Lt. Sorrow, CCSO, graduates FBI National Academy

The Vision of the Cullman County Sheriff's Office has always been improvement through leadership. By promoting individual training, the Sheriff's Office grows as an agency.

Rex Sorrow and FBI Director Christopher A. Wray at the 280th Session of the FBI National Academy Graduation on December 16th, 2021.

Lt. Rex Sorrow recently completed the FBI National Academy in Quantico, Virginia.

This 10 week course focuses on the improvement of administration in justice and raises law enforcement standards, knowledge and cooperation. This invitation only program is grueling, challenging and extremely rewarding.

"We are proud of the hard work and dedication Lt. Sorrow has demonstrated at the National Academy. Training will continue to be a point of emphasis here at the Cullman County Sheriff's Office. Our goal is for Lt. Sorrow to be the first of many deputies to better themselves through this type of training. The Sheriff's Office will continue to grow and improve as long as we have deputies who strive to be the best they can be," said Sheriff Matt Gentry.
