Health Insurance

The cowboy was trying to buy a health insurance policy. The insurance agent was going down the list of standard questions.

"Ever have an accident?"

"Nope, nary a one."

"None? You've never had any accidents."

"Nope. Ain't never had one. Never."

"Well, you said on this form you were bit by a snake once. Wouldn't you consider that an accident?"

"Heck, no. That dang varmint bit me on purpose."

Fred "Freddy" Doss Obituary James Fredrick "Fred" Doss, 80, passed away peacefully February 3, 2022, surrounded by those who loved him most. A native of Danville, Virginia, son of the late Robert Owen and Beulah Vivian George Doss, he was a retired commercial truck driver. Fred was a loving husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, and friend. Affectionately known by his grandchildren as "Pops", he was always sharing stories and bragging on them, as they were his pride and joy. He would give you the shirt off his back as well as his opinion on just about anything. He will be dearly missed, but never forgotten. Go rest high on that mountain. We love you! Surviving are his wife, Patricia Reid Doss of the home; two daughters, Tammy Doss Mathena (Steven) of Greer and Karen Doss Sapp (Jimmy) of Fountain Inn; one sister, Joan Moore (Raymond) of Danville, Virginia; five grandchildren, Logan Sapp (Gin), Russell Sapp (Bri), Daniel Sapp, Matthew Mathena (Taylor) and Sarah Mathena (Bailey); one great-grandson, Easton Sapp; two great-grandchildren on the way; and several nieces and nephews, who all loved him endlessly. He was also predeceased by two brothers, Bob and Bernie Doss. A memorial service will be held 2:00 p.m. Sunday, February 13, 2022, at Disciples United Methodist Church, Greenville SC. Visitation will be held after the service at the church. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Disciples UMC, 185 Riley Smith Dr., Greenville, SC 29615. Piedmont Pets
 February 10, 2022 By Paulette Dean

In June of 1992, not long after I started working for the Danville Area Humane Society, a dignified, elderly golden cat was brought to us by his owners because he was too old and they wanted a kitten. I thought then how sad it was that they were willing to turn their backs on such a treasure.

It is sad but true that older animals have a tendency to have more health problems than younger ones, and it breaks our hearts when they die. It is also true that most people want a young animal to adopt because they want to spend as much time with them as possible. With those truths comes the sad truth that thousands of older shelter animals are overlooked

However, dogs and cats that are considered older or even elderly may be the best option for you. Older dogs are generally housebroken, do not have as many destructive behaviors (e.g. chewing) as puppies, and do not require as much exercise. Older cats are already litterbox trained and are probably less inclined to have destructive habits.

When puppies and kittens are young, their personalities and characteristics may not be as apparent. When a senior pet comes to the shelter from the owner, if the owners are honest and forthright, we are able to find out a lot of information that helps us make a perfect match.

Our Fritz Childrey (434) 688-8783 for Older Friends was established 13 years ago to help us place senior animals.

DAHS
 Danville Area Humane Society
 996 South Boston Rd.,
 Danville, VA 24540
 Phone: (434) 799-0843

Fritz was an elderly dachshund that was adopted from a shelter. His human, Mark Childrey, has been a tremendous friend of ours for several years.

This fund has financed veterinary care for many older animals, pays for the adoption fee, and pays for the spay/neuter surgery. Adoption fees are waived for animals at least eight years old. Older dogs and cats are now in loving homes because of this fund. Donations, of course are accepted to finance this fund.

