GOATS, GUITARS AND GUSHERS Tumbleweed Smith

When BJ Mayo uses his mouth to call goats, the animals stop what they're doing, turn toward his voice, bleat back and seemingly wait for further instructions. His call is legendary and sounds like a goat practicing for a debut at Carnegie Hall. It is musical.

When he's not at his ranch near San Angelo dealing with livestock (mostly cattle these days) you might find him at a western hootenanny in Arkansas playing guitar and singing. He is versatile with all elements of his life. For years he spent time in Africa, Bangladesh, Australia and other places around the globe working in petroleum. He is still in that line of work as a consultant, traveling all over the state dealing with oil wells. No wonder. His early years were spent in an oil company field camp 25 miles from the nearest town.

Bob, as he is called by his friends in the oil patch, has always kept a good account of his life experiences. If he didn't write them down in a journal he is able to recall the ones that influenced him.

BJ started writing books a few years ago. "I have 26 novels structured," he says. "The material is endless. I have three going on right now, two of them westerns. I really enjoy it. I've traveled so much and have met so many characters, each with different personalities and from different cultures." He writes just one day a week. That's Sunday after church, a trip to Dairy Queen and a nap. "When the material comes to me when I'm in a writing mode, it comes very quick and is fully loaded. I may write for 6 or 7 hours straight. It takes no effort. It just flows." Bob has torn down an old building and is using the lumber to build a writing studio on his ranch.

His first novel is ALFIE CARTER, about a young African girl who is the only survivor of her war-ravaged village in Angola. She witnesses a brutal massacre by guerrilla boy soldiers. She uses her intelligence and bravado to find her way to the United States where a family adopts her and she becomes a lawyer. Skyhorse Publishing, a division of Simon and Schuster, publishes the book.

His second book is THE SPARROWS OF MONTENEGRO, one of Simon and Schuster's new releases for 2022. "It's a western and is fairly graphic in nature. I don't recommend reading it at night. It covers a lot of ground from Ojinaga, Mexico to Mushaway Mountain in Borden County during the 1870 time frame." The book has soldiers, cowboys, Indians, a ranch and a Mexican Village. "The Sparrows have a specific meaning to the women and children of this little village. It also goes deep into the Mexican culture." The book shows the brutality of some of the frontier justice. He calls this book historical fiction. "I don't really care much for non-fiction. It's too confining to realism and to specific dates, which can be called into question. I have a historical context in most of my books."

SPARROWS is in Japan, Australia, UK, everywhere Simon and Schuster sells books. It's also available on Amazon, Wal-Mart, Target and Barnes and Noble.

Marsha (Hinkle) Womack

Funeral services for Marsha Hinkle Womack, age 45, of Ridgeway, will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday, January 23, 2022, at West Oaks Funeral Home with Bro. Mike Eason officiating and Amber Hatcher Weaver assisting. Interment will follow at Oakland Cemetery with Larry George, Dustin Womack, Rick McCann, Chris Pope, Stan Tatum, and Kyle Seale serving as pallbearers. Honorary pallbearers will be Brandon Baldrige and her co-workers of the Texas Department of Child Protective Services. Visitation will be held at 1 p.m., prior to service time.

Marsha passed away on January 18, 2022, at Hunt Regional Medical Center in Greenville, Texas. She was born on January 30, 1976, in Greenville, Texas, the daughter of Spencer Dean and Venita Joye Gibby Hinkle. Marsha married Daniel Womack. She loved the farm and country life since she was a small child. She grew up helping her dad with the cattle. She loved her Shetland ponies as a child. She grew up to enjoy raising sheep for a while. She enjoyed riding her 3 wheeler, dirt bikes, and 4 wheelers, and taking her dogs for rides with her. Her greatest passion was her love for dogs, especially her beagles. She was starting to compete with her dogs at shows. She loved going to Canton, looking at the dog grounds, and sometimes even setting up to sell things.

She loved serving the Lord and trusted in his word. She enjoyed listening to Christian music. She was a member of Oakland Presbyterian Church, where she grew up and attended as a child and young adult. Marsha had the biggest heart and loved all her family dearly. She had the most wonderful and beautiful smile, just like her mother. She was attending Cross Spur Cowboy Church at the time of her death.

Marsha is survived by husband, Daniel Womack of Ridgeway; father, Spencer Hinkle of Ridgeway; sisters, Tamara Stewart and husband Mike of Oahu, Hawaii, Darla Baldrige and Rick McCann of Sulphur Springs; nephew, Brandon Baldrige of Sulphur Springs; niece, Lori Pope and husband Chris of Lindale; and great-nieces and nephews, Cheyenne, Kason, and Elliott. She was preceded in death by her mother, Venita Hinkle; and grandparents, J.R. and Mittie Hinkle, and Luther and Fenton Gibby.

