ARIES (March 21 to April 19) This is a good time for the usually outspoken Lamb to be a bit more discreet. You still can get your point across, but do it in a way less likely to turn off a potential supporter.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Good news: All that hard work you put in is beginning to pay off. But you need to watch that tendency to insist on doing things your way or no way. Be a bit more flexible.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You might want to delay making a decision on the future of a long-standing relationship until you check out some heretofore hidden details that are just now beginning to emerge.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Your reluctance to compromise on an important issue could backfire without more facts to support your position. Weigh your options carefully before making your next move.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) This is a good time for ambitious Leos or Leonas to shift from planning their next move to actually executing it. Your communication skills help persuade others to join you.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Relationships -- personal or professional -- present new challenges. Be careful not to let a sudden surge of stubbornness influence how you choose to deal with them.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You might need more facts before you can decide on a possible career change. But you should have no problem making a decision about an important personal matter.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You're respected by most people for your direct, no-nonsense approach to the issues. But be careful you don't replace honest skepticism with stinging sarcasm.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A newly emerging situation could require a good deal of attention and some difficult decision-making. However, close friends will help you to see it through.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Family matters need attention. Check things out carefully. There still might be unresolved tensions that could hinder your efforts to repair damaged relationships.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Of course you deserve to indulge yourself in something special. But for now, tuck that bit of mad money away. You'll need it to help with a looming cash crunch.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A temporary setback in your financial situation is eased by changing some of your plans. You'll be able to ride it out quite well until the tide turns back in your favor.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a gift for understanding people's needs. You have a low tolerance for those who act without concern for others.

Spousal Argument

In the middle of an argument a man said to his wife, "I don't know how you can be so stupid and so beautiful all at the same time!"

The wife responded calmly, "Allow me to explain... the good Lord made me beautiful so you would be attracted to me; and he made me stupid so I would be attracted to you!"

Piedmont Pets
 October 13, 2022

This dog has been on my mind a lot lately. I suppose I will never forget her. A few years ago we went to a home on a complaint about a dog being treated in a cruel way. In fact, the caller told us that no dog in his house lived long. A white pit bull type dog came onto the porch with us. She wagged her tail and leaned against me. A man answered our knock. We showed him our identification and stated our reason for being there.

He came out on the porch and his demeanor, body language, and verbal abuse of us gave me reason to believe that the complaint was a valid one. However, it was the dog's reaction that let me know the true story. She was terrified of him. As soon as she saw him, she dropped to the porch and began urinating. He demanded that she come to him, and she trembled as she crawled to him. She just crouched in front of him.

Honestly, I did not know what to do. The thought came into my mind that if I mentioned her terrified reaction to him, she would pay the price after we left. I spoke with him about kind treatment of animals, how dogs think and learn differently than we do, and this was a wonderful dog that could be such a good friend of his. His wife assured us he loved his dog and was kind to her. We did not believe her for one second.

We had no solid evidence of cruel treatment that would hold up in court; the caller who had complained said that he would not be willing to testify in

996 South Boston Rd.,
 Danville, VA 24540
 Phone: (434) 799-0843

court. There was nothing else we could do. A follow-up call a couple of weeks later revealed the dog "disappeared." I hope that means she ran away.

Virginia has excellent standards of adequate care required for companion animals. The law can make you feed and water all of your animals. The law can make you provide shelter for them, and can even require veterinary care for them. The lack of adequate care can be proven in court.

There is no law, though, that can measure the love and gentle treatment provided to companion animals. Because of that, harsh treatment and emotional abuse happen in homes and can continue unless a human witness is willing to testify in court.

It is heartbreaking. We never knowingly place an animal in a home where they will be at risk of this kind of treatment.

Many 19th-century potteries and amateur artists made and decorated stoneware figures. This handmade ram sold at Conestoga Auctions for $144.

Antique Stoneware

Antique stoneware was often used in small local potteries in 19th-century New England. They made useful objects in molds and fanciful figurines and vases that could be decorated by hand. Bristol-slip glaze was popular because it was scratch-resistant and added color. One amateur artist made a resting ram to be used as a doorstop. The 9-inch hand-molded animal sold for $144, probably because it was missing part of his horn and an ear.

on the bottom. If you read the number backward, you will find the production date. For example, serial number 753150 indicates the chest was produced on 05/13/57. An extra digit at the end of the serial number is the plant number.

Lane cedar chests made before 1987 have the old-style locks that can latch shut and trap a child inside. Those locks should be removed or replaced. Value depends on style and condition. Some Lane chests sell for less than $50, others for over $100.

