ARIES (March 21 to April 19) The adventurous Aries won't be disappointed with taking on a new challenge, despite some initial misgivings. Look for this move to open other opportunities down the line.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Let that beautiful Bovine smile not only put you at ease, but also show that you're ready, willing and more than able to confound the naysayers around you. A new admirer has important news.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Be careful how you handle a relationship that you're hoping to save. You already have the facts on your side. Avoid weakening your position by embellishing it with unnecessary dramatics.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Taking definitive stands isn't easy for the often-wavering Moon Child. But you not only need to stay with your decision, but also to reassure others it was the right thing to do.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) As a proud Lion, you're right to be upset about those who might be lying about you to others. But the best revenge is proving them wrong by succeeding at what you set out to do.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22). Caution is still advised before making a financial commitment to a "promising" project. Look for the facts behind the fluff. Devote the weekend to loved ones.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A Taurus offers comfort and advice as you deal with an upsetting event. Use this as a learning experience that will help you avoid similar problems in the future.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A romantic situation creates some chaos for single Scorpions. But it's well worth the effort to work things out. A trusted friend can offer some helpful advice.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Expect to make new friends as your social circle expands. Also, remember to tell that family member how proud you are of his or her achievements.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19). New ventures continue to be favored. And with your self-confidence rising all the time, you'll want to see how well you can do with a new challenge. So, go to it.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) This is a good time for the usually serious-minded Aquarian to let loose and enjoy some fun times. Expect to get good news about a workplace issue.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Changed plans might upset some people, but your needs should be respected. Offer explanations when necessary. But don't let yourself be talked into changing your decisions.

YOU BORN THIS WEEK: You have a gift for bringing people together. You would make a fine judge or counselor.

Piedmont Pets
February 24, 2022 By Paulette Dean

According to the Virginia Department of Game and Inland Fisheries, the coyote population in Virginia continues to grow and is distributed throughout the state, even though it is thought that more coyotes live in the area west of the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Coyotes are a threat to cats kept outside, as well as small dogs. There have been some cases of coyotes even attacking small dogs that are being walked on leashes.

The Virginia Department of Wildlife Resources suggests that "Small dogs and cats should be kept in an enclosure when kept outdoors in order to prevent coyotes from attacking and killing a pet animal. Even though a fence may dissuade coyotes from attacking your pet, be aware that coyotes can jump over fences less than 7-feet high and can climb over taller fencing that does not have an outward slanting overhang." (From www.dwr.virginia.gov)

This certainly is not an issue that should cause undue concern or cause people to panic; we do not have hordes of coyotes in each neighborhood that are waiting to attack humans and their pets. However, it is not a bad idea to exercise caution. It is better to take a pro-active approach to staying away from coyotes and encouraging them to leave inhabited areas.

First and foremost, cats are safer inside. Small dogs should also not be left outside by themselves. All dogs and cats should have rabies vaccinations that are kept current. Dogs that are chained outside are also at risk of being attacked by coyotes.

996 South Boston Rd.,
Danville, VA 24540
Phone: (434) 799-0843

If a food source is provided (even unintentionally through feeding pets outside), a coyote may become more comfortable in staying around your house. That is not a good thing, because the coyote may become more aggressive. Take steps to secure garbage cans, and prevent small prey from staying around your house; they can attract hungry coyotes.

The Department of Wildlife Resources also offers some good advice about how to make coyotes feel unwelcome. They suggest you find a place that keeps you safe from the animal, and then yell while throwing non-food items in the direction of the coyote.

It is always safer to stay away from wild animals, and it is safer for your pets to take steps to keep them away from them also.

Whirligigs

Whirligigs were invented centuries ago. They are both toys and tools, indicators of wind direction and the weather. Sources disagree on where the first were made; it was probably in China about 400 B.C. or by Native Americans about 550 B.C. The whirligig must have a spinning part and a base and many were made in fanciful shapes. The oldest known pictures of a whirligig were in tapestries made in medieval times.

There are many names and many shapes of whirligigs. Old sources call them pinwheels, gee-haws, whirlyjigs or whirlys. Vintage examples have waving arms, flags, angels' wings, a man chopping wood, horses running and much more. They are also popular children's toys or garden ornaments.

A political whirligig was sold by Garth's Auctions in Ohio a few years ago. It is a figure of President Theodore Roosevelt with a top hat and monocle riding on a penny farthing cycle. Roosevelt served from 1901 to 1909, so it must have been made after 1901. He is holding a red counterbalance vane that turns the bike with the wind. The handmade whirligig sold at Garth's for $865.

