JOHNSTON, NORMAN D. -90, Fayetteville, TN. Graveside service, 1:30 p.m., Wednesday, December 1, 2021 in Rose Hill Cemetery. Norman passed away Sunday, November 28, 2021 at his residence. He was born on a farm in Possum Hollow in the Mimosa community on December 19, 1930. He was the son of Bright Johnston, a farmer, and Janie Johnston, Norman enlisted in the United States Air Force in 1949. He worked many years as a radar technician before working at the Arnold Engineering Development Complex (AEDC) Propulsion Wind Tunnel Facility in Tullahoma, TN, After retiring in 1987, he returned to the modest life of a farmer he had cherished from an early age. One of Norman's most firmly held beliefs was the value of an education. He adamantly believed that an education equips a person with the necessary tools to control his or her own destiny by allowing them to reach independence. He instilled these beliefs into his son, Randall, and his granddaughter, Hannah. He also coined many tried-and-true sayings that he enjoyed sharing with others. While they were candid and to the point, repeating them was not generally the wisest thing a man could do. In his spare time, he enjoyed fishing and in his own words, "watching the bulb" or watching television. He also cooked his own breakfast most mornings and took great pride in doing so. Above all, he had an extensive understanding of the true value of the dollar and fittingly, was quite a resourceful handyman. Many homemade trinkets and gadgets filled his home and sheds. He was preceded in death by his parents; and wife of 38 years, Lois Rucker Johnston. He is survived by his son, Randall (Phyllis) Johnston; granddaughter, Hannah all of Fayetteville; and friend, Judy Calkins of Lewisburg. There will be no visitation prior to the graveside service. HIGGINS FUNERAL HOME, Fayetteville, TN. (931)433-2544.