Mary Jo Williams

Mary Jo Williams, age 91, formerly of Sulphur Springs, passed away on a winter day January 20, 2022. After several years of failing health, she died peacefully in her sleep in Destrehan, Louisiana. Bright-Holland Funeral Home has scheduled graveside services for 1 p.m. Thursday, January 27, 2022, at Laurel Land Funeral Home and Memorial Park in Dallas, Texas.

Mary Jo was born July 11, 1930, in Peerless, Texas, to Bessie Evans Arnold and her husband. She was one of five Arnold siblings known in the Peerless community as the "Friendly Five." Mary Jo attended North Hopkins School and upon graduation moved to Dallas for work. There she met the love of her life, Hebert Lee Williams! Following courtship, they married in Fort Worth, Texas, on August 12, 1949. They had two daughters, Lark and Lasca, and lived in the Dallas area until the spring of 1966, when they moved the Oakland Community near Peerless, Texas. This move brought Mary Jo closer to the area she called "home."

She and her family were members of the First Baptist Church of Sulphur Springs, Texas. Mrs. Williams taught first grade Sunday School for nearly 40 years. She was well known for home visits to her Sunday School students and the handmade Bible covers she made for her pupils when they were given a Bible from the church. She taught many generations of Sulphur Springs children, including her daughter, Lasca, and granddaughters, April and Amber.

Mary Jo loved to garden and shop for and collect antiques. She was employed at Lee's Jeans Manufacturing Plant in Sulphur Springs and Lee's Hallmark Gift Shop in Sulphur Springs. She worked at Lee's Hallmark store for many years. When her husband Herbert became ill, they moved to Sulphur Springs to be closer to work and doctors.

Mary Jo was preceded in death by her mother, Bessie Evans Arnold; her husband, Herbert Williams; a daughter, Lark Williams; and a sister, Lasca Hahn and her husband, George. She is survived by her siblings, (two brothers and one sister), Jeff D. Arnold of Clair, MI., Billy Arnold and wife Katherine of Grand Prairie, Texas, and Hellen Lock and husband Fred of Willow Point, Texas; a daughter, Lasca Anderson and husband Stanley; 5 grandchildren, April Wilkie and husband Jason of Luling, LA., Amber Wieniewitz of Knoxville, TN., Deanna McGee and husband Jeremy of Carrollton, Texas, Leslie Hamil and husband Alex of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Nathan Donnell of Sachse, Texas; 7 great-grandchildren, Madeline and Jacob Wilkie of Luling, LA., Abbie, Lexi, and Christian Wieniewitz of Knoxville, TN., and Taylor and Torey McGee of Carrollton, Texas; and many cousins, nieces and nephews.

Should you desire, memorial contributions in Mary Jo's memory may be made to the Children's Ministry of First Baptist Church of Sulphur Springs, 116 Oak Avenue, Sulphur Springs, Texas 75482. To leave condolences for the family, visit BrightHollandFuneralHome.com

Jerry Wilhite

Funeral services for Jerry Wilhite, age 74, of Sulphur Springs, will be held on Sunday, January 23, 2022 at 3:00 P.M. at Murray Orwosky Chapel with Jerry Savage and Buster Sides officiating. Interment will follow at Restlawn Memorial Park with military honors. Hopkins County Marine Corps League members Garry Hall, Derb Goodman, Larry Vickers, Mike Thompson, Bobby Ulman and Bob Kerr will serve as pallbearers. Honorary pallbearers are George TenBerge, Larry Fite, Matt Yosten, Randy Clark, Brian Sanders, and Mason Sanders.

Jerry passed away on Friday, January 21, 2022 at Legend Healthcare and Rehab in Paris. Jerry was born on December 7, 1947 in Dallas to Jerrel and Bobbie Wilhite. He married Donna Springer on December 22, 1967 in Sulphur Springs. They adopted a son, Greg in 1971. Jerry was a dairy farmer for 28 years before starting work with L-3, retiring as Program Manager in 2014. Donna preceded him in death in August of 2015. He married Kathy Clark Sides on November 23, 2018. It was a special blessing that they were able to travel and enjoy companionship after both losing their mates. Jerry proudly served his country in the United States Marine Reserves during the Vietnam Era. He enjoyed working with his cows, traveling, and his involvement with the Hopkins County Marine Corps League. He was a faithful member of League St. Church of Christ.

He is survived by his son, Greg Wilhite; his wife, Kathy Wilhite and her children Kristi Wondra and husband Brian, Buster Sides and wife Angie, mother-in-law Mary Clark, brothers Steve Wilhite and wife Esther of Scroggins, Glenn Wilhite and wife Dana of Sulphur Springs, and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Jerry was also preceded in death by his parents, Jerrel and Bobbie Wilhite; and his special aunt, Grace McClendon.
