with Judd Apatow producing for Universal Studios. It's about two men with commitment problems who attempt to start a relationship. The "other" man will be Luke Macfarlane, who played the gay lover of one of the title characters of the 2006-11 ABC series, "Brother & Sisters." In 2008 he "outed" himself as a gay man in an interview, but still played "straight" men in one Hallmark movie a year from 2014-19, two in 2020 and another in 2021.

Universal is touting "BROS" as the first gay rom-com made by a major studio, but Netflix already beat them to the punch with "Single All the Way," which stars "Ugly Betty's" Michael Urie and, well lookie here, Luke Macfarlane, dropping in December. Meanwhile, Billy Eichner is set to play

Jake Gyllenhaal

Paul Lynde in "The Man in the Box." Lynde didn't hide his "gayness" and successfully played Ann-Margret's father in "Bye, Bye, Birdie" and Uncle Arthur in Elizabeth Montgomery's "Bewitched" series. He never had to "come out," no one cared.

While Universal getting more liberal, Netflix is turning cautious. They thought their upcoming film "Blonde" (based on Joyce Carol Oates' best-selling book of the same name), with Ana de Armas as Marilyn Monroe, was "too graphic"! The film has Oscar-winner Adrian Brody as "The Playwright," Bobby Cannavale as "The Ex-Athlete," Caspar Phillipson as "The President" and Michael Masini as Tony Curtis. Brad Pitt is one of the producers, and what could have been more graphic than those violent scenes in 'Once Upon a Time in Hollywood'"?

Speaking of once upon a time, I was once lured to Paul Lynde's house under false pretenses for a re-shoot and found myself locked up with him in his house ... but that's another story!

U.S. News & World Report named Averett University No. 21 among 94 schools on the "2022 Best Regional Colleges in the South" list. Averett also landed in the No. 12 spot out of 32 regional colleges for best value, is the No. 14 school out of 49 for upward social mobility. In addition, the University was recognized for economic diversity among its students. Averett is the only school in Virginia ranked in the social mobility and best value categories, and is the top-ranked school in Virginia from the best regional colleges list.

"We are elated to receive these rankings and are always grateful for these endorsements. These recognitions are a direct result of the hard work and dedication of our students, faculty and staff members," said Averett University President Dr. Tiffany M. Franks. "Averett makes higher education accessible to students from all backgrounds and stages of life, and accolades like these honor all of those who are coming to Averett to make their dreams a reality." Almost half of Averett's students are the first in their families to attend college, and more than half are eligible for Pell grants. The University currently enrolls students from 24 states across the country, as well as 93 international students from 29 countries. Nearly 40% of Averett's student body is comprised of minority students. U.S. News assesses social mobility by measuring how well schools graduated students who received federal Pell Grants, grants typically given to students with lower family incomes. Economic diversity was determined using U.S. Department of Education data on the cumulative number of Pell grant recipients at each school for 2019-2020, compared to the 2019-2020 academic year total undergraduate enrollment.

For best value schools, U.S. news considered academic quality and cost after accounting for total expenses and financial aid.

The Community Foundation of the Dan River Region Celebrates 25th Anniversary

Twenty-five years is a significant milestone in the life of The Community Foundation of the Dan River Region. To commemorate, The Foundation celebrated with an Open House on Friday, September 10 at its 541 Loyal Street Office. Fifty-eight guests attended including past and present Board members, donors, grantees, and staff. Established in 1996, The Foundation continues to develop and thrive. Continued growth increases The Foundation's capacity to return funds to our region through grants and scholarships. The Foundation recently achieved a goal of attaining over $50 million in assets. The VISION that fostered expansion early on for The Foundation holds fast today and is propelling The Foundation into the future. The Foundation's VISION is to recognize needs and provide resources to improve the quality of life in our community and to serve the wishes of our donors.

Project Imagine honors graduates

Five teenagers this week completed the first phase of the Project Imagine program. The group is the third class of graduates this year. The teens were honored at a ceremony earlier this week.

The Foundation's staff and Board are dedicated to its MISSION to improve and enrich the lives of people in our community by encouraging the generosity of donors; by receiving, managing, and distributing important resources; and by meeting a variety of charitable purposes in our community.

Staff work closely with donors to help them achieve their unique charitable goals. Donors have always been and will continue to be the backbone of The Foundation. They are a major part of The Foundation's success. Thanks to its donors, The Foundation now houses 152 different endowed funds, 59 of which are endowed scholarships.

