Bring World Class Zoo Experience to Berrien County

Sometimes we hear stories about people who have left their humble upbringing in a small town to pursue their dreams. This is not that story. This is the story of a girl who came back to her hometown to realize her dream of building an immersive zoo experience where animals and wildlife are not only within reach, but where you can interact with tigers, flamingos, armadillos and rare snakes. This dream is called Zoovolution, and the dreamer is 33-year-old Kayla Kolberg from Baroda.

"I wanted something our community could create together. Zoovolution is for anyone who has ever wanted to see a tiger up close and personal and has never gotten to do that. I've been up close with lions, tigers, rhinos and giraffes. I cry every time I see them and touch them. I am in awe that we get to be near these amazing animals, and I want everyone to have that experience. That feeling of awe," says Kayla.

When Kayla was 10-years-old she thought how great it would be to build an "epic" facility where people could have a hands-on, immersive experience with animals. She knew it meant the way a zoo was viewed would have to evolve. She thought out a plan to change the rules, to think bigger and better. Since then, she has worked tirelessly to achieve it.

At Zoovolution visitors are close to guaranteed to have a personal experience with the animals. For example, walking with an animal trainer down the path with a herd of flamin-

Fun & Interesting Things to Do in Michigan's Great Southwest!

Fall is my favorite time of year. The air turns crisp. Final harvest is upon us. And we are about to witness some of the most beautiful color in the world. There is no shortage of things to do in Michigan's Great Southwest this time of year!

Every weekend in October you can enjoy free gallery exhibits of jewelry, photography, watercolor, ceramics and typography at the Box Factory for the Arts. The Robert Williams Gallery welcomes the members of the St. Joe Valley Watercolor Society. The fine art typography of Bryce Culverhouse and the ceramics of Cameron Covert are on exhibit in the Heartha Whitlow Gallery. The Riverwalk Gallery will feature "Quarantine Critters," photographs of squirrels and chipmunks taken in mini sets created by Susan Sheldon of Coloma during the COVID shutdowns of 2020.

Working through her grief in 2019, April Seybold of Portage, MI also found a way to create new jewelry that speaks to the range of feelings she experienced during her cancer diagnosis while pregnant. Her work will be on exhibit near the Williams Gallery.

We have the perfect place for you to start your holiday shopping - at the Chapel Hill Arts & Crafts Show, October 2. This is their 40th year of quality arts and crafts designed by local crafters. There is something for everyone on your list and while you are there be sure to treat yourself!

There's another shopping opportunity during the last Antiques on the Bluff, October 3. Something old is new to you! Find hidden treasures along Lake Bluff Park at this premier antique show that overlooks Lake Michigan. This event features over 50 vendors and happens whether it rains or shines.

Our next three events are happening at The Mendel Center at Lake Michigan College. The first is National Geographic Live - Brian Skerry: Ocean Soul, October 6. National Geographic photographer Brian Skerry has spent more than 10,000 hours underwater, often in extreme conditions beneath Arctic ice and in predator-infested waters. Journey with him from the North Atlantic, where harp seals face the threat of declining sea ice, to the temperate waters of New Zealand, home of the fastest shark in the world—the mako. The stunning images he captures while on assignment offer a mesmerizing glimpse of the “soul of the sea.” During his presentation, “Ocean Soul,” you will voyage across the ocean and discover a vast, hidden world beneath the waves.

Our second performance is The Accidentals with Sawyer Fredericks, October 13. The Accidentals and Sawyer Fredericks are both set to release killer new albums. The Accidentals release their long-awaited Vessel album. This power trio from Northern Michigan can't wait to share the new music, an exciting new stage show, and a powerful narrative on perspective. “The Vessel album is one of the most compelling collections of indie rock and punk folk we've heard from this band yet!” Joining them for a spectacular night of music is Sawyer Fredericks touring his new album Flowers for You. Voted top ten on No Depression, “Flowers for You is a mix of great energy and exceptional guitar work.” The Accidentals joined Sawyer on strings on the album and are excited to tour the releases together.

