NICE CATCH! Which path does the squirrel take to catch the falling acorn? Take a guess, then trace through line or lines.

SHAPE UP! There's a box turtle, a square meal, an angworm, a conehead, arc welding, an archenemy, a round robin. Can you think of some more definitively shaped terms?

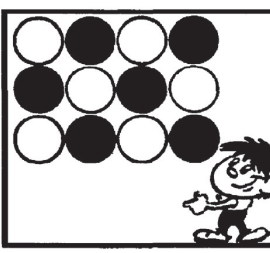

TAG LINES! What's in a name? Or, more specifically, what's in the six names that appear on tags in the diagram below? Well, if you are able to anagram the six names correctly, you can identify each individual's occupation. That is to say, letters can be rearranged to form names of jobs.

- Hints: 1. Delivers mail. 2. Handles copy.
3. Serves food. 4. Plays in a band. 5. Uses a hammer. 6. Lends money.

What are the jobs?
1. Postman, 2. Editor, 3. Waitress, 4. Musician, 5. Carpenter, 6. Banker.

MAKE HEADS OR TAILS OF COIN SWITCH?

LIKE to switch things around? Try your hand at this old poser. P.S.: It has a catch to it, natch. Arrange a group of 12 similar-size coins, as at left, alternating heads and tails.

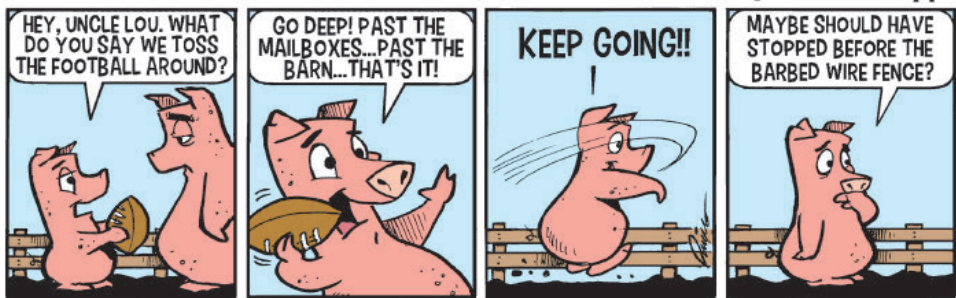

Now then, see if you can rearrange the scheme of things so that each vertical row consists of all heads or all tails simply by touching and manipulating just one coin.

That is to say, rearrange the setup, for instance, so that the first and third rows are all heads, and the second and fourth row tails.

And all this by touching and manipulating one coin. How is it done?

Piedmont Pets

Shelter staff, both past and present, will tell you I am a Halloween Grinch. I do not allow any Halloween decorations in the shelter. It is time for the annual explanation of how that is.

On November 1, 2000; I was teaching an early morning scripture study class to teenagers. We met from 6:00 - 6:45 a.m. One of the students told me that morning that she had heard in school that some students who dabbled in cult rituals frequented a place known as Satan's Bridge. We had always received more reports of missing black cats around Halloween, but that morning I went to the bridge and my Halloweens become even scarier. That day, there was the body of a black cat in the middle of the road. I will leave out the gory details, but suffice it to say that the injuries were deliberate.

In early October of the next year, I received a call from a concerned citizen about something she had heard her friends whisper. She had concerns about the behavior of this group and heard that they had already picked up the black cat and they would keep it in a crate in the basement until it was time. She was frantic for us to help the cat, but was not willing to give an address or names. Did she really hear what she reported? I do not know; I just know I worried. We urge owners to be diligent during the entire month, rather than just October 30th and 31st.

Several years ago, I attended a local workshop about cult rituals. Some of the pictures and slides still haunt me, and when I wake up in the middle of the night with them on my mind, prayer is the only thing that erases them. There truly is an underworld culture of rituals and animal sacrifices.

Even without thinking of those horrible things, Halloween can be a scary time for pets. They are very routine-oriented, and can be upset by the parties and trick-or-treaters. They can also become frightened by the costumes. We recommend the following actions be taken:

Keep your pets inside, away from all Halloween activities. The frequently-opened doors provide an opportunity for escape, especially if they feel threatened by the sight of costumes.

Danville, VA 24540
Phone: (434) 799-0843

It may seem like a cute idea to dress dogs in costumes and have them go door-to-door with you. However, the dogs may not think it is such a good idea! Make sure all pets wear collars with identification tags, just in case.

Do not give in to the temptation to let your pets have candy. Candy can be harmful to them, and chocolate is toxic to dogs, cats, and ferrets. You can have special animal treats available for them.

If you use candles in jack-o-lanterns, make sure your pet stays away. Accidents can happen, and the candles can quickly burn or set fire to a pet's fur. Playful cats can become entangled in hanging decorations like streamers, and other decorations can be a choking hazard.

Every outside animal is at risk for being hurt by pranksters or cruel people, but black cats are especially at risk during this time of year. If you do have a black cat, the safest place for him for a couple of weeks before Halloween is right by your side.

If you do have an animal that is lost, be sure to call the Danville Area Humane Society at 799-0843 and all other shelters within a large radius. Be diligent; call all area veterinary clinics also, because members of the public routinely pick up strays and take them to veterinary clinics.

Halloween can be a scary time, but with extra awareness, pets can be protected.