It is a sad fact that we will outlive most of our pets. It is painful when they die because our grief goes as deep as our love. In spite of that, we still encourage potential adopters to look beyond the cute little puppies and kittens and search for a loving senior companion.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) A close friend or relative has news that can change some of your plans. Be flexible. You could be in for a most-pleasant surprise at how things turn out.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) A new opportunity opens just as you close the door on an earlier project. However, you should be prepared to make adjustments in your expectations.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Expect a surprise ally in your corner when you confront a still-uncertain situation in your workplace. In your personal life, a family member has good news.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A co-worker could resent what he or she might perceive as arrogance on your part. Smooth things over with a full explanation to avoid a serious misunderstanding.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) There is no time for catnaps this week. A workplace problem needs your attention before it gets out of hand. Ditto a financial matter that must be resolved as soon as possible.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Pressuring someone to act quickly on a problem could backfire. It makes good sense to be both patient and supportive if you want full cooperation.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A touch of uncertainty lurks in your aspect this week. Weigh all decisions -- personal and professional -- even more carefully than you usually do.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You need to use your innate good sense to help you sort through career offers that might not be what they appear. A trusted associate can help.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Things move along more smoothly at work, but a personal relationship presents some challenges that need close attention.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Positive observations resolve the last lingering doubts about a recent move. Now you need to work on that still-pesky problem with a loved one.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) You might be a generous soul, but avoid being taken advantage of by those who have their own agendas. If you have any doubts, get out before regret sets in.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Your strength might be tested by conflicting priorities in your personal life. Weigh the facts and then make the only choice you can: the right one.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a deep sense of honesty and spirituality. People instinctively put their trust in you to lead them to the light.

Daniel Radcliffe will play the title role in "Weird: The Al Yankovic Story."

release date, Oct. 21, pushed back from Sept. 30.

Boy, has Harry Potter come of age! Daniel Radcliffe's taken on some far-out roles, not the least of which is three seasons of "Miracle Workers," which premiered in 2019 and has been renewed for a fourth season. Now he'll play the title role in "Weird: The Al Yankovic Story." Weird Al had big hit comedy parodies of the Michael Jackson blockbuster "Beat It," called "Eat It" and Madonna's show-stopping "Like a Virgin," called "Like a Surgeon." His string of hits made him the biggest-selling comedy recording artist of all time and won him five Grammy awards. They promise the film will feature tales of torrid celebrity love affairs and a famously depraved lifestyle. We'll next see Radcliffe in "The Lost City," with Sandra Bullock and Channing Tatum, premiering March 25.

HOLLYWOOD — Picture movie executives are wondering what they can come up with to get people back into movie theaters. Well, desperate times demand desperate measures. In order to get people back into seats in big-screen movie houses, producers and directors are now demanding their leading men bare all ... and we do mean ALL, including frontal nudity!

Bradley Cooper, age 47, agreed to do it for Oscar-winning director Guillermo del Toro for "Nightmare Alley." Cooper said, "In order to do it in a real way, it demanded I'd be naked ... full frontal and partially backside. I had to do that scene the first day Toni Collette worked."

Cooper's not alone in baring all. Benedict Cumberbatch, 45, has a full-frontal scene in "The Power of the Dog," for which he'll probably be up for an Oscar, and 47-year-old Simon Rex did it for the comedy-drama "Red Rocket," which cost $1 million and only grossed $1,024,049. But Alexander Skarsgard beat them all by doing full frontal in HBO's "True Blood" in 2013 at 37 and again in HBO's "Big Little Lies" in 2017 at 41.

George Clooney and Julia Roberts have appeared in at least five films together — "Confessions of a Dangerous Mind" (2001), "Ocean's Eleven" (2001), "Ocean's Twelve" (2004), "Ocean's Thirteen" (2007) and "Money Monster" (2016) — and were trying to replicate their magic-making again in another film, "Ticket to Paradise." In it, they play divorced parents rushing to Bali to stop their teenage daughter from jumping into an unwise marriage, like they did.

They were shooting in Australia until the latest outbreak of COVID-19 forced the production to shut down, and they returned to the U.S. to wait out the three months until it resumes. Universal Pictures is optimistic that they'll return Down Under in time to complete filming in time for the new

REGISTRATION UNDERWAY FOR YOUTH POLICE ACADEMY

A group of Danville-area kids will get to gain valuable hands-on experience with several policing-related activities through the Police Department's fourth annual Youth Police Academy.

The academy is a 12-day program that begins on June 13 and concludes on June 30, with each day starting at 8 a.m. and ending at 4 p.m. It is open to 25 participants ages 10 through 17 who have an interest in police work. Participants will engage in a variety of activities during the academy, with the last day being a dinner and graduation ceremony.

The program also welcomes up to eight cadets from past years to come back to the academy to serve in leadership roles. Former cadets can apply with Corporal Sylvia Brooks and will gain valuable leadership skills.