There's a full calendar at The Mendel Center! The last performance we will talk about today is The Motown All-Star Spectacular, October 14. The music and the magic of Motown return to The Mendel Center featuring the voices and the musicians who started it all, and those who've kept it center stage for the last 60 years! Starring the Motortown All-Stars singing all your Motor City favorites like “My Girl,” “Ain't Too Proud to Beg,” “Do You Love Me,” “The Tears of a Clown,” and more! Plus Rock & Roll Hall of Famers The Original Vandellas (“Heatwave,” “Dancin' in the Streets,” “Jimmy Mack,” “Nowhere to Run”), The Marvelettes (“Beechwood 4-5789,” “Please Mr. Postman,” “Too Many Fish in the Sea”), and The Shades of Blue (“Oh How Happy”).

At Renewed Homes, our clients are always top priority. If you're facing a financial struggle due to a troublesome home or rental property, I'm here to find the best solution, whether that's selling your home or giving you additional options to help get you back on your feet. My goal is to do what's best for my clients and community, which is why we offer options beyond cash sales. Here are some other creative solutions we offer our clients:

Move On From a Troublesome Mortgage
 If you're having trouble keeping up on the mortgage, we can help. House payments can pile up quickly. When they do, your credit starts to plummet. While a cash offer might not be right for you, we can help build your credit back up. We take over the mortgage, but keep it in your name so you see all the benefits of improved credit. We also offer flexible terms beyond just mortgage help, including a cash offer to help you find a new home, and the extra time needed to get back on your feet.

At Renewed Homes, we believe that every homeowner should have the opportunity to move on from a troublesome home, no matter the circumstances. We work to find the best solution for every client.

Your Full-Service Real Estate Solution

Stay In Your Home and Pay Off Debt
 Cash offers and sales that make it easy to move on aren't for everyone. If you're in debt, but still want to stay in your home, we can help. We'll cover liens and other debt you might have, giving you the time needed to get back on your feet.

Get Your Home Market-Ready
 If you'd like to sell your home but don't think you'll get the most from a cash sale, we're happy to help get your home market-ready. We pay all renovation costs and provide the necessary resources to list your home quickly for maximum value. As a seller, you essentially become a partner to flip your own home while YOU reap all the benefits of the increased sale.

Our experienced crews have renovated over 100 houses. We have the knowledge needed to help you get the most value from your home. We also work with Realtors with existing listings that struggle. Have your Realtor call me for more info if you're interested in renovating your house and re-listing for top dollar.

Developing Creative Solutions for You
 Once I have a clear understanding of your needs, I'll have a pretty good idea of what your best options are. If a quick sale is right for you, I'll make a fair offer for the size and location of your home—always in cash. When you work with Renewed Homes, worry not about repairs, paying commissions or fees and don't forget, I pay all closing costs. Simply give me a call or email me below and I'll be happy to discuss in further detail, how I may be able to help.

Your Chamber Update

As we officially say "see ya next year" to summer and welcome in all things fall, including pumpkin and apple flavored everything, your Chamber staff is gearing up for another round of ribbon cutting celebrations that the month of October brings. While I'm a lover of all things summer, I'm also a big fan of getting to celebrate at least four more businesses leading up to Halloween.

The celebrations kick off on Friday, October 1st at 10:00 a.m. with Oak Title Service, located inside the Fort Miami Professional Building. While they are hardly new to the title business, this is their first location in Berrien County and have already proven to be a valued one. The staff at Oak Title strives to follow their mission that is built around the three core principals of "to lead, to engage, to protect." The first being a leader in providing real estate services in a professional and friendly manner; the second keeping the human element at the center of their services and community involvement; and finally, providing peace of mind with their products, best practices, and technology.

