Not my Blood Type
Not my Math Grade...
It's a favorite quote
Of mine.

"BE POSITIVE"

After a particularly poor round, a golfer spotted a lake as he walked despondently up the 18th.

He looked at his caddie and said, "I've played so badly all day, I think I'm going to drown myself in that lake."

The caddie, quick as a flash, replied, "I'm not sure you could keep your head down that long."

Ungratefulness

An ungrateful man (woman) is like a hog eating apples under a tree- never looking up to see where they come from.

Existanz

A dumb blonde, a smart blonde and Santa Claus are walking down the street and see a twenty dollar bill lying on the sidewalk. Guess who picks it up? The dumb blonde - The other two don't exist.

I'm not That Cheap

Our pastor announced that the cost to attend a special social event would be six dollars per person. "However, if you're over 65," he said, "the price will be only $5.50." From the back of the congregation, a woman's voice rang out, "Do you really think I'd give you that information for only 50 Cents.

Last Page Missing

A surgeon goes to return some books borrowed from the library. The librarian quips after checking the books, "Sir your books are always returned with the last page missing in every book."

The surgeon replies, "I can't stop myself from removing an appendix when ever I see one."

I may not be Wonder Woman, but I can do things that make you wonder.

Two elderly ladies were discussing the upcoming dance at the country club. "We're supposed to wear something that matches our husband's hair, so I'm wearing black," said Mrs. Smith. "Oh my," said Mrs. Jones, "I'd better not go."

Reporter:

"So you are 100 years old. How did you manage to live so long?" Old man: "Well, son, I got married when I was 21. The wife and I decided that if we had arguments, the loser would take a long walk to get over being mad. I suppose I have been benefited most by 79 years of fresh air."

An elderly woman and her little grandson, whose face was sprinkled with bright freckles, spent the day at the zoo. Lots of children were waiting in line to get their cheeks painted by a local artist who was decorating them with tiger paws. "You've got so many freckles, there's no place to paint!" a girl in the line said to the little fellow.

Embarrassed, the little boy dropped his head. His grandmother knelt down next to him. "I love your freckles. When I was a little girl I always wanted freckles," she said, while tracing her finger across the child's cheek. "Freckles are beautiful." The boy looked up, "Really?"

"Of course," said the grandmother. "Why just name me one thing that's prettier than freckles."

The little boy thought for a moment, peered intensely into his grandma's face, and softly whispered, "Wrinkles."

STALKER

A lady said to me, " I got this man stalking me and I am so far from interested.. I don't like him and I wish he would leave me alone, but every time I turn around there he is He just won't take NO for an answer. I can't hurt his feelings or get him to go away no matter what I say but he is really getting on my nerves . His name is Bill....he just keeps coming around. It started out every month, then every week, now it's almost everyday. Ugh he is so annoying! Can someone please please tell him to leave me alone. I don't like Bill. He's even got his family bothering me...Light Bill, Grocery Bill, Internet Bill, Phone Bill, all of them.

While it may appear that a chimpanzee is hairier than a human, that is not the case. On average, humans and chimpanzees share the same number of hair follicles. Chimps appear hairier as their hairs remain thick and long.

A Mafia Godfather finds out that his bookkeeper, Guido, has cheated him out of $10,000,000. His bookkeeper is deaf and dumb. That was the reason he got the job in the first place. It was assumed that Guido would hear nothing so he would never have to testify in court. When the Godfather goes to confront Guido about his missing $10 million, he takes along his lawyer who knows sign language. The Godfather tells the lawyer, "Ask him where the money is!" The lawyer, using sign language, asks Guido, "Where's the money?" Guido signs back, "I don't know what you are talking about." The lawyer tells the Godfather, "He says he doesn't know what you're talking about." The Godfather pulls out a pistol, puts it to Guido's head and says, "Ask him again or I'll kill him!" The lawyer signs to Guido, "He'll kill you if you don't tell him." Guido trembles and signs, "OK! You win! The money is in a brown briefcase, buried behind the shed at my cousin Bruno's house." The Godfather asks the lawyer, "What did he say?" The lawyer replies, "He says you don't have the guts to pull the trigger!"

A man died and went to Heaven. As he stood before of St. Peter at the Pearly Gates, he saw a huge wall of clocks behind him. He asked, "What are all those clocks?"

St. Peter answered, "Those are Lie-Clocks. Everyone on Earth has a Lie-Clock. Every time you lie the hands on your clock will move."

"Interesting," said the man, "Whose clock is that?" he asked, pointing to a large clock in the middle of the wall.

"That's Mother Teresa's clock," St. Peter replied. "The hands have never moved, indicating that she never told a lie."

"Incredible," said the man. "And whose clock is that one?"

St. Peter responded, "That's Abraham Lincoln's clock. The hands have moved twice, telling us that Abe told only two lies in his entire life."

"Fascinating!" the man said. "Where's the President's clock?" he asked.

"His clock is in Jesus' office," St. Peter replied. "He's using it as a ceiling fan."

The police recently arrested a man selling "secret formula" tablets he claimed gave eternal youth. When going through their files they noticed it was the fifth time he was caught for committing this same criminal medical fraud. He had earlier been arrested in 1794, 1856, 1928 and 1983....

