CRUISING THE RIVERS OF THE WEST

Tumbleweed Smith

Tumbleweed Smith

It was a beautiful, inspiring and educational trip. We took American Cruise Line's ship AMERICAN SONG and cruised on the Columbia and Snake Rivers past some of the country's most scenic areas. There were 150 passengers who ate meals wherever and with whomever they wished. Alcohol was provided day and night at no additional charge. It was our first time to take a trip with these folks and they certainly know how to provide a good, fun experience.

We flew to Portland and boarded on a Sunday morning in late July. The first stop on Monday was at Astoria, Oregon, the oldest city in Oregon and the setting for movies such as THE GOONIES, FREE WILLY, KINDERGARTEN COP and others. The city is named for John Jacob Astor who established the fur business in the northwest. The city's Maritime Museum is state of the art and from the Astoria Column (125 feet tall) you can see the 4-mile bridge across the Columbia that separates Oregon from Washington. You can also see where the Columbia flows into the Pacific, once an extremely dangerous place for ships because of the rough seas and sand bars.

The next day we docked at Kalama, Washington and took a long bus ride to Mt. St. Helens, the volcano that erupted 42 years ago, the deadliest and most destructive volcano event in US history. Having heard of the place for so long, it was an emotional experience to see it. There was a reverence among the travelers to see first hand the power of nature.

Then on to Stevenson, Washington where we crossed the Columbia River Gorge and visited Multnomah Falls, a 620 feet waterfall in Oregon. It is one of the most photographed spots in the nation. One couple on the cruise got engaged there.

At The Dalles, Oregon (the only city that starts with The) we visited the National Neon Sign Museum, founded by David Benko, who has done some of the most interesting neon signs in the country, some of them in Texas.

In Pendleton, Oregon, a city of 15,000 residents we visited the Rodeo Grounds, where 65,000 rodeo fans descend on the city every September.

The weeklong cruise ended at Clarkson, Washington. This is Lewis and Clark country and the lecturer on board kept us riveted when he told about their adventures while exploring the territory. We heard about the Nez Perce and other Indian tribes. The cruise director (best one we've ever seen) and the rest of the staff were most hospitable and the ship was kept spotlessly clean. There were activities all during the day for people who stayed on board during excursions, which by the way were fabulous. We only paid extra for one (Pendleton).

We went through 8 locks, saw several dams and at one point watched people count fish to determine the fishing seasons. They would sit for 10 hours in a dark room 6 feet below the surface, look through a picture window and count fish. Different.

BUSINESS SERVICES

The business services industry is a very broad industry encompassing many different categories of business operations; all of them provide some sort of non-financial service to other companies. These services include advertising, marketing, consultation, logistics (including travel and facilities services), waste handling, staffing services, shipping, administration, and security services to name a few. Nearly every business in operation has need for at least one of the different kinds of service offered by the industry. Marketing companies are responsible for increasing the sales of a client company by helping the company gain new customers as well as keep current ones. Legal services are needed to deal with business transactions, as well as for litigation purposes. Logistics and shipping companies are responsible for connecting businesses to other businesses or consumers by collecting, storing, transporting, and delivering products. Staffing companies match people in need of jobs, temporary or permanent, with companies in need of qualified employees. Leasing companies fill a client's need for certain items without requiring full purchase. Security companies are responsible for keeping a company's assets secure. Consulting companies are in the business of fulfilling needs for expertise that clients cannot fulfill themselves. These companies may offer professional, scientific, or technical consulting, management or strategy consulting, or human resources consulting.

Carson Bradley Hicks

Carson Bradley Hicks, 26, ascended to heaven on October 6, 2022, as a result of injuries sustained in an ATV accident on the family land, in Pickton, Texas, where he loved to work and hunt.

Carson was born on March 7, 1996, in Dallas, Texas. He attended Sulphur Springs schools and graduated from Sulphur Springs High School in 2015. He attended Texas A & M University-Commerce and graduated with a Bachelor of Science in 2018 and Master of Science in 2020, both in agricultural Sciences. While growing up, he was involved in many extracurricular activities, but his love was rodeo. As a child, he loved all the sports – he played travel baseball for many years. During his school years, he was a true Wildcat as he played on the SSSS Baseball team and helped the team to a historical run in the playoffs. He loved Wildcat football and his coaches, and was a defensive leader. As a Wildcat, he received numerous accolades for his efforts and work ethic and, in May 2015, he earned the prestigious James Cameron Fighting Heart Award – where his name will forever be a part of Sulphur Springs High School.

Carson was a member of Bloomer Trailer Rodeo Team and competed in the Texas High School Rodeo Association Region IV throughout high school and ultimately qualified for the 2014 National High School Rodeo Finals in Rock Springs, Wyoming, as a steer wrestler. In all these activities, Carson gave 100% to every sport. Carson was awarded a rodeo scholarship at Texas A & M University-Commerce, where he competed at the college level in calf roping, steer wrestling and team roping.

