Aitkin's Fishhouse parade returns to its Black Friday slot

By ANN SCHWARTZ
"The fish house parade was great!" said Taylor Erickson, Aitkin Chamber director. "I truly had no idea what to expect after two years, but we had a great turnout in Aitkin. "All the events came together and were well-attended," Erickson continued. "Our hope with all the activities was for folks to get out and enjoy all the charm our town has to offer. The vintage snowmobile display was great, we had a good turnout for the 5K run walk, and the streets were packed with people watching the floats. "It was special to see everybody turn out and celebrate the start of the Holidays," Erickson summed up.

No rain or snow but a little wind made attaching parade signs a little tricky for the main event.
Fish House Parade float winners were Mille Lacs Energy with the Fantastic Fishhouse, Coolest Kids in Town, Aitkin Baseball Boosters and Rocked the Float, Twin Pines Resort.

DNR seeks input on license system

The Minnesota Department of Natural Resources is looking for input on how Minnesotans currently access the electronic license system, and what they want in the future as systems are modernized. Feedback from current and potential users — including anglers, boaters, hunters and recreational vehicle operators — is critically important.

States throughout the nation are updating their license systems to take advantage of new technology and to improve customer experience. "We hope people take a minute to provide feedback and share their experiences," said Jenifer Wical, marketing coordinator with the Fish and Wildlife Division outreach section. "The more people we hear from, across all types of recreation and all users, the better we'll be able to create a system that meets the diverse needs of people who recreate in Minnesota." To access the survey, visit the DNR's engagement page at mndnr.gov/ELS. The survey will be open from Monday, Nov. 29 to Monday, Jan. 31, 2022. The survey will take approximately 10 minutes to complete.

LOUISE HENDRICKSON

Louise Marie Hendrickson, 69, of Deerwood, died on Tuesday, November 23, 2021 after a valiant battle with Pancreatic Cancer.

A celebration of Louise's life will be held at Koop Funeral home in Crosby on Wednesday, December 8, 2021 from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. with a Sharing of Memories starting at 5 p.m. All are welcome.

The best way to describe Louise is to say she lived out loud. She was a gifted seamstress and musician. She sewed, stitched, knitted, and weaved for work and pleasure- both in self-employment for Sew Fine Sewing Service and Peterson Shoe Repair, and for 20 years in the uniform shop at Grand Casino Mille Lacs. She played the autoharp and bass guitar in various ensembles with Doug and others, and she played the cello in the Great River Strings Orchestra. # READER RIBBETS

Fighting windmills

Kelly Avelsgard has judged a governor and a county sheriff unfit for their job. He even judged 'the moral high ground.' When asked about his qualifications to make such judgments - no answer. He did say his letters are backed by documents available to everyone, but he never says what those documents are, or where they can be found.

I also requested more accuracy and better balance. No luck with that either, but Mr. Avelsgard did prove my point for me. He said that the Deerwood police chief has every right to record any conversation, that this is legal and in the best interests of his community.

Once again, not the full story. The law is not the only standard for police conduct. Ethics play a big role as well. That what happened was legal could be argued. That it was unethical cannot. Certain Deerwood officers acted unethically, but somehow it is the county sheriff who was wrong.

How do I know what 'ethical' means in police work? I learned it in the academy. Unless part of an officially authorized investigation (which it was not), this was textbook unethical conduct. Secretly recording a fellow officer is not 'doing the right thing, for the right reason.' The drama between Deerwood and Crosby police was not a tale of right vs. wrong. It was just a series of wrongs, on both sides.

I've now learned that Mr. Avelsgard's letters to the editor have made Crosby a safer place for me to live. (No ego there. Wonder what documentation supports that)? Unethical conduct by the police is never in the best interest of the community. Neither are one-sided, misleading opinion pieces that conveniently leave out any part of the story that doesn't favor the author's agenda. Kelly, I get it. You are protecting the common man from the evils that threaten to destroy us all, but who protects us from you? Dan Stiner, Crosby

Silence favors Goddard

Crow Wing County Sheriff Scott Goddard banned two police departments from our offices. He said it was because an unauthored letter in the Courier indicated the Deerwood Police Chief secretly recorded conversations with a person or persons. The Deerwood Police Chiefs' actions were legal, prudent, and recording the conversations protected his community. The people recorded posed a threat to Deerwood and maybe his job. It is legal to record a conversation without a person's knowledge if you are present. Goddard should know the law, his attempt to misrepresent it and mislead us, makes his actions frightening and immoral. When we look at Goddard's actions, we see the following:

First, Goddard did not reach out to the departments beforehand, he blindsided them, very unprofessional. Goddard acted on an unauthored letter, he blindly trusted the information without an investigation or communication to verify its accuracy, violation of the public trust. If Goddard acted without knowledge, that is very disturbing. Second, Goddard may know the author, knew the letter was coming, he participated. He attempted to embarrass, demoralize, and discredit two police departments, the abuse of power. If we have a Sheriff that is willing to compromise himself, the office, the badge, our county, for a friend, what else is he willing to do? We all should be afraid and angry, demanding his immediate resignation is right. Those in power, those in control, concede nothing, without a demand. One county commissioner publicly condemned his actions, that's good, but it doesn't go far enough. All our county commissioners should be demanding Goddard resign, their silence supports Goddard and does not represent or protect us. The predictions made in these letters came true, what's next, is going to be interesting.. Kelly Avelsgard, Deerwood

Bites for lights Christmas light recycling program

The Crow Wing County Land Services Department, in cooperation with Sunrise Sertoma of Brainerd and Crow Wing Recycling, is collecting unneeded Christmas lights and extension cords at select locations throughout Crow Wing County. The copper found in the old extension cords and Christmas lights is recycled through Crow Wing Recycling, keeping these materials out of the county landfill.

Proceeds from the recycled materials are donated to local charities.

"We have collected 32 tons since 2006, when the program started," said Jeff Hilborn of Sunrise Sertoma. Over $10,000.00 has been raised since the program began to help purchase meals at soup kitchens and local food shelves in the Brainerd Lakes Area.

County Environmental Services Supervisor, Ryan Simonson commented, "We are pleased to partner with Sunrise Sertoma and Crow Wing Recycling to help those in need while promoting recycling."

The following local partners are participating by providing collection containers at their business, making it easier for citizens to drop-off old Christmas lights and extension cords throughout Crow Wing County:

- Brainerd Ace Hardware, Brainerd Holiday Store, Mill Ave., Brainerd
- Carlson Hardware, Nisswa Holiday Store, Crosslake
- Frandsen Bank, Baxter MMFCU, Baxter/Brainerd
- Crosby-Ironton Courier, Crosby Northland Arboretum
- Crosslake Ace Hardware, Crosslake Pequot Super Valu, Pequot Lakes
- Crow Wing County Sanitary Landfill Todd Wadena

Electric Cooperative
 • Emily Ace Hardware, Emily Ace Hardware, Breezy Point

The Land Services Department is committed to providing excellent customer service while helping residents and our local businesses make wise choices that protect Crow Wing County's extraordinary natural resources. Citizens are encouraged to contact Land Services at (218) 824-1010 or land.services@crowwing.us to discuss hazardous waste, solid waste, demolition material composting, or recycling activities.
