Berrien County leaders reflect on acquisition of Silver Beach

Robert Warren is being remembered as a benefactor for all of Berrien County. News of his death came at the end of April. The former LECO president was 89. Berrien County Board of Commissioners Chair Mac Elliott tells us Warren's sale of Silver Beach to the county in the 1990s is a driver of the area's growth to this day.

"He was an innovator in business, and LECO is a testament to that," Elliott said. "As for county government, Silver Beach County Park is the jewel in the crown of the county parks system, and Bob made that happen, Bob and Harry Gast, who was chair of appropriations in the Senate."

Warren is remembered as someone who tended to stay out of the spotlight, and Elliott says he spoke bluntly.

"He had a wry sense of humor, but he did not ever use it to slight anyone, and I think he was, at bottom, a humble guy, and his humility is also something that we can learn from."

Dick Schinkel was on the county parks board at the time when the Silver Beach deal was proposed in 1991. He tells us Warren held off on selling the land while the county sought a state grant to afford it.

"If it wasn't for Bob Warren and [former Berrien County Parks Director] Randy Rood and the parks board and the Natural Resources Trust Fund, we would probably be looking at condominiums today," Schinkel said. "It's because of them that we have Silver Beach. The Warrens also gave us a number of funds to help with the infrastructure of the park, too."

Schinkel says it was huge for the county to get its hands on that large of a stretch of Lake Michigan shoreline. Retired Berrien County Parks Director Randy Rood worked directly with Warren on the project. He tells us LECO acquired the beach when the Silver Beach Amusement Park closed. From there, Warren leased the beach to the city of St. Joseph until that deal fell apart.

"I met Bob in 1988," Rood said. "I was 32 years old. I met with Mr. Warren and his trusted advisor Bob DeLong a few days after a wrecking ball brought down the restroom and concession building at Silver Beach. From there, Bob gave me the opportunity, the county the opportunity, to pitch a plan for a county-owned and operated park on the shores of Lake Michigan."

Rood says he had to find the funds for the county to buy the property. He says it easily could have fallen into a private developer's hands. Rood

The contest's premise was to search for kids in Berrien County that embody a love of golf, cooking and community to give exclusive access to the Championship. Youth ages 5 to 14 submitted a video explaining why they deserve to be a "Kid-Inside-The-Ropes." We received so many great entries and were truly impressed with the passion that local youth have for golf, cooking and their community.

The winners receive behind the scenes access to the Championship, including a seat at the table for a KitchenAid dinner, a chance to conduct an interview at the Championship, a behind-the-scenes first look at the KitchenAid Fairway Club and Championship set up at Harbor Shores, and more.

Info about Kids Zone - Schedule, etc.

The YMCA Kids Zone and S.T.E.M. Zone located at Jean Klock Park is where kids can enjoy age-appropriate activities such as inflatable hitting bays with Michigan PGA Professional's instruction, bounce houses, crafts with YMCA professional staff, and much more.

New this year is the addition of the S.T.E.M. Zone which will feature interactive experiments and activities under the direction of the Curious Kids Museum and local high school robotics teams.

Kid's Day is Saturday, May 28 th with special events planned throughout the day! All juniors, 17 and under, will be admitted into the Championship for free with an accompanying ticketed adult (four juniors per one ticketed adult).

Kids Day will begin at 9:00 am in the KitchenAid Fairway Club, followed by activities at the Renaissance Athletic Club (RAC) and a magician performance at 1:00 pm in the YMCA Kids Zone in Jean Klock Park. Refer to the Spectator Guide for details.

Area Bicyclists Encouraged to Join Worldwide "Ride of Silence"

On Wednesday, May 18th at 7 p.m., bicyclist from Southwest Michigan will be joining riders around the world to raise awareness of cyclists' rights to public roadways, as well as honoring riders injured or killed. Cyclists will take to the roads in a silent procession to honor cyclists who have been killed or injured while cycling on public roadways. Although cyclists have a legal right to share the road with motorists, the motoring public often isn't aware of these rights, and sometimes not aware of the cyclists themselves.

"We want as many bikers as possible to join the ride this year," local organizer Marilyn Havenga explained. "It's important the drivers and decision makers are made aware of cyclists' rights to share our roads."

The starting and ending point for the 7.5 miles loop is North Pier Brewing Company located at 670 N Shore Drive in Benton Harbor. The group rolls out at 7 p.m. sharp, but all are encouraged to arrive by 6:30 for announcements and instructions. There are no registration fees and everyone is welcome to join the ride. Helmets are required for all riders.

