Powerful
Panel Highlights
Female Leadership Excellence

Cornerstone Alliance, Berrien County's economic development agency, will host FLEX: Female Leadership Excellence, a women-led panel discussion on March 24, 2022 at Union + Social Event Venue located at 216 Court St. in St. Joseph, from 4:30 - 6:30 PM.

In honor of National Women's History Month, Cornerstone Alliance will present a panel discussion led by women in powerful executive leadership roles. FLEX will focus on career acceleration, personal development, and excellent leadership for women in business.

"Empowering women is critical to having a vibrant and successful community," said Chris Frank, Cornerstone Alliance Vice President of External Affairs. "Economically empowered women contribute to and invest more in their families, promoting human-capital accumulation. Communities actively empowering women can drive economic growth. It is an expectation and responsibility in communities everywhere to create opportunities for women in the workplace."

Participating panelists for this inaugural event include: Krista Flynn, President of West Michigan Region, Huntington Bank; Jen Nelson, Chief Operating Officer, Michigan Economic Development Corporation; Sonia Hollies, Senior Vice President, Perrigo Company; Pam Klyn, Senior Vice President, Communications, Public Affairs & Sustainability, Whirlpool Corporation; Lynn Chen Zhang, Chief Executive Officer, Zhang Financial and President, Board of Trustees, Western Michigan University; and Lynn Jekkals, Central Regional Leader, Aon. The panel discussion will be moderated by Cornerstone Alliance Vice President of External Affairs, Chris Frank.

Several ticket options are available to those who want to attend FLEX, including a corporate sponsorship package for companies to reserve a table for their employees. In an effort to make this event truly inclusive and an opportunity for everyone to attend, there is also a free option for individuals.

"When we say we want everyone at the table, we mean it," said Frank. "By offering a free option for individuals and a significantly low-

The Return of the KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship

As Southwest Michigan gears up for the much-anticipated return of the KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship and its return to Benton Harbor's own Harbor Shores, I wanted to reflect not only on the history of this storied Championship but also on the positive impact this Championship has brought to the region. I was part of the Championship as Operations Manager from 2014-2018 and witnessed many legends play at Harbor Shores including fan favorites Rocco Mediate and Colin Montgomerie, and I am excited to return as Championship Director hosting golfing greats here in our own backyard.

If you did not already know, the Senior PGA Championship is the longest-running Major Championship in senior golf. It was born in 1937 when one of the sport's greatest players, Bobby Jones Jr., suggested a competition featuring the world's best golfers over the age of 50. The inaugural Senior PGA Championship was played at Augusta National Golf Club three years after the first Masters Tournament was held at the world-renowned course.

After a successful, but brief run at Augusta National, the Championship moved to Florida in 1940. Suspending play in 1943 due to World War II, the Championship resumed playing in 1945 in Dunedin, Florida. In 1956, after hosting more than a dozen Championship events in Dunedin, the PGA made the city its official home, moving its national office from Chicago to what would become the PGA National Golf Club.

In 2012, the first KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship was held at Benton Harbor's own, nearly new, Harbor Shores, a Jack Nicklaus Signature Course in Southwest Michigan. The course, celebrating its 10th Anniversary and a not-for-profit development created to benefit the local community, has hosted the Championship every other year since 2012.

Christened in the historic "Champions for Change" event in 2010, the course was graced by the legends of the game, Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Tom Watson, and Johnny Miller to energize the mission. This year marks the 5th return of the Championship to this storied course which has certainly made its mark on Southwest Michigan.

Since it began hosting the KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship at Harbor Shores, the PGA of America, in partnership with KitchenAid, has donated nearly $1 million to local charities, including Boys & Girls Club of Benton Harbor, The First Tee of Benton Harbor, Benton Harbor Promise and most recently, Benton Harbor High School Athletic Department.

Kaitlyn Marie

Welcome back to a fresh new edition of... "insert clever article name here because I can't think of one." My quest to learn about new entrepreneurs in Southwest Michigan has brought me to Bake Effect, owned and operated by Emily Onken.

