What Is A Town?
A town is a group of people
It is a school.
It is a city government.
It is churches.
It is industry and jobs.
It is retail businesses.

They all have to work together. All must have the support of the people or there is no town.

Give your local merchant a chance for your business and the first opportunity to make the sale. The local retailer pays the highest percentage of local taxes. They are the ones contacted first for contributions to charitable projects. They provide jobs. Without their store you have no town.

GIVE THE LOCAL MERCHANT A FAIR SHAKE.

READER'S Recipe

CREAM CHEESE RED VELVET THUMBPRINT COOKIES

- 1 cup unsalted butter, softened
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 large egg, yolk, room temperature
- 1 tsp. vanilla extract
- 1/2 tsp. red paste food coloring
- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 2 Tbsp. baking cocoa
- 1/2 cup coarse sugar

- Filling:
- 4 oz. cream cheese, softened
 - 1/4 cup sugar
 - 1 large egg white, room temperature
 - 1/2 tsp. vanilla extract
 - 1/4 tsp. kosher salt

Preheat oven to 300°. In a large bowl, cream the butter and sugar together until light and fluffy, 5-7 minutes. Beat in the egg yolk, vanilla and red food coloring. In another bowl, whisk flour and cocoa; gradually beat into the creamed mixture. Roll the dough into 1-in. balls; roll in coarse sugar. Place 2 in. apart on parchment-lined baking sheets. Press a deep indentation in center of each with the back of a 1/2-tsp. measure. Bake 10 minutes. For filling, beat the cream cheese, sugar, egg white, vanilla and salt until blended. Reshape indentations in parbaked cookies as needed. Fill each with 1 tsp. filling. Bake until filling is set, 10-12 minutes longer. Remove cookies to wire racks to cool completely.

Manage Pain With Massage Therapy

Addiction to opiates is a growing problem in the United States and Canada. Pain relief therapies, such as massage therapy, can be viable alternatives to the prescription pain medicines in 2016, which was up slightly from 18.9 million in 2015, according to the health data company QuintilesIMS. When prescriptions to oxycodone, hydromorphone and fentanyl run out, many people turn to heroin as a less expensive and more readily available means of pain relief. NIDA says that up to 7 that often serve as a gateway to illegal drugs such as heroin. Addiction to prescription painkillers is common. The National Institute on Drug Abuse estimates that 4.7 million people in the United States are dependent on painkillers, the sale of which has increased by more than 300 percent since 1999. Retail pharmacies across Canada dispensed 19 million prescriptions for opioids percent of people who are prescribed opiate or analgesic pain killers will become addicted. To help reduce the overprescribing epidemic and keep people from becoming addicted to pain meds, people can look for other ways to alleviate pain. Massage therapy is a viable option that can work wonders to improve flexibility and offer relief from pain in different parts of the body.

In addition to alleviating pain, massage therapy can promote relaxation, reduce anxiety and improve quality of life.

Research indicates that massage therapy can reduce the incidence and frequency of back pain, headache and leg pain and can even reduce stress and tension. Massage therapy can be an asset to those with myalgia, carpal tunnel syndrome and other conditions.

Researchers at McMaster University in Canada found that massage therapy affects the activity of certain genes, which directly reduces inflammation in muscles — the same results that would occur if a person took pain medication. Researchers tested people who exercised and received massages afterward against a control group, discovering that "massage dampened the activity of proteins known as inflammatory cytokines, which cause inflammation and pain. It also increased levels of proteins that signal the muscles to produce more mitochondria, the cell structures that produce energy and help muscles recover from activity."

A review published in the journal Complementary Therapies in Clinical Practice noted that moderate pressure massage can lead to decreased cortisol levels, helping to reduce stress and anxiety. Massage may help stimulate serotonin products, improving mood and feelings of well-being. Also, according to AMTA, deeper massage stimulates blood circulation to improve the supply of oxygen and nutrients to body tissues while helping the lymphatic system to flush away waste products. It also eases tense and knotted muscles and stiff joints, improving mobility and flexibility. Massage therapy can be a viable alternative for pain sufferers who are reluctant to take potentially addictive prescription pain medications. TF17A420

Exploring Holistic Nursing

Nurses wear many hats. In addition to tending to patients and helping families of patients, nurses incorporate the latest technologies into patients' treatment. Some even work outside of hospitals and doctor's offices to train the next generation of nurses. Nursing has also branched out to include holistic nursing, which employs alternative medicine to care for patients. Alternative medicine is sometimes combined with traditional western medicine, requiring holistic nurses, who are sometimes referred to as "complementary health nurses," understand both holistic and traditional nursing methods. According to the Campaign for Nursing's Future, sponsored by Johnson &

Johnson, holistic nursing is rooted in the idea that nurses cannot treat a patient's physical health without addressing the whole person. In addition to addressing their patients' physical problems, holistic nurses will also try to address their patients' mental, spiritual and emotional well-being. Holistic nursing is a growing field, and it's entirely possible that the role of holistic nurses will expand in the years to come. Some of the things today's holistic nurses do include:

- acupuncture
- assisting patients with managing stress
- aromatherapy
- massage
- hypnosis, hydrotherapy and balneotherapy
- Chinese and Eastern healing practices

- wellness coaching

According to the American Holistic Nurses Association, holistic nursing is not intended to negate the validity of conventional medical therapies, such as traditional nursing. Holistic nursing serves to complement, broaden and enrich the scope of nursing practices while aiming to help patients access their greatest healing potential. The AHNA notes that holistic nurses must be registered and/or licensed. Such nurses may be found working at hospitals, universities and private practices. Men and women interested in pursuing a career in nursing can learn more about holistic nursing at www.ahna.org. TF165101
