When I was a HS sophomore – decades ago! – my World History teacher was Mrs. Holloway, but we all called her Granny Holloway. She was a slight woman, scarcely 5 feet tall, seemingly fragile, but full of vim and vinegar...you know the type. She could speak for hours about the Fall of the Roman Empire, the Inquisition, the Industrial Revolution, and the World Wars. She never sat while she lectured, never stood at a lectern, but moved around the room making eye contact with all of her students. She was demanding too, and I can't remember how many papers were sent back to me because she would note "you can do better than this, Miss Schaal."

One day during class, an office aid interrupted her lecture to hand her a note. She read it silently, apologized, and said she needed to leave the room. We knew it had to be important because Granny Holloway stopped lectures for no one.

We sat in the room talking to one another when the door opened, and in walked Mrs. Abels, another teacher in our HS. She explained to us that Granny had been faced with an emergency, a serious one, and it was questionable if she would even be returning to finish out the semester. We were stunned. Would we get a chance to tell her goodbye? Would we get updates, so we would know she was ok? Mrs. Abels assured us that we need not worry, that Granny was safe but needed time away, and that the best thing we could do for her, and the best way we could show our devotion to her, was to be cooperative with her replacement. Mrs. Abels confirmed that she had been asked and had agreed to step in as Granny's replacement.

Cheer up, she told us, this could be a good thing. Other teachers still believed in endless homework and projects with deadlines and hard work. She would not bring that into our class. She believed in clean slates. If there were grades that we did not like, she could give us a chance to bring them up. She asked us what suggestions we had to make the semester a better learning experience. Someone mentioned that lectures were boring and we wanted more films. Done, she said. Someone else mentioned that a free day now and then would help us if we needed to catch up on work in other classes. She didn't see a problem with that. She asked us how we felt about an end-of-semester party. Um, yeah, sounded very good to us. And on and on. Mrs. Abels listened intently and agreed to all of our suggestions, continually emphasizing that her concern was that we have a good learning experience and enjoy the semester. She also reminded us that we were lucky to not be sent out to other classes where we would be working to catch up, and that of course this was all for Granny.

Near the end of the period, shortly before the bell rang, the door opened and Granny sauntered in with her usual Granny Holloway attitude. "How did they do?," she asked. "Marvelous," said Mrs. Abels. "They were completely in my hands."

Granny then faced us and said "And that, my students, is how a dictator takes over a nation. Not with guns or tanks or laws or mandates. They do it using a poster child and promises and gifts and protection from an enemy."

I can't remember a lesson all through 12 years of public school that made such an impression on me, and has stayed with me.

We are among wolves in sheep clothing, many are being deceived with a false light! I was falling for it myself until the Lord opened my eyes to see and my ears to hear.

Stay awake! And buckle up. Put on the FULL armor of God, we are going to need it in the days to come, NO man is going to "Save the World"! Jesus Christ is the only Way, Truth and the Light!

Piedmont Pets
March 3, 2022 By Paulette Dean

It was not so very long ago that we watched the nightly news shows for updates about what happened in the world. The next day, the newspapers gave more detail with pictures attached. I confess that made it easy to ignore some things.

I was watching television one night in January 1991, because we had been told that the Gulf War was about to expand. During a live television report, our armed forces began the "shock and awe" that signaled the beginning of Operation Desert Storm. As a reporter stood and reported, explosions were heard and immediately, street dogs started barking and howling. I worried about them - as well as all of the other animals - that would be affected by the war.

There were very few pictures of animals, however. The internet changed all that and, like you, I have seen the heartbreaking pictures of animals being carried by their owners into Ukrainian bomb shelters or down roads that, hopefully, lead to safe places. They are the lucky ones. I also read a post on social media by a young woman who said that she and her boyfriend felt bad about it, but they left to go to another country, leaving their dog behind.

The entire world knows what animal lovers have always known - what affects humans also affects animals. Pets and wildlife suffer.

Although the battle is far away from us, I believe there are lessons for everyone. No, I do not think we are going to war; however, we never know when a local emergency or natural disaster will affect our households. In fact, a lesson we are all learning about the supply chain also is a wake-up call for pet owners.

We suggest that pet owners have a "go bag" or evacuation bag that can hold necessary supplies for pets. Food, medical supplies, toys, copies of veterinary records, and other items could be held in this bag. It must be updated at least once a year.

We suggest that people have a supply of food for their pets at home. I have a three month supply for each of my pets. I am told that suddenly buying large quantities of food can exacerbate the supply chain problem, so perhaps a wiser course would be to buy 1-2 extra bags or cans of food at a time.

Finally, we Americans are a spoiled people, but we are also a very generous people. We also urge people to use wisdom in donating to organizations that will say they are collecting money for the animals affected by war. Please carefully check the validity of those claims and give money only to reputable organizations.

The horrors of what is happening in a country few of us could identify a few weeks ago are very sad and the pictures are constantly in our minds. If you pray or send warm thoughts to the Ukraine, please include the animals!