Q: I believe I have a pair of Apache wedding moccasins. Apache Indians killed my great-grandfather in Bisbee, Arizona, in 1885. He was the deputy sheriff. His gravestone reads, "Killed by Apache Indians." I'd like to find the appropriate museum or collector that would be interested in them.

A: Indian moccasins can sell for several hundred dollars. Value depends on decoration, rarity and condition. Any information you have about the moccasins and how they were obtained adds provenance. Several museums, including some in Arizona, have collections of Native American items. Search the internet to find them. Those near the area where your great-grandfather lived might be interested in the connection to the local legend. If you want to sell the * "Snow will better slide off a shovel that has been sprayed with furniture polish." -- T.L. in Minnesota

* Here's an old tip, but a good one: Before going away on vacation, put a couple of ice cubes in a plastic baggie, and set it at the front of the freezer. When you return, if there is any evidence of melting, you will know you lost power while you were gone. If the bag is one big, flat cube, you lost power long enough to suspect all your refrigerator items of being spoiled.

* To temporarily get a winter frost effect on a window, use this fun recipe: Dissolve 4 to 6 tablespoons of Epsom salts in a beer. When the salt is dissolved, dip a clean rag in the mixture and wipe it on your windowpane. As it dries, crystals will form, creating a frost effect. This is a great solution for a window you don't want to be clear but also don't want to permanently alter. The effect washes off with soap and water.

* "If you get a residue inside your coffee cups when they go through the dishwasher, it might be time to give your machine a once-over. In the meantime, spray the insides of the coffee cups with a bleach-based cleaner like 409 just before you turn it on. That should help." -- E.T. in Michigan

* Cut your kitchen sponge in half, or even thirds. You can clean just as well with a smaller sponge, and you will extend its life, saving you money. A smaller sponge dries out more quickly, too.

Internship Program Expanded for 2022

After a successful first year in 2021, Pittsylvania County is partnering with several community organizations to expand the summer internship program in 2022. Thanks to funding from Pittsylvania County, GO Virginia Region 3, the Tobacco Region Revitalization Commission, and the Danville Regional Foundation, the ExperienceWorks initiative will provide approximately 30 students the opportunity to participate in a paid summer internship and allow an additional 115 students to engage in a variety of other interconnected work-based learning initiatives.

"We are thrilled to be able to offer this internship program for even more students this year," said Vic Ingram, Chairman of the Pittsylvania County Board of Supervisors. "This program provides valuable work-based learning experiences for our young people, who also provide value to Pittsylvania County and the departments and organizations that they work with."

Strange BUT TRUE

By Lucie Winborne

* Valentina hot sauce was named for the intrepid Valentina Ramirez Avitia, who at 17 posed as a man to join the Mexican Revolution. She made it all the way to the rank of lieutenant before being expelled upon the accidental discovery of her braids.

* American fashion model Jeremy Meeks' police mugshot was so good that he got a modeling contract while still in jail.

* In 1524, a wooden statue of the Virgin Mary at Latvia's Riga Cathedral was accused of being a witch. At its trial by water it was thrown into the Dvina River, where it floated, resulting in a guilty verdict -- and burning.

* Missing a remote? Try looking where you last sat: A 2011 study found that 49% of the time it was in a couch, while 8% were found in the bathroom, another 8% in a dresser drawer, 4% in the fridge/freezer (your guess is as good as ours on that one) and 2% turned up outside.

* Twelve-year-old Rhiley Morrison swallowed 54 magnetic balls to see if he could get metal to stick to his stomach, as well as what they looked like when he went to the toilet. He survived the experiment after six hours of surgery and a two-week hospital stay.

* The wood frog can hold its urine for up to eight months.

* Violets can be smelled for only a few moments at a time because their scent comes from ionine, which shuts smell receptors off after simulating them. After a few breaths, the scent pops up again.

* In 2016, the Swiss city of Lausanne banned "silent disco" events because they were too noisy.

Thought for the Day: "I'm sick of following my dreams, man. I'm just going to ask where they're going and hook up with 'em later." -- Mitch Hedberg

Even Exchange by Donna Pettman

Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you exchange the A from MASTER for an I, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters.

SEE WHAT! Look for a sign in this crystal ball. What sign can it be? Draw lines from 1 to 2 to 3, etc. to find out.

S-CURVES! Letter S completes each of these seven-letter series: 1. MNOPQR—, 2. OTTFFS—, 3. SMTWTF—, 4. MAMJJA—. See if you can explain why. Hint: Each is an initial letter.

DOT'S NICE! An intricate circle-and-line design shown here provides a challenging wits test. It is possible to place nine checkmarks among the various circles so that no two checks appear in the same row, column or diagonal line.