As a special way of saying "thank you," The Foundation held a surprise drawing to give one nonprofit organization in the region the unexpected boost of a $2,500 grant. This is an important part of the 25th Anniversary celebration, in recognition of nonprofit organizations that are so vital in helping The Foundation connect donors to the resources and causes important to them and the community. Congratulations to the Virginia Chapter of the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention, serving Danville-Pittsylvania County, the winner of the $2,500 grant. The Foundation is currently running a 25th Anniversary fundraising campaign, with a goal of raising $25,000 before December 31, 2021. To date, $13,050 in gifts have been received. Giving materials are available at the 541 Loyal Street office or contributions can be made online at www.cfdrr.org. Anyone in the community can contribute, to help build momentum for The Foundation's mission. Not pictured is Kyasia Brandon.

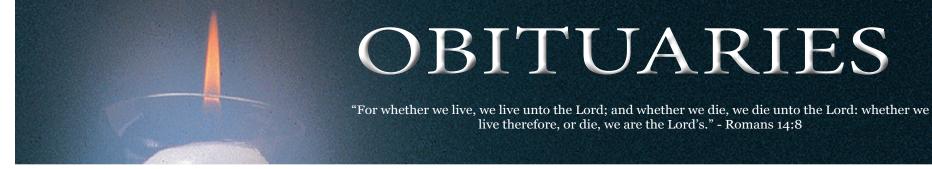

Project Imagine gives gang-affiliated teens a future off the streets by providing them with life skills instruction and work readiness training. In the first phase, the teens received strength-based assessments using the Casey Life Skills and Clifton Strengths tools that aim to set youth on their way toward developing healthy, productive lives. The teens also underwent goal-setting exercises. Outreach workers will continue working with each teen on the goals they established during this initial phase of the program.

Robert David, the youth services and gang violence prevention coordinator for the City of Danville, said the training gives the teens a base from which to build. The program, he added, teaches things that most people take for granted, and as the teens learn, they develop confidence. Confidence leads to developing self-value and staying off the streets, he said.

A true servant of God, he helped to establish God's Store House in the local community and was a fervent encourager for people of all walks of life to come together in worship. He was currently a member of Marble Collegiate Church.

Michael was a man of many passions. His love of music was known to all-from hymns to blues to rock-n-roll and everything in between. He loved to travel to New Orleans with his wife and was known to bring the spirit of the city back with him every time he went. Michael was also a wonderful cook who loved nothing more than making sure his friends and families' bellies were just as full as their hearts. Michael will always be remembered for his sharp sense of humor. There was always a joke to be had. Other passions of Michael's included fishing, football, and spending time at the farm with his friends. Michael's greatest passion, however, was people. His family and friends were the most important to him and he was a gift to everyone he met. A devoted husband, a dedicated father, an adoring grandfather and great-grandfather, and a steadfast friend, Michael's love was endless. His love for his family, friends, and all people was the best worldly representation of God's love anyone could have asked for.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Decisions involving your finances might seem to be foolproof. But they could have underlying risks you should know about. Don't act on anything until all the facts are in.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Keep that keen Bovine mind focused on your financial situation as it begins to undergo some changes. Consider your money moves carefully. Avoid impulsive investments.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You'll need to adjust some of your financial plans now that things are changing more quickly than you expected. All the facts you need haven't yet emerged, so move cautiously.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Personal and professional relationships dominate this period. Try to keep things uncomplicated to avoid misunderstandings that can cause problems down the line.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) That elusive goal you'd been hoping to claim is still just out of reach. But something else has come along that could prove just as desirable, if only you would take the time to check it out.

Preheat oven to 350F.

Place all ingredients to a large bowl and beat together until combined, or place in blender at one time and blend until mixed together. Pour into a greased 9 -10 inch pie dish.

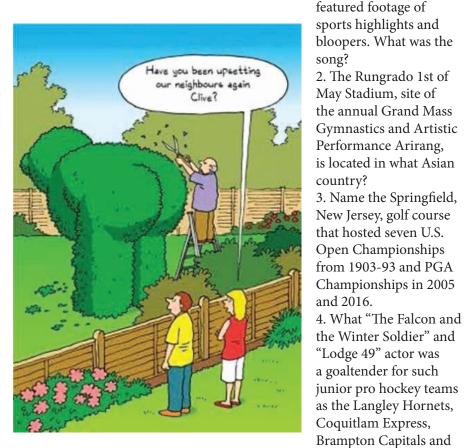

Bake for 1 hour or until center is firm and pie is golden.

The pie will have a slight wobble to the surface. That will set as it is cooling.

When done, crust will be on bottom, custard in the middle, and coconut on top - right where they belong!

Allow to cool and refrigerate until completely chilled or overnight.

Serve with your favorite ice cream, and sprinkle with toasted coconut.
