CHOW!

The official dining guide
of Southwest Michigan

Dinner is Served:

6 Reservation-Worthy Restaurants in Southwest Michigan

You don't have to travel far in Berrien County to get tasty Italian, mouth-watering steaks, freshly-caught fish, or fire-oven pizza. Check out our list of dinner options for date night, family night, and every reason in between.

Plank's Tavern on the Water - Our Restaurant Month dinner special is brought to you by Plank's Tavern on the Water at the Inn at Harbor Shores. With its cozy, upscale atmosphere Plank's is the perfect spot for a romantic dinner, family meal or gathering with good friends. Enjoy dinner out on the patio even during unpredictable spring weather with several super-toasty patio heaters. Plank's also recently installed new glass barriers on the patio, which block the wind but not the amazing harbor view. Start with an inventive charcuterie board featuring artisan-cured meats, aged cheeses, pickled vegetables and house-made accompaniments, then elevate your burger experience with the Waygu Burger, featuring corn cob-smoked pepper bacon and sweet onion aioli and served with seriously addictive truffle parmesan fries and the chef's homemade ketchup. Plank's is open 7 days a week, so you don't have to wait for date night!

RyeBelles Restaurant and Bar - Rooftop dining at its finest, RyeBelles offers a meal with a view in downtown St. Joseph. Established in 2011, this local favorite is family-owned and operated and known throughout the area for the handcrafted food and pleasurable dining experience. Diners can enjoy Filet Mignon, Sea Scallops, or Stone Fired Pizza while watching the sunset over Lake Michigan.

Grand Mere Inn - Established by the Racine Family in 1980, Grand Mere Inn offers a cozy, cottage-style dining room overlooking Lake Michigan in Stevensville. Guests can choose from lake perch, wall-eye, premium steaks, chicken, duck, seafood, and more casual fare. Their support of local farmers, wineries, and breweries is obvious, as their menu includes items and ingredients from Vergot Farms, Falak Farms, Lemon Creek, Tabor Hill, and Domaine Berrien Cellars. Order the Blackened Swordfish or Alaskan King Crab Legs with a bottle of Pinot Noir and enjoy an exquisite dining experience.

Bread + Bar by Bit of Swiss - Along the banks of the St. Joseph River in Benton Harbor is a restaurant known for its unique name and delectable menu. Bread + Bar by Bit of Swiss offers a comfortable dining area perfect for intimate dinners or small parties and a seasonal patio for dining al fresco. The menu items are made from scratch with fresh, local ingredients and paired with Bit of Swiss artisan bread prepared daily. Described as "authentic Midwest American rustic food experience meets Classical French preparation," their ever-changing menu includes items such as Kurobuta Pork Tenderloin and Mustard Crusted Salmon.

D'Agostino's Navajo Bar and Grill - If you haven't tried D'Agostino's Navajo Bar and Grill yet, plan a visit to Bridgman for your next night out. For over 60 years, this family-owned business has offered quality food and friendly service to its community. Specializing in old-world Italian classics, "The Navajo" (as it's referred to by locals) combines fresh ingredients with gourmet flavors to ensure dining satisfaction for all. But you can find more than Chicken Piccata and Asiago Bruschetta on the menu, as hand-cut steaks, prime rib, and BBQ pizza also make the cut. And, as any regular can tell you, the appetizers alone are worth the trip - do yourself a favor and order the Crab Baked Mushrooms and Tuscan Spinach dip.

The Mark III Restaurant - Serving up burritos as big as your head since 1972, longtime residents of Southwest Michigan go to The Mark III Restaurant in St. Joseph for Fish Tacos, Sheet Pan Nachos, and fresh guacamole. But that's not all. Their menu also includes delicious salads, sandwiches, steaks, and seafood, all served in a friendly, fun and relaxing atmosphere.
