Welcome 2021 Fairgoers

On behalf of the Mayor's office, I would like to welcome you to the Bedford County Fair. The fair theme this year is Hometown Tradition.

The County Fair Association, volunteers, residents, and visitors have been making this event one of the highlights of our community for more than 2 decades. However, due to the pandemic, the fair was cancelled in 2020. Celebrating our hometown traditions provide comfort and continuity, particularly in light of the past year, when we have faced unique challenges and events. This is the 23rd year for our fair and we appreciate your visit.

The fair offers not only livestock shows and tractor pulls but also ample room for parking and a sprawling array of fun activities. Year after year, the midway, carnival games and the variety of fair food are popular attractions.

The agricultural events have deep roots in our community and showcase the importance of spreading the awareness of agriculture. They include art displays, local craft vendors as well as numerous livestock competitions. And according to the 2012 USDA Agricultural Census, Bedford County ranks #1 in the state for horses, #2 for poultry, and #3 for cattle and calves, bringing in over 107 million dollars annually in agricultural revenues!

Congratulations to the Bedford County Fair Association for receiving a merit award for last year's fair at the Tennessee Association of Fairs Convention, for placing 2nd with the 2019 Fair Catalogue, 1st place with Fair Ribbon Craft and for their overall success with the 2019 Bedford County Fair. Our County is also home to the 2017 Quilting State Grand Champion, and 2019 Quilting County Fair Champion, Ms. Ruth Kid. We are exceptionally proud to be recognized at these levels of competition.

Again, welcome to the Bedford County Fair and thank you for being here. I hope you enjoy our Hometown Tradition.

Bedford County Mayor

In Loving Memory

Raymond Pimental

May 16, 1937 - October 16, 2019

Raymond Pimental, Bermuda native, moved to Bedford County Tennessee in 1984. Raymond LOVED the Bedford County Fair and spent many years being a part of it in many different ways.

Raymond served on the Fair Association Board for several years, chaired many different events and proudly held the position of President in 2006. One event he implemented was the Kiddie Parade, which allowed kids of all ages to have some lighthearted fun. Needless to say he had more fun watching the kiddos than they did being a participant! Another event Raymond brought to the fair was the tug-o-war competition. Reminiscent of this younger years as a fireman in Bermuda, his brigade always had a team and they loved competing against the police department for bragging rights! He enjoyed listening to the Bedford County teams following in his footsteps! Raymond also helped with the dog show and the motor cross racing over the years. Raymond advocated and fundraised for a stage to be built at the fairgrounds. He was instrumental in getting this project completed because he strongly believed the fair needed a place for entertainment and ceremonial events to take place. As old traditions continue, and new ones begin, Raymond's influences will always remain.

Maurice Armstrong

July 18, 1937 - September 24, 2019

Maurice Armstrong, a native of Wartrace, Tennessee was a founder of the Bedford County Fair (along with Pap Dunn and Carter Woodruff) and was the first President of the Bedford County Fair. His sons, Kenneth and Jimmy (and their families), were both very involved in the fair and instrumental in its success in the beginning years.

Maurice worked many hours with the Ag Center Board, Bedford County Commission and Shelbyville City in making sure the fair had a good home and was run efficiently. After leaving the office of fair president, Maurice remained very involved in the working of the fair. He and his family could often be seen strolling the fairgrounds, helping where they were needed. He was a great friend to all of us and will be greatly missed.

2021 Bedford County Fair Catalog Dedication

Christopher "Chris" Dale Bussell

June 13, 1973 - December 11, 2020

The Bedford County Fair Board and Association would like to dedicate the 2021 Fair Catalog in memory of Christopher Dale Bussell.

Chris had a family connection to the fair. His mother, Charlotte served as vice president and as a board member. Chris first started serving as a fair volunteer for many years, then became a member of the Fair Board from 2014 until his death in December 2020.

Chris could often be seen riding around the fair grounds with his son Kristopher and daughter Kaylie getting everything ready for the fair opening. His passion was being one of the directors of The Mini Tractor Pull. Chris and his great big smile and hard work ethic will be greatly missed by the fair board as well as all of the association members.

It is with great honor that we dedicate the 2021 Bedford County Fair Catalog in memory of Chris Bussell.

Welcome to the Bedford County Fair We Are Proud To Serve You!

We invite you to come by our offices if we can be of service to you:

The Pick TN Products display is designed to bolster the awareness of Agriculture Production and Manufacturing in the State of Tennessee. As many people may or may not know, Tennessee has multiple Agricultural industries that produce many of the items stocked in your local stores. Also included in our great state are many items you see in farmers markets, plant nurseries, and other places you may frequent.

