GOATS, GUITARS AND GUSHERS

Tumbleweed Smith

Tumbleweed Smith

When BJ Mayo uses his mouth to call goats, the animals stop what they're doing, turn toward his voice, bleat back and seemingly wait for further instructions. His call is legendary and sounds like a goat practicing for a debut at Carnegie Hall. It is musical.

When he's not at his ranch near San Angelo dealing with livestock (mostly cattle these days) you might find him at a western hootenanny in Arkansas playing guitar and singing. He is versatile with all elements of his life. For years he spent time in Africa, Bangladesh, Australia and other places around the globe working in petroleum. He is still in that line of work as a consultant, traveling all over the state dealing with oil wells. No wonder. His early years were spent in an oil company field camp 25 miles from the nearest town.

Bob, as he is called by his friends in the oil patch, has always kept a good account of his life experiences. If he didn't write them down in a journal he is able to recall the ones that influenced him.

BJ started writing books a few years ago. "I have 26 novels structured," he says. "The material is endless. I have three going on right now, two of them westerns. I really enjoy it. I've traveled so much and have met so many characters, each with different personalities and from different cultures." He writes just one day a week. That's Sunday after church, a trip to Dairy Queen and a nap. "When the material comes to me when I'm in a writing mode, it comes very quick and is fully loaded. I may write for 6 or 7 hours straight. It takes no effort. It just flows." Bob has torn down an old building and is using the lumber to build a writing studio on his ranch.

His first novel is ALFIE CARTER, about a young African girl who is the only survivor of her war-ravaged village in Angola. She witnesses a brutal massacre by guerrilla boy soldiers. She uses her intelligence and bravado to find her way to the United States where a family adopts her and she becomes a lawyer. Skyhorse Publishing, a division of Simon and Schuster, publishes the book. His second book is THE SPARROWS OF MONTENEGRO, one of Simon and Schuster's new releases for 2022. "It's a western and is fairly graphic in nature. I don't recommend reading it at night. It covers a lot of ground from Ojinaga, Mexico to Mushaway Mountain in Borden County during the 1870 time frame." The book has soldiers, cowboys, Indians, a ranch and a Mexican Village. "The Sparrows have a specific meaning to the women and children of this little village. It also goes deep into the Mexican culture." The book shows the brutality of some of the frontier justice. He calls this book historical fiction. "I don't really care much for non-fiction. It's too confining to realism and to specific dates, which can be called into question. I have a historical context in most of my books."

SPARROWS is in Japan, Australia, UK, everywhere Simon and Schuster sells books. It's also available on Amazon, Wal-Mart, Target and Barnes and Noble.

WEST OAKS FUNERAL HOME

500 Hillcrest Dr., Sulphur Springs, Tx. 75482

<http://www.westoaksfuneralhome.com>

Velma (Short) Rawson

Funeral services for Velma (Short) Rawson, 95, of Sulphur Springs will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday, January 27, 2022, at West Oaks Funeral Home Chapel with Jerry Savage officiating. Graveside services will be at Restlawn Memorial Park with Bryan Heaps, Mason Rawson, Chad Rawson, Leslee Rawson, Troy Tuttle and Caleb Denton serving as pallbearers. Visitation will be at West Oaks Funeral Home on Wednesday, January 26, 2022, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Velma (Short) passed away January 24, 2022, quietly at her home. She was born September 2, 1926, in Cumby, Texas, the first daughter of Thomas Floyd Moseley and Winnie Gertrude Moss Moseley. Velma married J. Jean Rawson on December 22, 1945, in Greenville, Texas, following a two week courtship, after Jean's November 1945 return from World War II. They celebrated 69 years and 11 months together, before Jean passed away on November 19, 2015.

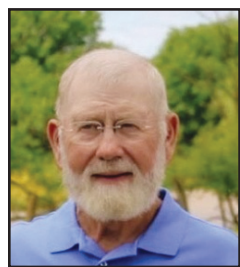

Before their marriage, Velma was a graduate of Droans Business School in Dallas, Texas. After they married, she later worked as a bookkeeper for Punk Helm and, then, Maddox Motor Company from 1955-1982, when she then became the bookkeeper for Paula Rorie at Flowerland Florist. Velma worked at Flowerland, until Paula sold the business in 2014 and Velma finally retired. While doing all of this, she was also the bookkeeper for the farm implement business that she and Jean owned from 1958 to 1979; while also operating a dairy from approximately 1970-2000. Yes, together Velma and Jean were quite a team of business entrepreneurs!