The Ride of Silence is an annual multi-location, international bicycle ride held on the 3rd Wednesday of May. The 2022 Ride of Silence marks the 20th Anniversary of the original Ride of Silence, which was organized by Chris Phelan and held in Dallas, Texas after endurance cyclist Larry Schwartz was hit by the mirror of a passing bus and was killed. Many participants found the experience to be very moving. Although it was conceived as a one-time event, it has been repeated every year since then. Cyclists in cities around the globe have joined this movement. It has grown each year, with around 400 locations participating, most in the United States, but typically on all seven continents, including Antarctica.

"May is National Bike Month and the Ride of Silence is just one way to help celebrate the sport and increase safety," Havenga added.

National Bike Month is promoted by the League of American Cyclists, which includes Bike to Work Week 2022 which will take place May 16-22 and Bike to Work Day on Friday, May 20!

Locally, the Ride of Silence is being organized by Cycle-Re-Cycle, a 501 (c)3 non-profit in Benton Harbor where Havenga is a volunteer. You can learn more about Cycle-Re-Cycle at www.cycle-re-cycle-swm.org.

To learn more about the ride, contact Marilyn Havenga at dexhav@gmail.com.

May is "Small Business Month" in the State of Michigan and a wonderful opportunity to remind ourselves just how pivotal of a role small businesses play in our national, state, and local economies.

According to the U.S. Small Business Administration, small businesses comprise more than 98 percent of our state's businesses and employ 1.8 million people, or half of Michigan's private workforce. We rank 10th in the nation for the number of small businesses in our state, and 5th in the nation for the percentage of businesses that are small.

Celebrate Small Business Month

In 2021, Michigan also ranked 11th out of all 50 states in terms of new business starts (150,456). While we may have just missed top-ten status, competition in that category was fierce. Last year saw a record 5.4 million applications filed to form new businesses across the country, representing a whopping 53% increase from the number of starts we saw in 2019.

As encouraging as this is, even longstanding businesses are facing some challenging headwinds in today's economy. Labor, inflation, and supply chain issues continue to run rampant and have led to the first contraction of our nation's economy since the pandemic began. While demand has remained high, consumer sentiment has begun to plummet amidst persistently high prices.

This begs the question, are there ways to support my favorite small business without spending money? Absolutely! Here are a few ways we commonly encourage consumers to promote local that doesn't cost anything but a little bit of time:

Share their posts on social media: Watch for updates and inspiring posts from your favorite business on Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn etc. When you see it, share it. It's great exposure for them!

Comment something nice: One easy way to support small businesses is simply commenting on their post. It can be words of encouragement, a reply to their product, or even a nice hello.

Tag a friend: Many small businesses are offering up special promotions on posts in order to gain more customers. When you see these kinds of posts – tag a friend, you never know who may be in the shopping mood.

Post a pic and give a shout out: You can support small businesses by sharing a photo of their shop and tagging them. And if you do decide to purchase something – share a quick pic. The more they get their name out there, the better.

Write a review: Now more than ever, a review about customer service or awesome products will make a difference. Showing up as a 5-star business online can help them attract new customers.

Give Referrals: Use word of mouth to support your favorite small businesses. Your family members or friends will likely trust and remember them more if it is shared personally.

Sign-up for newsletter: Showing support for your favorite small businesses newsletter helps them know you are a fan. It also can notify you of fun events or special promotions.

Check-in with small business owners and employees: If you are picking up food, ordering online, or browsing their social media, make sure to check in and ask how they are doing. No better way to support small businesses than verbally checking in.

Tell them thank you: You can easily show genuine support by sharing your gratitude and thanking them for working when everyone in the world is seemingly short staffed and exhausted.

This month, we encourage you to not only support your favorite small business - but to take a moment to find a new one! If you need some great recommendations, visit www.buylocalberrien.com. With Michigan's weather finally warming up, now is the time to explore!

Reason to Keep Going

In your relationships with one another, have the same mindset as Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage; . . . And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death—even death on a cross! ~ Philippians 2:5,6,8

In the state house at Albany, New York, there is a small artifact that tells a big story. It's a letter written by President Abraham Lincoln. The letter grants a full pardon to a soldier found guilty of desertion. The soldier's name is Roswell McIntyre. The letter is dated October 4, 1864.

