PARK CLEANUP

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED:

To coincide with Earth Day events in April, Livingston County is searching for volunteers to help clean up its 80-acre Al Lorenz Park.

Details are as follows: Livingston County's Al Lorenz Park, Al Lorenz Drive, Mount Morris, NY 14510 (off of Murray Hill Drive). To register, meet at Pavilion #4 on April 30, 2022 from 9:00 am-12:30 pm.

"We are so fortunate to have this amazing public space and natural resource right here in our own backyard," stated Deputy County Administrator William Mann. "One of our main goals for the cleanup event is to build a base of volunteers who will work together to protect the beautiful and unique Al Lorenz Park for future generations. Please consider joining us as we strive to make a difference and keep the environment clean!"

This cleanup is a rain or shine event, so volunteers are encouraged to dress appropriately for the weather. Livingston County will supply trash bags, while volunteers should bring their own gloves and litter pickup tools. All volunteers under the age of 16 must be accompanied by a responsible adult over 18 years old. Registration will occur at Pavilion #4 on the day of the event, and each volunteer will be required to complete an Event Waiver Form at that time.

For more information on the cleanup event, please call Livingston County Central Services at 585.243.7500.

SPEAK OUT

Dear "Speak Out",

A spiritual guide in my Christian community offers this counsel: "We do not know everything about the conflicts of this world, nor is it necessary to know. We must however pray with compassionate hearts for the peace of the world, and for all! We do not take sides because each side will commit crimes. We do not wish to share in those crimes. When we pray for those who are more wrong than right, we thus obey the commandment to pray for and to love enemies. When we pray for those who are more right than wrong, we also do well. Therefore we cannot go wrong if we pray that God will save all and grant peace to the world."

Peter Brandt,
Mount Morris

Dear "Speak Out",

The title of this week's article is "The Next Country Which Russia Will Invade".

As Russian President Vladimir Putin continues his invasion of Ukraine, he has even more ambitions to expand Russia to the empire which it was during the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

As most people focus their attention on a possible invasion by Russia of NATO, Putin's focus is on the Republic of Moldova which was once part of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and is not part of NATO just as Ukraine is not. He will not engage with NATO or the United States unless provoked. His goal is to reestablish the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics as it existed prior to 1991.

On Thursday, March 3rd the Republic of Moldova applied for admission to the European Union in which their President Maia Sandu stated it was a vote for "freedom". One day after Moldova applied for European Union membership, Transnistrian leaders issued a statement making clear they had no interest in following Moldova in this venture. They demanded that there would be "two independent states - Moldova and Transnistria".

Moldova already has an estimated 1,500 Russian troops within its internationally recognized borders. Those troops, which Russia describes as peacekeepers, are based in an area known as Transnistria, a breakaway enclave that functions in practice as an independent nation, where Moldovan authorities admit they have no control.

Transnistria was born out of a brief early 1990s war amid the Soviet collapse. Moldova wanted independence and to outlaw Russian as the official language while Transnistria wanted to maintain Soviet ties. The Republic of Moldova is progressively becoming a strong democracy.

Russian President Vladimir Putin will not sit back and allow Moldova to become a member of the European Union. Russian troops have destroyed the port cities of Odessa and Mariupol which are only 30 miles from Moldova's border. Belarus would attack from the north-east while Russia continues its aggression from the east and south.

On Tuesday, March 1, 2022, while addressing his security council, Belarus's authoritarian leader, Alexander Lukashenko, displayed a battle map that showed an arrow indicating an imminent invasion of Moldova from southern Ukraine. The battle map divided Ukraine into four sections for conquest. Lukashenko is an ally of Putin and is believed to be readying his military for an invasion of Ukraine. Just as Vladimir Volfovich Zhirinovskiy stated in his speech to the Russia state DUMA on Monday, December 27, 2021, providing the exact time and date which Russia would invade Ukraine, we and our elected officials in Washington should pay attention to Lukashenko's speech. I do not know just how more explicit these leaders need to be for us to wake up.

Vladimir Zhirinovskiy mentioned on Monday, December 27th that in 2022 "...Russia once again becomes a great power." Russia would have to again be the U. S. S. R. Putin will attempt to reestablish the U. S. S. R. with Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Belarus, Georgia, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Turkmenia, Uzbek, Tajik, Kirghiz and Kazakh. Lord willing, I will submit an article again next week.

Please submit your views on this.

Mount Morris Town Supervisor Charles J. DiPasquale has announced his retirement from the position, effective March 17, 2022.