During all of this time of running multiple businesses, if you wanted to find them, you needed only to check the ball schedules — basketball, football, baseball and softball — of their grandchildren or great-grandchildren. Yes, Velma watched grandchildren and great grandchildren play many baseball and softball games in Sulphur Springs as well as watching several rodeo events of one great-grandchild. She even traveled to watch great grandchildren play football games and cheer at ballgames in Sunnyvale. One of her greatest loves was to go watch her grandchildren and great-grandchildren play sports even in the rain, snow or sleet! Velma was a long time active member of League Street Church of Christ.

Velma is survived by Tommy Rawson and wife Carolyn, Michael Rawson and wife Mary Ann, all of Sulphur Springs; and daughter, Judy Heaps and husband Stan of Sunnyvale; and grandchildren, Amy Tuttle and husband Troy of Sunnyvale, Bryan Heaps and wife Tecka of Roscoe, Chad Rawson and wife Susan, Leslee and wife Daci, Mallory Denton and husband Caleb, all of Sulphur Springs and Mason Rawson of Brashear; 16 great-grandchildren; and 3 great-great-grandchildren; sister, Lynda Hager and husband Bill of Sulphur Springs, several nieces and nephews, caregivers, who have become like family Christon Dabney, Michelle (Shelly) Williams, Wendy Wilder, Rose Dial and Lucy Hall. We also want to thank Choice Hospice Group for their support and kindness.

Preceding Velma in death are her husband, Jean, and her parents, Winnie and Floyd Moseley.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be sent to the League St Church of Christ Youth Scholarship Fund at League Street Church of Christ, 1100 League St. South, Sulphur Springs, TX 75482.

Jimmy Cummings

Jimmy Charles Cummings, 70, of Pickton, Texas, passed away on January 29, 2022, at UT Southwestern Medical Center.

He was born in Dallas, Texas on November 2, 1951, to Charlene and Gene Cummings. After graduating from Como-Pickton High School in 1971, he became a lifelong cattle rancher, poultry producer, and dairy farmer. When asked if he was working, he always replied, "I was playing."

He is preceded in death by his parents, Charlene Brown and Marvin Childers. Jimmy is survived by his loving wife of 50 years, Hilda Brumley Cummings; his son, JJ Cummings and daughter-in-law Mayra; daughter, Jody Fred Horton; as well as his five grandchildren, Parker Cummings, Presli Cummings, Cameron Chianese and husband Ryan, Brent Horton, and Dallen Horton. In addition, he is also survived by his brother, Eddie Cummings and sister-in-law Donna, and sister, Kathy George and brother-in-law Charlie.

Jimmy loved his wife dearly, was a wonderful father, and grandpa, and was a member of Winterfield Baptist Church. Services are scheduled at the Beaty Funeral, Winnsboro, Texas.

Visitation: Tuesday, February 1, 2022 at 6 to 8 pm. Funeral service: Wednesday, February 2, 2022, at 10:30 a.m. Interment will follow funeral service at the Winterfield Cemetery, Pickton, Texas. Pallbearers: Parker Cummings, Brian Cummings, Bruce Cummings, Brent Horton, Dallin Horton, Ryan Chianese, and Bo Allen.

Rosa Lee Chamberlain

A funeral service for Rosa Lee Chamberlain, age, 77, of Sulphur Springs, Texas, were held at 2 p.m. Saturday, January 29, 2022, at First Baptist Church in Sulphur Springs with Dr. Jeff Gravens and Rev. Gary Thompson officiating. Interment followed at Restlawn Memorial Park with Nolan Garmon, Jordan Tyler, Larry Horton, Jimmy Mangus, Mike Allen, Hunter Allen, Harrison, Allen, Brian Potter and Matt McLain serving as pallbearers and Leslie Mowat, Betty Southard, Mary Harrison and Jan Bain serving as honorary pallbearers. Mrs. Chamberlain passed away on January 26, 2022, at her residence.

Rosa was born on February 28, 1944, in Winnsboro, Texas, to Malcolm Curtis and Elah Mae (Tapley) Meadows. She married William Eugene Chamberlain. Rosa retired from the Texas Department of Human Resources and was currently working for Burrell and Associations. She was a member of the First Baptist Church.
