Ceremony Of The Wall That Heals

It was a lovely scene at the Opening Ceremonies of The Wall That Heals in Sulphur Springs on November 4, 2021. Due to the setting sun washing a golden glow across the field of high school track, the reflective Wall appeared to be a shimmering green, when actually it is black granite with etchings in gray along its 375 foot length. The Wall That Heals contains the names of Vietnam Veterans who gave the ultimate sacrifice during the years of the war. During the somber start of the opening ceremony, Hopkins County Judge Robert Newsom read the names of all the fallen from this county, with Veterans Service Officer Danny Davis playing a bell tone after each name. Carol Gunn Vernon, the lady whose generous donation covered the cost of hosting the Wall, had a ringside seat, wrapped against the breezes with her daughter at her side. Keynote speaker Chuck Lawrence, a long-time Hopkins County resident, told fascinating tales of his experiences as a Captain and the bravery and comradery of his men in combat situations. Sulphur Springs Mayor John Sellers spoke about Hopkins County's pride in hosting the Wall, and event organizer Mandy Kennedy expressed her appreciation to the community for sharing and supporting her passion for the project. She encouraged everyone to spread the word about The Wall's visit in Sulphur Springs through Sunday November 7, so that everyone has the opportunity to visit the shrine and share in this Welcome Home to America's Vietnam Veterans!

In a bit more about the traveling exhibit, The Wall replica was unveiled on Veterans Day 1996 and was designed to travel to communities throughout the country. Since then, it's been displayed in nearly 700 places. Bringing The Wall home to communities throughout our country allows the souls enshrined on the Memorial to exist once more among family and friends in the peace and comfort of familiar surroundings. The traveling exhibit provides thousands of veterans who have been unable to cope with the prospect of facing The Wall to find the strength and courage to do so within their own communities, thus allowing the healing process to begin," organizers said on the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund website.

A Salute To Our Veterans....

On the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918, an armistice, or temporary cessation of hostilities, was declared between the Allied nations and Germany in the First World War, then known as "the Great War." Commemorated as Armistice Day beginning the following year, November 11th became a legal federal holiday in the United States in 1938. In the aftermath of World War II and the Korean War, Armistice Day became Veterans Day, a holiday dedicated to American veterans of all wars.

FUGLER'S IS A TEXAS LANDMARK

Tumbleweed Smith

Tumbleweed Smith

Fugler's (sounds like buglers) in Marshall is many things to many people. "It's a grocery store, meat market, washateria and café," says Bubba Fugler. "My friends down the road call it the Fugler Mall. My family has a little shop next door where we process deer and wild hogs and everything like that."

Five generations of Fuglers have had the business. "My great granddad had some farmland and lots of people worked it so he opened the store in 1940 for my grandfather to run. It was mainly for the people who worked on the farm. They'd eat out of the store then at the end of the year when the crops came in they'd pay the store back."

The business today is mostly café. The most popular menu item is a Bubba Burger. "A couple of girls from down the road here they were in here wanting to get a hamburger and they looked around and said, 'where's Bubba? We want him to fix our burger.' I was out on the tractor plowing and my brother comes out there and gets me off the tractor so I can come in here to fix the burgers. So that's where the Bubba Burger come in."

Bubba's son is cooking the burgers now. They have three-quarters of a pound of meat in them. They became famous because of a well-known Marshall resident, prizefighter George Foreman. "He was on Jay Leno one night and they got to talking about hamburgers and George said the best hamburger he ever had was the Bubba Burger at Fuglers. We still have people coming in because they heard George that night."

A few other menu items include fried green tomatoes, fried squash, fried pickles, Texas Toothpicks (thin slices of jalapeno peppers) and alligator balls. "You know every alligator has a pair. They're just ground up alligator meat with peppered cheese in them. They're about the size of a golf ball. We've also got lizard lips. That's zucchini that's been split up, battered and deep fried."

Mailman's Special is another popular item at Fugler's. "It's a chicken fried steak. That's all my mailman of 15 years ever got. He'd drop the mail off and order a chicken fried steak sandwich and then go make his rounds. He'd pick it up on his way back. He kids me all the time about not getting any royalties from using his name on the menu. I tell him the check's in the mail."

Bubba has had customers from Europe and all over the US. "I have a group from Montana and Wyoming that comes down to the Lake of the Pines ever year. They'll end up eating here 4 or 5 times a week."

Bubba has worked in the business 40 years. He bought it from his dad 12 years ago. The store is decorated with old farm and home items that are museum quality. Because of the cutbacks due to Covid it's just Bubba and his son now and the place is open from 7 AM to 2 PM. It used to stay open til 9 PM and had musical entertainment.