"The program allows the kids to build lasting relationships," Brooks, the academy's organizer, said. "Knowing a cop personally reduces the likelihood of someone committing a crime"

The academy will have some flexibility in the pick-up and drop-off times for the cadets this year. This allows cadets whose parents' work schedules do not align with the academy to still take part.

"This makes it accessible to more participants," Brooks said. "It also makes it easier on the parents."

The academy will be held in the new police department building, which is under construction at the former Dan River Mills site in Schoolfield. Parents must provide transportation to and from the academy. To register or for additional information, contact Brooks at (434) 797-8898.

HEART THE PARK EVENTS TO TAKE PLACE THROUGHOUT CITY OF DANVILLE

Danville Parks and Recreation is hosting free community events in three neighborhood parks in the next month. The event, called "Heart the Park" is a part of ongoing efforts to engage residents in the park planning process. The event features a scavenger hunt for hearts in the park, prizes, tennis demonstrations, participatory art display, music, s'mores, and a firepit. The event will showcase illustrated examples of park additions or improvements that work toward goals that some community members have already identified for the parks. Participants are also encouraged to give feedback and sign up to be a part of future planning activities.

City partners and local organizations are co-hosting the event and showcasing how they are available with support and resources for healthy living and community building. The Health Collaborative, Opportunity Neighborhoods, Department of Community Development, Danville Police Department, Southside Area Tennis Association, and Danville Museum of Fine Arts and History will all be present with activities, information, and giveaways.

"We are so excited to be connecting with residents to plan park spaces that meet their wants and needs," said Stephanie Lovely, Facilities and Services Planner. "The more participation we have, and the more stakeholders who can contribute their ideas and expertise, the better the end product will be for local residents."

The first event will take place this Saturday, February 12, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Doyle Thomas Park, located at 827 Green Street.

The second event will take place on Monday, February 21 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Coates Park, located at 1725 Westover Drive. The last event will take place at Pumpkin Creek Park, located at 315 Taylor Drive, but the date and time are not yet determined.

For more information on Heart the Park, call (434) 799-5200 or email stephanie.lovely@danvilleva.gov.

He owned and operated Northside Tire and Battery in Danville for a number of years and was most recently employed by First Piedmont Corporation. He loved to laugh; he loved fast cars, roller coasters and Nascar; he loved to travel, but above all he loved his family and God.

In addition to his mother, Frankie is survived by his wife of 43 years, Sandra Gale Jolly Durham of the residence; one son, James (Jamie) Franklin Durham, Jr. (Nikki); two daughters, Tabitha Gale Durham Shumate (Tyler), and Chelsea Marie Durham Strader (Kenny); six grandchildren – Kayleigh Durham, Sophia Fouts, Clifton (Cliff) Shumate, Donald Fouts, Ryder Shumate, and Memphis Durham; one sister, Joyce Ann Durham Estabrook; and a number of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. He was predeceased by his father, James Albert Durham.

A celebration of his life will be held at 5 p.m. on Sunday, January 30, 2022 with visitation starting at 3 p.m. at White Oak Worship Center at 8465 U.S. Highway 29, Blairs, VA 24527 with Pastor Roger Ewing, Pastor Cabel Cobbs, and Pastor John Hanson officiating. The burial will be Monday, January 31, 2022 at 11:00 a.m. at Danville Memorial Gardens. The family is receiving friends at the residence. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to International Missions Outreach, 11896 Elk River Road N., Clendenin, WV 25045. www.imohaiti.org

One day we will remember how lucky we were to have known their love, with wonder, not grief.

James Fredrick "Fred" Doss

James Fredrick "Fred" Doss, 80, passed away peacefully February 3, 2022, surrounded by those who loved him most.

A native of Danville, Virginia, son of the late Robert

Owen and Beulah Vivian George Doss, he was a retired commercial truck driver. Fred was a loving husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, and friend.

Affectionately known by his grandchildren as "Pops", he was always sharing stories and bragging on them, as they were his pride and joy. He would give you the shirt off his back as well as his opinion on just about anything. He will be dearly missed, but never forgotten. Go rest high on that mountain. We love you!

