The combination of a cholesterol-lowering drug, Bezafibrate, and a contraceptive steroid, Medroxyprogesterone Acetate, could be an effective, non-toxic treatment for a range of cancers, researchers at the University of Birmingham have found. The findings published in the journal Cancer Research show that the drugs kill cancer cells in a completely new way.

According to a new study published in PLOS Medicine diabetes patients taking glitazone antidiabetes drugs (either rosiglitazone or pioglitazone) had a 28% lower incidence of Parkinson's disease that people taking other treatments for diabetes who had never taken glitazones.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration has approved Viberczi (lisdexamfetamine) and Xifaxan (rifaximin), two new treatments, manufactured by two different companies, for irritable bowel syndrome with diarrhea (IBS-D) in adult men and women. According to the National Institutes of Health, patients with irritable bowel syndrome (IBS) experienced a number of signs and symptoms, including pain or discomfort in the abdomen and changes in bowel movement patterns. Studies estimate that IBS affects 10 to 15 percent of adults in the United States. IBS-D is a subtype characterized mainly by loose or watery stools at least 25 percent of the time.

Many so called Christian churches (worldwide) are divided by doctrines, but claim to believe in The Holy Christ. In 2010 it was estimated 2.2 billion people claim to be Christians, say they believe in Christ, yet most will not trust [hear] His Words. Most of the 250 churches in Cullman Co. AL, will say they believe Christ is Lord the Son of GOD. But most are not His sheep [Jn 10:26-27] for they do not hear (trust) in The Holy Word in Flesh (Jn 1:1-51, Mt 4:4, 5:17-19, 7:21-23, Lk 4:4, 6:46, Jn 5:14, 37:47, 8:11, 14:6, 24, Acts 3:23, Heb 13:8, Rev 22:14-15), and are denying the power (2Tim 3:1-17): Wolves in sheep clothing (Mt 7:15-20, 2Cor 11:13-15) teach in churches to oppose (be against/antichrists) The Holy Christ's Word (MT 24:4-24, Mk 13:5-6, Jn 2:18): Christ said: every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth. And a man's foes shall be his own household (Mt 10:34-36). One such prof of his own 12m 9-12. So Be It!
