Administrative Assistant

Northwestern's Department of Business & Economics and Center for Innovation & Leadership invite applications for a shared part-time (approximately 1,000 hours between August 1 and May 31--averaging 25-30 hours/week) administrative position starting August 2022.

The ideal candidate will be proficient with Microsoft Office, especially Excel and Word, have a willingness to learn Canva, and love seeking opportunities while serving others. The candidate must also possess excellent interpersonal and organizational abilities.

This position will assist business faculty in successfully recruiting, retaining and graduating excellent students. Responsibilities will include working with members of the department to develop relationships with and create positive on-campus experiences for current and future students, and continuing to develop relationships for the department in the community. This position will help facilitate experiential learning opportunities and assist with coordinating the placement of students in practicums, internships and jobs, while also maintaining the department's social media and marketing presence.

The candidate will assist the Center's director and assistant director approximately five hours a week, performing frequent email communication, managing social media accounts, and creating advertisements using Canva. This position will assist with the preparation of agendas and reservations for the Accelerate Siouxland program. As the micro-credential program continues to grow, additional tasks and managing related processes and databases will be essential.

The successful candidate will have an authentic Christian faith and support the college's mission (www.nwciowa.edu/mission) and identity as expressed in our Vision for Learning (www.nwciowa.edu/vision), Vision for Diversity (www.nwciowa.edu/vision4diversity) and Statement of Christian Identity (www.nwciowa.edu/Christian-identity).

Northwestern College is affiliated with the Reformed Church in America and seeks to more fully reflect the cultural and ethnic diversity of the body of Christ in its faculty, staff, administration and students. Women and candidates from historically underrepresented groups are enthusiastically encouraged to apply.

Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. To apply, send letter of application, resumé and Northwestern College application form to:

CLINICAL SITE RECRUITMENT & RETENTION COORDINATOR

The physician assistant studies program at Northwestern College seeks a clinical site recruitment and retention coordinator to assist the director of clinical education in recruitment, retention and communication with clinical sites as well as participate in program development and accreditation activities. Job duties include: direct contact recruiting providers to act as preceptors and clinical faculty; evaluating clinical sites, preceptors and students; representing the PA program at community, state and national PA events to build relationships for the program; and assisting in other PA program work. This is a 12-month full-time position and will involve 50% travel and 50% office duties.

Minimum qualifications:

- Associate's degree or higher
- Strong communication skills to develop relationships with clinical administrators and clinicians
- Ability to coordinate multiple projects simultaneously and meet required deadlines
- Valid driver's license
- Possess knowledge of computers and technology to perform assigned tasks
- Preference given to candidates with experience in sales and marketing, health care or project management

The successful candidate will have an authentic Christian faith and support the college's mission (www.nwciowa.edu/mission) and identity as expressed in our Vision for Learning (www.nwciowa.edu/vision), Vision for Diversity (www.nwciowa.edu/vision4diversity) and Statement of Christian Identity (www.nwciowa.edu/Christian-identity).
