WALLACE STATE NEWS

Artist Gifts Evelyn Burrow Museum With Piece For Permanent Collection

Photographic artist Arden Ward Upton surprised The Evelyn Burrow Museum with a gift of a piece from her collection "The Equus" exhibition to add to the Burrow Museum's permanent display during a reception for her exhibit Thursday evening.

"It's one of my personal favorites and depicts a horse that is very feminine," she said. Called "My Love," she said she imagines the piece would fit well with Evelyn Burrow's personality as she has come to know it through her association with the museum.

"That was a wonderful surprise," said Dr. Vicki Karolewics, Wallace State President. "I'd already picked out a few favorites of my own and when she mentioned the piece she was gifting to us was 'feminine,' this was the first one that came to mind."

Thursday's reception was held to allow area residents the opportunity to meet Upton and hear from her about the photographs she chose for the collection. Split into three groups, the exhibit includes photographs of horses from her farm, images of snow polo horses from Italy, and wild horses from the Outer Banks of North Carolina.

Upton spent 10 days on the Outer Banks photographing the wild horses for the photos in her collection. They didn't like her presence very much at first, she said. "Brownie's mom was not very happy about my being there," Upton said, speaking of a wild horse colt she named Brownie, whose photo is in the collection. "She kicked out at me and pinned her ears back." The stallion leading the herd would take them mares from her, she added. Near the end of her time on the Outer Banks, it seemed they were getting used to her, but she still respected the horses' space and kept a safe distance.

Upton's photographs will be on display at The Evelyn Burrow Museum through May 16. The Evelyn Burrow Museum is open Tuesday-Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Admission is free. For more information, call 256.352.8457 or visit www.burrowmuseum.org <<http://www.burrowmuseum.org>>museum

Alabama FOR MARRIAGE

contact@alabamaformarriage.com | #Alabama4Marriage

Biblical • Natural • Traditional • Moral

Cullman County Courthouse
500 Second Ave SW Cullman, Alabama 35055

Sunday May 3rd
3:00pm - 5:00pm

Alabama Be a voice for truth: Marriage=One Man+One Woman

God created it. Nature Reveals it. Societies thrive on it. Children are nurtured by it. History affirms it. The gospel is exemplified by it. Man doesn't change it.

As the U.S. Supreme Court prepares to rule on marriage in June, you have a duty to speak up while the very nature of marriage is being threatened. Devotion to Christ, love for your country and concern for your children demand immediate action.

During the month of May, join thousands of believers at your county event and in Montgomery on June 6th, to send a united message to elected officials, the Supreme Court and the world: Alabama is for Marriage.

The Bible: Christian Holy book, the sacred book of the Christian religion. Found in many homes, hospitals, hotels, Dr. offices, churches, etc.,. Many say they believe every word front to back, for it is The Holy Word from "GOD" in heaven. So why do Church Christians (by a new covenant) use part of the Bible to testify of Christ (Jn 5:39-47), but Christ's Words (Jn 14:24) are not heard (Acts 3:23)? So by The Bible, where is it shown that "GOD" gave a new covenant with absolutely no need to respect Jesus Christ's Words??? That by "GOD's Grace", the law was changed, that prayer is counted for righteousness instead of following (believing) The Holy Son (Jn 3:16)? Where does it show Jesus Christ changed Himself? For He is the Truth (Jn 14:6) and never changeth (Heb 13:8)! Must be a lot of Reprobate minds (Rom 1:17-32) trying to falsify The Bible also!!

"It's always too soon
It's always too fast;
There never comes a day
That you don't want 'em back;
It ain't about the numbers
Chiseled in concrete
It's how they lived their lives
In the dash between...
Between the first breath and the last
Marks all the memories of the past
That little black line defines a legacy
In the dash between - in the dash between."

PHARMACY TOPICS
by Eddy Hoenig
Hospital Discount WEST

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration has approved Xeljanz (tofacitinib) to treat adults with moderately to severely active rheumatoid arthritis (RA) who have had an inadequate response to, or who are intolerant of, methotrexate. RA is an autoimmune disease, in which the body's immune system mistakenly attacks healthy tissue leading to inflammation of the joints and surrounding tissues. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, RA affects an estimated 1.5 million Americans.

About a quarter of people who experience the dangerous blood clots in the legs or lungs known as venous thromboembolisms (VTEs) develop them for no discernable reason, and most will receive a powerful anti-clotting drug such as warfarin in the months after the clot forms. But what about longer-term care, to ward off a recurrent clot, or events such as heart attack or stroke? A new study published in the New England Journal of Medicine suggests that patients who go on low-dose daily aspirin after they are weaned off more powerful anticoagulants can derive real benefit including a significant lowering of overall cardiovascular risk for such complications as heart attack, stroke, major bleeding or death from any cause.

Children who take drugs to treat attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) are not at increased risk for serious heart problems, according to a new review published recently in the British Medical Journal.