The new St. Joseph office joins their other locations in Sturgis, Three Rivers, as well as two additional offices with sister company Van Buren County Title in South Haven and Paw Paw. In addition to title services, their team can also provide a wide variety of settlement services on both residential and commercial properties. For more information visit oaktitle.com or call 269-210-2322.

Our second stop takes us to downtown Benton Harbor for NOBO Michigan's Provisioning Center on Thursday, October 7th at 4:00 p.m. This is the fourth location for NOBO in Michigan, with the other three located in Battle Creek, Edwardsburg, and Muskegon. As a vertically integrated cannabis company, NOBO is dedicated to bringing the highest quality products available to the market. They oversee the entire process from growing, to processing, to distributing to ensure their high standards of quality are being met. Additionally, they've cultivated a positive employee culture that includes an unparalleled benefits package, top of the line work experience, on-site training opportunities, and internal promotions. You can find additional details at their website:

nobogoods.com/michigan/benton-harbor

Thursday, October 14th at 5:00 p.m. we join Lazy Ballerina Winery in celebrating their newly remodeled Speakeasy Room at their Bridgman Tasting Room. This room will double as an event space for collaborations with other local artists, such as October 7th's Metal Stamped Necklace Workshop with Eclectic Pearl Crafting, LLC. The space will also be available for the community to rent for private parties. You can learn more by visiting their Facebook pages or visiting their website lazyballerinawinery.com

We wrap up the month with the Junior Achievement and the opening of their JA Finance Park ribbon cutting at the Berrien County Youth Fair on Thursday, October 28th at 5:00 p.m., this will also double as our October Business After Hours.

JA Finance Park is Junior Achievement's capstone program for personal financial planning and career exploration. This program, comprising a curriculum and a simulation, helps students build a foundation on which they can make intelligent financial decisions that last a lifetime, including decisions related to income, expenses, savings, and credit.

This educator-lead classroom curriculum for 7th- 12th graders culminate with a visit to JA Finance Park, a realistic on-site or mobile facility, or virtually in the classroom, where students engage with volunteers and put into practice what they've learned by developing a personal budget.

Junior Achievement serving Berrien and Cass counties would like to thank presenting sponsors the United Way of Southwest Michigan, The Frederick S. Upton Foundation, and the Whirlpool Foundation for their generous support in the establishment of this program for our area. For more information:

goes, holding rare boa constrictors, or being with a tiger keeper in the animal's enclosure to learn how to train a tiger.

To achieve the knowledge and experience she needed, Kayla went to school at Oregon State to get bachelor's degree in natural resources with a specialized option in Endangered Species Biology. Then she went and worked at zoos all over the world to work with domestic and exotic animals, so she could learn everything she could about them and their habits.

"A lot of people think elephants can't tolerate the cold but they love the snow. They get snowfall in areas where they originate and lot of my friends who are zookeepers let their zoo's elephants out for a few hours, you should see how much they love to play in the snow. They have thick skin and hair that protects them and even when they can't go out in the snow, zookeepers bring some snow in and the elephants play with the snow and throw it up in the air with their trunks," she laughs.

Kayla is currently working with a VIP team to create a 10-year-plan for an immersive facility here in Berrien County that includes 150 to 200 individual animals, from the smallest insects to giant elephants, housed locally in a mixture of large bioactive indoor, and natural outdoor habitats. Visitors will be able to move through the habitats even in the winter by going outside and seeing animals and then coming into warm, climate-controlled sound stage size habitats, to interact with the animals.

The project is currently in the process of securing property, finding investors, enlisting corporate sponsors and letting the community come be a part of the Zoovolution.

"This might be the wildest business conceived in Berrien County; literally," says Kayla. "It's a full-on immersive education in animals from around the world that is above and beyond a petting zoo. Zoovolution will teach people what it is like to interact with animals, what it means to be a zookeeper, and

Local Brewer Wins Big

If you would like to taste the new national championship lager in America all you need to do is pay a visit to Silver Harbor Brewing Company in St. Joseph and order the Tourist Trap, a beer that has taken the national award for best lager at the 2021 US Open Beer Championship. Although they have placed in this competition before for their barley wines and Imperial Stout, winning the national award for a lager was a great feeling for owners Mike Gross, CJ Pawlowski and Christian Cook, who also serves at the head brewer.

