Lake Breeze Music Festival Debuts August 20 at Silver Beach

There's a new live music event preparing to debut at Shadowland Pavilion August 20. The Lake Breeze Music Festival draws on the experience and legacy of a couple of successful past concert series and hopes to create another 'destination event' for St. Joseph's annual Summer calendar.

Local promoters Jerry Price and Bryan Joseph have been the team behind the Community Concert series in conjunction with the Senior PGA Championship at Harbor Shores. The PGA-week music events at Benton Harbor's Dwight P. Mitchell Park downtown have drawn increasing crowds, culminating in about 5,000 attending this year's concert, featuring Jazz saxophonist Gerald Albright and R & B/Pop vocalist Stephanie Mills. Price and Joseph are applying the musical recipe of the PGA Community Concerts to their planned Lake Breeze Music Festival at Silver Beach's Shadowland Pavilion—where another successful concert series, 'Smooth Jazz at Sunset, ran from 2003 to 2019 in tandem with the Krasl Art Fair every July.

The inaugural LBMF will be headlined by nationally recognized Smooth Jazz saxophonist Tim Cunningham, with three special guest artists in supporting act roles. The Andrew Fisher Quartet is a locally based group highlighting vocalist Andrew Fisher. Carmen Stokes is a Chicago pianist and protégé of piano great Ramsey Lewis. Meagan McNeal, a Chicago singer, was on NBC's 'The Voice' in 2017 and is said to remind fans of Chaka Kahn and Aretha Franklin with her strong vocal stylings.

Price and Joseph are excited about the new music event and what it could mean to Michigan's Great Southwest every Summer going forward. They see it as another potential 'destination event' for St. Joseph, added to the Krasl Art Fair in July and Chalk the Block Weekend in August.

Price says, "It's about showing off Southwest Michigan as a wonderful place to live, work and play. You listen to World Class Music in an atmosphere that makes you want to come back again, or just stay here!" He says music brings people together, celebrates diversity and invites people to make this their hometown.

The Lake Breeze Music Festival offers both Reserved Chair and General Admission Lawn

Happy Summer!

Greetings to you all! I hope everyone is in full swing summer mode and enjoying the BEAUTIFUL weather we have had thus far in gorgeous Southwest Michigan. This is undoubtedly our areas "time to shine" with our gorgeous beaches, beautiful downtowns, and so many great activities going on. This is the time of year to kick back on your porch, your boat, or around the bonfire and "enjoy a cold one." The meaning of that has changed so much in the past few years with the ever-expanding drink selections. From domestics and craft beer, to seltzers, flavored malt beverages, and all the ready to drink cocktails, also known as the RTD category. This is a category that many distributors have recently just started playing with now being able to sell spirit based ready to drink beverages. They are so convenient and consistent, because you know exactly how much alcohol, calories, carbs, and sugars are in each serving. You don't have to mix a drink up; you just have to crack the top open!

Cutwater Spirit Based Canned Cocktails

Cutwater spirits was actually "born" in a very well-known brewery. Many of you are familiar with Ballast Point out of California. It was there that the founders of the brewery started tinkering with distilling. When Ballast Point was sold around 2015, they broke off and found a home in San Diego. Since then, they have been making award winning spirits such as vodka, rum, whiskey, tequila, the list goes on! They have been wildly successful in not only spirits, but also in making several "Ready to Drink" products from these spirits.

"The distillery currently has offerings from four distinct categories: spirits, canned cocktails, frozen cocktail pops, and mixers. From herbal liqueurs to spicy Bloody Mary mix to ginger beer, you'd be hard pressed to find a cocktail recipe that Cutwater can't help you create."

(www.vinepair.com)

In our market, we have the Cutwater Cocktail frozen pops (both tequila and vodka-based selections), the Bloody Mary and ginger beer mixers, and SEVERAL of the different canned cocktails. However, here are a few worth mentioning that you need to grab for your next summer outing!

Cutwater Vodka Mule: A Mule with a kick. Ginger, a splash of bitters, and a hint of lime makes for the start of an unforgettable mule. We mix in our exceptionally smooth award-winning Cutwater Vodka coming in with an ABV of 7%.

Cutwater Lime Margarita: For all your Marg lovers, Cutwater canned cocktails is very well known for theirs. "A San Diego take on a classic. Our Tequila Margarita puts a south of the border favorite in the palm of your hand. The tequila imparts a floral aroma with a smooth finish that complements our mix of tart lime, pure cane sugar, and a subtle hint of orange. The combination is a perfectly balanced margarita with a Cutwater twist." (www.cutwaterspirits.com) this comes in at whopping 12.5% ABV.