Emily learned how to bake when she was in college and always had a fun time creating tasty new treats for herself and those around her. Originally, Bake Effect started in Texas after Emily became a mom. She wanted to work still, but also wanted to be at home with her little babe. Shortly after launching Bake Effect, Emily and her family relocated to good ole Southwest Michigan. Emily started baking more and more and started to not feel the best. It was then that she discovered that she had a sensitivity to wheat, which made tasting and baking difficult. She then discovered that she could alter recipes and use wheat substitutes to still bake and be able to enjoy the outcomes too. Bake Effect offers a variety of fruit pies, shortbread cookies, and roll cakes. Emily has also recently tried her hand at recipes for macaroons and brownies as well. Her goal is to have those nailed and ready before the end of this year. I don't think it will take nearly that long though, check out her Facebook posts to see how far she's come on making the macaroons already! All of Bake Effects treats are wheat free for those who have wheat allergies, sensitivities, or just choose to avoid wheat for health reasons.

When asked how she thought that Bake Effect could impact our community, Emily's response was simple. She wanted to bake treats for those around her that struggle with the same wheat sensitivity as she does. Just because people have those sensitivities, doesn't mean that they must give up the things that they love to eat. With a little bit of alterations, you can still have your cake and eat it too (Ha. Baking pun. See what I did there?)

Emily was sweet enough to make me a little thank you pie for coming to interview her for this article. It was a darling little personal pie, almost too cute to eat... I said almost. I am proud of myself that the pie made it home and wasn't devoured in the car. The pie was a triple berry pie, and you would never have guessed that it was wheat free! Really fresh vibrant berries mixed into a flaky, buttery, and decorative golden-brown crust.

For availability and to learn more about how you can taste some of Bake Effect's treats, contact Emily at Emily@BakeEffect.com, check out Bake Effect's social media on Facebook or Instagram, or visit it's website at bakeeffect.com.

Are you or someone you know a new business owner in the area? If so, shoot me an email at news@MailMaxOnline.com. I would love to learn more about other aspiring entrepreneurs in our area. Until next time...

Fun & Interesting Things to Do in Michigan's Great Southwest

Huminsky

Executive Director,
Southwestern Michigan
Tourist Council

In this column we will be talking about the fun and interesting things to do as we usher in spring. A couple of last-minute offerings for today, March 12, include Broken Alphabet: A Love Letter to Graffiti, a new exhibit at Krasl Art Center, and Sip & Savor Wine Trail Tasting Event at Tabor Hill Winery & Restaurant.

Broken Alphabet: A Love Letter to Graffiti runs through May 15. Tag. Bomb. Hit. Slam. A language all its own, graffiti breaks and twists conventional terms and imagery (down to the letter) into beautiful and complex new forms. With over a decade of experience, Guillermo 'ASMA Speeks' Sotelo brings graffiti indoors to reveal insights to the process, share the history and technique, and change the stigma around this ancient art form. Learn more about ASMA Speeks and his exhibition on view during special tours, events, and virtual events. More information on these programs and KAC's current hours can be found at krasl.org.

The second event today, Sip & Savor, is their 1st annual event, which will be hosted at Tabor Hill Winery & Restaurant. For the first time under one roof, you will have the opportunity to taste from a curated selection of wines from Tabor Hill Winery, Round Barn Winery, and Free Run Cellars. For the ultimate tasting experience, they will also have Round Barn Distillery's small-batch spirits to taste and a variety of craft brews from the Round Barn Brewery to sample - a little something for everyone. This is a 21+ event. Tickets are $20 for Vineyard Premier members, $25 for non-members. Your ticket will include eight (8) tastes across the MHG brands and an exclusive wine glass to keep. Additional tastes can be purchased for $2 each.

Our next event takes us to The Mendel Center at Lake Michigan College for Mo Rocca, March 15, part of the Economic Club of Southwestern Michigan Speaker Series. Humorist, journalist, and actor Mo Rocca is best known for his off-beat news reports and satirical commentary. Currently a correspondent for CBS Sunday Morning, Rocca is also the host of CBS's series The Henry Ford's Innovation Nation. Rocca's podcast Mobituaries and New York Times bestselling book of the same name reflect an irreverent but deeply researched appreciation of the people (and things) of the past who have long intrigued him—from an unsung Founding Father to the first Chinese-American superstar, from Neanderthals to the station wagon. During the moderated conversation "Mobituaries with Mo Rocca: Great Lives Worth Reliving," he will provide an inside look at how his long love of obituaries spawned the Mobituaries podcast.