Upon graduation, Carson returned to the family business, J3 Cattle Company, where he quickly learned how to successfully manage the business. The cattle industry was a way of life from an early age. His favorite part of the job was to purchase cattle for a multitude of feed yards. He thrived on buying cattle, filling cattle orders, sorting and shipping the best cattle to customers. His work ethic was impeccable; he worked seven days a week from sunrise until the work was done. He was well respected in the business and was well on his way to becoming a great success in the cattle industry.

Carson leaves behind his adoring parents, Holly and Chad Folmar and Todd Hicks; lovely fiancé, Taeler Schepp; sister Carson Nicole Folmar; and brother Chandler Folmar. He is also survived by his loving grandparents, Karen and Jimmy Willis, Gail and Dan Hicks, Linda and John Folmar; Special Uncle Brad and wife Holly Willis, Aunt Miki and husband Kris Koon, Uncle Bill and wife Sherry Sewell, and Uncle Todd Folmar; Cousins who were more like siblings, Chloe and Cole Willis, Loryn Willis Meyer and husband Raeben and daughter Rhyndee, Kade and Chase Koon, Angelica, Tori and Blake Sewell, Breanna Dean and Chasen Folmar and wife Kalee; as well as a host of other aunts, uncles, cousins and special friends. Dogs are often man's best friends – Rosie and Tilly were certainly his friends, too. Carson was preceded in death by great-grandparents, Lois and Richard Moore, Frieda and Jim Alfred Willis, Dera and George Hicks, Mary and Earl Gregg, Helen and Johnny Folmar, and Bobbie and J. T. Ellison; and his cousin, Brian Cousins.

To know Carson was to love him. He was the pride and joy of his family. He set the example of loving son, grandson, nephew and fiancé. He was a true friend to many and a good man to all. His heart was pure gold. This special young man will live on in the memories and hearts of all who knew and loved him. He loved to travel with his family and loved spending time eating family meals together. His family meant the world to him.

Carson was laid to rest in a private ceremony on October 11, 2022, officiated by special friend Jeff Harris and Brynette Pogue provided special music for the family. A Public Memorial Service was held on the same day, October 11, 2022, at 1 PM at First Baptist Church in Sulphur Springs. Pastor Jeff Gravens welcomed guests to First Baptist Church and Joe Williamson, Josh Gafford and Rex Claxton officiated. Betsy Mulder, cousin, shared stories of Carson's childhood and music was presented by Gus Andrews. Honorary seating was reserved for the past and present J3 Cattle Company Team Members and special friends.

Peggy Jean Simpson Tully

A memorial service for Peggy Jean Simpson Tully, age 84, of Sulphur Springs, Texas, will be held on Saturday, October 15, 2022, at 10 a.m. at Murray-Orwosky Funeral Home with Jerry Savage of League Street Church of Christ officiating. There will be no formal visitation. Peggy passed away on October 7, 2022, at her residence, after a two-year battle with cancer.

Peggy was born on August 20, 1938, in Winters, Texas, to Andes Emmitt Simpson Jr. and Effie Irene Jennings. She married Walter L. McWhirter on June 10, 1954, in Winters, Texas. Walt passed away in February 1975. Peggy went to work for Dr. Don McGonagill at Texas State Optical shortly after that and worked there until she retired in 1986. While in Big Spring, Peggy was a member of Baptist Temple Church.

While working at Texas State Optical, Peggy met James (Jim) Elvis Tully of Snyder, Texas. They married on May 5, 1986 and made their home in Snyder. Peggy worked part time at the local fabric store. She was an active member of Eastside Church of Christ.

Jim and Peggy moved to Sulphur Spring and have called it home since 1995. She was a member of League Street Church of Christ.

She was actively involved in the clothing room and card writing on Wednesday nights.

She is survived by son, Randy McWhirter of Seguin; daughters, Terri Lynch and husband Ernest of McKinney, Gina Bruton and husband Derrick of McKinney, and Susan Tully Pate Adams of Katy; granddaughters, Brittney Pate and fiancé Jarail Johnson of Haslet, Melissa Adams of Denton, and Annelise Lynch of Houston; grandsons, Nathan Lynch of Houston, Kale Bruton of Richardson and Reid Bruton of Dripping Springs; and great-grandchildren, Braxton, Charley, and Jace, all of Haslet. She is also survived by "The Sisters" – Sharon Jones and husband, Pinky, of Stanton; Cynthia Barbarian of Baird; and Becky Jones and husband, Tommy, of Millsap.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Emmitt and Irene, and step-mother, Rosa Lee Simpson; brothers, Billy Wayne Simpson, Andy Simpson, and Richard Simpson; and sister, Linda Roberts.

The family would like to say a heartfelt thank you to the family at League Street Church of Christ for looking after her this past year with visits, calls, and fellowship. Those special times meant the world to her.

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month!

Staying at a healthy weight, being physically active, and limiting how much alcohol you drink can help reduce your risk of breast cancer. Regular screening can often find breast cancer early when treatments are more likely to be successful.