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — It's taken 13 years for anyone to attempt to make a bio-pic of Michael Jackson's life (he died in 2009 at 50). This comes right on the heels of "I Wanna Dance With Somebody," the biopic about Whitney Houston (who died in 2012 at 48). Set for a Dec. 23 release in theaters, Naomi Ackie embodies Houston, while Aston Sanders plays Bobby Brown and Stanley Tucci plays record mogul Clive Davis.

Graham King, producer of "Bohemian Rhapsody," is in the process of casting someone to portray Michael Jackson. There are a bunch of Jackson impersonators in Vegas and touring clubs across the country, but finding the right one to handle the complicated in-depth portrayal of the King of Pop won't be easy. The film covers him from his beginnings in The Jackson 5 and through his trials, both criminal and civil addressing allegations of child sex abuse. On the plus side, the Jackson estate is allowing them access to all his music. Hopefully his legacy and musical magic has transferred to the newer generations.

The late Bob Saget will live on in his last film appearance in the comedy "Killing Daniel," shot in the Grand Cayman Islands last spring. Saget was practically a newlywed, since he married Kelly Rizzo (no relation), in October 2018. Rizzo is the host of "Eat Travel Rock TV," in which she takes viewers through the best of food, travel and music on ETR-TV. It was recently revealed that Saget died from a head injury he sustained earlier the night he died. When he retired the night of Jan. 8 at the Ritz-Carlton in Orlando, Florida, after performing his show at a comedy club, he had no idea he was leaving us at 65 years of age.

If you, like many, are still wary of going to a theater to see films such as "West Side Story," fear not, it will hit Disney+ and HBO Max on March 2.

We told you Anthony Ramos was a star on the horizon. The Crown Royal commercial spokesman went from "In the Heights" and "Hamilton" on Broadway to the film versions and beyond. He's back from Budapest, where he shot the sci-fi film "Distant," with Naomi Scott and Zachary Quinto. He was cast as THE STAR of "Transformers: The Rise of the Beasts," filming last summer in Los Angeles, Machu Picchu, Montreal and Brooklyn for a June 9, 2023, release. Now Ramos is top-lining the upcoming six-episode Disney+ series "Ironheart," co-starring Dominique Thorne, star of "Black Panther: Wakanda Forever," due Nov. 11. This guy's risen faster than yeast — maybe we should call it The Rise of the Ramos!

1. Which album contains "Transylvania Boogie" and "Twenty Small Cigars"?
2. Name the group that wrote and released "Tequila Sunrise."
3. Edgar Winter is best known for two songs. What are they?
4. Who released "You Were on My Mind" and "The Pied Piper" in 1966?

Answers

1. "Chungas Revenge," by Frank Zappa in 1970. It was his third solo album. In all, Zappa released 62 albums during his career.
2. The Eagles, on their 1973 "Desperado" album. The title came from the popular alcoholic drink of the day.
3. "Frankenstein" and "Free Ride," both released in 1972 on his "They Only Come Out at Night" album. "Frankenstein" was released as a b-side single that caught on when DJs started getting requests for it.
4. Crispian St. Peters.
5. "The Night Has a Thousand Eyes," by Bobby Vee in 1962. The song climbed charts around the world, but the only place it reached No. 1 was in Ireland. Vee had 38 Hot 100 chart hits during his career, 10 of which reached the Top 20.

City selected for economic inclusion initiative

The City of Danville has been selected to join an initiative led by the National League of Cities and commit to increase economic inclusion and resilience for communities of color.

As part of the Southern Cities Economic Inclusion initiative, Danville joins 15 other cities in the Southeast to receive up to $30,000 in grant funding and opportunities to learn from national experts and other cities.

“Since becoming mayor nearly four years ago, I have continually stressed the importance of partnerships if we are to prosper as a city,” Mayor Alonzo Jones said. “Today, I am so excited to begin a new partnership — one that will guide us in our efforts to create a community that works for everyone. Through this partnership, we will build the frameworks and plant the seeds necessary for a city we all deserve.”

Economic inclusion strategies involve the intentional engagement by cities to implement policies and programs that expand the participation of businesses and residents of color in the economy. The initiative is a joint venture between National League of Cities (NLC) and the W.K. Kellogg Foundation, the Annie E. Casey Foundation, and the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) This is a good time to reassess important relationships, both personal and professional, to see where problems might exist and how they can be overcome. Keep communication lines open.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) It's not easy to bring order to a chaotic situation, whether it's in the workplace or at home. But if anyone can do it, you can. A pleasant surprise awaits you by week's end.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Be careful that you don't make an upcoming decision solely on the word of those who might have their own reasons for wanting you to act as they suggest. Check things out for yourself.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A personal relationship that seems to be going nowhere could be restarted once you know why it stalled. An honest discussion could result in some surprising revelations.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) That unexpected attack of self-doubt could be a way of warning yourself to go slow before making a career-changing decision. Take more time to do a closer study of the facts.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A workplace problem needs your attention now, before it deteriorates to a point beyond repair. A trusted third party could be helpful in closing the gaps that have opened.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A recent family situation could give rise to a new problem. Keep an open mind and avoid making judgments about anyone's motives until all the facts are in.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Rely on your always-sharp intuition to alert you to potential problems with someone's attempt to explain away the circumstances behind a puzzling incident.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Although you still need to do some snipping of those lingering loose ends from a past project, you can begin moving on to something else.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) With your self-confidence levels rising, you should feel quite comfortable with agreeing to take on a possibly troublesome, but potentially well-rewarded, situation.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Travel is favored, both for business and for fun. The end of the week brings news about an upcoming project that could lead toward that promised career change.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You might feel suddenly overwhelmed by a flood of responsibilities. But if you deal with each one in its turn, you'll soon be able to hold your head above water and move on.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a wonderful way of offering comfort as well as guidance. You would do well in the healing arts.