Oak Hills Tournament Results

Sixteen members of the Laidback Golf Tour traveled to Oak Hills Golf Club in Eden, NC to participate in their 14th tournament of the season on Monday October 3rd. It was the first time since 2019 that the Tour had played there. In 2019 twenty-five players participated with eight rounds in the seventies being turned in as thirty-four birdies were made. Today's field carded nine birdies and one eagle but no rounds in the seventies. Six-time winner Fran Hensley led all scorers with a score of 80 in the A-Flight. All three other flights were won with rounds of 84.

The battle for the Tours points Champion changed a bit today as Randy Kenyon rose into the lead for the first time all season with his first- place finish in C-Flight. It was nearly a repeat of his 2019 performance here where he won the C-Flight with a score of 81. Kenyon ; who carded a birdie and an eagle today now leads the points race with 8900 points with two more points awarding tournaments to play this season. Mike Asbury trails him by only 50 points at 8850.

The Tours next scheduled tournament is Monday October 17th at Caswell Pines Golf Club in Yanceyville beginning at 10am. Entry fee will be $70 which includes a Hot Dog, Chips and drink following play. Registration is request by Monday October 10th or no later than noon Saturday October 15th. Register by emailing golftripman@yahoo.com.

The Fifth Annual Bluegrass by the River was another success! Proceeds from the event raised over $3,000.00 for the Danville's Project Lifesaver Program. Funds were also raised for Pam Rice, the widow of Bluegrass legend and Danville native Tony Rice. The event was coordinated by Beverly Shelton and a great group of volunteers. Answers

1. The Commodores. The song, written by Lionel Richie, topped the R&B charts and stayed there for two weeks.
2. Elton John, in 1976. John and his writing partner Bernie Taupin wrote the song in minutes after John had fiddled briefly with a melody and lyrics.

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — The $285-million grosser “Elvis,” starring Austin Butler, showed the behind-the-scenes life of Elvis Presley and his manager Col. Tom Parker (played by Tom Hanks). Now, screenwriting/Oscar-winning director Sofia Coppola, who scored with her third film, “Marie Antoinette” (2006), will give Priscilla (Beaulieu) Presley equal screentime, when she turns Priscilla’s 1985 New York Times bestselling autobiography “Elvis and Me” into a film. Coppola’s film stars Cailee Spaeny (“Pacific Rim: Uprising” and “Bad Times at the El Royale”) as Priscilla and Australian actor Jacob Elordi (of HBO’s “Euphoria” and Netflix’s “The Kissing Booth” franchise) as Elvis. I hung out with Priscilla when she dated a model friend of mine, and knowing her, this upcoming film should be more true to life than “Elvis” was.

Will streaming services take over our TV lives? Have Peacock and Disney+ gone too far wooing viewers to their platforms? On Sept. 12, “Days of Our Lives” left NBC daytime after a 57-year run to join the Peacock lineup. “Days of Our Lives” veteran Thao Penglis says of the soap he’s starred in for 40 years: “When something has run this long and survived so many challenges, this is just one more way for the show to stretch. ‘Days’ will bring a huge loyal fan following to Peacock, and they, in turn, will introduce us to 13 million subscribers.”

In September 2021, Peacock tested “Days” appeal with their spin-off “Beyond Salem,” which, in addition to being well-received, earned Daytime Emmy nominations for Outstanding Drama Series (directing, writing and casting). Top Peacock subscribers will have no ads, while the cheaper rate includes only four minutes of commercials, allowing more time for show content.

In 2021, when producer Ken Cordy sought “Days” two-year pickup, he agreed to a possible move to Peacock if NBC demanded it. Cordy confesses, “It’s not the end of an era for us, but the beginning of a new one!”

In addition, “Dancing with the Stars” has moved from ABC to Disney+ (with Tyra Banks and Alfonso Ribeiro still hosting). Is this the wave of the future? Can this backfire? Many people have canceled network and cable channels, and are now subscribing to streaming services exclusively. If everyone does this, it could mean the end of network TV and regular cable companies! Oy vey!

Looks like Matthew McConaughey will NOT be starring in “Dallas Sting” (as we reported) after all. Fully cast and ready to roll in three weeks, they pulled the plug after disturbing allegations surrounding aspects of the true story surfaced. “Dopesick’s” Kaitlyn Dever (also in the upcoming “Ticket to Paradise” with George Clooney and Julia Roberts) was to have played McConaughey’s daughter. McConaughey could be heard saying, “It’s not alright, alright, alright!”

* A Tip From JoAnn: I like bottled water, but it's expensive and creates a lot of waste. I have plenty of reusable bottles, but bottled water always seemed more convenient and, frankly, better. I found that what I really like is to take a bottle of very cold water out of the fridge and drink it, so instead of storing those reusable bottles in the cabinet, I fill them straight from the dishwasher and put them in the fridge. Now I have the convenience of bottled water without spending the money, and I happily am not creating waste.

* To remove stubborn contact paper from kitchen shelves, use a hair dryer set on low to loosen the adhesive. Peel away slowly.

* Here's a trick for removing hard-water stains on windows or glass doors: Apply full-strength fabric softener to surface. Let dry, then use a wet cloth to remove, rinsing the cloth frequently.

* "Hang a bag of clothespins near the laundry basket. Then if something has a stain that needs to be addressed, put a clip on it before adding it to the basket. This way, you'll know what to pretreat on wash day." -- D.W. in Washington

* "To keep pants on a hanger from creasing, I slit a paper towel cardboard roll and slip it over the hanger. I tape it together and then put the pants over it. This has worked for me for many years." -- I.R. in Nebraska

* Got a grease stain on your shirt? Cover it with baking soda right away. The baking soda will absorb oil. Repeat several times and launder as quickly as you can.