Another look into the past is happening March 17, at the Berrien County History Center, Glass Ceilings Shattered: Michigan Women in Politics. Guests to Passport to the Past can join in-person at the 1839 Courthouse or catch us online when we go live on our YouTube page! As always, the program is free to the public, but donations to support this amazing series is always welcomed! The March topic will celebrate Women's History month by highlighting Michigan women in politics that helped to shape our state. With a state-wide election in November, this is a perfect time to explore the stories of ceiling shattered, communities changed, and history made. Guests who join us in person will enjoy light refreshments before and after the talk.

The month is filled with performances! From May Erlewine, to a packed calendar at The Acorn, to National Geographic Live with Kara Cooney: When Women Ruled the World, March 24. Join Dr. Kara Cooney, professor of Egyptology, for a look at a time in ancient history when women ruled the world. Often neglected in the history books, these women were considered exceptions to the rule, political pawns in a patriarchal society. But their power and influence are undeniable. Cleopatra used her sexuality—and her money—to build alliances with warlords of the Roman empire. Neferusobek was the first woman to definitively take the title of King. Nefertiti is known more for her beauty than for bringing a fractured Egypt together. What can we learn from how these women ruled? Dr. Cooney shares some illuminating answers.

For all the detail on these and other events visit www.swmichigan.org. We'll be back in a couple of weeks with more fun ideas on what's happening in Michigan's Great Southwest!

Nick Christe,
Real Estate Investor,
Business Consultant,
Proud St. Joe Lion

In near every business I've owned, managed or been part of, in time, no one person was able to keep up with the growth of business, especially those businesses I started from scratch. Hiring employees and contractors were a necessity if I were to continue growing at that pace. The biggest lesson I learned in business management, is that people will work their hardest when they're allowed to blossom unhindered while believing their efforts, not only support something bigger than themselves, but that they directly improve the quality of their personal lives and futures.

A true partner is one who knows their efforts are no more or less important but necessary for the growth of the whole. I consider every investor, no matter how new or experienced, a 50/50 partner. If I'm successful, I know the team around me will be which allows us all to push that much harder.

Home-Team Wholesalers has expanded and now includes expertise in the areas of providing continued assistance in locating investor properties, helping sellers in challenging situations and of course, using creative methods where traditional real estate just doesn't fit. We welcome Sheri Lash of S. Lash Investments, LLC to the team!

Please read more about Sheri and how she adds value to southwest Michigan real estate and beyond. Don't hesitate to reach out if you feel we may be a good fit for you, your property or someone you know.

KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship Opportunities!
Sarah Spoonholtz,
 Regional Director,
 SMR Chamber

In just a few short weeks, we will have trucks pulling stadium seating, bleachers, tents, and everything else that goes into the building for the return of the KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship at Harbor Shores. The return of this highly coveted event that spotlights all of Southwest Michigan on a national level is one that many of us have been eagerly waiting for!

We have multiple opportunities for you to connect with the team at the 2022 KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship over the next 75 days. The first one being on March 24th at The Inn at Harbor Shores from 5:00 until 7:00 p.m. This event will primarily focus on our Young Professionals from Southwest Michigan as well as Northern Indiana. In addition to the Southwest Michigan Regional Chamber, you'll find representatives from the Greater Niles Chamber, Harbor Country Chamber, South Haven Chamber and Young Professionals, Young Professionals of Greater Dowagiac, and the Young Professionals Network of South Bend. Guests will get to mix, mingle, and connect with each other, plus hear about additional volunteer opportunities, ticket sales, test their putting skills, a chance at door prizes, meet and greet with 6 local Makers that will be featured at the Markers Trail 19th Hole, and more! The Inn at Harbor Shores will graciously be providing light appetizers for everyone in attendance as well as the KitchenAid Senior PGA will be offering one complimentary drink ticket.

Our next opportunity to connect happens during Business After Hours on Thursday, April 21st at The Grille at Harbor Shores, located inside Harbor Shores Golf. Similarly, at this event attendees will have a chance to win door prizes, sample light appetizers from The Grille at Harbor Shores, and learn more about additional activities during Championship week such as Kid Zone at Jean Klock Park on that Saturday and Sunday and newly added features including a beer garden and food trucks.