DiPasquale, known to colleagues as “Chuck,” has served as supervisor for more than 15 years, having first been elected to the office in 2006.

Mount Morris Town Board member David DiSalvo, who was also the deputy town supervisor, will assume the role of supervisor.

“Chuck deep down really cares for his community and his citizens,” DiSalvo said. “It was an honor to work by him all these years. He will truly be missed.”

DiPasquale, as a town supervisor, also served on the Livingston County Board of Supervisors. He was a longstanding member of the County’s Public Services Committee.

DiPasquale is known for his commitment to public service and an unwavering dedication to the people of Livingston County, according to Board of Supervisors Chairman David LeFeber.

“On behalf of the Board of Supervisors, I would like to thank Chuck for his many years of outstanding service to our county,” said LeFeber, who is also the Town of Avon supervisor. “He has always made sure the interests of the Mount Morris community and the county as a whole are well represented. And as an integral and knowledgeable member of the Public Services Committee, Chuck was instrumental in executing large county capital projects like our new jail and Emergency Operations Center. We all wish him the best in his well-deserved retirement.”

DiPasquale had most recently been elected supervisor in the November 2020 election, receiving 100% of the votes cast for the office. He ran unopposed after being endorsed by both the Democratic and Republican committees.

DiPasquale’s professions and interests have all been centered on public service.

DiPasquale, a graduate of Mount Morris Central School, achieved the rank of Eagle Scout with the Boy Scouts of America. He answered the call to service by joining the U.S. Medical Corps in 1963, serving for four years. He is also a graduate of Dakota Wesleyan University, Erie Community College, and earned a teaching certificate from SUNY Utica-Rome.

Upon returning home to Mount Morris in 1967, DiPasquale served as a police officer and was promoted to police chief after four years. He also became during that time the first criminal justice instructor at the Charles G. May Center in Mount Morris and volunteered with the Mount Morris Fire Department. DiPasquale retired from the police force in 2001 after 35 years of service.

He is also a former president and board of education member for the Mount Morris Central School District, co-founder of the Mount Morris Town Ambulance Corps, and past president and member of the Knights of Columbus.

“Mr. DiPasquale epitomizes what a good citizen can be,” said Livingston County Administrator Ian M. Coyle. “He is highly respected throughout the county for his achievements and selfless service to those in our community. I join the Board of Supervisors in thanking him for his dedication to helping others and wish him a happy retirement.”

DiPasquale and his wife, Mary, have four children and nine grandchildren.

50th
Anniversary

Supporting nutrition services for older adults since 1972

Senior Nutrition Program

In March, the Livingston County Office for the Aging will join the Administration for Community Living and senior nutrition service providers across the country to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the national Senior Nutrition Program.

Since 1972, the Senior Nutrition Program has supported nutrition services for older adults. Funded by the Older Americans Act, local senior nutrition programs serve as hubs for older adults (60 and older) to access nutritious meals and other vital services that strengthen social connections and promote health and well-being.

Senior nutrition is now more important than ever. Each year in the U.S., up to half of adults age 65 and older are at risk of malnutrition, and more than 10 million face hunger.

In communities throughout the U.S. – including our own – older adults sometimes lack access to the high-quality, nutritious food they need to remain healthy and independent.

As part of the Senior Nutrition Program network, Livingston County Office for the Aging helps older adults in our community by promoting healthy eating, decreasing social isolation, and improving health. Our program also provides connections to home and community-based services that can support independence and overall well-being. Throughout the pandemic, the Livingston County Senior Nutrition Program never missed a day of service. During 2021, the program provided 62,925 home delivered meals. Sue Carlock, Director, would like to recognize the wonderful staff and volunteers who make the program possible and the tremendous support of the Livingston County Board of Supervisors and the United Way.

For 50 years, senior nutrition services have helped create healthy, strong communities where all members can flourish regardless of their age. That's why we proudly recognize this milestone anniversary of the national Senior Nutrition Program and its tremendous impact on the health and well-being of older adults in our community.

Join us in celebrating our seniors, our program, and our community. Together, we look forward to another 50 years and beyond!

In recognition of this milestone month, Board of Supervisors Chairman David L. LeFeber will be helping to serve meals at the Avon Nutrition site on March 22, 2022 during Community Champions week.

To learn more about the Livingston County Office for the Aging and its Senior Nutrition Program, visit the website at <https://www.livingstoncounty.us/133/Aging-Office-for-the> or call 585.243.7520.