Surviving are his wife, Patricia Reid Doss of the home; two daughters, Tammy Doss Mathena (Steven) of Greer and Karen Doss Sapp (Jimmy) of Fountain Inn; one sister, Joan Moore (Raymond) of Danville, Virginia; five grandchildren, Logan Sapp (Gin), Russell Sapp (Bri), Daniel Sapp, Matthew Mathena (Taylor) and Sarah Mathena (Bailey); one great-grandson, Easton Sapp; two great-grandchildren on the way; and several nieces and nephews, who all loved him endlessly.

He was also predeceased by two brothers, Bob and Bernie Doss.

A memorial service will be held 2:00 p.m. Sunday, February 13, 2022, at Disciples United Methodist Church, Greenville SC.

Visitation will be held after the service at the church.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Disciples UMC, 185 Riley Smith Dr., Greenville, SC 29615.

Online condolences may be made at www.the-woodmortuary.com

Arkansas Possum Pie

Servings: 8

Crust:

- 3/4 cup butter
- 1 1/2 cups flour
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1 1/2 cups pecans, crushed

Cream Cheese Layer:

- 12 ounces cream cheese, softened
- 1 cup powdered sugar
- 4 tablespoons heavy cream

Pudding Layer:

- 3 egg yolks
- 2 cups whole milk
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/3 cup cocoa powder
- 3 tablespoons cornstarch
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Whipped Cream Topping:

- 1 cup heavy whipping cream
- 4 tablespoons powdered sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract

- chocolate syrup
- 1/2 cup chopped pecans

Heat oven to 350 F.

To make crust: In saucepan, melt butter; add flour, brown sugar and crushed pecans. Stir until combined. Press into 9 1/2-inch deep pie plate.

Bake 15-20 minutes until crust begins to brown. Cool completely.

To make cream cheese layer: In medium bowl, mix cream cheese until creamy. Add powdered sugar and heavy cream; mix until smooth. Spread over cooled pecan crust. Refrigerate.

To make pudding layer: In medium bowl, whisk egg yolks. Add milk; whisk until combined. Set aside.

In separate medium bowl, whisk sugar, cocoa powder, cornstarch, flour and salt until combined.

In saucepan over medium heat, add egg yolk mixture and flour mixture. Whisk constantly until pudding begins to thicken and bubble. Add butter and vanilla extract, stirring until butter is melted. Pour chocolate pudding in shallow bowl. Cover with plastic wrap touching pudding to keep it from forming skin. Refrigerate 30 minutes.

Pour pudding over cream cheese layer. Cover pie with plastic wrap. Refrigerate overnight.

To make whipped cream topping: In stand mixer bowl, add heavy cream, powdered sugar and vanilla extract. Whip until stiff peaks form. Spread whipped cream over pudding layer.

Drizzle pie with chocolate syrup and sprinkle with chopped pecans.

* If you have lots of outdoor or feral cats in your area, here is some good advice, given to me by my grandmother: Start your car with a bang -- on the hood, that is. When the overnight temperature dips, cats know to find someplace that is wind-shielded and off the ground, and sometimes that means they will climb up into your engine area to hunker down. If your car starts while they’re there, they can be hurt or even killed. Give the hood a good knock to let a cat know to get out quick. -- JoAnn

FLASHBACK
POP ROCK & SOUL TRIVIA BY MICK HARPER

1. Meat Loaf was taken to court to keep him from recording which song?
2. What is “The Witch Queen of New Orleans” about?
3. The titles of six of the first seven America albums all began with the same letter. What was it?
4. Name the duo that released “River Deep -- Mountain High.”
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: “Well, it’s been building up inside of me for, oh, I don’t know how long.”

Answers

1. “It’s All Coming Back to Me Now,” penned by Jim Steinman. Steinman insisted it was a woman’s song, and the court agreed, blocking Meat Loaf. He didn’t get the chance to record the song until 2006, when he did so with a Norwegian singer.
2. A 19th-century New Orleans practitioner of voodoo. It was released in 1971 by Redbone.
3. H, for “Homecoming,” “Hat Trick,” “Holiday,” “Hearts,” “Hideaway” and “Harbor,” from 1972 to 1977.
4. Ike and Tina Turner, in 1966.
5. “Don’t Worry Baby,” by the Beach Boys in 1964. Songwriter Brian Wilson later said he considered having the Ronettes record the song. But that never happened because Phil Spector (the Ronettes’ producer) hadn’t written the song.