Two starter checks are already in place. See if you can insert the remaining seven. Remember, nine checks are required. Just one on any line.

How quickly can you comply?
P.S.: Have an eraser handy.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:00 p.m. on Wednesday, February 23, 2022, at Barker Funeral Home with Rev. Mike Hearp officiating. Visitation will be held one hour prior to the service at the funeral home. The burial will be private.

Barker Funeral Home is respectfully serving the Meadows family.

Glenn Horsley

Glenn Horsley, 81 of 23 Brown Lane, Danville, VA, died on Saturday, January 8 2022 after being in declining health for the past several years.

Glenn was born in Danville VA. on April 12 1940, son of the late Pearl Thomas Horsley and Carrie Bell Cochran Horsley.

He spent all of his life in the Danville area, where he worked for Dan River Mills in maintenance. In his spare time he enjoyed fishing, car racing and raising a garden. He enjoyed sharing the bounty of his garden with friends and neighbors. He was a member of Red Men Tribe 124 and Pocahontas Council 22.

On June 15, 1963, Glenn married, Fannie Gauldin Horsley, who survives of the residence.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by one brother, Donnie Horsley and wife, Kathy of Charlotte NC.; and three sisters in-law; Masie, Shirley and Nancy Horsley; and several nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by his parents and three brothers; Curtis, Billy and Denny Horsley along with two sisters; Ila Hardy (Otis) and Peggy Echols (Glen).

A Funeral service was held on January 12, 2022 at Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel with the Rev. Charles Searce and Lynn Reynolds officiating. Interment followed in Danville Memorial Gardens.

Glenn is greatly missed by Fannie, Frances, Meadow and his Brown Lane family as well as by all his family and friends.

Honor the memory of your cherished one by sharing the story of their life with friends, neighbors and associates here in the community.

The Truth About Fasting Before Blood Tests

DEAR DR. ROACH: My daughter is a registered nurse, and tells me that when getting blood tests, it is not necessary to fast eight to 12 hours even though my doctor says to do so. Four hours is enough, she claims. Is this true, or is my daughter trying to be a doctor, if you know what I mean? --- L.C.

ANSWER: I probably agree with your daughter the nurse more than I do with your doctor in this case. Most routine blood testing does not require fasting. There is controversy about whether cholesterol testing is best done fasting or not: Most recent evidence suggests that fasting is not necessary. However, many physicians still continue to use fasting levels, as that is what they are used to. Nonfasting numbers may reflect the true state of risk to the arteries more so than fasting levels.

A few seldom-ordered tests, such as insulin levels, may need to be drawn precisely a certain period of time after feeding to be able to interpret them. In most cases, your daughter is probably right that prolonged fasting is unnecessary. I still recommend following your doctor's orders.

Your daughter is providing you with up-to-date medical knowledge. Any nurse or doctor should do the same.

DEAR DR. ROACH: Is it true that all orange juice is dangerous except organic? I heard on a radio show something about food's having been contaminated by Roundup. The man said, "It's in our orange juice." It was said (I think) that only organic was safe. What do you think about this orange juice issue? -- J.J.V.S.

ANSWER: I read the report showing that all orange juice brands tested positive for glyphosate, a commonly used herbicide, but one that is never applied to trees, in organic or conventional farming. The levels in the report, which was not published in a peer-reviewed journal, are extremely low, 3 to 17 parts per billion. The Environmental Protection Agency allowable level in citrus fruit is 500 parts per billion.

The risk from glyphosate in orange juice is negligible. I don't recommend large amounts of any type of fruit juice due to sugar content, which is a bigger threat than glyphosate, in my opinion. Stick to a glass a day.

DEAR DR. ROACH: A recent column commented on liquid bandages for a home first aid kit. What else should be in a home first aid kit? -- K.L.

ANSWER: Depending how large a family you have, how active you are, how often you travel and what types of activities you enjoy, your ideal first aid kit might vary a bit from standard guidelines. I found one pretty complete list from U.C San Diego at tinyurl.com/kitforfirstaid. Most of the kit is for care of minor lacerations, but there are some additional types of supplies as well. The list includes several medications: If you use those, be sure you replace them after expiration. Several well-stocked first aid kits are available for sale online, some for as little as $25.

Dr. Roach regrets that he is unable to answer individual questions, but will incorporate them in the column whenever possible. Readers may email questions to ToYourGoodHealth@med.cornell.edu.

