Lake Michigan Catholic Becomes 'Our Lady of the Lake'

It's the beginning of a new era at what was formerly known as Lake Michigan Catholic Schools. The district announced Tuesday during an assembly with students its new name is Our Lady of the Lake Catholic School. The school's Father John Fleckenstein told students the name reflects the school's intent to always remain a Catholic school while looking to the future. He told WSJM News what the name means for Our Lady of the Lake.

"Our lady, our blessed mother, is who it is that we dedicate ourselves to, and of course, by keeping the lake in there, it's our nod to Lake Michigan," Fleckenstein said. "So, we're kind of putting it all together. Our mission, who we are, as well as where we are too."

What to do when you are hurting

"To secure a solid place in society, one must secure their place in hearts."
 Paul Gautam

I made the conscious decision that I was going to be a millionaire. The way I would go about reaching this great financial feat was by curing depression, and I have done exactly that. Depression solved. Would you like to know how I cured depression? Pen and paper in front of you? Here is the cure for depression...stop thinking so much about yourself. That is the cure for depression in individuals without a clinical reason for being depressed. There is only one way to remain in a state of depression and that is to only think about yourself. Selfishness comes with pain. It's not a matter of if. It's a matter of when; I promise you this.

Mr. Gautam explained. "What do you say to this? You say nothing... just listen. Paul spoke to me of his son's death, but also the manner. A healthy 19-year-old kid with his entire life in front of him, plans for what he was going to do, just taken away. Law enforcement came to Paul's home with the news and offered their theory of what happened which was quickly dismissed as non-sense. Late one afternoon we drove over to the spot this took place. I could feel the pain dripping from my friend and all I could do was stand there. The last thing Paul said before we left was "My son's blood is fertilizing this farm, Paul." Pretty heavy stuff.

Now, here is why I have told you what I have told you. Listen up, this is important. There are so many ideas floating around about how you best manage hurt. Psychology tells us we will go through five stages. Denial, anger, negotiate, depression, and finally acceptance. I don't know about all of that, but I am certain of this- The best way to manage the pain you are experiencing is to pour yourself into the pain another is experiencing. This is something I have the privilege of watching Paul do daily. Paul Gautam is a living example of this principal. We show God, we love him by loving each other. We honor God by honoring each other. People are always asking how do I get blessed? How do I get what I want? How do I get what I need? The best place to start is by helping other people.

Until next time, keep moving forward and do good.

Dave Says

Date night can be inexpensive and fun

Dear Dave,

We're trying to get control of our finances by living on a budget. We also have about $18,000 in debt we are trying to pay off. My husband brings home $3,400 a month, and I am currently taking care of our eight-month-old baby. We would like to have a date night once a month, and he thinks we should set aside $200 for this. Under the current circumstances, I feel like this is too much. What do you think?

Carolyne

Dear Carolyne,

If you'd told me you guys make $150,000 a year, I'd say go have a great time. But with your income, and a lot of debt on top, I'd put the brakes on that amount. It sounds like he's looking for an outlet to unwind and have a little fun, without giving a lot of thought to the big picture. The good thing, though, is you're working together and beginning to take this personal finance thing seriously.

My advice would be to lower the date night amount to about $50 right now. That's plenty for a reasonable dinner and a babysitter for a couple of hours. You might not have to figure babysitting expenses into the equation at all if you have family or friends nearby.

Going out on a date doesn't have to mean spending a lot of money. Years ago, when my wife and I were broke, we did tons of stuff that didn't cost a dime. Things like hiking and picnics are great ways to spend quality time together, while keeping your pocketbook in your pocket. Just be creative, talk about it together and make sure you find ways to have a little us time on a regular basis.

I think you're right on this one, Carolyne!

— Dave

A Lot about a Little Little-known Nation

When I started exploring our planet's wealth of unrecognized micronations, I figured I'd wind up sharing a little about a lot of them. But today, it's gonna be a lot about one of them.

For today we travel to Zaqistan, a micronation located within the borders of Utah, U.S.A. More specifically, remote northwestern Utah, U.S.A.

Zaqistan was created by its President, Zac Landsberg, a sculptor who lives in Brooklyn, New York, U.S.A.

In July 2005, the then 20-year-old Landsberg found himself bidding on eBay for a plot of ground in northwestern----wait, make that remote northwestern Utah. Landsberg landed the land for $610. Apparently, no one else was too interested in it – it was the minimum bid.

This may have something to do with the pertinent factoids about the property, which include: It's flat, featureless, and two acres in size. Unless it's four. Accounts differ. The journey there concludes with 15 miles of unpaved "road," and THEN, a two-mile hike. Into the Great Salt Lake Desert. It's so difficult to find that Landsberg prefers not to reveal the exact location – he's worried people will get lost trying to find it.

At the time of the acquisition, Landsberg was a young man frustrated with the state of the world. So, he thought, why not bring a new state into the world? Thus, Zaqistan.

