COVENTRY CHILD OUTREACH PROGRAM

The Coventry Child Outreach Program is offering FREE screening for preschool age children living in the town of Coventry. Children will be screened in the following areas of development: hearing, vision, speech and language, social emotional and general development. Much like your well-child visit with the Pediatrician, children should participate in screening annually at 3, 4 and 5 years old. Because children learn rapidly during these early years, each screening offers an up-to-date check on your child's development. Screening is offered in a variety of locations. To make an appointment, please call Lisa Neill Child Outreach Coordinator for the Coventry Public Schools at 822-9400, Ext. 249. For more information visit www.ride.ri.gov (Instruction & Assessment). Check out the Family Engagement tab for free resources!

• Don't store prescription medications in the bathroom. The humidity is not good for pills, even with an exhaust fan.

• "For natural-looking garden markers, write the names of plants and flowers on flat stones. Then just set the stones by the base of the plant. This has been very handy for me, as my mother and I planted a lot of flowers, and I like to know the names." — A.A. in Florida

• "Keep a small bag with colored pencils and a roll of paper or a small notebook in your purse if you have small kids — or even if you have big ones. They come in handy during down time to keep the little ones occupied or to write reminders and such." — T. in Oregon

• Use these tips in the kitchen to clean as you go: Wipe down surfaces and clean up spills with past-their-prime face cloths. Get a stack of drying cloths from the store and keep them handy for drying anything. Designate a "garbage bowl" to toss food scraps in, a la Rachael Ray.

• "To get your refrigerator clean and fresh-smelling, just use a damp rag dipped in baking soda to scrub walls and surfaces. You can even use it to clean glass, since it is nonabrasive. Wipe clean with water and then leave the unused baking soda in the box, open on a shelf. Clean, deodorized and no chemical smell or taste!" — I.C. in Kentucky?

• "Be sure to clean out bird feeders with a good scrubbing before refilling. It keeps algae from taking over, and the birds do appreciate it." — R.L. in Alabama

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

• It was Pulitzer Prize-winning poet and biographer Carl Sandburg who made the following sage observation: "Slang is a language that rolls up its sleeves, spits on its hands, and goes to work."

• Boon or bane? While DDT was first synthesized in 1874, it wasn't until 1939 that Swiss chemist Paul Hermann Muller discovered its insecticidal properties. DDT was so effective in curbing the spread of insect-borne diseases such as malaria and yellow fever that in 1948, Muller was awarded the Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine. However, with the 1962 publication of Rachel Carson's book "Silent Spring," the devastating environmental effects of widespread DDT use led to an eventual ban in the United States.

• You might be surprised to learn that, aside from his inaugural address, Abraham Lincoln gave only one speech during his entire presidency: the Gettysburg Address.

• In Venice at one time, every merchant who traveled to the Orient was required by law to bring back a piece of art and donate it to St. Mark's Cathedral.

• It was all the way back in 1837 that modern multinational corporation Procter and Gamble was founded, by candlemaker William Procter and soapmaker James Gamble. During the Civil War, the company supplied candles and soap to the Union Army, in the process introducing its products to soldiers from all over the country.

• Those who study such things say that there are more possible iterations of a game of chess than there are atoms in the known universe.

Thought for the Day: "The hope of a secure and livable world lies with disciplined nonconformists, who are dedicated to justice, peace and brotherhood. The trailblazers in human, academic, scientific and religious freedom have always been nonconformists. In any cause that concerns the progress of mankind, put your faith in the nonconformist!" — Martin Luther King Jr.

Donna's Day Creative family fun

by Donna Erickson

Jewish Hamantaschen Baked Cookie Treats

When 9-year old Claire Diamond arrives at her grandmother's home for their one-on-one baking day, she knows the drill. After a warm greeting, she finds her cheery apron on the peg by the window, washes her hands and says, "What are we making today?"

Propped on the counter: a handwritten recipe card for traditional Jewish hamantaschen. Hamantaschen are tri-cornered cookies shaped like hats that hold sweet fillings such as chopped prunes, apricot preserves and even chocolate.

While Claire found the chilled dough in the refrigerator, 89-year-old Barbara Diamond tossed the flour on the rolling pin and shared the different ways her family has made this tasty sweet through the generations for the festive holiday of Purim, celebrated this year March 23-24.

Prepare this recipe or use commercially prepared sugar cookie dough from the dairy section of your market and skip to the rolling-out step. Either way, your family will enjoy making and eating this delicious treat. Don't worry if they don't all bake up in perfect triangles. That's part of the creative fun!

