Kevin Peter Deuel of West Barre, previously of East Rochester, passed away unexpectedly at his home on Sat., Sept. 24, 2022. He was 71. Kevin was born on June 26, 1951, in Albany, NY, the son of George A. and Eileen M. Deuel. He graduated from East Rochester HS in 1969. Kevin married his wife, Debra, in 1990.

They enjoyed several outdoor activities together, including walking, bicycling, camping, kayaking, walking their dogs, and working around their hobby farm. Kevin was predeceased by his mother, Eileen, and father, George. Kevin worked for more than 30 years at Eastman Kodak as an electrical technician before retiring early to pursue his degree in respiratory therapy. He graduated with his associates degree in respiratory care from Genesee Community College in 2009 and became a licensed respiratory therapist that same year, working at Lakeside Memorial Hospital in Brockport, Women and Children's Hospital of Buffalo, and Rochester Oxygen and CPAP in Brockport, where he retired in 2019. Kevin was well-known as an avid musician, playing in a number of local bands since he was a teenager living in East Rochester. Kevin came to appreciate Old Time Appalachian music, playing both the banjo and guitar in several local groups. As a talented woodworker, Kevin constructed several of his own banjos, which he would often lovingly gift to family. Kevin was also an enthusiastic runner and cyclist, completing several road races over decades including triathlons and a marathon. Kevin was a devoted and loving husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and community member who will be missed dearly by so many whose lives he touched. On Sept. 21, 2022, Cynthia King, 60, of Medina NY, peacefully received her wings surrounded by loved ones. Cynthia was born on June 4, 1962, to Lonnie and Mae Helen Taylor in Medina, NY. Cynthia is predeceased by her father. Cynthia's greatest joy in life was being a wife, mother, and grandmother. Cynthia's beloved husband of 43 years, David King, helped lay the foundation for some of the greatest moments of her life. Cynthia had an unwavering love for her family and poured everything she had into those she loved. With her love, came unfiltered truths that will be forever cherished. She and her husband worked tirelessly to provide love and opportunities to not only their children, but all others they encountered. A lifelong Medina native, Cynthia was well-loved in the community and beyond. Cynthia worked in the Medina Central School system for 23 years. While being known for her strict no-nonsense personality, the students loved and respected her, and she loved them. This was evident by the constant "Hi Mrs. King" and hugs received when running everyday errands, which were answered with Cynthia's usual "Why are you saying hi to me," followed by a smile and giggle between the two. Throughout the years Cynthia built some of her most meaningful friendships with those she worked with. Cynthia will forever be remembered as the woman with the tough exterior but heart of gold. The oldest daughter, Cynthia, acted as a mother figure to many of her siblings. She spent countless hours listening, guiding, and supporting them. While always being sure to not sugarcoat her opinions, she always had their best interest in mind and loved them uniquely and dearly. Cynthia is survived by her mother, Mae Helen Taylor, husband, David, children Marcell (Alicia) King, Fredricka (Hector) Fuentes, Helen (Petrica) Rosca. Grandchildren, Aaron, Jaleel, Emani, Amyah and great grandchildren Laila, Ace and Tru. Cynthia is also survived by her beloved brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and cousins. To honor Cynthia's wishes, there are no calling hours and a private service will be held at the convenience of the family. The toughest, most loving woman we ever knew. Our Angel is with the Angels now. Arrangements were entrusted to the Bogan & Tuttle Funeral Home, 226 Pearl St. Medina, NY 14103. Please light a candle or share a memory of Cynthia at: www.bogantuttlefunerals.com

RESEARCH, RESEARCH, RESEARCH

PRESENT YOURSELF WELL

PREPARE QUESTIONS TO ASK

Interviewing is a two-way street. What is important for you to know about the workplace, role, team? Be sure to ask those important questions.

Your answers need to prove your skills and knowledge, aptitude for success in the role, and personality "fit" in the company.

USE THE S.T.A.R METHOD

A good answer to behavioral questions includes stating the situation, task, actions, result.

ASK FOR THE JOB

Albion Village Board tries to keep COVA afloat with contract for ambulance services

By Tom Rivers, Editor
Posted 29 September 2022 at 8:21 am

ambulance priority for village residents. The hearing was set for 6 p.m. on Oct. 26 at the Village Office.

The Village Board has stayed out of the issue because village residents are either in the towns of Albion and Gaines and the Village Board said the village residents would be "double taxed" if the village paid money to COVA and then village residents paid again through the towns.

But an agreement hasn't been reached with the towns, and COVA said it is nearing closure. It no longer has overnight staffing.

Village Trustee Joyce Riley said she was concerned about the village funding being used without a solid plan to keep COVA going strong long into the future.

"The ARPA money isn't a permanent solution," she said. "It's a temporary fix."