There are profound questions and challenges to the notion of "nationhood" that Landsberg hoped – and still hopes, I suppose – to explore through the development of Zaqistan. But please tell me you don't expect me to dwell on those?!

For me, it's all about Zaqistan's dryly humorous and offbeat characteristics, which we shall call Zaqtoids.

Zaqtoid: Zaqistan's flag is meant to convey the nation's "mystery and might": In a place with zero sources of water, it consists of a bright red banner emblazoned with . . . a golden giant squid.

Zaqtoid: When Landsberg visits the place (once or twice year I read somewhere), he raises that flag on the country's highest spot – described by one visitor as "a slight bump, maybe five feet tall." It's called Mount Insurmountable. (I've found no documentation that anyone has ever reached the very top.)

Zaqtoid: On the economic front, Zaqistan reports the following -- Main Imports: Water; Main Exports: Conceptual art; Natural Resources: Desert brush, and Cryptobiotic Soil. (That last is a real thing: soils made of microscopic plant and bacterial matter. Fragile and, I daresay, precious.)

Zaqtoid: Landsberg and his friends, also mostly artists, have built many sculptures on display throughout the country. My fave is the Victory Arch: "A Monument to an Unspecified Victory." How's that for mystery and might?

Zaqtoid: Zaqistan will issue passports, said to be extremely authentic in their details. One Zaqistani, a writer named Mike Abu, says he's used his quite a bit: "To my surprise, not a single person has ever questioned my passport's validity. The bodega, the bar, the airport—not once has anyone stopped me."

Zaqtoid: The country has an Etsy site; however, nothing was currently for sale when I checked today. There are photos of items that have been purchased in the past, including mini-flags, lapel pins, and postcards. Plus! -- today's hottest investment must-have! – precious crypto! Okay, they're containers of Zaqistani cryptobiotic soil, but still.

On hand for the announcement was Bishop Paul Bradley, who consecrated the new Our Lady of the Lake Catholic School.

"History is being made here today, and what we do here today here today and tomorrow will become the history that people in the future will come to know," Bradley said.

Fleckenstein said the district is seeking to grow and make its stamp known in the community. He told students the team will always remain the Lakers. This year's seniors will still graduate from Lake Michigan Catholic, but otherwise, the name is effective immediately. A transition period has now begun.

Seeking Nominations for New 'Bold Women of Business' Award

Every March, Women's History Month provides an opportunity to honor the generations of trailblazing women and girls who have built our nation, shaped our progress, and strengthened our character as a people.

Thanks to a new award from our prestigious heritage series, Moody on the Market is launching the opportunity to recognize 20 of the most outstanding Bold Women of Business in Michigan's Great Southwest today.

Made possible by the underwriting sponsorship of the Southwest Michigan Regional Chamber, McGhee's Heating & Air Conditioning, Honor Credit Union and the Inn at Harbor Shores, with support from United Way of Southwest Michigan and The Mason Jar Cafe, the campaign to find the best and brightest of our local Bold Women of Business is now underway.

Simply click the link below to nominate a woman in Berrien, Cass or Van Buren County from the business sector, those who volunteer, or from the non-profit world who you feel is making a major difference in our region. Tell us about the unique traits and characteristics they bring to the table every day helping to grow their organization, bring impact to the region, and create positive change on an every day basis so that our selection committee can honor them for their inspiring efforts.

The inaugural Bold Women of Business Award will go to the top 20 nominees as sorted by the independent selection committee, after which they will be honored in ceremonies recognizing their influence at the Inn at Harbor Shores.

The survey form online will pave the way for your nomination, all you have to do is provide the information and answer key questions regarding the Bold Women of Business that you are nominating.

Makers Trail 19th Hole Lineup Announced

As a steady rain fell, further erasing the latest traces of winter snow piles on the Jack Nicklaus Signature Golf Course at Harbor Shores, there was a festive spirit in the clubhouse overlooking the practice green and the first tee there with dreams of warm spring sunshine and ice cold cocktails to come at the KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship for 2022 over the upcoming Memorial Day weekend.

New Championship Director Brandon Haney was excited, looking across the makeshift work stations for half a dozen members of the Makers Trail, as they showcased some of their concoctions proposed for the Makers Trail 19th Hole feature at the prestigious championship on the PGA of America's Champions Tour.

Standing just feet from the renowned Alfred S. Bourne trophy, Haney reported ongoing progress in the planning for the revered event from May 25th to 29th at Harbor Shores, telling me, "The Championship will be here before we know it. We just wrapped up some vendor meetings today which is a big milestone in our planning process which means construction is right around the corner, and we're actually now within 100 days of Championship Week, so it won't be long now."

