MY NURSE
My nurse is as gentle as a dove. She must be sent from heaven above. When in need she will arrive swiftly, her orders are spoken clearly. For her job she must be bold, but her heart is good as gold. Her job is very unique, she could do it in her sleep. I hope and dearly pray, that we will meet again someday. When Jesus splits that eastern sky, we will meet in the sweet by & by. Author Unknown.

Scientists and healthcare personnel the world over fear that the malaria parasite will develop resistance to the current frontline treatment against malaria. Artemisinin-based Combination Therapies (ACT's). Therefore, it is especially good news that in several African countries, malaria parasites are succumbing to the formerly used drug chloroquine. The results have just been published in the American Journal of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene. Chloroquine costs only 25 US cents for a four-day cure, while the current and corresponding ACTs cost two dollars. Chloroquine was a fantastic malaria drug that lasted for 50 years.

A new study published in the Journal of Nutritional Biochemistry has outlined for the first time a biological mechanism by which zinc deficiency can develop with age, leading to a decline of the immune system and increased inflammation associated with many health problems, including cancer, heart disease, autoimmune disease and diabetes. About 40 percent of elderly Americans and as many as two billion people around the world have diets that are deficient this important but often underappreciated micronutrient.

Oral anticholinergic medications for treating a type of incontinence in women is roughly as effective as Botox injections to the bladder, researchers report in the New England Journal of Medicine, with each form of treatment having benefits and limitations. Women are twice as likely as men to experience urinary incontinence, and older women are more likely to experience it than younger women. An estimated 15.7 percent of U.S. women experience urinary incontinence. Pregnancy and childbirth, menopause, and the structure of the female urinary tract account for the difference.

The Family of

R.J. McMurray

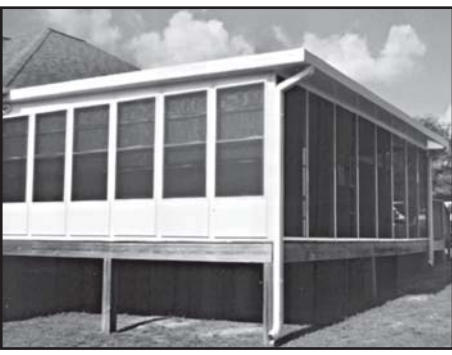

May 20, 1931 - January 26, 2015

The Family of R.J. McMurray would like to say thanks to everyone who said a prayer, visited dad while he was at home and in the hospital, provided food, money, flowers and their time. Thanks to Brother Tony Wood and Brother Buddy Strickland for the wonderful ceremony. Thanks to Chae Knight and Brother Tony Wood for singing. Thanks to Doctors Jeremy Stidham, Becky Harris, Scott Warner, and the Cullman Oncology. I don't think dad could have had any better Doctors. Would also like to say thanks to the nursing staff on the fourth floor at CRMC for you are an awesome group of people. The list could go on and on but thanks to all for everything for it meant so much to us. If dad was here now he would say "you did a great job", "I'm proud of you." But he would also say "I'll be alright", "I'm fine". For he is alright and fine because he is with his savior Jesus Christ. God Bless you all.

Snow Days at Morningside Assisted Living

"A SPECIAL THANK YOU TO OUR STAFF MEMBERS"!

The snow for February 25th thru 26th 2015 was a beautiful sight. For some it was a fun time with family but for others it was work. For Morningside of Cullman we had eight staff members to stay around the clock pulling their shifts plus doing what was needed to care for the Residents. Eight Staff members that stayed from Wednesday thru Friday, Dee Dee Cleghorn, LPN-Executive Director, with Resident Assistants Shirley Rhodes, Cassie Trammell, Mary West, Diane Carter, Debra Veal, and Bonnetta Baughman, Naomi Dauksza two of our Morningside cooks. Four staff members that worked part of the time and came in by Thursday afternoon, Sarai Goodwin, Lila Hunter, Allie Witcher, RA's and Brenda Runge, LPN.

Thank you, we appreciate all you do to help out during these times. ~Residents and Staff at Morningside of Cullman

Some church preachers say they were called, but are taught by theological fathers what to preach. They will quote their Lord arose on the 1st day of the week (Mt 28:1, Mk16:2, Lk 24:1, Jn 20:1), for their Lord's day (Acts 20:7). But, do not show love or respect to the Name above all names (Phil 2: 9-11) or to His Words (Acts 3:23), keep the night He ate His last supper (Mt 26:18), the feast of the Passover, or of unleavened bread, the Pentecost, the memorial of blowing of trumpets, the day of atonement, or the feast of tabernacles (Lev 23:1-44). They quote the 10 commands (Ex 20:1-17), and twist them as they were taught (shows lack of knowledge of Mt 4:4, James 2:10-11). Their 1st day of the week is always on a Sunday, the 1582 Gregorian calendar is different by 10 days than the 46 B.C. Julian Calendar (when Christ was on earth). Sunday worship origin is from the Teutonic people who worshiped Baal, the sun was their lord, and lord's day was the day which they worshiped the sun (see Amos 5:18). Daniel was shown the beast was to think he could change times and laws (7:25), reveals who rules many churches that teach they are not under the law (Holy Word). Some say to pray in the name of another instead of The Holy Christ (Lk 11: 27-28, Jn 3:16,10:1,14:6). HELLO!!

WEEKLY ADVERTISED SPECIALS:
Special lower prices on selected items advertised weekly, to every local area household (direct mail delivery), in The Community Shopper's Guide.

BLUE TAG SPECIALS:
We have HUNDREDS of non-advertised items marked down throughout our entire store. More savings passed on to our customers. Just look for blue tags on the shelves.

NO LIMITS:
Our competitors also have advertised specials. The difference is in most cases, they have a limit on how many of an item you can buy at the sale price...we don't have any limits to family shoppers.
