Dinner Features Drawdown

FLORENCE—St. Joseph Regional Catholic School will host their Inaugural Drawdown and Dinner Fundraiser at 6pm on Saturday, April 9 at the Mane Room in downtown Florence. Tickets are now available to the general public for $100 (admits two) which includes one chance to win the $10,000, dinner, door prizes, and entertainment.

St. Joseph Regional Catholic School is a private Christian school where there is a collaborative atmosphere of learning. The School has been educating Catholic and non-Catholic students in the Shoals for over 100 years in a community of faith, knowledge, and service. The money raised from the event supplements the school's operating budget and helps to provide resources and materials for students and staff. This money also helps fund field trips and science fairs, uniforms for our athletic teams, and healthy, freshly-cooked meals in the cafeteria daily through the Fresh Café program.

This year's theme is Everything 80's! The grand prize is a chance at a $10,000 drawing. One ticket provides one chance in the drawing. There will be a variety of door prizes throughout the night and entertainment by our featured emcee.

To order tickets for SJS Drawdown and Dinner, contact the school at 256-766-1923 or email Crystal Magruder at pto@catholichill.com.

Filling More Bowls

SHOALS - A bowl of soup, a piece of bread, and a bottle of water: They are a simple set of items that have come to stand for so much more in our community. The Salvation Army Women's Auxiliary of the Shoals presents the 13th Annual Empty Bowls Luncheon on Thursday, March 24 from 11am-1pm at the Marriott Shoals Conference Center in Florence. Tickets are $15 in advance or at the door and carry out is available. Shuttle buses will help transport guests from their cars to the door and back. Overflow parking will also be available at Veterans Park. Handmade ceramic bowls are given to each guest to keep as a reminder of the meal's purpose. Each time that bowl is used at home will serve as a reminder that someone's bowl is always empty. Some of the ceramic bowls are made by professional potters and some by non-professional volunteers. All were carefully made with love and concern for those of our community in need.

Plates Support Spay/Neuter

MONTGOMERY - The Alabama Veterinary Medical Foundation wants to remind pet lovers to support the ALVMF Spay/Neuter License Plate Program by purchasing a license plate and contributing through your Alabama State Income Tax return. The ALVMF redesigned the tag last year, and the public voted through social media to determine the new design. The new tag design goes into production this year.

"This program helps low-income Alabama residents obtain surgeries for their pets that will in turn help us decrease the pet overpopulation problem in our state," says ALVMF President Jerome Williams. "We

Guests will enjoy fabulous soups and breads provided by local restaurants and bakeries while listening to the wonderful sounds of local musicians. All funds raised from the sale of tickets and donations will be used to provide food for the hungry in Lauderdale, Franklin and Colbert Counties. The S.A.W.A. also conducts a Silent Auction during the event. Fine local merchants, potters, artists, craftsmen, and many friends of the Auxiliary ensure that beautiful gifts await the eye.

Guests are given the opportunity to bid on these items throughout the luncheon.

encourage everyone to support this program, purchase a tag or make a donation and help us help them."

Pet overpopulation numbers in Alabama are staggering. Approximately 75% of healthy, adoptable cats and dogs brought into Alabama shelters are needlessly euthanized...more than 120,000 each year.

You can help reduce these numbers by purchasing an ALVMF specialty license plate from a local issuing office. The specialized tag is $50 (plus your regular fees) with proceeds going to the ALVMF Spay/Neuter License Plate Program to assist low-income families who qualify for the program with the cost of spaying and neutering their pets.

Another way to donate is through your tax return. Thanks to generous Alabamians like you, the income tax check-off has raised more than $26,000 since 2013. Simply specify an amount for spay/neuter efforts through the ALVMF at the bottom of your return or tell your tax preparer that you want to give through that option.

Through the ALVMF Spay/Neuter License Plate Program, proceeds from statewide tag sales offset the cost of spay/neuter surgeries. These spay/neuter surgeries are performed at more than 60 participating veterinary hospitals throughout Alabama. To spay or neuter as many animals as possible, participating veterinarians accept a reduced fee for the surgeries.

During the past six years, more than 22,000 tags have been sold and over 15,000 surgeries have been performed.

Sadly, there often are not enough funds to support the number of surgeries requested.