Our final opportunity happens during Championship week, Wednesday, May 25th at the Makers Trail 19th Hole located on the 17th green! This will be a private event for just our attendees and will highlight the likes of Makers Trial participants North Pier Brewing, Watermark Brewing, Dablon Winery & Vineyard, Round Barn Winery, Journeyman Distillery, and Peat's Cider Social. If you're not familiar with the Makers Trail 19th Hole, it's an upgraded ticket option for attendees that offers a view and experience like none other on the course. Not only is it a covered pavilion with comfortable seating it also has TVs and an atmosphere that allows attendees to enjoy the action while relaxing and sipping on their favorite local Maker.

The Community Showcase committee is working hard on organizing a potential concert in the Benton Harbor Arts District that will happen immediately after the Markers Trail 19th Hole event, plus additional happenings inside their tent during Championship week that highlight the communities that make up Southwest Michigan. Planning is on-going but the hope is that details for some of the activities will be released soon - I can tell you, from what I've heard I'm incredibly excited to check the space out myself!

If you'd like to learn more about the 2022 KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship visit their website at srpgachampionship.com. For additional details about the Chamber including upcoming events such as these visit smrchamber.com or connect with me directly: sspoonholtz@smrchamber.com or 269-932-4040.

When it comes to Veterans Benefits, many veterans and dependents don't know what they don't know. Nationwide, less than 10% of those eligible apply. Let us help to educate and navigate you thru the maze of what is available from discharge to death. Here are some of the many benefits:

- ★ Disability Compensation benefits for prior conditions, diseases or injuries that occurred in service or many years later as a result of service (e.g. Agent Orange Exposure, Camp Lejeune Contaminated Water, Post Traumatic Stress Disorder – combat or personal trauma) to name a few.
- ★ PTSD Counselors from the South Bend Vet Center who come to Berrien County twice a week.
- ★ Non-Service Connected Veterans Pension and Survivors Pension benefits (House Bound as well as Aid and Attendance) for low income veterans over age 65 or prior to age 65 that are disabled and have at least one day of wartime service (additional means tested restrictions apply).
- ★ Free transportation at designated stops for veterans enrolled in the VA Health Benefits Program to the VA Medical Center in Battle Creek and the VA Health Care Center in Mishawaka.
- ★ Financial assistance thru the Michigan Veterans Trust Fund for wartime veterans or peacetime veterans who earned an expeditionary medal (additional means tested restrictions apply).
- ★ Free financial coaching from an Accredited Financial Counselor and Financial Fitness Coach Counselor as well as ongoing Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University Military Edition classes.

Revenge

Rosenbaum

Do not take revenge, my dear friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: "It is mine to avenge; I will repay," says the Lord. ~ Romans 12:19

"Revenge is a dish best served cold." This old saying about revenge goes back at least to the early 1800s. It means that taking revenge on someone is more satisfying when you allow a good amount of time to pass by first. From caper movies like Ocean's 11 to westerns like Once Upon a Time in the West, the cold dish of revenge makes for a compelling plotline.

But there's a downside to revenge. English philosopher Francis Bacon put it quite well. He wrote, "A man that studieth revenge keeps his own wounds green."

God, of course, knows us far better than we will ever know ourselves. He knows that revenge is simply a broad opportunity for my old sinful self to run amok. In the name of righteous indignation, it's an opportunity for my old sinful self to indulge in all kinds of toxic impulses, from bitterness and resentment to arrogance and self-absorption. All of which threatens to harden my heart. All of which threaten to pull me away from the only Savior you and I are ever going to have.

When Jesus walked this earth on our behalf, not once did he ever give in to the temptation to plot revenge on someone who had wronged him, not even as he hung on the cross. And because of Jesus' perfect faithfulness, God has washed us clean through faith in his Son—and that includes even our poisonous thoughts of revenge against someone who has wronged us.

Cleansed and embraced by our Savior, you and I are now free. In the words of Francis Bacon, you and I no longer have to study revenge, keeping our own wounds green. Instead, you and I can bask in the peace of God that surpasses all understanding. We can entrust all things to our just and good God. Instead, you and I can get on with the business of proclaiming Jesus Christ with our lives.

