WELCOME - BENVENUTO!

Ciao!

Welcome to the Annual Italian American Heritage Festival. We anticipate great success again in our 12th year of celebrating the unique personality of Italian American heritage and culture in the Delaware Valley.

Our vendors will prepare their sweet and savory specialties once again that will take Festival attendees on a "culinary journey through Italy."

Savor the poetry and melody of Italian favorite songs from our renowned performers that capture the ears and hearts of all with each performance.

Italy has long been known as a leader in automotive design...peruse the sleek, streamlined designs that will have you swooning at the exotic Italian car exhibit right here in Rose Tree Park!

Visit the novelty tables with an eclectic selection of goods and services for all; watch some expert bocce ball playing; and be sure to bring the kids to the "Kid's Field of Fun!"

Many thanks to the Rose Tree Park management and staff for their generous help in making the Festival possible!

MUSICAL HEADLINERS

The Verdi Band 11:00 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.

"Music is the Gospel of the Human Heart, the Soul of Humanity." These deeply moving words were often spoken by Professor Loreto Marsella, the man who founded the Verdi Band in 1920 at the peak of the immigration phenomenon.

Prof. Marsella wanted to give the people something that would allow them to keep their heritage, their traditions and most of all, their faith. These then, were the driving forces which caused him to seek out men who felt as passionately about music as he did, and who shared the same desire to establish in their new country, the traditions of their motherland. And so, with about 30 men, he began the "Verdi Band of Norristown." And now, over 100 years later, his legacy and his music continue.

Presentation at the Fallen Heroes Memorials 11:45 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.

CELEBRATE ITALIAN AMERICAN HERITAGE

Festa della Repubblica, also known as Italian National Day or Republic Day, is a festival that is celebrated in Italy to remember the shift from a monarchical rule to a republic. This festival is similar to our Independence Day or Bastille Day in France. During the interwar period in Italy, the government power transformed from the Statuto Albertino to a Fascist, authoritarian rule under Benito Mussolini. The Statuto Albertino was a constitution enacted by King Charles Albert of Piedmont-Sardinia that set up a constitutional monarchy in Italy in 1848.

In 1925, Benito Mussolini transformed the Statuto Albertino to adapt to his Fascist regime. In doing so, Mussolini established the Grand Council of Fascism and made himself the Head of the Government Prime Minister.

In 1943, Mussolini was arrested by the King in an attempt to overthrow the Fascist regime. The end of Mussolini's reign in Italy caused the country to revert back to a constitutional monarchy. When the citizens of Italy grew tired of monarchical rule, they were called upon to cast their votes to decide the political future of their country.

On 2 June 1946, a majority vote of 54% forced Italy to abolish its existing monarchy and become a republic. Thus, it resulted in the end of the House of Savoy and a new day celebration - la Festa della Repubblica.

Every year on June 2 the majority of the country - banks, offices, and schools in Italy - close to celebrate la Festa della Repubblica. During this major celebration of Italy's republic, grand parades march through the streets, a wide variety of different foods are consumed, and the President of Italy lays a ceremonial wreath on the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Rome. Furthermore, the Frecce Colori, Italy's Air Force, flies over the Altare della Patria, the monument dedicated to Victor Emmanuel II (who was the first king of a unified Italy), and leave a trail of green, white, and red smoke. As the parade ensues, the President holds a review of the military forces. The Quirinale, President's residence, opens its gardens to visitors. Throughout Rome, street vendors and restaurants cater to the throngs of visitors who have come to view the parade. Regionally, the Festa della Repubblica is celebrated in the capoluoghi but also in smaller towns. The Prefetture, the local governments, organize local ceremonies and festivities. These local areas prepare regional specialties and often hold their own parades and festivities.