Pet lovers can help reduce the number of Alabama's unwanted pets by purchasing a license plate, making a tax-deductible donation on your income tax return or simply donating directly to the ALVMF Spay/Neuter Program at www.alvmf.org. Show your support and increase awareness of spay/neuter by putting this specialty tag on your vehicle. The ALVMF makes it possible for veterinarians and animal lovers to partner in increasing awareness and raising funds to benefit our pets statewide. Contributions to the ALVMF are made by people who respect and care about animals and who appreciate the veterinarians who are dedicated to their pets' health and well-being... people like you! Be a hero for Alabama's pets.

ASK THE ATTORNEY

Q I was driving on a four lane road when a pickup truck from the other direction began swerving. This truck was hauling firewood on a small trailer behind it and some of the logs came off and hit my car, flattened my tire, bent my rim, and damaged the underside of my car. The estimate for my repair is over $3000 but I let the guy go without calling the police because I just thought I had a flat tire. I did get his name and insurance information but the insurance company says that he doesn't have insurance on that truck and they won't pay without a police report. What can I do?

Stacy, Athens, AL

A As you now know, a police report would help you resolve this matter. I hope everyone who reads my column understands that insurance companies are not helpful. Mayhem may be funny and talking geckos are great but insurance companies do not pay claims they do not absolutely have to pay. They dispute every claim they can and when liability is clear they claim that the damages were caused some other way or are less than claimed.

There is no reason why the insurance company will take your word for the fact that your car was damaged by their insured. Without a police report, they will simply dispute your account of the facts unless their insured admits to what happened. They will not make much of an effort for that to happen. They will drag it out and never pay you unless you make them.

I don't think you will ever be paid voluntarily by the insurance company in this case. A trailer being towed is generally covered by the insurance on the vehicle towing it.

If the vehicle was borrowed, insurance will follow the vehicle.

My advice is to get a thorough estimate of the damage by an experienced and licensed repair facility and then file a complaint in small claims court in the county in which the accident happened. Small Claims Court goes up to $3000. District Court goes up to $10,000 and any suit for damages above $10,000 must be filed in Circuit Court.

If the person has insurance, the suit will get the insurance company's attention and you may get paid or you may have to have your repair person present in court to testify about how much it will cost to repair your vehicle. That is an easy four questions: What do you do? How long have you done it? Did you examine my car? How much will it cost to fix?

Just because an insurance company refuses to accept responsibility in no way means that the judge who listens to the evidence and the parties won't find in your favor. People are supposed to drive safely and secure their loads properly. Failure to do so is negligence. Remember that the Small Claims system is set up for people to use without the expense of an attorney.

Buckle up and drive safely.

DAVE Says

by DAVE RAMSEY

NO ARGUMENTS

Dear Dave,
My dad and I have been having arguments over real estate and money. My wife and I are 33, and we have a rental property. We were trying to decide whether or not to sell the rental in order to pay down on our home. My dad has been very vocal about what he thinks we should do, and it's starting to cause problems in our relationship. The two homes are our only debt, and we make $110,000 a year. We owe $132,000 on our residence and $80,000 on the rental. We could sell the rental for around $160,000. What do you think we should do?
Ricky

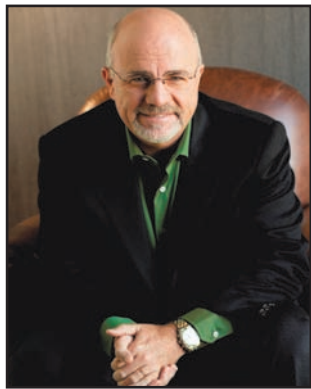

Dear Ricky,
I wouldn't sell the rental today, but it's definitely a strong consideration in the future. You wouldn't realize enough from its sale to pay off it and your home at this point, so work aggressively toward paying down the mortgage on your home. Then, when you get far enough down that the sale of the rental would pay it off, go for it if that's what you both want. You're doing really well financially for a couple your age in San Diego.

Now, let's talk about something else for a moment. I would love for you to listen to your dad for advice, but I would not be arguing with him about what you are going to do with your money. You're a man. I don't know if you just used the incorrect word there for how the discussion went down, but if not, I wanted to correct that as a boundary issue in your family.