JEWISH HAMANTASCHEN

- 1/2 cup butter, room temperature and cut into pieces
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 1 egg
- 3 tablespoons orange juice
- 2 cups flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- teaspoon salt
- Favorite fillings, such as apricot and fig preserves, chopped dried fruit, semi-sweet chocolate pieces
- Powdered sugar

1. Thoroughly mix butter, sugar, egg and juice.

2. Blend in flour, baking powder and salt. Mix until dough holds together in a ball. Cover and chill at least one hour.

3. Heat the oven to 400 F.

4. Roll half of the dough 1/8 inch thick on a lightly floured board. With a 3-inch round cookie cutter, a tin can or a drinking glass, cut out round shapes. Scoop a teaspoonful of your favorite fillings onto the center of each circle.

5. Fold the edge of the circle toward the center to form a triangle. Lightly pinch together three edges of the three joined sections of dough until they are closed, leaving a small opening in the center for the filling to peek through.

6. Repeat with remaining half of dough, and bake on parchment-lined cookie sheets for about 10 minutes. Cool on a rack.

7. Dust lightly with powdered sugar before serving. Makes 24 large cookies.

Extra idea: Brush each cookie with a mixture of 1 egg and 1 teaspoon of water before baking for a shiny, pastry-like finish.

SEWING PROJECT TO HELP FOSTER KIDS IN RI

Organizers of The Sewing Project to Help Foster Kids are looking for volunteers to sew kid-friendly pillowcase bags for foster children. When a child is taken from a home that has been deemed unsafe by DCYF (Dept. of Children, Youth & Families), the child may take only a small amount of toys, clothes, and personal belongings. Many times, DCYF workers just don't have enough suitcases to use, so when a child arrives at a Crisis Center, Group Home or Foster Home, many times they arrive with literally 1 or 2 large black trash bags full of personal items. Let's change that! This is an ongoing project. Work at your own pace. For more information, contact Hollie at 385-9876 or holliegal@verizon.net

A Sporting view by Mark Vasto

The Sound of Crickets

Cricket is a sport that Americans, in general, do not ever play. But here's what we do know: We know that the game exists. We know that India, Britain and Australia play the game often. We know that it requires hitting a ball with a stick, and history has shown that we're very good at hitting things. It's not like it's bobsledding, a sport we perennially suck at. This is something we can actually do. It is for just those reasons that I submit the challenge.

I looked into the rules of how the game is played, and I stand here before you none the wiser. I haven't a clue as to the subtle nuances of the game. I know that you can hit the baseball-sized ball with a flattened side of a willow wood bat out of the park and it's worth 6 runs. A ground rule double is apparently worth 4 runs. There are 10 outs per inning, there are 11 players on defense and each game lasts about 5 days.

And people complain that baseball is too slow?

The game has other rules. There's one rule that states if a red ball is used, no team can wear colorful uniforms. They have to wear white or off-white uniforms. I don't see this as an obstacle. I'm sure that Under-Armour can come up with something that fits the bill. Naturally, there will be naysayers. Americans barely support outdoor or, for that matter, indoor lacrosse. How can we just pick up another sport when the WNBA still needs our support? The answer is easy, my friends: Gary Sheffield.

Admittedly, I have not run this idea past Mr. Sheffield. This is partially because I fear him a great deal. That being said, who out there among us can deny the fact that Gary Sheffield will destroy the ball in cricket? Send Sheffield, Derek Jeter (because you have to send Derek Jeter, if only to make nice with the international press) and all manner of ex-baseball players to play the game. I think Curt Schilling would make an excellent bowler (pitcher, in baseball vernacular) along with John Smoltz. I bet Jorge Posada and Bernie Williams would sign on. Ichiro would be a no-brainer, and for laughs we can ask Lou Piniella to coach the team. Surely he will appreciate the pace of each 30-hour game.

Look ... President John F. Kennedy issued the challenge that we put a man on the moon, not because it was easy but because it was hard, and that was in the 1960s. President George W. Bush challenged us to go to Mars, and as far as he's concerned, Matt Damon fulfilled his mission. But I'm talking cricket, America. This is something we can actually do, that will never be considered a hoax or ever require the approval of Ben Affleck.

Cricket, America. It's time.
 Mark Vasto is a veteran sports-writer who lives in New Jersey.

Eight-Track Tapes

Q. I bought a player and box of eight-track tapes at a garage sale. Are they worth keeping? I paid $15 for the entire shebang. — Art, Garden City, Kansas

A. Eight-track tapes are an oddity in that the music is interrupted periodically as the tracks switch during the recorded performance. There also is a tendency for the tracks to bleed over each other, so that occasionally you hear two tracks playing at the same time. I suspect you paid about what the machine and tapes are worth. There seems to be little demand for eight-track tapes, and they are difficult to sell.

Q. I have a 12-piece setting of Pope-Gosser china in a white pattern with gold trim. All the pieces are in excellent condition and probably at least 100 years old. I have searched the books in my local library, but can't find out anything about the company. Can you help me? — Mary Jane, Indiana

A. I was able to find out a little about the company in Lehner's Encyclopedia of U.S. Marks on Pottery, Porcelain & Clay by Lois Lehner (Collector Books). If you love china, this book should be in your personal library. According to Lehner, the Pope-Gosser Company was founded by Charles F. Gosser and Bentley

Pope in Coshocton, Ohio, in 1902. The company was reorganized in 1932 and continued making fine china until 1958. Lehner points out that the earlier pieces are of much higher quality than what followed.