“There are three big beer competitions in the United States and this is one of them. This year there were roughly 9000 beers entered and they have judges from the brewing industry that range from, Cicerones, which is someone with formal training on tasting beers, to brewery owners and people in the beer industry,” explains Christian. “To have won this category in a blind taste test, with so many great beers entered, was quite an honor.”

Tourist Trap Lager is a 5.1% beer that uses Michigan Magnum and Michigan Cascade hops. It is described as clean and crisp with a bit of malt sweetness and floral bitterness from the hops, but fully carbonated to keep it bright and refreshing.

“When we first opened people were asking us to brew a lager, but I wasn’t focusing on that, or even thinking about brewing a lager. I just wasn’t interested in it. Now that I am getting older and have kids, that is the style of beer I want to drink so brewing a lager became something I wanted to try,” says Christian. “But I knew that if we were going to do one, it had to be premium.”

Tourist Trap Lager has been on tap at Silver Harbor for three year now and just this year they have started distributing it regionally. Currently Silver Harbor has eight of their beers in distribution.

Open since 2016 the owners chose St. Joseph as their base of operations after looking in Kalamazoo and other cities in Southwest Michigan.

“We looked everywhere and after realizing there wasn’t a St. Joseph based microbrewery, and finding the perfect piece of real estate, it seemed to fall right into place. The city seemed prime for one,” says Christian. “We all agreed this would be a good home base.”

Since then Silver Harbor Brewing Company has expanded the property to include a beer garden and is currently building a large-group event venue adjacent to the building for weddings, graduation parties, reunions, or any event that needs a space for up to 250 people.

“We want to create an experience where everyone can enjoy Silver Harbor and feel welcome, this space was the next evolution,” explains Christian. “We do a bit of everything at Silver Harbor. Our food menu tries to hit all different levels from burgers, and gourmet items, to vegetarian options. If you are not a beer drinker we have wine, cider, spirits, non-alcoholic options, and are working on creating a hard seltzer,” says Christian. “But we also cater to families. Which may not appeal to some people but this is a family town and we want to be a place everyone can come and enjoy spending time together.”

Silver Harbor Brewing Company is located at 721 Pleasant Street in St Joseph, MI. To see their beer and food menu, and their hours of operation visit www.silverharborbrewing.com or call (269) 281-7100.

When it comes to Veterans Benefits, many veterans and dependents don’t know what they don’t know. Nationwide, less than 10% of those eligible apply. Let us help to educate and navigate you thru the maze of what is available from discharge to death. Here are some of the many benefits:

- ★ Disability Compensation benefits for prior conditions, diseases or injuries that occurred in service or many years later as a result of service (e.g. Agent Orange Exposure, Camp Lejeune Contaminated Water, Post Traumatic Stress Disorder – combat or personal trauma) to name a few.
- ★ PTSD Counselors from the South Bend Vet Center who come to Berrien County twice a week.
- ★ Non-Service Connected Veterans Pension and Survivors Pension benefits (House Bound as well as Aid and Attendance) for low income veterans over age 65 or prior to age 65 that are disabled and have at least one day of wartime service (additional means tested restrictions apply).
- ★ Free transportation at designated stops for veterans enrolled in the VA Health Benefits Program to the VA Medical Center in Battle Creek and the VA Health Care Center in Mishawaka.
- ★ Financial assistance thru the Michigan Veterans Trust Fund for wartime veterans or peacetime veterans who earned an expeditionary medal (additional means tested restrictions apply).
- ★ Free financial coaching from an Accredited Financial Counselor and Financial Fitness Coach Counselor as well as ongoing Dave Ramsey’s Financial Peace University Military Edition classes.

