ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Mars, your ruling planet, begins a journey that will open up a growing number of possibilities. Put that surging Arian energy to good use and explore it to your heart's content.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) This is the time to prepare for a career move coming up next month. Update your resume. Get those proposals in shape. And don't forget to buff up that Bovine self-confidence.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Your Gemini instincts will guide you to the right people who might be able to help you get over that career impasse that has been holding you back. Expect to make changes.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You're getting closer, but you still have a ways to go before reaching your goals. Continue to stay focused, no matter how difficult it can be for the easily distracted Moon Child.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Your Leonine pride might be keeping you from getting to the source of a disturbing situation. Don't be shy about asking questions. Remember: Information is power.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) It's a good time to shake up your tidy little world by doing something spontaneous, like taking an unplanned trip or going on a mad shopping spree.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) This is a good week to get advice on your plans. But don't act on them until you feel sure that you've been told everything you need to know to support your move.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Be careful. You might be probing just a little too deeply into a situation that you find singularly suspicious. The facts you seek will begin to emerge at a later time.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) This is a good week to make new friends and to look for new career challenges. But first, get all those unfinished tasks wrapped up and out of the way.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Relationships need a fresh infusion of tender, loving care. Avoid potential problems down the line. Stay close to loved ones as the month draws to a close.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Aspects favor relationships, whether platonic, professional or personal. On another note: Be a mite more thrifty. You might need some extra money very soon.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) This is the absolute right time to let those often-hidden talents shine their brightest. You'll impress some very important people with what you can do.

BORN THIS WEEK: You are impelled by a need to find truth, no matter how elusive. You would make a wonderful research scientist or an intrepid detective.

CAMILLA WILLIAMS HISTORICAL HIGHWAY MARKER DEDICATED

State and local officials gathered Monday morning at a ceremony to dedicate a state historical highway marker that highlights the contributions of Camilla Williams, a Danville native and an operatic soprano who in 1946 became the first African American woman to secure a contract with a major U.S. opera company.

The marker, issued by the Virginia Department of Historic Resources, stands at 238 West End Ave.

"It is an absolute honor to celebrate and dedicate the historic marker of our hometown opera diva Camilla Williams on what would be her 102nd birthday," said Karice Luck-Brimmer, who is a member of the Virginia Board of Historic Resources. "We commit ourselves to meaningful engagement with all Virginians, past and present, as we strive to fulfill our charge as stewards of Virginia's long and rich history."

The Fourth Annual Bluegrass by the River festival was a huge success! Proceeds from the event raised $2,000.00 for Danville's Project Lifesaver Program. Funds were also raised for Pam Rice, the widow of Bluegrass legend and Danville native Tony Rice. The event was coordinated by a stellar volunteer group headed up by Beverly Shelton, pictured with Sheriff Mike Mondul.

Airport Open House, Young Eagles Rally

Additional slots are available for parents to preregister their children ages 8 to 17 for free plane rides during the upcoming Airport Open House and Young Eagles Rally at the Danville Regional Airport. The event will be held on Saturday, Oct. 30, from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m.

Pilots from Virginia and North Carolina will complete free plane rides for children who are preregistered. Please visit www.youneaglesday.org to register.

Airport Open House activities include tours of Averett University's Flight Center, the Civil Air Patrol and the airport's Operations Tower. Also, the Danville Science Center will demonstrate various concepts of flight relating to lift, drag, thrust, and rocket and rotary wing design, as guests construct and test a Hand Copter or Soda Straw Rocket. Individuals get to take their creations home to continue the fun and introduce others to the exciting world of aviation and aerospace engineering.

There is no charge to attend the open house and free refreshments will be provided to the public. This event could be impacted by weather.

Please note COVID-19 protocol will be followed for this event including mask and temperature check requirements.

STEEL IN PLACE FOR $25.5M CMA BUILDING PROJECT

Contractor Blair Construction has worked with architect Dewberry and other partners to complete most of the steel structure of the future Center for Manufacturing Advancement (CMA). Pictured, ADD Equipment Inc. workers install metal roof decking while below, CRB Electrical & Mechanical workers install underground electrical conduits. The 51,250-square-foot building, a $25.5 million project undertaken in cooperation with the Commonwealth, will be a new addition to the campus of the Institute for Advanced Learning and Research in Danville, Va. Projected to open in 2022, the Center will feature two floors, offices, meeting spaces, rapid-launch facilities, an ISO-certified inspection lab and process improvement labs. The CMA will allow advanced manufacturing companies to collaborate and enhance processes, improve quality, integrate emerging technology and discover next-generation capabilities. It will specifically target manufacturing companies establishing or expanding their presence in Southern Virginia.

Mini Mason Jar Apple Pies

INGREDIENTS

Makes 6 mini pies

FILLING

- 4 tablespoons unsalted butter
- 2 Honeycrisp apples, peeled and chopped (or other baking apple, such as Granny Smith or McIntosh)
- ½ cup brown sugar
- 3 tablespoons all-purpose flour
- 2 teaspoons cinnamon
- ½ teaspoon ginger
- ½ teaspoon cloves
- 1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract

ASSEMBLY

- 2 packages store-bought pie dough (4 circles total)
- 1 egg
- 1 tablespoon water
- 1½ teaspoons turbinado sugar

1. MAKE THE FILLING: Preheat the oven to 400°F. Have ready six ¼ pint (½ cup) mason jars on a baking sheet.
2. In a large skillet, melt the butter over medium heat. Add the apples and sauté until nearly tender, about 5 minutes. Add the sugar, flour, cinnamon, ginger, cloves and vanilla extract, and sauté for about 2 minutes more. Let the mixture cool to room temperature.
3. ASSEMBLE THE PIES: On a lightly floured surface, roll out the pie dough until it is flat and slightly thinner than it originally was. Cut the dough into six 3-inch circles and six 2-inch circles.
4. Press a 3-inch circle into a mason jar, pressing it firmly to the base and sides and taking care not to poke holes in the dough. Trim any excess from the top edge with a paring knife. Repeat with the remaining 3-inch circles and jars.

5. Scoop the cooled filling into the pastry-lined jars, mounding it about ½ an inch over the top rim. Place the 2-inch rounds over the filling and tuck the edges under so they meet the edge of the jar. Crimp the edges with your fingers or a fork. Chill the pies for 10 minutes.
6. While the pies chill, whisk the egg and water together to combine. Use a pastry brush to brush the egg wash over each pie top, then sprinkle the top of each with ½ teaspoon turbinado sugar. Cut small vents into the top of each pie with a paring knife.
7. Bake until the pies are golden brown, 20 to 25 minutes. Cool for at least 10 minutes before serving.
