A GIANT PARADE IN A TINY TOWN

Tumbleweed Smith

About 750 people live in Chappell Hill, a Washington County village located in the rolling prairie country near Brenham. It was settled in 1849 and named for one of the founding families. Despite its small size it is a thriving community that attracts visitors who enjoy the peaceful easy feeling, clean streets, shady drives, well-kept lawns, historic homes, interesting shops and restaurants the town offers.

Tumbleweed Smith

Two big attractions are the Official State of Texas Bluebonnet Festival in April, which attracts around 15,000 people, and the Scarecrow Festival in October when innovative scarecrow figures are displayed all over town. About 10,000 people go to see the scarecrows. Both events are sponsored by the historical society and bring a lot of economic benefits to Washington County. In summer, Chappell Hill stages an amazing July 4th parade.

"We have what we call the biggest small town parade in Texas," says Joel Romo, parade chairman. "This will be our 45th anniversary. It will be held at 10 AM July 4th in downtown Chappell Hill. The streets are packed during the parade and we've estimated that three to four thousand people come from throughout Texas to not only view the parade but to participate in it. We have numerous entries from exotic cars to floats that people spend months preparing. There is a competition that awards cash prizes.

"And of course we have the world famous marching kazoo band that consists of thirty to fifty kiddos marching down Main Street fitted with t-shirts and an official Chappell Hill Chamber of Commerce kazoo, armed with drums made of empty Blue Bell Ice Cream containers. They're one of the big attractions at our annual parade. The community really comes together for this celebration of our country's birth. Everybody gets in the patriotic spirit. The town is decorated to the hilt with flags up and down Main Street." KWHI radio in Branham broadcasts the parade.

Joel says the parade sometimes has 130 entries and lasts an hour or more.

"We've had some of the most unique entries like a motorized toilet. One year we had Lone Star Beer's famous giant armadillo. We've had a fly-over from a Houston hospital's life-flight helicopter. We have a cannon and we auction off the title of Chief Cannoneer. The highest bidder gets to shoot the cannon. We always have a ceremony to start the parade with a flag salute, short patriotic speech then our volunteer firemen sound the siren to start the parade moving. People leave with plenty of candy, plenty of patriotism and a smile on their face."

Chappell Hill is an hour away from Houston, an hour and a half away from Austin. It was settled by farmers who raised cotton and shipped it out by barges on the Brazos River. Joel says that agricultural attitude stayed with the descendants of people who built the town. "We have warm, welcoming people who want to share what our county is all about. While here, visitors go to other attractions in the area like Blue Bell and the state historic site where Texas was born."

He was the second oldest of five children. He is preceded in death by his loving father Woodrow Anders, beloved mother Louise Anders, doting elder sister Irene Flowers, half-sister Ernestine Ray, and nephew Kenny Beaver.

Robert was an intelligent, strong, and fiercely independent individual. He was respected as an expert in any endeavor to which he set his mind. Rebecca Darlene Hobbs Fouse

A Celebration of Life for Rebecca Darlene Hobbs Fouse, age 58, of Commerce, Texas, will be held from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Penelope's Coffee Co. in Mount Vernon, Texas, on Saturday, July 2, 2022. Ms. Fouse passed away on Monday, June 13, 2022, at Christus Mother Frances-Sulphur Springs, Texas.

Rebecca, lovingly referred to as Becky by her family and friends, was born October 2, 1963, in Greenville, Texas, to Jack Hobbs Sr. and Lillie Mae Hobbs (Penny). Her parents divorced when she was a child and she gained stepparents, Charles Wayne Fite and Sheila Hobbs, who she loved as much as her own parents. She grew up in the Northeast Texas area, graduating Winnsboro High School Class of 1982.

Becky was a self-taught guitar player, playing by ear. She was an animal lover, rescuing squirrels, skunks, owls and more. Becky was always sharing anything she had, even if she didn't have much. She was easy to talk to and never judged a soul. Becky loved to walk the rivers looking for arrowheads and fossils, and fishing the creeks. She enjoyed cruising on her motorcycle and was always up for a ride down the backroads listening to her favorite music.

Last year, Becky was diagnosed with breast cancer. She fought like a warrior but, unfortunately, the cancer had spread to her lungs. Becky was strong and brave in her final days, and passed peacefully surrounded by loved ones.

She is survived by her children, Natasha Hamm (Kacey) of Mount Vernon and Simoine Miller (Ashley) of Azle; grandchildren, Bradyen Hamm, Emmalie Hamm, Devin Miller; sisters, Cheryl Summers, Mary Jo Hodges, Mary Deaton; brothers, Jack Anthony Hobbs Jr. and Larry Hobbs; cousin Jenny Speir; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Rebecca was preceded in death by her parents; step-parents; her sister, Joyce Borden; Aunt Ruby Alexander; and a baby niece, Lillie.

Natasha and Simoine would like to thank Individual Care of Texas in Quinlan, Sulphur Springs Health and Rehab, as well as Texas Oncology in Paris and Sulphur Springs for the loving care that was given to their mother these last few years. Your love and kindness did not go unnoticed.

Arrangements are under the direction of Murray-Orwosky Funeral Home. The online register can be signed at www.murrayorwosky.com