To Forgive

Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.

Ephesians 4:32

According to an article from the Mayo Clinic, you can gain health benefits for yourself when you forgive someone else. The article lists eight specific health benefits that can come your way when you let go of a grudge. These benefits include the following: healthier relationships; less anxiety; lower blood pressure; a stronger immune system; improved heart health; and improved self-esteem.

Without a doubt, such an article is a vivid reminder of what can happen when, for whatever reason, you and I choose to allow sinful resentment and bitterness to fester within us. As Solomon rightly warns, "Anger lodges in the heart of fools" (Ecclesiastes 7:9 ESV).

And so, as we consider all we have to gain by letting old grudges go, are these good reasons for us to forgive others? Yes, they are. And no, they are not.

Sure, we could grant forgiveness to others, reap the health benefits, and then congratulate ourselves for having upgraded the quality of our lives. But in doing so, you and I would miss the profound beauty of what forgiveness truly is.

Enter Jesus. God the Son entered our broken, hate-filled world. On our behalf, he lived a life of perfect patience, perfect kindness, perfect compassion. Then, to purchase full forgiveness for our every grudge, our every resentful thought, Jesus went to the cross to suffer and die for the entirety of our sinful, self-righteous arrogance.

But here's the point. Jesus endured all this not to lower his blood pressure, not to boost his immune system, not to improve his self-esteem. He did it out of a selfless, other-centered, sacrificial kind of love that you and I will never fully grasp. Jesus did this out of love for you and me. He did it because we needed him to.

That's the kind of love we possess in Jesus Christ. And it is that love that empowers you and me to forgive others.

Prayer: Lord Jesus, move me to forgive others as you have forgiven me. Amen.

Name: Brennan Bornas
School: Watervliet High School

This week's Mid-West Family Player of the Week is Brennan Bornas of Watervliet High School Boys Soccer. In last week's game against Delton Kellogg, Brennan scored 4 goals in the Panthers' 6-2 win. He followed that performance up a day later with 3 more goals in the Panthers 6-0 win over Paw Paw.

Brennan was named one the Panther's Captains for the 2021 season.

Brennan is also a member of the Watervliet Men's Basketball team, playing point guard.

After job shadowing this past summer, Brennan hopes to start the process of becoming a lawyer upon graduating this year.

The WSJM Student Athlete of the Week is chosen based on merits both on and off the field of play and is brought to you each week by the generosity of these sponsors:

AUREUM

FROM HALCYON SHOWS

An aerial and acrobatic adventure tale

Saturday, October 16, 8 pm

Aureum is an adventure tale told through heart-stopping aerial routines and amazing acrobatics. Thrill to the incredible original soundtrack, choreography, and some never-seen-before aerial performances. Halcyon Shows creates a new genre known as theatrical acrobatics, which seamlessly integrates compelling storytelling and characters with world-class acrobatics and aerial artistry.

Dave Ramsey

Dave Says

The zero-based budget

Dear Dave,

I have a good job and make pretty good money, but I'm tired of always worrying about my finances and being strapped for cash at the end of the month. I've heard you talk about getting out of debt and living on a zero-based budget, but what exactly is a zero-based budget?

Edward

Dear Edward,

The concept of a zero-based budget is simple: income minus outgo equals zero. If you bring home $4,000 a month, you want everything you spend, save, give and invest to equal $4,000. That way, you know where every one of your dollars is going. Not knowing where the money's going is what kills lots of people's financial dreams. They think they know how much they're spending and where it's going, but they really don't.

Here's how you do it. List all your income sources for the month. Your income should include paychecks, small-business income, side jobs, residual income, child support and so on. If it's money that comes into your household's bank account, write it down and add it up.

Next, list every single expense you have each month. Rent, food, cable, phones and everything in between. Your expenses vary from one month to the next, and this is why you make a new budget each month. Your giving budget might be high in December when Christmas rolls around. The car budget will spike during months when you pay insurance or renew your tags. Focus on one month at a time.