Q. My company recently cleaned out a storage area, and I discovered an R.C. Allen six-row keyboard adding machine from the 1930s. Since it was surplus, I managed to buy it for $20. Can you recommend someone who can clean it and maybe give me an idea of its value? — Ken, Arvada, Colorado

A. Anthony Casillo is a collector of older typewriters and adding machines, and he might be able to help you. His business, TTS Business Products, also is a source for hard-to-find ribbons for vintage machines such as those made by Remington, Royal and Underwood. You can contact him at 325 Nassau Blvd., Garden City South, NY 11530; and typebar@aol.com. Check out his website at typewriter-collector.com.

Litter-Box Dilemma

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: Lately, two of my three cats seem to be "missing" the litter-box on their visits to it. I mean, they'll use the box, but they spray the wall it backs up to or go on the edge. My third cat has no problem. How can I stop the other two? — Amy, via email

DEAR AMY: In my experience, many litter box problems occur in homes with more than one cat. These problems include spraying or defecating outside the box, even when the cat are standing inside of it. Some cats also eliminate away from the litter box.

Your third cat may have no problem because in the kitty pecking order, it is "top cat." The others may be intimidated — especially if it hangs around the litter box, giving them "the look." Your cats also might be too large for the box or suffer health problems, including disease or obesity.

Try these methods first, and see if the spraying problem is curtailed.

- Buy four litter boxes: one for each cat, plus one extra. Keep one where the original box stood, and place the others in quiet, easily accessible areas, on every floor of your home.

- Make sure the litter boxes are big enough for your cats to sit or crouch in them comfortably. If you buy covered boxes, make sure the cats fit through the opening.

- Use unscented litters, and forgo plastic liners; many cats don't like them.

- Scoop the boxes daily, and wash
them with soap and water monthly.

If these steps don't stop the spraying problem, take all three cats to the vet to rule out possible medical conditions.

After an ill-advised decision regarding an alluring patient, Jaclyn Blackstone (Gretchen Mol), who may or may not be struggling with a multiple personality disorder, Chance finds himself in the crosshairs of her abusive spouse, who also happens to be a ruthless police detective.

Q. I just saw "London Has Fallen" and loved Gerard Butler in it. Actually, I love just about every movie he's in. Can you tell me what he's working on now? — Gina T., via email

A. This summer in London, the handsome Scot will start filming "Hunter Killer," an action drama that also stars Gary Oldman. The film had stalled when the original production company, Relativity Media, filed for Chapter 11. While Relativity — the studio behind "Limitless," "The Immortals" and "The Fighter" — is currently working with its creditors to emerge from bankruptcy, Millennium Films has since picked up the reins of "Hunter Killer," breathing new life into the almost-dead film.

I wasn't looking for a discount funeral. I was looking for an affordable one.
 Most "discount funerals" mean less money, less service, less attention to detail, less of everything. An affordable funeral is a complete funeral based first on the needs of the family, then priced to fit within their budget.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You might feel uneasy disagreeing with someone you've been close to. But your relationship should be able to withstand and even thrive when confronted with your true feelings.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A romantic situation seems to be creating more confusion than you can handle. If so, own up to your feelings. The sooner you do, the better your chances are for working things out.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) With change directing the Archer's aim, consider a second look at your plans and see where they might benefit from a revision. A workplace matter is close to a resolution.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) New contacts help you learn some important information about upcoming developments. The week calls for the Sea Goat to be more flexible than usual in a number of matters.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) With both change and uncertainty in your aspect, you might feel less confident in a previous decision. That's OK. Check it out and see where it could be modified, if necessary.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Old relationships that seemed to be sinking are buoyant again, and new relationships are benefiting from Cupid's loving care. This could be a good time to make a major move.

BORN THIS WEEK: While you prefer to tread your own path, you'll go out of your way to help someone in need.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) With change dominant this week, don't be surprised to find new facts emerging that could put another slant on a situation and offer you another choice. Think it through before you decide.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) There could be some lingering problems from a previous matter that involved a decision you felt you had to make. Resolve the situation with your strong Taurean no-nonsense approach.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) The Gemini's carefully made plans could be undone by someone's unexpected decision. Getting the full story behind that surprise move can help you decide how to deal with the matter.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Recently uncovered information might put a new light on a situation you thought had been resolved. Keep an open mind about possible changes that you might have to consider.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) With a potential revision of an old agreement, you can't beat the Big Cat for knowing how to sharpen a "clause" to the best advantage. Someone close could have the news you've been waiting for.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Certain issues in the workplace could put you in the middle of a dispute you'd rather not deal with. Express your honest feelings before the pressure to take sides builds up.
