THE LAW AND YOU

BY NATHAN D. PACE
ATTORNEY AT LAW

WHAT IS FAMILY LAW?

The area of law regulating family relationships, including: "https://www.britannica.com/topic/marriage" marriage, "https://www.britannica.com/topic/divorce" divorce, the treatment and custody of children, and related legal and economic matters, is referred to as "Family Law." Closely connected with the law of property and "https://www.britannica.com/topic/inheritance-law" succession in the past, family law originated in economic and property questions created by the transfer of property belonging to a "https://www.britannica.com/topic/women" female from her father's family to her husband. Now, family law encompasses the relationship between parent and "https://www.britannica.com/science/childhood" child, guardianships, custody, legitimacy, child support, alimony, adoption, power of attorney, and creation of wills and distributions to heirs. Consulting a family law expert is essential to avoiding protracted and expensive legal battles as well as successfully navigating the judicial system for these highly sensitive issues.

Divorce and family law statutes, procedures and processes in New York can be complex. Child custody, alimony, asset valuation and more can quickly turn a simple divorce into an emotionally charged, lengthy, and often expensive ordeal. The right family law attorney can help clients through even the most challenging legal issues. To schedule a consultation, please call the Law Office of MACK & PACE. We emphasize family law, business law, criminal law, and estate planning.

Hint: Until the Norman conquest in 1066, the legal status of a married woman was based on concepts of marriage, family, and gender that go back to European feudalism, canon (church) law, and custom.

PRESS RELEASE

Drinking this Holiday Season? - Have a Sober Plan and get to your Destination Safely

In an effort to keep our roadways safer this Holiday Season, Orleans County STOP-DWI Coordinator, Sheriff Christopher M. Bourke announced that local law enforcement agencies will actively participate in The STOP-DWI Holiday High Visibility Enforcement Campaign (December 17, 2021-January 1, 2022).

As the anticipation of attending gatherings to celebrate this Holiday Season, Local Law Enforcement will be out to bring awareness to the dangers of impaired driving and to have a Sober Plan while traveling to prevent injuries and save lives.

Although STOP-DWI efforts across New York have led to significant reductions in the numbers of alcohol related fatalities, there are still too many lives lost due to DWI crashes.

You can help– Save Lives– Don't Drink and Drive – Have a Sober Plan!

- ✓ Plan a safe way to get home.
- ✓ Call for a ride from a sober friend/ family, taxi, or Uber.
- ✓ Uber apps can be found at: Google Play and iTunes
- ✓ Have a Plan Mobile App- <http://www.stopdwi.org/mobileapp>

Oratorical Contest Held at Kendall Junior/Senior High School

Students at Kendall Junior/Senior High School (JSHS) once again competed in the American Legion Oratorical Contest sponsored by the Social Studies Department. The purpose of the contest is to provide high school students with an academic speaking challenge that teaches important leadership qualities, the history of our nation's laws, the ability to think and speak clearly, and an understanding of the duties, responsibilities, rights and privileges of American citizenship. Students gave a prepared 8-10 minute oration on the United States Constitution. This year's participants were Advanced Placement United States History students taught by Katie Driesel.

The local round of the contest was held at Kendall JSHS on Nov. 19. Students competed in front of a panel of American Legion judges in the JSHS Auditorium. These students included Taigan Guerrero, Lily Lavacca, Toby Passer, Layne Pearson, Lauren Pilon and Emma Quintern. Toby took first place in the competition, Lily took second place and Layne placed third.

The adults were impressed with the students' speeches. American Legion member Chuck Eberhardt told students, "I am confident in your class because you know the Constitution. We thank you in advance for the decisions and actions you will make in the future based on this knowledge."

The first and second place winners advance to the Orleans County Competition on Dec. 11 at Kendall JSHS.

This contest was an excellent opportunity for Kendall students to study the Constitution and develop public speaking skills which are essential to future success.