As you read the letter, you can't help but notice some additional scribbling on the lower left of the page. It's this additional scribbling that completes the story. This extra note on the letter is dated 1865. It reads, "Taken from the body of R. McIntyre at the battle of Five Forks, Virginia."

That's the story of Roswell McIntyre. He was a man guilty of desertion. But instead of disgrace and punishment, he received a full pardon from his president. He was so grateful for that pardon that he carried it with him for the rest of the war. It kept him going. It empowered him to stand and fight. It empowered him to remain a faithful soldier to the end.

It's no accident that the Bible compares our lives as Christians to those of soldiers. The spiritual dangers are great. The temptation to desert our Lord can be fierce. And, truth be told, you and I must confess that there have been many times we have run away from following the Lord's will for our lives. For such desertion, you and I deserve God's abandonment.

But because of Jesus, we have received a full pardon instead. Because of the cross, our failures are washed away. Through faith in him, we are forgiven and not condemned.

Keep that pardon with you. Pull it out and read it every day. Remember who you are in your Savior. It will keep you going. It will keep you faithful to the moment he takes you home.

Prayer: Dearest Jesus, in you I stand completely forgiven. Empower me to fight the good fight. Empower me to be faithful to the end. Amen.

The grounds of my palatial estate are in the midst of a makeover. With flowers and shrubs and suchlike, I'm trying to evolve them from a yard to a garden – as in the British way of saying “yard.”

Unfortunately things are off to a rocky start. I appear to have badly insulted one of the centerpieces of my backyard-- make that rear garden. Specifically, I have maltreated my Asclepias tuberosa, also known as milkweed, or butterfly weed.

I've got a passel of them in artful arrangements in my rear garden, and they're all going to get a lot of the full sun that the little plasticky guide that growers stick into every pot says they should get. They're supposed to bloom pink, yellow, and three are supposed to bloom orange. (The nursery saleswoman basically required me to purchase the orange ones, saying “They're VERY popular, they sell fast, you're GOING to buy all we have left.” I didn't really mind being sold so forcefully, because she looked like the actress Kaley Cuoco (“Big Bang Theory”) and agreeing with her plant choices meant she wouldn't leave me to help another customer.)

Anyway, it's the yellow ones that are worrying me. I've been giving them extra water because they don't appear to be thriving. But it turns out, when I finally read the plasticky thing, the yellow ones – get this – “resent wet soil.” What the?! I introduced them to wet soil figuring the two of them would quickly be facebooking that they were in a relationship together.

Fortunately, I have a way to make this “not my fault.” Because when describing to my wife all the wonderful things that will eventually go into the 127 holes I've dug around the yard-- garden! -- she said, in a loud enough voice for the Asclepias tuberosa to hear, that she “hates yellow.” So, if they all fail (and two have fully croaked already) I can lay the blame on her. I've got to try something, because I can only imagine what she's going to say about the dozen Black-eyed Susan's I planted. Maybe I can convince her they AREN'T actually yellow -- the plasticky thing says they are the “Goldsturm” variety.

Incidentally, I think I might see a job opportunity in writing updated plant descriptions on the plasticky things. For example, the Goldsturms are relying on some seriously out-of-date laurels to sell themselves; their plasticky thing still touts that they were “Perennial Plant of the Year”...but that was waaaaay back in 1999. What have you done lately guys? (Or are Black-eyed Susans gals?)

There was yet another species of flowering plant that Kaley Cuoco sold me a boatload of that I found out too late might have a somewhat yellow-ish aspect. But hopefully I can calm the wife by telling her that the plasticky thing describes them as having “unusually colored large flowers” – and how was I supposed to know that “unusually colored” meant yellowy?!?

By the way, it's plain to see why Kaley was so eager to rack up sales of this plant; it's a threadleaf coreopsis that the plasticky thing says is from the grower's -- this is true, I swear -- Big Bang Series.