Keep up the good work, Ricky!
—Dave

STAYING AWAY FROM SCAMS

Dear Dave,
I've always wanted to work from home. How can I separate the scams online and on television from the real jobs where I can make money?
Randy

Dear Randy,
The vast majority of things you see in late-night infomercials and online—except of course for legitimate job hunter sites—are scams. I'm talking about the business-in-a-box kind of stuff and everything else. And I know you've seen the postings online that go something like, "My sister-in-law makes $50 an hour from home, and you can, too!" These scammers are the worst of the worst. Don't waste a second of your time on that garbage.

My biggest worry is that you're looking at your career the wrong way. Just making money shouldn't be the measuring stick of success in your professional life. Whether you're going to start a home business or work in an office for someone else, your work should engage you in doing something you know about and love.

You spend too many hours of your life at work to be miserable in what you do. Shuffling day after day through a job you don't like—even one with a big paycheck attached—is also a bad idea. Sooner or later the fact that you don't like your work is going to catch up with you on the job and at home.

Think of something you love to do, then get creative and find a way to make money at it. It may mean turning a hobby into a part-time gig nights and weekends for starters. Who knows, with a lot of hard work and a little creativity, you could be your own boss in no time!

March Madness

March Madness is here and for all true basketball fans, it's the most exciting time of the year. It brings back memories of 25 years ago this month when the University of North Alabama Lions team captured the school's second Division II basketball National Championship. Head Coach Gary Elliott was optimistic about that years' team. Elliott said: "we had players like Allen Williams and Fred Stafford returning plus we put together a pretty tough schedule hoping it would pay off in the long run."

And pay off it did. The Lions traveled to Richmond, Virginia for a Thanksgiving Holiday tournament. The first game was against pre-season ranked No. 5 ranked Florida Tech. The Lions came from 20 points behind in the second half to pull off a 90-82 win. The Lions faced off against tournament host Virginia Union, a former national champion and pre-season ranked No. 2 in the title game.

The Lions parlayed a great team effort and downed the host team for the championship. The win gave the Lions an 8-0 start to the season and the number 1 ranked spot in the nation. UNA's tough schedule also included a road trip to Division I Murray State. The Racers featured All-American "Popeye" Jones who came into the game with a 44-consecutive game double-figure scoring streak.

Jones and the Racers were no match for UNA's quickness and the Lions came away with a convincing 18-point victory and held Jones to just eight points, snapping his 44-game streak. The Lions were ready when the tough Gulf South Conference schedule began. UNA finished off their regular season with wins over West Georgia, Jacksonville State, Mississippi College and Delta State to run their record to 24-4.

In the post-season playoffs, UNA had to travel to Troy State for the South Regionals. In the opening game, the Lions defeated Hampton to set up the Regional championship match against their old nemesis, Troy State with a trip to the Elite Eight Tournament going to the winner. Troy State had already dealt the Lions two of their four losses that season, but UNA won the one that counted that night.

It was off to Springfield, Massachusetts, the home of the College Basketball Hall of Fame, and a shot at a national championship. It would turn out to be UNA's week of glory. The Lions defeated Ashland in the opening round, Virginia Union in the semifinals and then Bridgeport in the national championship game that was televised nationwide on CBS-TV to claim the school's second Division II Basketball National Championship.

Gary Elliott was named National "Coach of the Year" and the 29 wins set a single-season school record. Elliott was quick to point out that assistant coach Billy Gamble was the one behind recruiting many of the key players on the team. It was a dream season and one that will always be remembered by UNA basketball fans. In 1991, the UNA Lions were on top of the world.

Commentary

Orr's Bill Part of a Long Process

We hear of the abuse often. We can witness the misuse frequently of the SNAP (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program) in the grocery checkout line.

We are all aware of families who really need the assistance of the program formerly known as Food Stamps. Those who are temporarily out of work, disabled, single moms with young children who are or were involved with some low-life unwilling to take responsibility for himself, much less his family. The overwhelming majority of taxpayers have no problem helping people get by, feed their children, or work toward independence. It's the abusers who create the sour feelings against the program.