Featured in our display will be many of the "Name Brand" products that you use daily. Included also will be a daily drawing for a "PICK TN PRODUCT" basket filled to the brim with samples of products manufactured and grown in Tennessee.

Did you know that Tyson Food, M & L Greenhouse, Murfreesboro Pure Milk, Nash Family Creamery, MTSU

Sponsored by:

Creamery and TN Beef Producers are just a few of the names that we are familiar with and these places are located just a few miles down the road? Many of the growers and dairy farmers in our county ship their product to these plants to be processed and passed on to you.

Please be sure to stop by and register at our Pick TN display in the "Trade Show" building and let us share with you interesting facts about the many products that are made and manufactured in Tennessee. We will also have a trivia question each night for a chance to win a prize.

Please remember to also thank the farmers and anyone involved in the Agriculture business - these people help to feed thousands daily.

Century Farms

Bedford County Fair Proudly Recognizes the Thirty Six Century Farms in Bedford County

Bedford County was established in 1807 from land taken from Rutherford County and is located in the southern outskirts of the Central Basin of Tennessee. Shelbyville, the county seat, was established in 1810 and was ideally suited as a trading center, with fords on the southern and eastern ends of the town. In the early twentieth century, Shelbyville became a thriving industrial center with the Shelbyville Mills, a textile factory, and the Musgrave Pencil Company manufacturers. In addition, the worldwide popular Tennessee Walking Horse Celebration takes place in Shelbyville.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Fair Officials

FROM: Samantha Beaty, DVM
State Veterinarian

DATE: March 4, 2021

Enclosed is a summary of Tennessee Fair Regulations - health requirements for livestock at fairs and exhibitions.

Special Comments:

1. It is expected that all exhibitors will bring only healthy animals to fairs and exhibitions. Although state and federal animal health officials will be performing some inspections, fair officials are responsible for ensuring that all animals entering fairs for exhibition are in overall good health and are accompanied by a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection. Animals showing clinical signs of contagious disease should be sent home immediately. Violations should be reported to the state veterinarian or his agent.
2. Certificate(s) of Veterinary Inspection are to accompany all animal(s) to the respective shows with the exception of in-state Tennessee equine and poultry. In-state Tennessee equine six (6) months of age and older must have a negative Equine Infectious Anemia test within the preceding twelve (12) months. Poultry assembled at shows or exhibitions should be accompanied by evidence of a negative test for Pullorum-Typhoid within 90 days, or be tested on-site prior to exhibition following strict biosecurity procedures, or originate directly from a flock which has been certified as Pullorum-Typhoid Clean under the Tennessee Poultry Improvement Plan. As part of increased awareness and surveillance for Avian Influenza and other poultry diseases, all bird's physical appearance should be assessed at the time testing is conducted.
3. Health certificates issued in satisfaction of these Tennessee Fair Regulations shall be good for 90 days for Tennessee livestock only.
4. Please note that exhibition requirements for out-of-state livestock are the same as regular import requirements.
5. Warts and ringworm are considered contagious and infectious diseases and are permissible exclusions only if considered inactive by the issuing veterinarian and noted as such on the Certificate of Veterinary Inspection.
6. Scabies, contagious ecthyma (soremouth), footrot, cutaneous fungal and bacterial infections (i.e. club lamb disease, caseous lymphadenitis) are considered contagious and infectious diseases, and are permissible exclusions only if considered inactive by the issuing veterinarian and noted as such on the Certificate of Veterinary Inspection.
7. Avian Influenza - All out-of-state poultry must originate directly from a Pullorum-Typhoid Clean Flock and a H5/H7 Avian Influenza Clean Flock, or be accompanied by evidence of a negative Pullorum-Typhoid test within ninety (90) days and a negative official Avian Influenza test within twenty-one (21) days.

Also, please note that if highly pathogenic Avian Influenza is detected in Tennessee or a neighboring state, the commingling of poultry at fairs and exhibitions may be suspended.

Fair Biosecurity

Below is a summary of recommendations for fair management by the National Assembly of State Animal Health Officials and the National Association of State Public Health Veterinarians to better protect fair attendees from disease:

- o Provide easy access to hand washing stations.
- o Post informational signage that includes the following messages:
 - No eating or drinking in the animal areas.
 - Wash hands frequently.
 - No pacifiers, sipping cups or strollers in the animal exhibition areas.
 - Discourage sleeping in the animal exhibition areas.
 - If human or swine influenza-like-illness is associated with the exhibition, animal health and public health officials should be notified immediately.
 - People who have influenza-like illness should leave the exhibition immediately and seek medical care. They should advise their health care provider about their fair attendance.
 - People at high risk for developing severe complications from influenza should limit their exposure to swine.

