A Food Lover's Weekend in Lake County, Ohio

By Malini Swank, Food & Travel Writer
Lakesandlattes.com

 lakesandlattes

Eating. Drinking. Hiking. These are a few of my favorite things, and what I look forward to most when I travel. And luckily for me, my home state of Ohio has it all. Gorgeous trails and delicious food. On the weekends, my husband and I love to go on short road trips to explore different parts of Ohio. We recently headed north (about 2.5 hours from Columbus) to beautiful Lake County, Ohio. While we've both visited Lake Erie before, this was our first time in Lake County, and I have to be honest – I'm a little upset at myself for waiting so long to visit.

A food lover's dream, Lake County offers everything from authentic Mexican, to fine dining, along with craft breweries, wineries, and everything in between. We spent our entire weekend eating and drinking, stopping only to hike along trails and walk on the beach.

It was a pretty perfect weekend, if you ask me.

While there are plenty of things to do in Lake County, Ohio – like visiting some really neat museums, we spent our time really immersing ourselves in the foodie experience. Is there anything more fun than slowly sipping wine with the one you love, nibbling on cheese and fruit, before taking a playful walk along the longest natural beach in Ohio?

How about taking 2 hours to leisurely sample tapas at one of the best restaurants I've visited in my adult life, before grabbing an ice cream cone and walking along the beach for an after-dinner stroll?

Foodie travel is definitely my kind of travel. I wanted to share some of our favorite Lake County finds!

Where to Drink in Lake County, Ohio

The Grand River Valley region of Lake County, Ohio boasts the area's finest wineries. You can visit dozens of wineries! Did you know that this area consistently wins awards for its wine in national blind taste-tests? No need to jump on a plane to California or France, because Ohio offers some incredible wine. There were too many wineries to visit them all, but here are a few of the ones we loved:

Laurentia Vineyard

A stunning landscape and fantastic, award-winning wine. What else do you need? My husband and I were impressed by the friendly service and the upscale, but unpretentious, vibe of the place. We spent a solid 10 minutes just walking around the property, in awe. While we didn't order a meal, all the food at the tables around us looked fantastic.

Grand River Cellars

Grand River Cellars is another award-winning Lake County winery. I recommend doing a tasting flight – you get to try all the wines in the flight, plus take home a keepsake glass. This was a great way to sample what they had to offer, and I found a few favorites to bring home with me! We also had lunch on their patio and the food was absolutely delicious and affordable, too!

Debonne Vineyards

The final winery we visited was Debonne Vineyards. The largest Estate winery in Ohio, Debonne Vineyards also features an in-house microbrewery! There were also several casual dining options like cheese and hummus plates, or their outside grill, where you could get burgers and paninis. We were impressed with the affordable prices and the live music on their large patio. Debonne Vineyards also had several award-winning wines!

Craft Breweries in Lake County, Ohio

If you'd prefer beer, don't worry! Lake County also features several craft breweries. Here are a few to check out:

Pulpo Beer Co

We totally loved the vibe at Pulpo Beer Co. It's such a unique concept! For starters, it's located in a totally stunning, two story building that features not one, but TWO dining options. You'll love the colorful decor inside. Ohio's first Latin-led brewery, you'll find some fun brews that pay homage to their heritage, like the Tropical Thunder, their Pina-colada IPA.

Mentor Brewing Company

Mentor Brewing Company calls itself a "Nano Craft Brewery." In addition to an impressive list of craft beers, they also feature ciders, hard seltzers, and kombucha! Try their most popular brew – the Cardinal Red IPA.

Where to Eat in Lake County, Ohio

Ok, confession time. I ate way too much on this weekend trip. But, you guys! There were so many amazing restaurants and hidden gems that I can't wait to go back. Lake County, Ohio is DEFINITELY for foodies.

Wineries

Every single winery we visited offered an impressive array of food options. Whether you're craving something casual, a bit more upscale, or just a good old burger off the grill – the wineries in Lake County have you covered.

Mexican Food

Did you know that Lake County has large Latino population? Because of this, there is some seriously delicious Mexican food to found. We checked out Taqueria La Casita and were completely blown away. Incredible, authentic flavors, generous portions and CRAZY AFFORDABLE. Definitely put this one on your list.

We also loved Hola Tacos (Pulpo Beer Co is right inside!). Hola Tacos specializes in "street tacos" and we were blown away by the delicious sauces and salsa that they had on the side. Plus, you can sip Latin-inspired IPAs from Pulpo Beer Co as you eat your tacos!

Italian Food

We have some pretty amazing Italian restaurants in my hometown, so I can be a little picky with my pasta. But you guys. If you love Italian, you absolutely must check out Pastina Rustic Italian. Full stop. They are a scratch-kitchen, featuring locally grown produce and meat. What does it mean to be a scratch-kitchen? Well, at Pastina Rustic Italian, it means that every single loaf of bread is baked in-house daily with organically-grown flour. It means that their pasta, gelato, and meatballs are made by hand. And you can absolutely taste it. I was pretty much in love as soon as the bread service came out – a crusty Italian loaf, scented with rosemary and olive oil, served with a tomato dipping oil.

Special Occasion Dining

I know I listed it under “special occasion dining,” but I’m also convinced that The Pompadour is always a good idea. Anniversary dinner? Date night? Just hungry on a random Wednesday night? Head to the Pompadour. My husband and I had one of the best meals of our adult life here. And absolutely everything, from the cocktails to the service to the food – was just next level. They feature small plates, tapas-style, so I recommend coming with a few adventurous friends so you can try everything on the menu.

After an incredible meal at the Pompadour, I highly recommend walking a block to check out the Fairport Harbor Creamery. You can grab cones to go at their walk-up window and then go for a romantic stroll along the beach. We loved their ice cream – and they had some great seasonal flavors, like the “PSL” (pumpkin spice latte) or their Cinnamon Coffee Cake. This cute ice cream shop is also known for its “boozy” ice cream. Some of the options that caught our eye were the chocolate ice cream infused with a peanut butter whiskey or the “Boozeberry” – a cheesecake flavored scoop infused with blueberry vodka and a swirl of blueberry jam!

...We had so much fun exploring all that Lake County, Ohio had to offer. We can’t wait to come visit a few more vineyards and craft breweries and walk some new trails. For the full article please visit: lakesandlattes.com/food-lovers-weekend-in-lake-county

On the corner of 2nd and High Street, Fairport Harbor Creamery proudly stands across from the lighthouse, overlooking Lake Erie. Offering house-made ice cream as well as our own alcohol-infused ice cream, we promise a good time for any age. You can always count on our social media to highlight seasonal ice cream flavors or specialty frozen treats, like larger than life drumsticks and ice cream sandwiches on our house cookies. Just a short walk up the hill from the beach, it's a mini adventure that's worth the effort, especially on those hot summer days.