Their transactions are legal and at least recipients can't blatantly exchange food stamps for hard cash like used to be the case years ago. Now the funds are established monthly in a recipient's account and are only usable through a debit card.

I can see why even the most generous of hard-working people who don't qualify for SNAP or Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) would harbor a little animosity. They are scraping by from week-to-week at the grocery store absorbing escalating prices on dairy, meat, and grain products while coping with shrinking package sizes. They have to be mindful of every dollar as they stretch their budget to plan for some

Poison Prevention Should Include Pets

MONTGOMERY— National Poison Prevention Awareness Week is March 20-26. The Alabama Veterinary Medical Association reminds pet owners that this is a great time to do a little spring cleaning and check their homes for any toxins which their pets may have access to.

Some of the top pet poisons are obvious, but others may surprise you. It is imperative that you are familiar with all of them.

- Foods (chocolate, xylitol and grapes/raisins)
- Insecticides (sprays, bait, and spot-on flea/tick treatments)
- Mouse and rat poison (rodenticides)

- Human and pet medications
- Household cleaners (sprays, detergents, polishes)
- Fertilizers (bone meal, blood meal and iron-based products)

Other poisons that are extremely dangerous include antifreeze and acetaminophen. Veterinarians have also seen

99% Inconsequential?

Editor:

So, let me get this straight regarding the new laws on transgender dressing rooms referenced in last week's Commentary, Unjustifiable Law is Anti-Female.

Approximately .003% of the residents of a city like New York consider themselves transgenders, and they feel uncomfortable using the bathrooms with people of the same sex. So, the feelings of the remaining 99.997% of people who live there - who may be uncomfortable sharing a public restroom or locker room with a member of the opposite sex - are inconsequential???

Grateful for Response

Dear Editor:

On behalf of United Cerebral Palsy of Northwest Alabama, thank you to everyone who so generously supported our recent telethon on March 6 on the Valley's CW. We are so thankful to God and to this community for pledging to around $89,000 to help us provide services to children who are developmentally disabled. We are overwhelmed by the support we've received. Thank you to the many individuals who helped with our telethon this year. This endeavor would be impossible without the help of so many.

And MOST OF ALL, thanks to all of you who opened your hearts and wallets to give to the telethon again this year. Thank you for caring enough to reach out and help your friends and neighbors by giving your hard-earned money to UCP of Northwest Alabama so that we can continue to provide FREE therapy and help to families again this year. Thank You!

Significance Overlooked

language of the Old Testament) have a significance sometimes overlooked by students. A name often reveals Yahweh's intentions for a particular individual's life. Yahshua of Nazareth, for instance, was named after his heavenly father Yahweh. The personal name Yahshua is a combination of two important Hebrew words, "Yah" and "shua". Taken together, they mean, "Yah (is) salvation", forming a Hebrew declarative sentence.

Many of the Hebrew prophets before Yahshua also bore Yahweh's name in its shortened form. The sacred name is easily recognizable among the personal names of many of the prophets, telling us whom they worshiped. Isaiah, Jeremiah, Zechariah and Obadiah, to list a few, all close with the name, "Yah." These prophets were entrusted with special oracles from Yahweh to which Yahweh affixed his name. JeremiYAH, for example, means, "Whom Yah raises up." ZechariYAH means, "Remembered of Yah," or "Yah has remembered." Interestingly, the prophet IsaiYAH's name carries the same definition as the name Yahshua. It means, "Yah has saved." Little wonder that Isaiah 53, written centuries before Yahshua's ministry, is an unmistakable prophecy of the Nazarene.

The Scriptures inform us that Yahweh has chosen several Hebrew titles to be associated with his name. However, he is very guarded of the personal, proper name Yahweh. The third commandment tells us that those who misuse or minimize Yahweh's name will not be held guiltless. In Isaiah 43:11, Yahweh says, "I, I, (am) Yahweh; and beside me (there is) no savior." That's how it reads directly from Hebrew.