Q: I was left a Lane Cedar Chest that has an aroma tightness feature. The size of the chest is 17 1/2 inches high, 19 inches deep and 44 inches wide. The inside of the chest is in excellent condition, but the outside does have some wear on it. I'm not sure if it's worth holding on to. Is it worth anything?

TIP: Take the glass covers on your light fixtures and wash them on the top rack of the dishwasher, but only if they are not painted or enameled. Use the lowest heat possible.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

DCC Partners to Offer EMT Training in Danville

DANVILLE, VA — Danville Community College (DCC) in partnership with the Danville Area Training Center (DATC), will be offering Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) training, beginning this month.

“DCC partnering with DATC to provide this crucial training is just another example of us putting the “community” back in community college,” said Dr. Jerry Wallace, president of DCC. “The neighborhoods, cities, and counties we serve rely on skilled, well-trained EMTs to respond during emergency situations. By providing this training, DCC and DATC are working together to augment the already talented network of first responders who selflessly serve us.”

The first cohort, which began on October 4, will attend classes twice per week on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, at 6:00 p.m. at the DATC.

“By providing this training in the evenings, we are ensuring that those who are interested in becoming an EMT will have more flexibility to accommodate their current employment, if necessary, while they attend class,” said Dr. Wallace. “We know that many students are non-traditional and that they may have families, jobs, and other obligations that make attending classes difficult. Knowing this, we are doing everything we can to eliminate these barriers.”

In addition to evening class times, students may also be eligible for reduced tuition cost through the Virginia Community College System (VCCS) FastForward program. The total tuition cost for the 6-month, 160 hour training is $1,800, however many students who reside in Virginia will receive a heavily reduced tuition rate.

“We’re pulling out all the stops to ensure that high-quality higher education is accessible to everyone,” said Dr. Wallace. “The VCCS has many tuition-aid programs in place for short-term training and we are taking advantage of them to ensure our students keep as many dollars in their pockets as possible.”

Individuals who want to know more or who are interested in enrolling in EMT training should call the DATC Director Brian Alderson at 434-792-1871. Once accepted into the course, students will work with DCC staff to register and apply for financial aid.

“The Danville Area Training Center is excited to partner with Danville Community College to provide quality training for EMS providers,” said Alderson. “Bringing both learning institutions together for EMT classes will be a major benefit for EMS education in our region. We look forward to seeing this partnership unfold with our upcoming class later this month.”

For more information about DCC or the FastForward program, visit danville.edu.

OBITUARIES

"For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's." - Romans 14:8

Tony Hodges

August 13, 1960 ~ October 5, 2022 (age 62)

Tony Dean Hodges was born August 13th, 1960 in Danville, Virginia. He is predeceased by his late mother and father, Sue and Bobby Hodges, late sister Gail Bowmen, and late brother Bobby Hodges. He graduated from George Washington High School in 1978, followed by Danville Community College.

From the time he was a young kid Tony was always tinkering with things, taking things apart and putting them back together. As an adult he enjoyed fishing, golfing, and muscle cars. Always a hard worker, Tony worked at Long River in Danville for 17 years, followed by Texas Steakhouse, and then for Tyco in Greensboro.

With a firecracker of a personality, Tony lit up the room when he walked in and was always the life of the party. In 2019 he moved to Durham for a fresh start, where he made friends with ease. Tony had an immense and enduring love for those important to him and will be severely missed.

Tony passed unexpectedly in Durham, NC on October 5th, 2022. He is survived by his sister Barbara Bell (John Bell), son Dillon Reid Hodges, and stepson Kai Zachary Doege.

A memorial service will be held at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Stroke Foundation or the American Stroke Association.

Swicegood Funeral Service is respectfully serving the Hodges family.

July 9, 1947 ~ October 11, 2022 (age 75)

combat. He received a purple heart for his bravery.

Mr. Hobbs was born on July 09, 1947 in Danville, Virginia, to the late Charles Hobbs and Emma Barley Hobbs.

George is survived by his wife Brenda Dalton Harrison; Daughter Linda Wilson (William); son George Hobbs Jr. (Samantha); daughter Lindy Garrett (Christopher), and Misty Hobbs (Jordan); sister Emma Jean Hughes; and 10 grandchildren.

In addition to his parents George was predeceased by his brother Charles Hobbs.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday, October 14, 2022, at 2:00pm at Swicegood Funeral Home. Visitation will be held one hour prior. Interment will follow Danville Memorial Gardens.

Ray's Relics

Estate Items & Beyond

Hello, My name is Ray Hayes. I have accumulated a warehouse full of "things" over the past 70 years and I have decided to divest myself of all (mostly) to simplify my "latter" days.

I have chosen to name the warehouse as Rays' Relics and begin sales periodically, so....

The sale this Saturday, Oct. 15th beginning at 8 am will be mainly tools of every type and include nails, screws, leaf blowers, ladders, etc.

