NORTHWESTERN COLLEGE

DIRECTOR OF ANNUAL GIVING

Northwestern College is seeking a highly motivated, results-oriented individual to lead our annual giving program. Responsibilities include implementing and evaluating a multi-year plan including direct mail, phonathon, digital strategies and Northwestern's annual day of giving. This role's ultimate goal is to acquire and retain an ever-increasing pool of regular supporters.

A bachelor's degree with coursework or job experience in communication or fundraising is preferred, but all qualified candidates will be considered. Our ideal candidate will be a strong written and verbal communicator with data and technology skills. This role is ideal for a team-oriented, self-starting individual who is eager to join a successful team of development professionals.

The successful candidate will have an authentic Christian faith and support the college's mission (www.nwciowa.edu/mission) and identity as expressed in our Vision for Learning (www.nwciowa.edu/vision), Vision for Diversity (www.nwciowa.edu/vision4diversity) and Statement of Christian Identity (www.nwciowa.edu/christian-identity).

Northwestern College is affiliated with the Reformed Church in America and seeks to more fully reflect the cultural and ethnic diversity of the body of Christ in its faculty, staff, administration and students. Women and candidates from historically underrepresented groups are enthusiastically encouraged to apply.

Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. To apply, send letter of application, resumé and Northwestern College application form to:

Director of Human Resources
Northwestern College • 101 7th St. SW • Orange City, IA 51041
Phone: 712-707-7224

Apply online at www.nwciowa.edu/employment then send cover letter and resumé to mindy.stichka@nwciowa.edu.

NORTHWESTERN COLLEGE

STUDENT LIFE ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

Northwestern College has a full-time position for an administrative assistant in the student life office. The assistant's primary duties are to serve as the face of the student life office and make students and visitors feel welcome; to maintain records and coordinate systems of the student life division; to provide administrative support for the office staff, especially the vice president for student life and the dean of residence life; to assist in the management of the Ramaker Center; and to monitor the college switchboard during business hours.

The ideal candidate will have strong organizational and administrative skills as well as excellent written and verbal communication skills. Must be proficient in Microsoft Office Suite. The candidate must support the mission of the college and exemplify that mission in interactions with students, faculty, staff and community members.

The successful candidate will have an authentic Christian faith and support the college's mission (www.nwciowa.edu/mission) and identity as expressed in our Vision for Learning (www.nwciowa.edu/vision), Vision for Diversity (www.nwciowa.edu/vision4diversity) and Statement of Christian Identity (www.nwciowa.edu/Christian-identity).

Northwestern College is affiliated with the Reformed Church in America and seeks to more fully reflect the cultural and ethnic diversity of the body of Christ in its faculty, staff, administration and students. Women and candidates from historically underrepresented groups are enthusiastically encouraged to apply.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until an appointment is made. To apply, send letter of application, resume and Northwestern College application form to:

INTERNATIONAL ADMISSIONS & FINANCIAL AID COUNSELOR

Northwestern College seeks a servant-hearted connector to work half-time as a member of the admissions and financial aid teams. Responsibilities include responding to inquiries from prospective international students and guiding them and their families through the admissions and financial aid process. The international admissions & financial aid counselor also serves as one of the college's Designated School Officials (DSO) and ensures that all Northwestern international students and the college remain in compliance with immigration guidelines and laws.

Qualified applicants will be fast learners with advanced organizational and record-keeping skills as well as a curiosity about and respect for diverse cultures. A bachelor's degree or relevant professional experience is required, and international study or travel experience is helpful. The successful candidate will also exhibit our Team Red values (relational, energized, driven).

The position begins in May 2022; it is half-time with a high degree of flexibility and the possibility of working remotely.

The successful candidate will have an authentic Christian faith and support the college's mission (www.nwciowa.edu/mission) and identity as expressed in our Vision for Learning (www.nwciowa.edu/vision), Vision for Diversity (www.nwciowa.edu/vision4diversity) and Statement of Christian Identity (www.nwciowa.edu/Christian-identity).

Northwestern College is affiliated with the Reformed Church in America and seeks to more fully reflect the cultural and ethnic diversity of the body of Christ in its faculty, staff, administration and students. Women and candidates from historically underrepresented groups are enthusiastically encouraged to apply. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until an appointment is made. ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF INTERCULTURAL DEVELOPMENT

Northwestern College seeks a culturally-intelligent, relationally-oriented professional to support international and multicultural students and to promote the Vision for Diversity across campus. Responsibilities include fostering the academic, social, spiritual and emotional thriving of college students from underrepresented populations, especially international students; managing programs that contribute to their success and retention; partnering with offices on campus to ensure compliance with immigration regulations; and promoting reconciliation and flourishing on campus and in the larger community.

Qualified applicants will have a vision for cultural and ethnic diversity as part of God's good creation and a proven track record of fostering intercultural understanding and development. Experience in student life and/or working with multicultural and/or international students is required. A master's degree in student development, intercultural education, counseling or a related field is preferred. International experience and the ability to speak Spanish are a plus. Preference is given to applicants from underrepresented ethnic populations.

Position begins in May 2022. Applications will be received until position is filled.

The successful candidate will have an authentic Christian faith and support the college's mission (www.nwciowa.edu/mission) and identity as expressed in our Vision for Learning (www.nwciowa.edu/vision), Vision for Diversity (www.nwciowa.edu/vision4diversity) and Statement of Christian Identity (www.nwciowa.edu/Christian-identity).