Danville Kiwanis Club

At their February 24th meeting, Salvation Army leaders Antonio & Shawnte Hodges provided Danville Kiwanis Club members with an overview of church programs, social services including rent and utility assistance, services of the Salvation Army Thrift Store located at 2905 Riverside Drive and the feeding program. "Many people don't realize that the Salvation Army is a church," said Lt. Shawnte Hodges. Kiwanis Club members also learned the following from the two lieutenants: "We invite everyone to join us for worship each Sunday at 11:00 a.m. at 123 Henry Street in Danville, VA."

Even Exchange by Donna Pettman

Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you exchange the A from MASTER for an I, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters.

Robert Paschal Bendall III

Robert Paschal Bendall III, 73, took his last breath February 21, 2022 at his home in Santa Monica, California surrounded by his close family.

Born on October 1, 1948 in Danville, Virginia, "Bobby" was predeceased by his mother and father, Lucy Charles Bendall and Robert Paschal Bendall Jr.

Robert was a remarkable man who had a profound impact on those around him. His charisma, sense of humor and genuine kindness leave his family and friends at a profound loss.

Growing up in Danville, Robert played basketball for George Washington High School, then attended Hampden-Sydney College for a year before joining the Vietnam War as a US Marine, Private First Class. After the war, he graduated from College of William and Mary where his interest in art history led to working in New York City in art galleries, artistic jewelry sales and as a high fashion model and actor. Signing with an agent, Robert performed in plays in New York City then ventured to Hollywood, where he landed a role in the TV show, Night Court. At the top of his acting career, he secured his Masters in Educational Administration and began his teaching career where he shared his remarkable talents in the Los Angeles elementary schools.

In retirement, he shared his love of art by painting in acrylics, oil and interactive wall art. A favorite subject of many of his paintings was his love of the beach and surfing.

Robert leaves a legacy framed in the joy of sharing with others; on stage, in the classroom and with his paintings

He is survived by his biological son, Samuel Wren Bendall, two brothers Gordon Pannill Bendall and Charles Hunter Bendall, two cousins, William Alexander Bendall and Richard Augustus Bendall, his wife of 23 years, Susan P. Landon, step children and adoptive children Clay Landon, Thomas Landon, Charlotte Landon, grand children Andrew Landon, Olivia Landon, Bradley Landon, and Anand Landon.

A reception to honor his life will be held at a later date in California.

Townes Funeral Home is assisting the Bendall family. Online condolences may be made at townesfuneralhome.com.

- * Sometimes, despite the cold weather outside, we're still looking for an icy treat inside. In my family's dessert experiments, we've come up with some doozies, but here's one you may not have tried: If you put popsicles in the blender, the creamy result tastes just like yummy sherbet. -- JoAnn
- * If your lunchbox could be fresher, here's a tip from S.W. in Texas: Spray a piece of bread with vinegar and zip it up in your lunchbox overnight to clear out smells.
- * "You don't need to buy a special brush to get at high ceilings and skylights: Simply cover a broom with a pillowcase to clean cobwebs off the ceiling. To clean a skylight, cover a mop with a double layer of paper towels or newspaper, and secure with clips. Spray the paper with window cleaner and heft it up!" -- M.E. in Arkansas
- * "Here are two more uses for orange peels: Remove all labels and hard parts of the peels. Toss orange peels in a quart Mason jar. When full, fill with vinegar and set in warm place for two weeks. Strain into spray bottle, then discard peels. Makes an excellent disinfectant and ant killer. Or, dry orange peels. When crisp-dry, break into pieces and toss in a blender, then blend to a powder. Put in airtight container to sprinkle on fruit salads or use for orange zest." -- B.C. in New Hampshire

Things I'm Super Good At

1. Forgetting someone's name 10 seconds after they tell me.
2. Buying produce...and throwing it away two weeks later.
3. Digging through the trash for the food box I just tossed, because I already forgot the directions. 🙄
4. Making plans. And then immediately regretting making plans.
5. Leaving laundry in the dryer until it wrinkles. Then turning on the dryer to dewrinkle. Then forgetting it again
6. Calculating how much sleep I'll get if I can just "fall asleep right now".