This rather brilliantly cuts through all the political double-speak we get. It puts it into a much better perspective....

Lesson # 1:

- U.S. Tax revenue: $2,170,000,000,000
- Fed budget: $3,820,000,000,000
- New debt: $1,650,000,000,000
- National debt: $29,271,000,000,000
- Recent budget cuts: $38,500,000,000

Let's now remove "8 zeros" each time, and pretend it's a household budget:

- Annual family income: $21,700
- Money the family spent: $38,200
- New debt on the credit card: $16,500
- Outstanding balance on the credit card: $292,710
- Total budget cuts so far: $385

Got It ??? OK now...

Lesson # 2:

Here's another way to look at the debt ceiling:

Let's say, You come home from work and find there has been a sewer backup in your neighborhood....and your home has sewage all the way up to your ceilings.

What do you think you should do Raise the ceilings, or pump out the crap?

Your choice is coming November 2022.

EATING IN THE FIFTIES

Pasta had not been invented. It was macaroni or spaghetti.

Curry was a surname.

A take-away was a mathematical problem.

Pizza? Sounds like a leaning tower somewhere.

Bananas and oranges only appeared at Christmas time.

All chips were plain.

Oil was for lubricating, fat was for cooking.

Tea was made in a teapot using tea leaves and never green.

Cubed sugar was regarded as posh.

Chickens didn't have fingers in those days.

None of us had ever heard of yogurt.

Healthy food consisted of anything edible.

Cooking outside was called camping.

Seaweed was not a recognized food.

'Kebab' was not even a word, never mind a food.

Sugar enjoyed a good press in those days, and was regarded as being white gold.

Prunes were medicinal.

Surprisingly muesli was readily available. It was called cattle feed.

Pineapples came in chunks in a tin; we had only ever seen a picture of a real one.

Water came out of the tap. If someone had suggested bottling it and charging more than gasoline for it, they would have become a laughing stock.

The one thing that we never ever had on/at our table in the fifties ... was elbows, hats and cell phones.

Back in the 50's there was a well known radio host/comedian/song writer in Hollywood named Stuart Hamblen who was noted for his drinking, womanizing partying, etc. One of his bigger hits at the time was "I won't go hunting with you Jake, but I'll go chasing women". One day, along came a young preacher holding a tent revival. Hamblen had him on his radio show presumably to poke fun at him. In order to gather more material for his show, Hamblin showed up at one of the revival meetings. Early in the service the preacher announced, "There is one man in this audience who is a big fake." There were probably others who thought the same thing, but Hamblen was convinced that he was the one the preacher was talking about (some would call that conviction), but he was having none of that. Still the words continued to haunt him until a couple of nights later he showed up drunk at the preacher's hotel door around 2 am demanding that the preacher pray for him! But the preacher refused, saying, "This is between you and God and I'm not going to get in the middle of it." But he did invite Stuart in and they talked until about 5 am at which point Stuart dropped to his knees and with tears, cried out to God. But that is not the end of the story. Stuart quit drinking, quit chasing women, quit everything that was "fun".

Soon he began to lose favor with the Hollywood crowd. He was ultimately fired by the radio station when he refused to accept a beer company as a sponsor. Hard times were upon him. He tried writing a couple of "Christian" songs but the only one that had much success was "This Old House", written for his friend Rosemary Clooney. As he continued to struggle, a long time friend named John took him aside and told him, "all your troubles started when you 'got religion', was it worth it all?" Stuart answered simply, "Yes". Then his friend asked, "You liked your booze so much, don't you ever miss it?" And his answer was, "No". John then said, "I don't understand how you could give it up so easily." And Stuart's response was, "It's no big secret. All things are possible with God." To this John said "That's a catchy phrase. You should write a song about it." And as they say, the rest is history. The song Stuart wrote was "It Is No Secret" It is no secret what God can do. What He's done for others, He'll do for you. With arms wide open, He'll welcome you. It is no secret, what God can do.... By the way..... the friend was John Wayne. And the young preacher who refused to pray for Stuart Hamblen ? That was Billy Graham.

GOD IS SATISFIED

By Wallace Kennedy, Jr.

God is Satisfied

It is our general feeling about our life and how pleased we are with how it's going. There are many factors that contribute to life satisfaction from a number of domains, including work, romantic relationships, relationships with family and friends, personal development, health and wellness, where we live and others.

To be satisfied mean to be pleased and content with what has been experienced or received.

Often time we approach God with this same type of mind set. What can I do to satisfy God and receive His love, approval and even salvation? I can answer that, nothing!

Romans 3:23-26 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, 24 being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, 25 whom God set forth as a PROPITIATION by His blood, through faith, to demonstrate His righteousness, because in His forbearance God had passed over the sins that were previously committed,

26 to demonstrate at the present time His righteousness, that He might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. (NKJV)

Consider the meaning of the word “Propitiation”:

- It speaks of how God is completely satisfied with Jesus Christ atonement.
- God is appeased, which means, to bring to a state of peace, quiet, ease, calm, or contentment; pacify; soothe.
- It provides the mercy needed in a relationship with God. Jesus blood is the price that was paid for propitiation.

