BASS, WILLIAM DAVIS - 81, Manchester, TN. October 7, 2021. Graveside service, 3 p.m., Monday, October 11, 2021 in Rose Hill Memorial Gardens. CENTRAL FUNERAL HOME, Manchester, TN. (931)723-7774.

BIBLE, PATRICIA - 68, Lynchburg, TN. Funeral service, 2:30 p.m., Sunday, October 10, 2021 at Lynchburg Funeral Home, 1630 Fayetteville Highway, Lynchburg, TN 37352. Everyone is encouraged to attend and all will be welcome together in remembrance of Patti's wonderful life. Burial to follow in Beech Hill Cemetery with a catered dinner for any and all that can stay. Mrs. Bible passed away Thursday, September 23, 2021. So often people have the tendency to look at the elderly and forget that they too were once children, but Patti Vonachen-Bible never lost the spirit and love of a child. She had an unshakeable faith in her heavenly Father, that kept in her the beautiful spirit of a child, all her days. Patti was born March 20, 1953 in Peoria, Illinois to Rudolph and Eileen Vonachen. Patti was one of 5 children, and when Patti had just turned six years old, her father passed away suddenly. That loss shaped her younger years, and after she graduated high school she began a journey searching for something more. After two years at Illinois State University, she moved to Tempe, Arizona and pursued a degree in outdoor recreation at ASU. She spent her time backpacking, camping, white water rafting, kayaking and enjoying the beauties of nature, and the road steadied her spirit and offered periods of reflection. Quietly, God was calming the storm in her heart and instilling passions that lasted throughout her life. In 1975, she made her way to Montana, where she found what she had been searching for all along...God. The void she carried with her for so long was filled by the love and spirit of Christ. She would often say that the best day of her life was the day she was baptized, because in that moment she felt her past washed away forever. In 1979, she offered her life in the ministry of the gospel, as her love for souls continued to grow. She loved to share with others the love that God had shown to her. Due to health reasons, she eventually left the ministry. Ever the adventurer and always wanting to help others, she explored the lush mountains of Oregon for a time before settling in Tri-cities, WA, where she received a degree in nursing. During this time, she exchanged letters with a friend back east she had met years before in a Gospel meeting, Keith Bible. Through a mutual love of Christ, they fell in love and were wed in Illinois. They moved to Massachusetts, where their daughter, Sarah was born. A couple of years later, they moved to Cedarburg, Wisconsin, where their son, Nathan was born. In them, she discovered the joys of being a mother, which she cherished deeply. Their home welcomed friends, ministers, family members and often those who had nowhere else to go. After a lifetime of healing and helping cardiac patients, Patti retired from nursing. She and her husband bought a piece of land just outside of Lynchburg, TN on beautiful Tims Ford Lake. Patti spent her last days there kayaking with her dog, spending time with her children and visiting her mother in the nearby nursing home. What Patti loved most about the area were her friends in Christ and listening to the gospel story that continued to be an inspiration to her life. She is survived by her husband, Keith; daughter, Sarah and husband, Logan Foster; son, Nathan; and a multitude of family and friends. Visitation, 12:30-2:30 p.m., Sunday, October 10, 2021 at LYNCHBURG FUNERAL HOME, Lynchburg, TN. (931)759-4444.

Award, the Southeastern Award, and multiple Court of Honors. He went on to obtain a photographic craftsman certification, as well as becoming a certified Tennessee photographer. He served on the council of the National Photography Association for 13 years and was a member of the Tennessee Professional Photographers' Association for 69 years where he was named president in 1976. Leroy was very active in the community during his lifetime. He later opened two successful photography studios where he served many families and students over the years. He was a member of Highland Lodge 214 for 62 years, as well as Worshipful Master in 1969. He was also part of the Scottish Rite, where he obtained the 32nd degree, as well as a lifetime member of the AL Menah Temple. In addition to the above, Leroy was a member of the Flying Fezz and the Motor Corps. After retirement from the base and photography, he became employed with the Coffee County Board of Education as a bus driver for 12 years. Leroy was a devout Christian and a member of East Main Church of Christ. He enjoyed riding motorcycles, flying his planes as an instrument rated-multi engine pilot, living life on the farm, spending as much time as possible with family and friends and watching the VOLS play football. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his sister, Zada Ruth Munsey Sellers. Survivors include his loving wife, Shelia; daughters, Vickie Munsey (Joe), Leanne Munsey Clayton, and Tracy Munsey McDonald; grandchildren, Amanda Scattergood, Kyle Clayton, Sean Mason (Ashley), Sawyer Manson, Briana McDonald, and Ashlyn McDonald; great grandchildren, Kaleb, Amelia, Alyssa and Korbin Scattergood, Kaylee Mason, Kelby Barnes, and Oliver Barnes; special family, Steven, Penny, Adam (Kayla), Heidi (Joseph) Barnes; many sisters and brothers-in-law; and an abundance of nieces and nephews. Exchange931.com

Exchange is a free circulation publication mailed through the USPS to residents in Lincoln, Coffee, Franklin, Marshall, Bedford and Moore Counties in Tennessee.

Those residing outside Exchange free delivery service area may receive Exchange by subscription at a cost of $25.00 per year. This covers the cost of postage and handling.

Mats, cuts, negatives, art work or other copy submitted for publication is considered to be the property of the advertiser. Advertising is accepted with the understanding that all liability for copyright violation is the sole responsibility of the advertiser.

Exchange will make every effort to see that advertising copy is correctly printed, but shall not be liable for failure to publish an ad or for typographical errors.

The advertiser assumes full liability for his/her advertisements and agrees to hold Exchange unaccountable for the content of all advertisements authorized for publication and any claims that may be made against the Exchange.

Exchange will gladly reprint, without charge, that part of an advertisement in which an error occurs, provided a claim is made within three (3) days of the first publication of the ad. Exchange will not knowingly accept any advertisement that is defamatory, promotes academic dishonesty, violates any federal, state or local laws or encourages discrimination against any individual or group on the basis of race, sex, sexual orientation, color, creed, religion, national origin or disability.

Exchange reserves the right to reject ads considered distasteful or defamatory.

All real estate advertised herein is subject to the Federal Fair Housing Act, which makes it illegal to advertise "any preference, limitation, or discrimination because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin, or intention to make any such preference, limitation, or discrimination.

Exchange will not knowingly accept any advertising for real estate which is in violation of the law. All persons are hereby informed that all dwellings advertised are available on an equal opportunity basis.

Exchange contains word ads from regional and national Free Paper associations. Therefore, any discrepancies with national word ads shall not be the responsibility of Exchange.

AVOIDING CASHIER'S CHECK and MONEY ORDER FRAUD. Be extremely cautious about accepting a cashier's check or money order for payment. Never accept a check or money order that is more than your selling price. Don't accept cashier's checks, money orders or any checks for that matter, for payment from buyers you do not know. If you are willing to take a cashier's check or money order in payment, insist on one drawn from a local bank or a bank that has a local branch and have it checked by someone at a bank before depositing/cashing.