Now, subtract your expenses from your income. Ideally, this number will be zero. It might take a few months of practice, so don't worry if it doesn't balance out immediately. If it doesn't, it just means you need to do something to bring one of the numbers up, the other one down—or both. If you're spending more than you make, you need to make some cuts in your spending. If you need to generate more money, get a part-time job or sell a bunch of stuff.

The deal with a zero-based budget is this: every dollar must have a name. That means every dollar has a designated job to do. If you fill out every item in your budget and come out $100 ahead—meaning you have nothing for that $100 to do—you haven't finished your budget. You have to find a job for that $100. It's your decision what it does, but if you don't give it a name and purpose, you'll end up blowing it and wondering where it went.

Good luck, Edward!

Nuggets about Grandkids, JFK, and Nuggets!

Last week I wrote about National Grandparents Month, which I got off to a WONDERFUL start by visiting my adorable, inimitable, and fabulous No. 1 Grandson (3-1/2 years old) and No. 1 Granddaughter (almost 2).

They just relocated from California to Cape Cod, Massachusetts. (Hmmmmm, is "Massachusetts" necessary? Is there another Cape Cod? An exhaustive search of Google, lasting at least 17 seconds, suggests there is one and only one Cape Cod. Which is so named because, in 1602, an English explorer named Bartholomew Gosnold sailed there and reported catching "a great store of codfish." This has nothing to do with today's column other than giving me an excuse to use, for the first time in any column I've ever written, the ineffably British name "Bartholomew Gosnold.")

We had a delightful time with the grandkids, and together we put up with our common enemy, their dad/my No. 2 son. When we ran out of patience with him, we hid out in one of the two "forts" I built each morning in the family room. For building material, I used sofa cushions, blankets, and the pieces and parts of two Nuggets – four-piece, "infinitely configurable" (says the company) foam couches.

(As you may know, Nuggets became hyper-coveted during Covid times. But I should note that its success was loooooong predated by my own experiences with a fold-out foam futon that served as hideout, bounce house, bed, wrassling mat, etc. for me and all my sons. It was dark blue, and we called it "The Ocean," because you know, when the floor was lava, the only safe place was in the cool waters of the "Ocean"!)

Anyway, we couldn't spend every waking minute with the grands, so one rainy day the wife dragged me from a cozy fort to do some touristy stuff, including a visit to the John F. Kennedy Hyannis Museum, in Hyannis, Massachusetts.

The main exhibit at the Kennedy museum was "Creating Camelot: The Kennedy Photography of Jacques Lowe." Lowe was the "personal photographer" of JFK and his family. The exhibit featured scores of photos of the Kennedys at work and play – behind-the-scenes pix featuring intimate, candid moments, which only needed to be snapped 40 or 50 times in order to capture suitable intimacy and candidness.

Among the photos were:

- From JFK's inaugural ball, a stage full of entertainment stars – Joey Bishop, Nat King Cole, Harry Belafonte, Ethel Merman, Frank Sinatra, Helen Traubel, Ella Fitzgerald, Gene Kelly, Janet Leigh and Tony Curtis.

Now I know what you're thinking: "Mmmmm, Janet Leigh covered in chocolate syrup in the shower scene from 'Psycho.'" But what you should be thinking is, "Mmmmm, who the Hel-en is Helen Traubel?"

Well, shame on us, or on me at least, for not knowing that she was a very prominent opera singer – a soprano with a voice nicknamed "the gleaming sword." And – fun fact – she was once part-owner of the reliably disappointing St. Louis Browns baseball team. ("St. Louis" IS necessary to distinguish that team from Cleveland's reliably disappointing football Browns.)

Hmmmmm, I want to prattle about more than this one nugget from the exhibit, so brace yourself for a continuation of this column next week! If that disappoints you, leave Farrell or Head a voicemail. But only if your voice is a gleaming sword!