COVA leaders spoke at the Village Board meeting. They said COVA has seen a rise in patients on Medicaid or Medicare and those reimbursement rates are far below COVA's costs. The agency has seen its expenses rise with the costs of fuel, medications and equipment.

Brandi Fisher, COVA's chief financial officer, said COVA has tried for four years to make the local government leaders aware of the fiscal challenges of the agency. COVA has pushed for a contract or taxing district with the central Orleans towns. If those four towns contributed $200,000 a year in a contract that would keep COVA viable, Fisher said.

Laurie Schwab, COVA's chief operations officer, said COVA hasn't received any of the federal Covid relief money that went to local governments even though COVA medics and staff were on the front lines of the Covid pandemic, going inside houses and helping people who were sick.

"We were your response," Schwab said. "We saved lives."

COVA leaders thanked the Village Board for working towards a contract, but they said they were worried they were running out of time.

Village sets public hearing for Oct. 26; COVA officials say they are running out of money

ALBION – The Albion Village Board wants to direct some of its federal ARPA money to keep COVA afloat as a local ambulance provider.

The village has $172,000 left in its allotment for federal American Rescue Plan Act funds and village department heads have all submitted proposals for spending that money.

But the board is putting off those department heads proposals while COVA is struggling and near closing.

COVA said it has been operating a deficit in recent years – $161,000 in 2019 and $172,000 in 2020. It is it has used up its reserves and accumulated $70,000 in unpaid bills, while struggling to make payroll.

Trustee Chris Barry suggested the village use $16,000 a month for COVA from the ARPA funds to help the ambulance provider while a longer-term funding arrangement can be worked out. COVA has suggested a taxing district or ambulance service contracts with the towns of Albion, Barre, Gaines and Carlton, COVA's direct service area.

The village couldn't just approve the $16,000 on Wednesday, Village Attorney John Gavenda advised. The board needs to give notice of a public hearing about the issue so residents can provide input about the new ambulance contract that would give at least one Get Vaccinated and Boosted!

Unfortunately, many people now feel that COVID isn't a deadly threat anymore, but if you're an older adult or a person with chronic or disabling conditions, getting COVID can still kill you. Getting Vaccinated was definitely the right decision for me."

David Wantuck - Amherst, NY

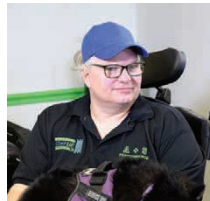

"Everyone is different. If you catch COVID, there's no way to predict how severe it might be. It can kill you or you can have no symptoms at all. That's why I got Vaccinated."

Krystle Babbs - Buffalo, NY

Medina's Scarecrow Fest returns Oct. 8 at fairgrounds

By Ginny Kropf, correspondent
Posted 29 September 2022 at 9:59 am

MEDINA - The annual Scarecrow Fest sponsored by Medina Lions has grown more popular since its first one more than a decade ago.

"We sold 300 scarecrows last year and we are ready for 400 this year," said Sherry Wheatley, a Medina Lion who came up with the idea as a fundraiser for the Lions.

The event started in the Canal Basin, then moved to Medina Armory, Roberts Farm Market and Forrestel Farm before moving last year to the Orleans County 4-H Fairgrounds, where it might have found a permanent home. There is plenty of parking and lots of inside space, so weather will never be a factor.

The event is scheduled from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Oct. 8.

The procedure for a make-it, take-it scarecrow involves the community, Boy Scouts and high school art students.

All year Wheatley collects clothes and sheets donated by MAAC's Thrift Depot. Barden Homes in Middleport donates wood for the T posts and cuts them up. Albion farmer Ed Neal donates the straw. The Medina High School art students and Barb Jantzi paint the scarecrow heads, Wheatley said.

Children and families arrive on the day of the event, pay $12 for their post and choose either a sitting or standing version. Then they go to the rows and rows of shirts, pants, dresses, hats and scarves and make their selection. When the scarecrow is stuffed from the huge pile of straw, they head over to "operating" tables, where the Lions Club members have turned into "surgeons for the day," and will tie the scarecrow together with baler twine.

There is no age limit and it's a fun family event, Wheatley said.

Boy Scout Troop 28 and Cub Scout Pack 28 will be selling hot dogs, hamburgers, chili, corn chowder and smores.

A horse show will be going on that day at the other end of the fairgrounds, and children are encouraged to go watch with their families.

"What's funny is no two scarecrows look alike and sometimes they are bigger than the kids," Wheatley said. "Sometimes when I'm out driving I'll go by a house with a scarecrow and think, 'That looks like one of our scarecrows,' and it makes me smile. It takes a year to prepare for this event and all proceeds go back to help our community. Come and support us, so we can give back to you. There is no age limit and it's guaranteed lots of fun."