My warehouse is located on Holbrook Street, beside the railroad near Industrial Ave. For more info call 434-489-3122

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Something wicked this way comes! The film about the Broadway blockbuster "Wicked," which has grossed $1 billion after their $14 million investment, is in pre-production at Elstree Studios in England. Ariana Grande is Glinda (created by Kristin Chenoweth), and Cynthia Erivo is Elphaba (the role that won a Tony Award for Idina Menzel), while Jonathan Bailey — currently Anthony, Viscount Bridgerton in Netflix's "Bridgerton" series — is playing Fiyero. Rehearsals began in August, and the film starts shooting in November. Unlike the 2003 Broadway musical, which runs 2 hours and 45 minutes, the film will be in two parts, the first coming Christmas Day 2024 and the second Christmas Day 2025. The Broadway musical won three Tony Awards and is currently the fifth longest running show in Broadway history.

Jaden Smith in "The Karate Kid" (2010)

When Robert Mark Kamen wrote the screenplay for "The Karate Kid," (1984), he had no idea he'd become the goose who laid the golden egg. The original film cost $8 million and grossed $131 million. "Part II," released in 1986, cost $13 million and grossed $130 million. "Part III," which cost $12.5 million, only earned $38.9 million. When Will Smith and Jada Pinkett Smith produced "The Karate Kid" starring their son Jaden Smith, the $40 million film grossed a whopping $359 million. Meanwhile, "The Karate Kid" saga was reinvented for television as "Cobra Kai," with original stars Ralph Macchio, William Zabka and Martin Kove. The series has amassed more than 50 episodes and is currently available on Netflix.

But, hold onto your hats for the return of a new "Karate Kid," set to open in theaters June 7, 2024. However, of the film, Sony Studios would only say it's not connected to "Cobra Kai," and have not offered if Macchio and Zabka will return to the franchise.

Luke Macfarlane is taking the greatest gamble of his life. After becoming the darling of Hallmark rom-coms with 14 films, Macfarlane says "A Magical Christmas Village" with Alison Sweeney and Marlo Thomas will likely be his last. The actor explained, "They've been very good to me, but I think I've told my story, for now, with those folks!" Macfarlane's been an out gay actor since he played Scotty Waddell, husband to Kevin Walker (Matthew Rhys), on ABC's series "Brothers & Sisters" (2006-2011).

Hallmark fans totally accepted him playing straight guys in rom-coms. But, Macfarlane now playing a gay man in the first major studio gay rom-com "Bros," opposite Billy Eichner — with billboards and ads everywhere — is definitely out there. If the film is a success, Eichner who wrote "Bros" says a musical rom-com would make a perfect sequel, since Macfarlane and Eichner are both singers. After all, singing is the hallmark of gay romance!

SWEET POTATO PIE

Ingredients

- 1 pound sweet potatoes (estimate about 2 large or 3 medium sized)
- ½ cup salted butter room temperature
- ½ cup light brown sugar
- ½ cup granulated sugar
- 2 large eggs
- ½ cup heavy cream
- 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 2 teaspoons vanilla extract
- ½ teaspoon ground cinnamon
- ¼ teaspoon ground cloves
- ¼ teaspoon ground ginger
- ¼ teaspoon ground nutmeg
- 9- inch refrigerated pie crust

Instructions

Preheat the oven to 350°F. Poke holes all over the sweet potatoes and place them on a microwave-safe plate. Microwave for 5 minutes flipping the potatoes over halfway through. Poke a knife through the potato. If there is no resistance then they are ready. If not, place them back in the microwave in 30-second intervals until soft.

Let the potatoes cool to room temperature. Remove the peel from the potatoes (they should just peel off) and place them in a large bowl. Whip them with an electric hand mixer until smooth.

Add in the butter and mix until combined. Add the brown sugar and granulated sugar, mix until smooth.

Next add the eggs and mix until smooth. Add the heavy cream, flour, lemon juice, vanilla, cinnamon, cloves, ginger, and nutmeg. Mix until smooth and combined. Scraping the sides of the bowl if needed.

Place the pie crust into a deep 9-inch pie plate and crimp the edge. Add the filling and smooth out the top. Bake for 45-50 minutes until set. It might be the slightest bit jiggly which is normal. It is ready when a butter knife inserted into the center comes out mostly clean. Or, an internal temperature reaches 175°F.

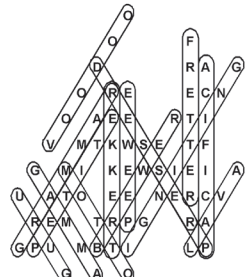

Let the pie cool to room temperature before slicing to serve.
