Travel Thoughts By Kim
Let's go on an adventure together...to Rhode Island!

Newport, RI is a coastal harbor town with lots of stunning water views and gilded age mansions.

Rhode Island – the smallest of all the United States – is jam-packed with beauty and history. I had been to Rhode Island before, but both times gave me very limited time and experiences. The first time, I spent a few days at a seminar in Providence for work. The second time, I was on a New England States adventure in the motor home with my brother and sister-in-law, but we didn't make any major stops when passing through Rhode Island. So, it was on my list of states I'd like to return to for a closer look, someday. Well – "someday" came the week of October 18th. I was booked to go on a group bus trip to Maine with a friend that week, but the trip was canceled by the tour company. I had the time and money set aside, so I decided to go to Rhode Island, instead.

This was definitely a "fly by the seat of my pants" trip. I hadn't done a lot of research and just had a rough list of possible things to do. Once I got there, the list pretty much stayed in my purse and I just started exploring and one thing lead to another and I did whatever caught my interest each day. I ended up putting 572 miles on my rental car over the time I was there – flew in on Monday, spent three days exploring, and flew home Friday.

I chose to fly into Boston Logan airport, instead of Providence – mainly because I could get a non-stop flight and it saved me a bit of money. It was a bit of a drive, though, from the airport to Newport and arriving after dark resulted in a stressful drive – Providence airport would have been much closer. The other decision was whether to stay in Providence or Newport – my original plan was to stay in Providence, but I wasn't liking the idea of staying in a big city, so I chose Newport – a smaller, quaint little harbor city and was so very happy I did – I absolutely LOVED Newport!!!

I stayed at a lovely Bed & Breakfast Inn called the Artful Lodger. It's in a perfect location, my room was large and comfortable, and breakfast was amazing – definitely a good choice and one I highly recommend! Restaurants I enjoyed were The Lobster Bar and The Mooring in Newport and The Olympia Tea Room in Westerly.

Beavertail Lighthouse in Jamestown, RI is America's third oldest lighthouse, established in 1749.

Some key points of interest: Newport is famous for their gilded age mansions – some of America's wealthiest families of the mid-19th century had what they called "summer cottages" on the coast of Newport. I took a city trolley tour that took us by these homes and ended with the opportunity to tour one of them - WOW. The harbor and wharfs are a big part of the Newport experience. I took a sailing cruise on a schooner that was amazing – I used Classic Cruises of Newport. I saw the church where John and Jackie Kennedy were married, I borderline trespassed to see the mansion used to film outdoor scenes in the 1960's TV series Dark Shadows, shopped on Thames Street – a lovely cobblestone street full of shops and restaurants, and crossed the bridge to Jamestown to visit America's third oldest lighthouse. I also walked a ways on the Cliff Walk – a great way to see the beauty of Newport. It is a 7 mile round trip walk, so I only did part of it, but what I saw was amazing. I enjoyed navigating the narrow one-way streets of Newport, walked around downtown, and, of course, I ate lobster! I also visited Providence and took a drive up Cape Cod.

A major point of interest in Newport is the Cliff Walk – a 7 mile round trip walk along the cliffs on the coast.

Newport and Providence also played a major role in the establishment of religious freedom in America – I visited the first and second American Baptist churches and the first synagogue in America. Be sure to click on the link for my blog post about the churches – I give a brief overview of two men who were pioneers in the movement of religious freedom, founded Rhode Island, and formed the American Baptist denomination. Their stories are fascinating.

For a tiny state, Rhode Island has so much to see and do and enjoy and Newport is wonderful! Check out my blog posts to see all the stories and photos from this amazing trip. I hope you enjoy reading them.

When in New England, you eat LOBSTER! This lobster roll was dinner at the Lobster Bar on Bannister's Wharf in Newport, RI.....sooooo good!!!

Happy Adventuring,

Conned by a Trump Wannabe?

Voters in Virginia prefer paying sales taxes to a graduated income tax. They proved last Tuesday that the more information they have - and truth they are presented - the more clueless they become.

At least when Hillary took the state by a few hundred thousand votes, she didn't whine about the system being rigged and the election being stolen. Maybe Donald doesn't understand that the electoral college was part of the original Constitution to protect us from characters who are good at conning voters. Didn't work as planned in 2016.

BY NATHAN D. PACE
ATTORNEY AT LAW

LAW: ALL IN THE FAMILY

Family law generally concerns civil cases involving issues among or concerning spouses, parents, and children. The most common issues before family courts are dissolution of marriage, paternity, child custody, orders of protection against domestic violence, name changes, guardianships, termination of parental rights, adoptions, juvenile matters, and emancipation of minors. Due to the familial nature and relationships of the parties, it is often difficult to navigate the emotions of the legal process. Therefore, the specialized counsel of a family law expert is necessary to ensure fair and equitable representation in what are usually highly emotional cases. Attorneys are essential to ensuring compliance with rules and procedure of family court and to enforce terms and conditions of the court's rulings once decided.

While some family law matters may be handled without counsel, processes such as divorce and child custody often require the skill and expertise of a skilled attorney. Divorce is an emotionally draining process and trying to get through your divorce on your own, even if it's an amicable, uncontested divorce, is a major mistake that could cost you a lot of money. The Law Office of MACK & PACE will give you the guidance and support you need while you deal with this difficult transition. To schedule a consultation, please call at (585)798-1000.

Hint: In common law, emancipation grants the ability to legally engage in civil actions and frees the former owner of liability.