Prayer: Lord Jesus, when someone wrongs me, purge my heart of revenge. Fill me with the same spirit of forgiveness you have shown me. Amen.

LMC Expands

Online Course Offerings

Lake Michigan College has signed and finalized its agreement with Rio Salado College to offer more classes to LMC students via distance learning. Rio Salado President Kate Smith was in Benton Harbor Friday to seal the deal. LMC President Trevor Kubatzke tells WSJM News the partnership started to come together about three years ago when he met Smith at a conference.

"It was a long process, but because of her vision and, I think, the ability for us to be bold, we now can bring curriculum to southwest Michigan that we would be unable to any other way," Kubatzke said.

Smith says online distance learning is Rio Salado's specialty.

"Rio Salado College was founded in 1978 to be a college without walls, to be a non-traditional provider of higher education to increase access to students. So, that's kind of our heart."

LMC students who take online courses via Rio Salado will earn LMC credits that will count toward their degree at LMC. Kubatzke says they say they're taking LMC courses powered by Rio Salado. Rio Salado College will provide to LMC courses that include American Sign Language, French, Insurance, and a variety of IT courses. Kubatzke says they'll be fully available in the fall.

Smorgasbord of Support for March Restaurant Month

Small businesses and restaurants are the backbone of our society. The local economy thrives when our hard-earned money goes back into our hard-working restaurants, fueling a cycle of prosperous growth that builds up our workforce, our infrastructure, and our sense of community.

"According to a recent National Restaurant Association survey, over seventy-six percent of Michigan's operators say business conditions for their restaurant are worse now than they were three months ago," says Arthur Havlicek, President & CEO of the Southwest Michigan Regional Chamber. "Another seventy-eight percent say their restaurant is less profitable than it was pre-pandemic."

The pandemic swept through small businesses abruptly, with restrictions and limitations bringing financial loss and employee shortages to the hospitality industry in full force. Though some businesses have been able to recover, restaurants and eateries still find themselves struggling.

In recognizing the challenges that impact local restaurants, the month of March has been deemed Restaurant Month by the Berrien County Board of Commissioners and the Southwest Michigan Regional Chamber. Hardships such as inflation, supply chain disruptions, and consumer hesitancy are still prevalent.

"In an effort to drive business and support their way, we approached the County Commission to support this embattled industry by declaring March as "Restaurant Month" throughout Berrien County. By bringing much-needed attention to their situation, we can inspire a consumer-driven cash infusion that helps these important establishments persevere until the summer months," Havlicek says.

Many cities in our area are advertising their own Restaurant Weeks, showcasing each region of Berrien County with special pricing and menu items that will draw in customers. Eat.Drink.Niles welcomes their second annual Restaurant Week on March 7th, while Buchanan's takes place March 1st through the 8th. Froehlich's Kitchen & Pantry in Three Oaks is offering a delectable Mardi Gras menu, and Nola Roux in St. Joseph is spending the season of Lent offering $2 off all Seafood Items.

Dining out in Southwest Michigan means local faire, fresh ingredients, probably beer or wine, and we revel in the delicious assortment of places we have to offer. We excitedly post photos of our decadently designed plates, unplug to enjoy our favorite meals at our favorites restaurants, and being able to support our neighbors and local business owners while doing so only adds to our enjoyment.

"For those unable to dine-in or carry out, there are still many ways to support your favorite establishment," Havlicek adds. "Buying a gift card is an obvious option, but something as simple as leaving a positive review for a business you frequent also goes a long way."

The month of March is forever dedicated to celebrating restaurants in Berrien County. New specials and deals are in abundance, from gift card purchase perks, to prix fixe menus, and though March is only thirty-one days long, supporting our local restaurants and businesses is a year-round delight.

And Now for Nations Completely Different

I've decided to start a business. I'll take people on tours of the micronations I've written about the past few weeks. I think it's a surefire way to finally fulfill my lifelong ambition - to be an eccentric multi-millionaire!

Speaking of eccentric multi-(well, actually multi-multi-multi)-millionaires, one occasionally resides in the Kingdom of North Dumpling.

