Dear "Speakout",
History Repeats Itself!

Anyone who has ever studied world history with the purpose of learning something and not just to pass a course in school will tell you that history repeats itself.

My high school history teacher told our class that one of the purposes of studying history is to help us prevent repeating mistakes which past generations have made.

In Bible study is the phrase "Pattern is Prophecy". Studying not just American history but world history shows us that there are patterns which repeat themselves over-and-over again with exact accuracy. Unfortunately, we human beings refuse to learn from the past.

One occurrence in the Bible which has affected each and everyone of us in the past few years is that rebellion against God will eventually bring judgment on us. The COVID pandemic was predicted over 2600 years ago in the Bible. In 605 B. C., God warned Israel to return to Him and repent of their sins. God told them that they would be enslaved, and that pestilence would come upon them if they refused to return to Him. They refused, and 19 years later in 586 B. C. they were enslaved, and a pestilence came upon them.

In 2001, the hedge of protection which our wonderful country has had for over 200 years was removed when terrorists attacked us on 9/11. This was a warning which we refused to heed and 19 years later in 2020, the COVID pandemic hit the world and changed our lives forever.

In 2021, we lost the war in Afghanistan. We have elected people who wish to change the weather by spending trillions of dollars to prevent climate change. These same politicians have caused the highest inflation rate in 40 years by sending us stimulus checks and enacting legislation to rebuild our infrastructure which has been neglected for decades.

Our American society is being destroyed by elements who wish to flush America down into a cesspool of sin and depravity. History reveals that this path ultimately leads to the decline and eventual collapse of a nation.

The book, "The Rise and Fall of the Roman Empire", is a perfect example of a culture which proceeded down the road to moral and sexual depravity until it collapsed. If you study all the nations which ever existed in world history, you will discover that not one country ever existed in its "heyday" for more than 250 years. They may have continued to exist, but they were not the same country which they once were.

The United States of America will celebrate its 250th birthday in 2026 and I am concerned that we will no longer be that wonderful country we once were. God has been asking America to repent and again become the "City on a Hill" which the Pilgrims purposed America to become. We have refused to repent, and several economic collapses and military defeats have befallen us over the past 70 years.

Still today, we continue to battle over the sin of abortion as we spend monies which we do not have and argue in our Congress and state legislatures as we make laws and executive orders to legislate immorality. Over the next few weeks, I hope, Lord willing, to explain how our continued rebellion against God will eventually bring a collapse in our economy and a major military defeat.

Lord willing, I will see you again next week with another article.

Ron Powell
 Nunda

Dear "Speakout",

Just because Mr. Powell disagrees with Ms. Berger's idea that Jesus would support socialism doesn't make her idea absurd. A word or two about socialism. Socialism, like any other political/economic system, has many variations but all socialisms share a basic idea. The idea that the mechanisms of global society (not just your own nation) should serve the common good above all else. People over profits. Some socialists believe the best way to accomplish this is public control of the economy- to put the government, representing the people, in charge. Some socialists think the best way is private control in the form of democracy in the workplace such that all the workers control the money and decisions in the business, not a few fat cats at the top. Most socialists believe in some combination of the two.

Many Christians have felt that the application of Jesus' teachings is socialism. They believe in Christian Socialism. Martin Luther King Jr. and Bishop Desmond Tutu are two better-known examples. In fact, Mount Morris' own Francis Bellamy was a Christian Socialist clergyman. Jesus wasn't a socialist of course because socialism as a theory didn't exist yet. But a great deal of what Jesus taught, and how his early followers lived, coincides with socialist thinking. Similar in practice to Christian Socialism is the Social Gospel that was influential at the beginning of the 20th century.

Mr. Powell includes lots of quotes from the Bible in his letters yet I don't see very many quotes from Jesus himself. But the reader doesn't need me or Mr. Powell. Read the Gospels yourself. Read the Sermon on the Mount. Read Jesus' many parables. Read what Jesus said about greed and selfishness. Read the parable of the Good Samaritan and tell me Jesus would be against society (in the form of democratic government) helping others when their friends and families can't. Read the book of Acts to see how Jesus' early followers lived communally and then see if Jesus would be opposed to socialism.

New Grants & Public Information Coordinator

The Livingston County Board of Supervisors has named Sean Farnsworth as the new Grants & Public Information Coordinator, effective August 10, 2022.

Farnsworth comes to the County from St. John Fisher University where he served as Assistant Athletic Director for Communications. He brings with him more than 10 years of professional experience in the communications field, having most recently managed the daily operation, organization, and oversight of the University's athletic department, its nearly 800 student-athletes and its coaching staff. Farnsworth is a strong addition to the County's communications team, said Livingston County Administrator Ian M. Coyle.

SEAN FARNSWORTH
Newly named Livingston County
Grants & Public Information
Coordinator

"We are excited to welcome Sean to the LivCo staff family and I believe he will serve the County and its residents well in this position," he said. "I look forward to seeing where he takes the department."

Farnsworth earned a bachelor's degree from St. John Fisher College (now University) before obtaining a master's degree from SUNY Cortland. He has an extensive background in both media management and grant writing, which he said he'll use to further the County's strategic initiatives.

"I plan to continue providing the residents of Livingston County with a forum to interact with. I hope to expand our County social media and continue to find creative ways to engage with our constituents in an impactful way. I'm grateful to County Administrator Coyle and the Board of Supervisors for this opportunity and look forward to getting started soon," he said.