Also, be aware of the potential exposure of fair attendees to E. coli 0157 from animals exhibited on the fairgrounds.

Please retain this material for reference during the 2021 fair season.

Unite was formed in November 2018 by a group of people who wanted to Unite the town of Shelbyville thru a gathering of worship leaders. It's a group of like-minded people, who's hearts are United together in spirit and truth to worship the Lord and to share their love of Christ thru their music with the community.

Unite has done several outdoor pop-up worship nights throughout the community and other towns outside of Shelbyville for the last 3 years. Their ultimate goal is to worship the Father and bring together people of all denominations as a single entity Uniting the kingdom of God with songs for Him. A complete unification in the spirit with people of all ages, genders and hearts just worshipping together.

So we invite everyone to come with a heart for the Lord and worship with us. Let's Unite the kingdom of God together and worship and love each other the way as only Jesus can do! Unite Bedford, Unite Shelbyville, let's all Unite together for the kingdom of God.

As a fourth-generation dairy farmer who's dedicated the majority of her life to the family farm, STEPHANIE NASH quickly learned compassion for the agriculture community. Her latest venture also incorporates her other passion and career, country music. She's created a series titled 'The Life of a Farmer' for her YouTube channel to bring awareness to the needs of those that feed the world.

"Growing up I saw strong agricultural communities diminish," says Nash. "Sadly, so many farms that are vital to providing food do not get the same opportunity as other businesses to grow and flourish and their success is critical. My hope is that the series is educational and sheds light on the importance of farming."

As for my music, I hope to be an influence to others and create country music that can bring hope to not only my community but release songs that inspire.

The debut EP “Light Me Up” from Sam Varga is the product of two blurry years of living and songwriting in Nashville. The album is a combustion of rock dynamics, Nashville song craft, and emo one-liners. A self-deprecating wit flows through the entire album as Sam addresses bouts of depression, failed relationships, and the beauty and truth in between. The EP kicks off with the single “Mayday”, an emo anthem infused with pedal steel and ends with a nonchalant and brutal work tape of “A Better Word”. More light hearted tracks ensure every heart string gets plucked on the way down the album. “Light Me Up” represents the beginning of Sam’s journey but pulls no punches as to who he is and what he’s capable of as a writer and artist.

With just a few short years in Nashville, Sam has already established himself as serious writer and dynamic performer. Coming from the fast paced punk scenes of his high school days and the Blues of Austin TX, there is an edge and energy that makes his songs stand out in Music City. After quickly coming up through the writing ranks, he has now turned his attention to his artist career. His newest singles “Good Word” and “Half Heart Hallelujah” are latest indication of a promising artist trajectory following his debut EP “Light Me Up”.

Sam’s sound and writing style is self described as “someone like Jackson Browne who grew up listening to a lot of punk”.

Brett Bone

Brett Bone is an upcoming country music artist. Although relatively young he takes inspiration from artists such as Travis Tritt, Johnny Cash, and Hank Williams Jr. He's begun writing and producing his own music in the last year with originals such as The Man, Count to Ten, and Lone Wolf. There is no sound that is uniquely Brett Bone instead he combines sounds from all genres to create his own telling of his experiences.

Phil Valdez grew up in Colorado within a musically talented family. He began playing guitar at age 10, and dedicated his adolescent years to lessons and perfecting his guitar talent by learning from one of the greatest jazz guitar players, Bobby Montoya. Playing guitar in the family band as a teen with his father, mother, brother, and two uncles introduced him to country music at an early age.

Phil began singing as a late teen idolizing Merle Haggard and George Jones. His voice has a rich baritone, reminiscent of his country music heroes.

As a professional guitar player, Phil has been featured in Guitar Player magazine. His guitar style can be described as a hybrid of a country pickin jazz player.

Based in Nashville, Tennessee, Phil has performed at the Grand Ole Opry and has played guitar for some of the best names in country music including Vern Gosdin, Stonewall Jackson, Tracy Byrd, Daryle Singletary, Mark Wills, Tracy Lawrence, Mark Chestnut, and many others.

Currently, he tours the world promoting his own music as a solo acoustic act. He continues to impress his fans and country music critics with his triple threat of singing, songwriting and guitar playing.

Phil is working on a new album to be released in the near future.

We're here for good.

All our physicians take an oath to “do no harm,” but we know there’s more to health care than that. Good hospitals do good. And they commit to the communities they’re a part of. They go all in—for good. With the arrival of Vanderbilt Bedford Hospital, we plan to do just that.