Cutwater Tiki Rum Mai Tai: Cutwater barrel aged rum, Bali Hai Tiki Gold Rum, pineapple, coconut, and citrus combine to balance this bright cocktail with an aged depth. With an ABV of 12.5% this is seriously delicious! You will feel like you are on a tropical vacation with every sip.

Cutwater Mango Margarita: As mentioned above, they are well known for their canned margaritas. Aside from this one and the lime they also have strawberry and peach. However, this is one of their most awarded canned cocktails winning 20+ awards in a short amount of time! This one also comes in at 12.5% ABV.

I also must mention that these are all Gluten Free! So, make sure to grab some of these terrific Cutwater Canned Cocktails. You won't be disappointed! As always, please enjoy responsibly! Have a great rest of your summer!

Sarah Spoonholtz,
Regional Director,
SMR Chamber

Part of the job description of working for the Chamber includes having a ready answer when people ask how business is in Southwest Michigan. Based on how July has been, I'd say business has been great! While the month is flying by, we've been able to host multiple events the last 2 weeks, such as multiple ribbon cuttings and our annual golf outing. Excuse me while I catch my breath (and honestly cool down!) for a moment, but I really need to brag a little on these:

Starting with the three most recent ribbon cuttings, Erika Schmid from GP Manufacturing in Buchanan finally got her chance to celebrate with her team, multiple community members, and both the Southwest Michigan Regional Chamber and the Buchanan Area Chamber of Commerce. While small, GP's team is a mighty one, and the fact that they are female owned and 50% of their employees are female, in an industry that is predominantly male dominated, should be noted too! There's a reason GP is one of the 2022 50 Michigan Small Businesses to Watch!

Next, Stacey and Elliot Davis the newest Biggby Coffee franchise owners in Southwest Michigan! Their new Biggby BCubed location in Bridgman officially opened on Tuesday and has had nothing but a warm welcome from the community. Being able to celebrate their investment in a community that is near and dear to their hearts was fantastic. There are times when you can see the passion radiating from people who love what they do, and Stacey was no exception while talking to her.

Speaking of passion, Joy Cluff's passion for the mortgage industry is one that has been long running. On Wednesday, we were able to officially welcome her new Guaranteed Rate office in downtown St. Joseph to the community. Their office at 717 Ship St. has been fully remodeled and makes the 12th one in the state!

Our 62nd Annual Chamber Golf Outing was Monday at Lake Michigan Hills Golf Club, presented by Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan, Sturgis Bank St. Joseph Banking Center, and the Southwestern Michigan Tourist Council - and what a perfect day it was! 18 rounds of golf were capped off with the 19th Hole After Party courtesy of Honor Credit Union, where we all gathered for a delicious taco bar from Classic Catering & Events, door prizes, contest winner announcements, and entertainment from JellieFish Productions. We can't say thank you enough to Paul, Kari and the entire Lake Michigan Hills Golf Club crew for making it such a smooth and easy day for us, our sponsors, and our golfers!

We'd also like to thank our Putting Contest Sponsor United Federal Credit Union, our Golf Cart Sponsor Hungerford Nichols CPAs + Advisors, our Flag Pin Sponsor the Northern Indiana Chapter of the National Electrical Contractors Association, our Mulligan Sponsor the Inn at Harbor Shores, and our Beverage Cart Sponsor Huizenga For Congress, and our Breakfast Sponsor the 2022 KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship for their commitment to ensuring our event was a success.

Another special thank you to our many Hole Sponsors: Silver Beach Pizza, South Bend In- ternational Airport, Kruggel Lawton CPAs, Berrien Dental, Sturgis Bank St. Joseph Banking Center, Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan, Meridian Title Company, Southwestern Michigan Tourist Council, Oak Title Services, Blossomland Accounting, CopperRock Construction, Diamond Factory Service, Chicago Title, Honor Credit Union, Five Star Heating and Air Conditioning, Spectrum Health Lakeland, Your Voice for Business Podcast, and an extra special thank you to Emily Byrns from b.grace Boutique for running our Buy Local Berrien! hole!

An incredible amount of effort goes into planning an event of this size and I'd be remiss if I did not recognize and thank my teammates, Arthur Havlicek, President & CEO and Jasmine Hansen, Membership Engagement Manager plus our amazing Ambassadors who volunteered: Tanya Urias, Dave Clark, Kimberly Pichot, Sandi Kopach, Lauren Potts, Craig Anderson, Joan Waltes, Jo Farrell, Bob Rogers, and our Board members who sponsored, and a special thank you to Tom Norbey, and Zack East for helping execute the event.

Last but certainly not least, I'd like to thank the many valued members who attended the outing to showcase their business, enjoy golf with clients and co-workers, network with other area business leaders, and support the Southwest Michigan Regional Chamber. We truly appreciate every single person who joined us on Monday for a fun-filled day on the links.

We are already looking forward to next year and seeing you around Southwest Michigan!

5 Reasons to Donate Blood

1. You help others. 25% of people will need blood at least once in their lives. Your donated blood can potentially help save up to three lives, according to the American Red Cross.
2. You're among a select minority. About 38% of Americans are eligible to donate blood each year, but only about 10% actually do. Be one of the few to help save many!
3. You get a free health check-up. Before you give blood, a nurse will check your blood pressure, pulse, temperature and hemoglobin levels. Your blood may also be checked for HIV, hepatitis and other diseases.
4. It only takes an hour. The process of donating blood only takes about an hour, although the actual blood donation only takes about 10 minutes.
5. You may need a blood donation one day. Donating blood is an act of kindness and compassion toward others. Choose to give back—you may be in need of a blood donation yourself one day!

Imagine this. You are driving down I-94, fed up with traffic, construction, gas prices, your kids, work, and everything in between. You've had enough and decide to pull off the nearest exit when you see a big sign out by the road that reads "Garden Grove." As you turn down the drive by the sign, you hear the crackle of freshly crushed rocks under your tires. You are surrounded by trees and beautiful landscaping on either side of you, the aroma of freshly cut grass fills your car. Suddenly you emerge to find yourself in a beautiful, secluded oasis. That is exactly what you will get when you visit Garden Grove Inn: Bed & Breakfast. Tucked away in Union Pier, Garden Grove is a charming get away owned and operated by Hillary Stifler.

Garden Grove Inn: Bed & Breakfast

Hillary's love for B&Bs (Bed and Breakfast) started when she was a young girl visiting her parent's friend's B&B in Sedona, Arizona. She grew up in Kalamazoo, went to college in Ohio, and then upon graduation moved to Chicago to start her career. While in Chicago, Hillary was a market research analyst for seventeen years. However, she always knew that she didn't want to sit behind a desk the rest of her life. She wanted to live, to explore, and to meet others who loved to do the same. That is when she decided that she was ready to take that leap of faith and start looking for her own B&B.

In 2020, Hillary started looking at properties and after only a few months later she stumbled upon Garden Grove Inn. The farmhouse-feels of the home, the wooded property, the distance to the beach, and all the small local stores, made her fall in love with the property and its surrounding community. So, she did the next logical thing... SHE BOUGHT IT! The Inn was built in the early 1900's and was soon after transformed into a B&B. So, when you book a stay at Garden Grove Inn, not only are you getting the charm of an old farmhouse, but also are in a piece of Union Pier history!

The Inn has seven bedrooms, each with its own unique yet homey feel. There are multiple places around the yard to kick your feet up and relax, large kitchen/dining room area with multiple places for sitting, fireplaces inside to keep warm in the winter, and fire pits outdoors for summer fires. If all of that isn't enough, the Inn also has books, bikes, firewood, fixings for s'mores, and beach towels all complimentary when you book a stay. Oh, I can't forget to mention, one of the buildings is DOG FRIENDLY, so if you're anything like me, you don't have to feel guilty about leaving your furry best friend behind while on vacation.

Hillary told me that she wants you to feel as though you are in your own home away from home when you stay, which is why she provides many things that your local cookie cutter hotels don't provide. In addition, she also cooks you breakfast every morning so you don't have to worry about how you're going to start your mornings. Hillary loves to support local businesses which is why she picks up fresh fruit, produce, and coffee grounds from local vendors for breakfasts, and tries to buy local for everything she purchases for the Inn. She likes to think of herself as a "Local Ambassador," and I think that title fits her perfectly.

Garden Grove Inn is located at 9549 Union Pier Road, Union Pier. If you have more questions, want to see the property, or book a stay, contact Hillary at 269-469-6346. You can even email her at hillary@gardengroveinn.com or visit their website at gardengroveinn.com. Please, be sure to support local businesses and entrepreneurs such as Garden Grove Inn.

Are you or someone you know a new entrepreneur in the area? If so, shoot me an email at news@MailMaxOnline.com. I would love to learn more about other aspiring entrepreneurs in our area.

Dave Says

You have to change

Dear Dave,
Is debt consolidation a good way to get out of debt?

Erikah
Dear Erikah,
No, it's not. Debt consolidation companies try to position themselves that way, but they don't even come close to addressing or solving the real problem.

Here's the big reason debt consolidation isn't a good idea. It makes you feel like you truly did something to change your whole financial outlook when you didn't. When you move things around, or suddenly have a lower payment each month, you end up thinking you're making real progress. The thing is you didn't do anything to address the actual problem—which is you.

I meet people and talk to folks on my radio show all the time who don't quite grasp this. They'll tell me they paid off all their debt by using a debt consolidation company or taking out a second mortgage on their homes. Well, the truth is they're not debt-free. They didn't do anything but shuffle the same old debt around.

Personal finance is 80% behavior, Erikah. When it comes to getting out of debt, staying out of debt and getting your finances into shape, you have to change your habits and behaviors with money. Interest rates aren't the problem, and the number of payments you're facing aren't the problem. The problem is the person you see in the mirror every morning.

Until you change that person, and start living on a strict, written monthly budget and decide to kick debt out of your life once and for all, you'll never make any real progress toward gaining control of your money!

— Dave

We Glory in Suffering

Not only so, but we also glory in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope. And hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us. Romans 5:3-5

Which sounds better to you? "Avoid suffering at all costs" or "We glory in our sufferings." Your initial reaction is probably that the first one sounds better. But after you think about it, you realize that even trying as hard as you can to avoid it, you can't avoid all suffering.

You can eat clean and exercise, but you could still get sick. You can take a defensive driving course, obey the speed limit and rules of the road, but it might not be enough to protect you from the distracted driver. You can be selfless and loving, but it doesn't mean you won't face rejection or that your heart won't be broken. Sometimes it seems like life is a winepress, and you are the grape.

Okay, you can't avoid suffering, but how do you find glory in it? Christians know the ultimate source of suffering is sin. And they also know that God doesn't waste that suffering. God uses suffering as a means for drawing believers to himself. When suffering happens, Christians can rely on God's Word and promises. Faith in God grows, and so the suffering produces perseverance.

When Christians depend on God through tough times, again and again, that produces character. And a Christian who has been tried and tested by the trials and suffering of this world has a confident hope. This world and all its suffering will eventually come to an end.

God poured out his love by sending his Son, Jesus, to suffer the ultimate punishment of sin. Because of that suffering, God sends his Holy Spirit into the hearts of believers to strengthen them through their suffering. And so, yes, you can glory in suffering. God's using it to draw you closer to him.

Prayer: Dear Jesus, thank you for suffering for my sin in my place. Help me to find comfort knowing that my present suffering will come to an end and draw me closer to you. Amen.

The Artists & Line-Up

The Andrew Fisher Quartet (6:00pm -6:45pm)-is a neo-soul jazz group from Michigan. They specialize in bending traditional genres such as soul, funk, R&B, Motown and more while using the language of improvisation and jazz. Since being formed in 2015, AFQ showcases their unique takes on well known songs and catalogs and now currently are performing their original music with the release of their EP in 2019.

Carmen Stokes (7:00pm - 7:45pm)- An Indiana girl arriving on the Chicago scene in the 1990's debut album, Sexy Feelin. Carmen Stokes established herself as an in-demand artist in the Chicago area, her soulful and sultry sounds builds on the legends of jazz, including her musical mentor Mr. Ramsey Lewis.

Meagan McNeal (8:00pm - 9:00pm)- is a powerhouse singer/songwriter and recording artist from Chicago. Well-versed in the genres of soul, jazz, and R&B she is known for her diverse range and soulful voice. Meagan graced the stage of NBC's "The Voice" in 2017 and has been soring ever since. Influenced by groundbreaking artists such as Anita Baker, Ella Fitzgerald, Chaka Khan, and Aretha Franklin-Meagan is truly a voice to hear!

Tim Cunningham (9:20- 10:30pm)-For decades the words "smooth, sultry, cool & funky" have been used to describe Tim's high energy and emotional stage show as his sexy blend of smooth jazz and soulful R&B connects with people of all ages, races and genres of music. This unique and versatile style has earned Tim the pleasure of opening for such jazz greats as Dave Koz, Norman Brown, Brian Culbertson and George Benson. On the flip side, his bumpin' R&B flavor has on occasion paired him with Earth Wind & Fire, Cameo, Boyz II Men, Patti Labelle, Frankie Beverly, Jeffrey Osborne, and the late Luther Vandross.

Promoters Bryan Joseph and Jerry Price have been active in the local community for many years. Joseph is the Sales and Marketing Manager at Michigan Pizza Hut. Price is with Spectrum Health Lakeland, serving as Specialist Talent Program Lead—Diversity, Equity & Inclusion.