North Dumpling is an island just off the coast of Connecticut. It's part of New York State, although not according to its founder, Dean Kamen, a prolific inventor best known for the Segway Human Transporter.

After Kamen purchased North Dumpling, he wanted to upgrade its infrastructure, and applied for permission to build a wind turbine. Permission was denied, so he joked that he would secede from the United States.

Then he sorta jokingly did. Some amusing factoids about North Dumpling:

- North Dumpling has, naturally, a replica of Stonehenge - what eccentric multi-multi-multi-millionaire doesn't?

- The nation has two Ministers of Ice Cream: Ben Cohen and Jerry Greenfield. Y'know, Ben & Jerry's.

- North Dumpling also has a Minister of Brunch and a Minister of Nepotism.

- If you ever visit the island, you'll receive a visa that provides a space for you to "make identifying marks" of your face. Oh, and your buttocks.

Amusing, no? Amusing factoids are the hallmark of a vast majority of micronations, such as:

Kingdom of Lundy: Lundy, an island off the west coast of England, belongs to the United Kingdom, but many have tried to usurp it. The most notable was a guy named Martin Harman. Wait, check that - King Martin Harman. He took his kingship seriously enough to produce his own coinage - a Puffin, worth a British penny, and Half-Puffin, worth a British ha'penny, as the Christmas carol goes. This violated the British Coinage Act of 1870, and thus, Harman was fined by the House of Lords.

Some dry courtroom humor from Harman's "trial": King Harman called Lundy "a vest-pocket-size, self-governing dominion," outside the British realm for all intents and purposes. The Prosecution replied that "The Crown stipulates that Lundy is surely a Utopia," but that its inhabitants can exist just as happily with King George V's face, rather than Harman's, on its currency. In the end, Harman was fined a whopping five pounds plus expenses; the equivalent at the time of $15.73.

Other Lundy factoids: Socialism was tried in Lundy but didn't last "due to a lack of interest"; and for a time, the Kingdom tried selling cake and lemonade to British visitors. However, no cake was ever purchased, "due to its vile taste."

The Aerican Empire: Founded within Canada in 1987, by a 5-year old boy!

- Aerica's flag looks a lot like Canada's, but with a yellow smiley face in the middle.

- The nation celebrates holidays called "niftydays," which includes "Topin Wagglegammon Day," known throughout the land as the Niftiest Day of the Year.

- Aerica's national motto is "The world is ridiculous; let's keep it that way."

- Lastly, there's this self-referential declaration: Aerica calls itself "the Monty Python of micronationalism."

Hold on now! - There are scores of silly micronations doing something completely different! I think this ought to be adjudicated in a micronational court of law! The ultimate winner shall receive foreign aid from all the losers. Not to exceed $15.73.

Dave Says

AD&D insurance? No, thank you dose. The devil's in the details, and AD&D policies are chock-full of them.

If you have long-term disability insurance in place, which is what I recommend, you can be covered for a substantial part of income lost due to an injury or disability. One study says 25% of today's 20-year-olds will become disabled by age 67. In my mind, those odds are way too high for you to skimp on long-term disability insurance—especially when it's very affordable in most cases. If you're in your prime income-earning years, a permanent disability could derail your dreams of homeownership, paying for your kid's college or having a dignified retirement.

I hope this helps, Aiden!

WSJM SPORTS Mid-West Family Player of the Week

STUDENT ATHLETE of the week

Name: James York
School: Berrien Springs High School

This week's Mid-West Family Player of the Week is James York, a Senior from Berrien Springs High School. James seemingly does it all at Berrien Springs: Basketball player, all-conference wide receiver, all-conference Track, oh, and even 2022 Mr. Berrien Springs.

But James seems to shine his brightest with his first true passion; Basketball.

In last week's 52-36 win over Niles, James scored 29 points, including going 16-17 from the free throw line.

He then followed that up with 25 points, including 3 3-pointers, in the Shamrocks' 70-60 win over South Haven.

Though unsure about specifics, James hopes and plans to play basketball at the next level after graduating this spring.

James York

The WSJM Student Athlete of the Week is chosen based on merits both on and off the field of play and is brought to you each week by the generosity of these sponsors:
