ANDERSON, WILLIAM MAURICE - 96, Manchester, TN. Funeral service, 2 p.m., Monday, January 3, 2022 in the chapel of Central Funeral Home with Dr. Brenton Cox officiating. Burial in Rose Hill Memorial Gardens in Tullahoma, TN. Mr. Anderson passed away Thursday, December 30, 2021 at Unity Medical Center in Manchester, TN. In his last days, Maurice was still living at home and had celebrated both his 96th birthday and his 74th wedding anniversary with his devoted wife, Zalah, who was by his side when he passed suddenly. He had just celebrated Christmas with his family a few days earlier and was in good spirits. Maurice was born and raised in the Noah community of Coffee County and graduated from Manchester Central High. He served in the U.S. Navy for 2 years on the U.S.S. Cumberland Sound in the Pacific theater during WWII. After the war, Maurice participated in the decommissioning of Camp Forrest. Following that, he was contracted to repair and maintain aging smokestacks in the Northeast U.S. After his travels, he returned to Manchester, where he owned and operated service stations at two locations for several years. In 1968, he began a career at the Manchester Water Department, retiring as Office Manager in 1988. Maurice was a longstanding member of First Baptist Church in Manchester where he enjoyed worship, gospel music and his close-knit Sunday school class. Maurice was devoted to his family and was known as the definitive fix-it man for the immediate and extended family. Maurice was a very active person who did not like sitting in one place for very long. He loved tinkering in his workshop, caring for his lawn and growing vegetables, taking special pride in his summer tomatoes—while always sharing his abundant harvest with others. Maurice was preceded in death by his mother, Earline Thomas; father, Lonnie Harrell Anderson; sister, Margaret Ann Bass; and son, Larry Maurice Anderson. Maurice is survived by his wife, Zalah Anderson, Coffee County native; daughter, Sherry Anderson Simons of Coffee County; grandson, Ryan Matthew Mason of Nashville; granddaughter, Logan Maurisa Henderson (Brandon) of Manchester; and, great grandson, Timothy Lee Henderson. The family has requested attendees to wear masks in accordance with COVID guidelines. Mrs. Bailey passed away peacefully Monday, January 3, 2022. She was born on July 12, 1925 to the late Carl and Flossie Smith. Frances was a loving daughter, sister, wife, mother, aunt, grandmother and great grandmother. After being born and raised in Turkey Creek in Moore County, she moved to Tullahoma and worked at Sterlings before meeting her late husband, Joseph Willard Bailey, Jr. She volunteered much of her time to helping others. She was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary Post 43 since 1973 and held various positions. She was also a member of the Willing Workers Homemakers Club, volunteering her time to various local nonprofits and schools. She attended the First Christian Church for decades, was an active member, and treasured her Sunday school class, "Bob's Bible Bunch." She leaves a wonderful legacy of family and tradition. She made deliberate efforts to be involved in the lives of her grandchildren from teaching them how to cook, to birthdays, holidays, school events, baptisms, graduations and weddings. As a result, their lives are tightly bound both in life and in death. You could not ask for a better granny. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Joseph Willard Bailey, Jr.; daughter, Patricia Bailey; sister, Mary Helen McBee; brother, James Albert

AVOIDING CASHIER'S CHECK and MONEY ORDER FRAUD. Be extremely cautious about accepting a cashier's check or money order for payment. Never accept a check or money order that is more than your selling price. Don't accept cashier's checks, money orders or any checks for that matter, for payment from buyers you do not know. If you are willing to take a cashier's check or money order in payment, insist on one drawn from a local bank or a bank that has a local branch and have it checked by someone at a bank before depositing/cashing.