HOLLYWOOD
 by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Are we ready for "Magic Mike's Last Dance"? Channing Tatum took two years off and now is back with a vengeance. In addition to producing, directing and starring in the just released "Dog" and "The Lost City," with Sandra Bullock, Daniel Radcliffe and Brad Pitt (March 25), he's headed to London to shoot his third "Magic Mike." Steven Soderbergh, director of the original "Magic Mike," was set to launch a Broadway musical of the film, but after seeing the "Magic Mike" live show in London (there's also one in Vegas), he decided they had to do a third installment instead.

Tatum admits, "Didn't want to, we chewed all the meat off that — no pun intended. 'Magic Mike's Last Dance' will feature the sickest dancing we can create, a full dance-icle and The Super Bowl of stripper movies. I'm going to dance as hard as I've danced in any movie other than 'Hail Caesar.' Less character, more dancing, and we'll have a strong female protagonist as the new lead. We've never done the traditional love story, and this isn't a traditional love story!"

Jamie Dornan and Benedict Cumberbatch, both Oscar contenders, are very busy. Dornan follows "Belfast" with Netflix's spy thriller "Heart of Stone," opposite Gal Gadot. Cumberbatch, in addition to the upcoming "Doctor Strange" (out May 6), joins Oscar-winner Laura Dern in "Morning," set in a society that no longer needs to sleep thanks to a new pill and artificial sun. Dern will be back in "Jurassic World Dominion" (June 10), then "The Son," with Hugh Jackman and Anthony Hopkins (which wrapped in October).

Grouch Marx, one of the immortal Marx Brothers, along with Harpo, Chico and Zeppo, made classic films like "Duck Soup," "A Night at the

Channing Tatum in "Magic Mike"

Opera" and "Animal Crackers" (three of my favorites out of 13) from 1929-1952. Groucho hosted the TV show "You Bet Your Life" from 1950-1961. In 1971 he hired Erin Fleming as his secretary, and by 1973 she'd become his manager and allegedly his girlfriend. I personally used to see them at events, usually arguing profusely. In 1977 Groucho died, at 86, and his children sued Erin Fleming for embezzling $472,000, which she was court-ordered to return to his estate. She also was accused of mental and physical abuse. She died in 2003 at 61.

Oscar-winning actor Geoffrey Rush will portray Groucho in "Raised Eyebrows," which is set between 1973-1977, with Sienna Miller as Erin Fleming, showing how their power struggle created a comedy of horrors. To say the least from what I saw, she was very controlling, and he was cantankerous, which was the secret word ... "You Bet Your Life!"

Vegetable Casserole Recipe

Ingredients

- 16 oz package frozen cauliflower thawed
- 16 oz package frozen broccoli thawed
- 8 oz canned sliced water chestnuts drained
- 8 oz canned bean sprouts drained
- 10.5 oz can cream of mushroom soup
- 1 c. mayonnaise
- 1 yellow onion diced
- 2 eggs beaten
- 1 tsp salt
- Dash of Pepper
- 8 oz cheddar cheese grated
- 8 oz mozzarella cheese grated

Instructions

In a mixing bowl combine soup, eggs, onions, mayonnaise, salt & pepper.

In a greased 9x13 glass pan put 1/2 of the broccoli, cauliflower, bean sprouts & water chestnuts. Pour half of the combined soup mixture over the cauliflower mixture. Then sprinkle half the cheese on top. Repeat layer.

Bake at 350 degrees for an hour to a hour and fifteen minutes or until the cheese is golden brown on top and the vegetables are cooked through.

Notes

If cheese starts to brown before cooking time is down simply cover with foil and continue baking.

- Archie Bell released one solo album after the breakup of The Drells. Name the album.
- Levi Stubbs, Abdul "Duke" Fakir, Renaldo "Obie" Benson and Lawrence Payton were the founders of what group?
- "Higher Love" became a chart topper for which artist?
- What group released "Walk of Life"?
- Name the song that contains this lyric: "When I was a young man and never been kissed, I got to thinkin' over how much I had missed."

Answers

- "I Never Had It So Good," in 1980. Bell continued to perform with The Drells now and then for the next two decades.
- The Four Aims. They later called themselves The Four Tops because they didn't want to be confused with the Ames Brothers.
- Steve Winwood, in 1986. The song also netted two Grammys in 1987, beating Whitney Houston's "Greatest Love of All" for Record of the Year.
- Dire Straits, in 1985.
- "Kisses Sweeter Than Wine," by The Weavers in 1951. Legend says Pete Seeger of The Weavers borrowed a 1937 Lead Belly blues version, which was rewritten from an Irish song about a farmer and his cow named Dicky. Others, including Jimmie Rodgers and Jackson Browne, have released versions.