When it comes to Veterans Benefits, many veterans and dependents don't know what they don't know. Nationwide, less than 10% of those eligible apply. Let us help to educate and navigate you thru the maze of what is available from discharge to death. Here are some of the many benefits:

- ★ Disability Compensation benefits for prior conditions, diseases or injuries that occurred in service or many years later as a result of service (e.g. Agent Orange Exposure, Camp Lejeune Contaminated Water, Post Traumatic Stress Disorder – combat or personal trauma) to name a few.
- ★ PTSD Counselors from the South Bend Vet Center who come to Berrien County twice a week.
- ★ Non-Service Connected Veterans Pension and Survivors Pension benefits (House Bound as well as Aid and Attendance) for low income veterans over age 65 or prior to age 65 that are disabled and have at least one day of wartime service (additional means tested restrictions apply).
- ★ Free transportation at designated stops for veterans enrolled in the VA Health Benefits Program to the VA Medical Center in Battle Creek and the VA Health Care Center in Mishawaka.
- ★ Financial assistance thru the Michigan Veterans Trust Fund for wartime veterans or peacetime veterans who earned an expeditionary medal (additional means tested restrictions apply).
- ★ Free financial coaching from an Accredited Financial Counselor and Financial Fitness Coach Counselor as well as ongoing Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University Military Edition classes.

The Elusive Human Commodity

You will not find it in the cushions of the couch or in the console of your car. You don't snort it, swallow it, or drink it. It is gluten free. It comes in different sizes, varying amounts, and costs nothing to enjoy. It's associated with only the best of emotion and has a marvelous effect on our bodies. It lowers blood pressure, releases more of the neurotransmitter serotonin, has zero fat, carbs, or bad cholesterol. It will not break down because of high mileage and the warranty never expires. It requires no special education, an audience, unique talent, or gift. It is God-given, and all you need do is nurture it.

True happiness comes from within and is not something we manufacture, it's also further evidence that we are all really the same, because everyone desires happiness more than anything. I don't know of anyone (well, maybe my next-door neighbor) who wakes up in the morning with the hope of cynicism or vengeance on their mind. We all desire happiness. In this three-part series we will look at what happiness is, what delivers it, and how we can enjoy more of it.

I grew up on the east side of Detroit. The kids in our neighborhood could be found in our backyard because we had a swimming pool. The pool was nothing special. It was purchased from K-Mart. The pool was about four feet high with a flimsy medal wall, but every day in the summer, kids were in it. Our primary job was to just keep water in it, and as the summer wore on so did the need to fill the pool with water. The liner began to tear due to the abusive occupants and the hot summer sun. We finally decided we needed to fix the liner. Coming up with measures as only kids could come up with, the first solution was to staple the liner back together. After that failed, we then tried using the tape my dad kept on his workbench. We even tried using bricks to cover the rips and tears the liner was suffering. The tears, however, continued to grow, eventually giving way to large rips. As fast as we poured water in, was as fast as the water went out. The liner could no longer hold what it was meant to hold, and ultimately our summer pool died a natural death.

This is similar in terms of solutions to how we tend to those rips and tears in our soul. We look to patch them up with external world offerings that do not have a chance at any long-term success. I have heard this idea called putting a band aid over it. Well, it's a little more involved than that. We will try using food, sex, drugs, alcohol, and just about anything to alter our reality. What happens is instead of having the kind of soul open to the good things in life, we have just added another problem to deal with. So, the first thing we must do is understand that the real work begins internally, and for many of us this prescription can be awfully messy. Why choose something that's going to be difficult to face when there are much easier options on the table?

This is where we will start the second part of this series, working the issues from the inside out. Until next time, keep moving forward and do good. You can reach me at

Dave Says

Simple keys to small business success

Dear Dave,

Do you have any advice on how to start a car wash and detailing business? What things should I consider first, and what do I keep in mind over the long run?

Andrew

Dear Andrew,

I'm excited for you, man! And I love your ambitious spirit. Working for yourself is one of the toughest and most rewarding things anyone can do. It'll take a lot of blood, sweat and tears to be successful, and you'll experience some of the highest highs and lowest lows in the process.

But, if you don't absolutely love cars and everything that goes into keeping them clean and looking great, I'd advise looking into another line of work. In other words, if you're thinking about this kind of business just because it's plausible or a way to make money, chances are you're not going to be happy or stick with it very long. In that case, it's really more of a side job than a business.

Is this something you'd want to be doing every day five years from now? Think about possibly having a team to lead and work with, too, at some point. Then, lay out a smart business plan, and write up everything from your marketing strategies to the cost of start-up equipment and supplies, to what your projected revenues are, and the per unit charges for all your services and widgets. Work this up like you had to prepare a report for a college class, and that's what a business plan looks like.

You'll always do a better job, and have more fun, when you're part of something you love. And when it comes to running the business, stay away from debt, pay cash and don't be afraid to grow slowly. Be patient, be smart and give people a quality, reasonably-priced product and friendly, professional service. If you do all these things, there's a good chance you'll be successful.

Best of luck, Andrew!