Studying Biblical Hebrew in our present-minded age may seem outdated until we understand that Hebrew, as a fixed, ancient language, is a dictionary of faded metaphors. It allows us an insight into both the Old and New Testaments that is entirely missed without it

A Benefit Concert Supporting Local Veteran Programs of Post #11

SOMETIMES, in my business, we have to ask for your passwords to fix your stuff. I am always amazed at how lax some of them are. One survey found that 80% of consumers use risky, easy-to-guess passwords. For example, I can guarantee that some of you will use one of these: rolltide, gotigers, roarlions, 123456, Password, iloveyou, abc123, and Qwerty. Other obvious passwords will be either your birthday or the birthday of someone close to you, your children's first names, or your pet's name. Someone who wants to get at you can download a bit of hacker software, enter all your

A DELICIOUS PASSWORD RECIPE

by "The Computer Skeptic"

information such as birthday, social security numbers, names and addresses and the software will generate potential passwords that can be used to hack your stuff.

So, let's cook up a complex password using a few simple ingredients that that will result in a password that is impossible to guess. We are going to use at least 8 characters then add a dash or two of complexity using capital letters and special characters. Some of us can't remember our own two-digit age, much less a 15 character password. But I bet you can remember a sentence so let's start there.

A good sentence is "Yo mama so fat she goes to Sea World to get baptized." Use the first letter of each word to come up with the acronym "yMsF$Gt$wtGB764." Add a bit of complexity by capitalizing only the letters that appear in the first half of the alphabet ("A" thru "M") resulting in "yMsFsGtswtGB." Now throw in a special character or two by substituting "$" for "S" or "3" for "E" and "@" for "A." Then add some numbers--perhaps the first three digits of your phone number. So now we have "yMsF$Gt$wtGB764." And there you have it, an unhackable password that's easy to remember. Add even more security by using a different password for every website. That way, if someone happens to steal your main password, they still won't have access to every website. For example, the password for Amazon.com would start with an "A," thus: "AyMsF$Gt$wtGB764".

Netflix would be "NyMsF$Gt$wtGB764." In my next article, we will discuss the exciting technology called "two step authentication" that adds significantly more security to your password.

The very last step is to use a password storage tool that will help you remember your unhackable passwords as well as automatically fill-in forms and credit card information. I use a product called "Lastpass" and is available from www.lastpass.com.

Poisons

numerous cases of xylitol poisoning (xylitol is found in many sugarless gums, candies and mints), human medications such as non-steroidal anti-inflammatory medications, antidepressants and flowers. Symptoms can range from digestive upset and neurological signs to liver and/or kidney failure.

If you think your pet has come in to contact with a poison, call your veterinarian immediately. Sometimes induction of vomiting is indicated, while in other cases IV fluid therapy and oral charcoal therapy may be indicated. Poisons are fast-acting and can be fatal so do not hesitate to contact your veterinarian if you see any indications of poisoning. This could be vomiting, diarrhea, drooling/hypersalivating, inappetence, nausea, coughing or vomiting blood, weakness, lethargy or collapse.

The ALVMA encourages pet owners to take preventive measures to avoid poisoning accidents. This is the perfect time of year to do some spring cleaning and remove any items that could be hazardous to your pets from within their reach. Listed below are some useful preventive tips for pet owners:

- Be familiar with poisonous items by checking the list at www.petpoisonhelpline.com
- Know the signs of poisoning in your pet
- Be especially careful during holidays with candy
- As spring approaches, be aware of all of the harmful plants and gardening items that could cause your pet harm
- Keep the number for your veterinarian in a handy location

Visit the ALVMA website at www.alvma.com for more information on how to protect your pets from toxins.

NEW LIFE IN CHRIST

No matter who you are or where you are in life, you can be assured that God loves you and has a purpose for your life.

Because of sin (falling short of God's righteous standard), we are separated from God and are spiritually dead (Romans 3:23). However, because God loves us, He provided a way for us to connect with Him by sending His Son, Jesus, who never sinned, to die in our place as payment for our sin. John 3:16 says, "God loved the world in this way: He gave His One and Only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him will not perish but have eternal life."

To begin a personal relationship with God, agree with Him about your sin and your need for forgiveness. If you are ready to make this choice, as an affirmation of your belief, you may wish to pray a prayer like this one: Dear God, I understand I am a sinner, but I believe Jesus died for my sins, and I now accept His gift of eternal life. Thank You for forgiving my sins. Thank You for my new life. From this day on, I choose to follow You and Your will for my life.