Haney noted, "There's a little rain out there today, but the weather is starting to warm up so hopefully that's a good sign. We're very excited to be back. It's been a long four years since we last hosted here at Harbor Shores, but we're bringing a lot of cool new elements for the event. There will be a lot of things coming. You'll see some shakeups in our main entrance courtyard area. We'll still have our foundation pieces of the KitchenAid Fairway Club and the Community Showcase, and we'll be bringing back the Kid Zone to Jean Klock Park on Saturday and Sunday, so we're very excited about that, but here we're doing a little media tasting today for the Makers Trail 19th Hole. We're super excited about that facility. We've moved it down towards the 17th green, so the view of golf is going to be fantastic. We're adding a few other elements, like a beer garden and the food trucks, so it'll be really an all-encompassing facility for all of our guests that we welcome."

Regarding the field for the event, Haney says, "Well, after the four-year gap, there are a lot of new names coming up, so we're hoping to see both of our past Ryder Cup Captain's Paddraig Harrington and Steve Stricker, and guys like Ernie Els, KJ Choi, names like that, that haven't played out here at Harbor Shores, so we're very, very excited."

Millicent Huminsky, the arbiter of the Makers Trail which was first formed about five years ago under the flag at her Southwestern Michigan Tourist Council, says, "We're up to more than 45 breweries, wineries, cideries and distilleries in Berrien County alone along the Makers Trail." She adds, "We always have a Community Showcase tent at the Senior PGA Championship when it's in Benton Harbor, designed to get people to come back here and vacation when there isn't a championship going on. In 2018 with the PGA of America, the Makers Trail 19th Hole started, which is a separate venue on the golf course being set up along hole number 17. It will feature multiple products from six of our Makers Trail locations in Berrien County."

Haney and his colleagues at the PGA of America announced the final roster of the local breweries, wineries, cideries and distilleries set to be showcased at the Makers Trail 19th Hole throughout the Championship.

That venue is an upgraded ticket option offering a fan experience like no other, providing attendees special access to a covered pavilion with comfortable seating, views of live play, TV's to keep an eye on the action, and a relaxed atmosphere to enjoy specially crafted beverages from local artisans.

The 2022 Makers represents some of the finest in Michigan's Great Southwest, and they include:

- North Pier Brewing of Benton Harbor
- Watermark Brewing of Stevensville
- Dablon Winery & Vineyard from Baroda
- Round Barn Winer from Baroda
- Journeyman Distillery of Three Oaks
- Peat's Cider Social from Stevensville

Championship Director Haney says, "The list of Makers is one of our best yet, and we cannot wait to showcase what they have to offer."

A limited number of daily tickets are available and have sold out in the past. Weekly Makers Trail 19th Hole tickets are on sale now for a limited time, and include one daily ticket to each Championship Round from Thursday through Sunday. To obtain tickets, click the link below:

When it comes to Veterans Benefits, many veterans and dependents don't know what they don't know. Nationwide, less than 10% of those eligible apply. Let us help to educate and navigate you thru the maze of what is available from discharge to death. Here are some of the many benefits:

- ★ Disability Compensation benefits for prior conditions, diseases or injuries that occurred in service or many years later as a result of service (e.g. Agent Orange Exposure, Camp Lejeune Contaminated Water, Post Traumatic Stress Disorder – combat or personal trauma) to name a few.
- ★ PTSD Counselors from the South Bend Vet Center who come to Berrien County twice a week.
- ★ Non-Service Connected Veterans Pension and Survivors Pension benefits (House Bound as well as Aid and Attendance) for low income veterans over age 65 or prior to age 65 that are disabled and have at least one day of wartime service (additional means tested restrictions apply).
- ★ Free transportation at designated stops for veterans enrolled in the VA Health Benefits Program to the VA Medical Center in Battle Creek and the VA Health Care Center in Mishawaka.
- ★ Financial assistance thru the Michigan Veterans Trust Fund for wartime veterans or peacetime veterans who earned an expeditionary medal (additional means tested restrictions apply).
- ★ Free financial coaching from an Accredited Financial Counselor and Financial Fitness Coach Counselor as well as ongoing Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University Military Edition classes.

[Jesus said] "If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who are good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do that . . . Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful."
Luke 6:32-33,36

Her name was Cornelia. Everyone called her "Corrie." And Corrie was in a moment of shock. Her name was Jesus, she didn't have the strength. There was just too much horror. Too many memories. Too many scars.

Then, by God's grace, Corrie received a lesson about the power of God's forgiveness. She turned to her Lord with a repentant heart, seeking forgiveness for her failure to forgive this man. Before she knew what was happening, her arm was up. She was shaking the man's hand. She realized, as she had never realized before, that the power to forgive others does not come from your own strength. Rather, it is God's forgiveness in Jesus Christ that carries all of us.

Prayer: There are times, Lord Jesus, when I struggle to forgive others. The hurt is so great. The memories are so strong. Wash me clean. Cleanse me in your blood. And let your forgiveness flow through me to others. Amen.