Nominations For

'40 Under 40' Class of 2022 Now Open

They say that it takes a village to raise a child...and we've learned a lot about some of those who have been raised in our midst over the past half dozen years or more since launching the Moody on the Market 40 Under 40 Young Professionals award series. In fact, we've learned that many of those who had the benefit of a veritable village during their formative years are now giving back to that some community in multiple rewarding ways. The past winners lists of our 40 Under 40 frequently read like a Who's Who of young leaders in our midst, and now we're looking to add to that list.

From cancer researchers to financial professionals...from non-profit stars to creators, makers, educators and beyond, our 40 Under 40 lists are noteworthy. Now, it's time to add to the rosters from over the years.

If someone you know has achieved levels of greatness worthy of recognition among the 40 Under 40 Young Professionals in Michigan's Great Southwest, now is the time to nominate them online at the link provided below.

The nomination process is now open for the Class of 2022 for the 40 Under 40 right here on Moody on the Market.com. Presented by McGhee's Heating & Air Conditioning, the Southwest Michigan Regional Chamber, the Inn at Harbor Shores, Silver Beach Pizza, Lake Michigan College and Honor Credit Union, with support from the Mason Jar Cafe and United Way of Southwest Michigan, nominations will be taken exclusively through the online link provided below through midnight on Sunday, August 7, 2022.

Who among your family, friends and colleagues is a rising star in the region? Get them into the running by nominating them today. (Just be sure to read the past winners lists to make sure that they haven't already won in the past, as there are no encore winners.) Also, take note that this is not a popularity contest. You will be asked serious questions about the nominee and his or her work in the community on the survey instrument. Besides, it only takes a single nomination to get a candidate under consideration by the selection committee comprised of judges who will determine the final 40 winners.

The prestige of the 40 Under 40 marches on. Nominate someone right now by following this link: www.surveymonkey.com/r/COSKPT6

Don

Stuart

On a journey to the wedding of the son of good friends, set to take place near Jamestown, New York, the wife and I decided to work in some sightseeing, to sights both old and new.

Old: The world-famous Frank Lloyd Wright-designed house known as Fallingwater.

New: The Roger Tory Peterson Institute, a facility dedicated to the famous artist and author of field guides. Ok, this was built in 1994, but that's new compared to Fallingwater.

Old: A tour of the Lucille Ball museum in Jamestown – she grew up there.

Really New: A visit with No. 1 son's adorable daughter – not even 2 years old yet! (This was "on the way back home." That is, if you consider a drive from Western New York to central Indiana "on the way" to North Carolina.)

Our first stop on the road was spent soaking up "old" vibes at the "historic" Summit Inn, atop Mount Summit, near Farmington, Pennsylvania.

This joint opened in 1907, and it's on the National Register of Historic Places. It still has that air of early 20th-century posh-ness. Unfortunately, some of that air emanated from the "air conditioning," which is on the National Register of Historic HVAC Systems.

But you can't beat staying in a place that once hosted Henry Ford, Thomas Edison, Harvey Firestone, and – he only gets fourth billing! – President Warren G. Harding. Supposedly, when they roomed there in 1917, Ford and Edison raced automobiles down highway U.S. 40, which runs right by the place. There's no record of who won.

(However, the race coming back up Mount Summit was won by one of the hotel's burros. These critters were maintained by the hotel as a convenience for guest who didn't want to walk up-mountain to the resort's golf course. The burros were known as the "Mexican Escalator.")

I learned about the burros from old hotel brochures and advertisements, framed and hung on the walls throughout the lobby and common areas. Other fun tidbits discovered in these playful promotions include:

Fairyland: Staying at the Summit Inn was likened to being "transplanted – as if by magic – from the grim realities of life to a veritable fairyland." Prospective guests were exhorted to enjoy "that breath of life – so majestically filled with the fragrance of a tulip." Sounds a little overwrought, but I would've gladly accepted the majestic fragrance of even just one tulip over that balky air conditioner, which emanated something closer to the majestic fragrance of a sweating burro.

Nutritional Guidance: "DON'T DIET. It is dangerous and does not always accomplish its purpose. If you wish to reduce, try a round of Golf above the Clouds." The golf course was puffed up as the "one of the sportiest in the world." This was because those who didn't "wish to reduce" would take their hacks while still seated on their burros.

Newlyweds!: Honeymooners were encouraged to consider a stay in the John Gilbert Bridal Chamber. "John Gilbert?," you say? Well, he was a major movie star of the silent film era, eventually earning the nickname "The Great Lover" (one of his films was called "His Glorious Night"). Rumor has it that many brides spent considerably-less-than-glorious nights in this room, expecting John Gilbert to show up. Or at least for their new huddies to channel him.