If you choose to begin a personal relationship with God through His Son, Jesus, please share this with the person of church that gave you this. To learn more, visit sbc.net/knowjesus.

Media Shelters Communists

Editor:

Dave Hodges of Sons of Liberty warns that the United States is months away from a total subversion of all of its constitutional principles, its traditions, its wealth, and ultimately the freedom and survival of millions of its citizens. He adds that Obama is the right man at the right time to engineer a total communist subversion of the United States.

Vladimir Lenin said, "The Capitalists will sell us the rope with which we will hang them." Lenin probably couldn't have envisioned that a devout follower of his communist doctrines would become the President of the United States. He thought the Soviet Union would topple America from the inside. However, it isn't a Russian communist who is destroying America. It is the communist Barack Hussein Obama abetted by the Democratic Party and the liberal media. For his entire life Obama been under the influence of communists.

During his formative years, Obama knew nothing but Marxist communist philosophy. Communist Frank Marshall Davis, who some claim is Obama's real father, had access to Obama in his early years. Davis was a member of the Communist Party and a former Soviet Agent who was under FBI investigation for a total of nineteen years.

White House advisor Valerie Jarrett and her husband Vernon are communists as well. Both Jarrett and Davis wrote for a left wing newspaper called the Chicago Defender in which they espoused a communist takeover of the United States Government.

The husband and wife communist terrorist team of Bill Ayers and Bernadine Dohrn from the Weathermen Underground terrorist organization, has also had a great influence on Obama.

Senior White House Advisors, David Axelrod and Valerie Jarrett, were Red Diaper Babies, meaning they were the sons and daughters of well-to-do parents who desired communism and lived out their dreams through their children's revolutionary activities. Rahm Emanuel and Eric Holder were also red diaper babies.

Kevin Jennings, who was appointed to the position of Safe Schools Czar, is a self-admitted supporter and admirer of Harry Hay, a communist party leader, a known sexual pervert, and an avowed supporter and member of The North American Man Boy Love Association (NAMBLA).

NAMBLA's motto is "Sex before eight or it's too late." It is the most perverted organization in the country. Our Obama-appointed safe school czar, Kevin Jennings,

We Cannot Face Reality

Editor:

I have seen the documentaries about Islam and Muslims who hate and want to kill Israelis and Americans. It is also easy to see reports of illegals crossing the border from Mexico with the crime, drugs, and disorder they bring to America. In both situations President Obama is helping and supporting these dastardly people.

We don't see it on NBC, ABC, CBS, FOX and CNN networks in primetime because most people in the U.S. either don't want to face reality or they are not fully aware of the depth of these devastating happenings.

His Death Was Not a Suicide

Editor:

Law enforcement officials ignored eye witness evidence of murder in the case of David Darby sixteen years ago on Tombigbee Street in Florence. David Darby's death was apparently misclassified as a suicide. The case has not been investigated as a murder, arguably giving the appearance that law enforcement officers are conspiring to cover up the murder.

An eyewitness across the street stated there were two men fighting on the left side of a porch and two women on the right side of a porch screaming and cursing and she called 911. She again called 911 as the struggle on the porch continued and a shot was fired. The witness who called 911 was never contacted by law enforcement after all witness statements were timely presented to the Florence Police Department and DA's investigator.

Another neighbor alleged a conspiracy to murder David Darby for insurance of $300,000.

Suicide of David Darby was counter-intuitive. There were defensive wounds in the form of fresh scratches to both hands and arms, fresh scars on both legs, contusions to his face, an alleged self-inflicted pistol wound to the head from an improbable angle of discharge, and an old convoluted letter that was misinterpreted as a suicide confession.

Celestial Thoughts

Here's a neat challenge for the week. The next time you witness someone doing their job well or going above and beyond for you, tell or call the manager about it. It's such a simple, easy way to make someone's day and encourage them. I had to get some blood work done recently. The lab tech who took the sample did such a good job that I didn't feel a thing. He probably gets few, if any, compliments or feed back - but he did this time. I called his work place and told the manager what a good job he did and how much I appreciated it. Can you imagine a world where a complaint about something was rare and we had become accustomed to compliments instead? Hum....

"...Let your good deeds shine out for all to see, so that everyone will praise your heavenly Father." Matthew 5:16