We cannot bring God into favor with ourselves by our merit. God is always propitiated by the work of Jesus Christ on the cross.

Certainly, we are saved by grace, through faith, for good works. Good works is a by-product of salvation, which Jesus Christ purchased with is own blood, and God is satisfied-propitiated with His only Son completed work.

We become Christians by accepting His death in place of our eternal death. Only Christ’s death can satisfy an absolutely Holy God.

Have a blessed and Happy Thanksgiving, reach out and help someone in need. We are Christ’s hands and legs to reach those in need.

TRUTH does not mind being questioned. A LIE does not like being challenged.

A Harley Biker is riding by the zoo in Washington, DC when he sees a little girl leaning into the lion's cage. Suddenly, the lion grabs her by the collar of her jacket and tries to pull her inside to slaughter her, under the eyes of her screaming parents. The biker jumps off his Harley, runs to the cage and hits the lion square on the nose with a powerful punch. Whimpering from the pain the lion jumps back letting go of the girl, and the biker brings the girl to her terrified parents, who thank him endlessly. A reporter has watched the whole event. The reporter addressing the Harley rider says, "Sir, this was the most gallant and bravest thing I've seen a man do in my whole life."

The Harley rider replies, "Why, it was nothing, really. The lion was behind bars. I just saw this little kid in danger, and acted as I felt right."

The reporter says, "Well, I'll make sure this won't go unnoticed. I'm a journalist, you know, and tomorrow's paper will have this story on the front page. So, what do you do for a living, and what political affiliation do you have?"

The biker replies "I'm a U.S. Marine, a Republican and I voted for Trump."

The journalist leaves.

The following morning the biker buys the paper to see if it indeed brings news of his actions, and reads, on the front page:

"U.S. MARINE ASSAULTS AFRICAN IMMIGRANT & STEALS HIS LUNCH"

And THAT pretty much sums up the media's approach to the news these days!

Did you realize that when you clean out your vacuum cleaner, you become a vacuum cleaner?

“Wise Words”

By: Hayes Wise

A Trip to Eternity

Years ago, I was catching a flight out of Atlanta heading home from a business trip. I checked to verify the gate and see if my flight was still on schedule. Much to my surprise, the airline had moved up the flight by one hour. If you’ve went thru Atlanta you know your departure concourse is on the other side of the planet. So I suddenly was running late. I literally sprinted to the gate, and when I got there, the flight attendant was closing the door. I could still see the plane sitting there, so I went up to the gate agent and asked if I could get on board. She said I’m sorry the time to board is over. It is departing. Then she asked me to step away from the gate. The door was closed, and I was too late. I couldn’t get on board.

There is a trip we will all take after we die. We will be there for eternity! That’s forever and forever. You will be in the presence of God or eternally separated from God. We will arrive at one of two places; Heaven or Hell. The glories of heaven will be just that, glorious. Human imagination could not truly conceive of the majesty of life in the immediate presence of God. “But as it is written: “Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, Nor have entered into the heart of man The things which God has prepared for those who love Him.” (1 Cor 2:9). We also have a glimpse from an eyewitness of hell; “And being in torments in Hades, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. 24 Then he cried and said, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame” (Luke 16: 23-24).

There’s coming a day when Jesus will close the gate to board for Heaven. The only destination left is hell. Christ is coming back to take the dead in Christ and those born-again believers that are alive. It’s called the Rapture. Those not ready will miss it. It will happen in the twinkling of an eye. Are you ready?

I Can Make This Putt

Playing golf with his buddies, my grandfather had to make a slick 25-foot putt. As he lined it up, he announced, "I have a dollar bill that says I can make this putt. Does anyone want to bet?" His three friends eagerly agreed to the wager. My grandfather missed the putt by ten feet, and his friends gathered around to collect their money. Granddad pulled out a dollar bill on which he had written, "I can make this putt." His pals are still trying to collect on the bet and grandpa is too.

EMPLOYERS CHALLENGES

Rick, fresh out of accounting school, went to a interview for a good paying job. The company boss asked various questions about him and his education, but then asked him, "What is three times seven?" "22," Rick replied. After he left, he double-checked it on his calculator and realized he wouldn't get the job. About two weeks later, he got a letter that said he was hired for the job. He was not one to look a gift horse in the mouth, but was still very curious. The next day, he went in and asked why he got the job, even though he got such a simple question wrong. The boss shrugged and said, "Well, you were the closest."

Yep, Gladys, your right. and I told her, marriage is like traveling by airplane. Once you're in, you can't get off that easily.

Odd Symptoms

A man gets an emergency appointment with his doctor because he has some alarming and "odd" symptoms. "Like what?" the doctor asks. "Well, when I got up this morning, I put on a pair of white gloves and started calling my wife Minnie." "That's pretty weird," the doctor agreed. "Then, on the way to work, I couldn't help singing, 'Hi Ho, Hi Ho, it's off to work I go.'" "Kind of strange," the doctor said, "but everybody gets songs stuck in their heads sometimes." "That's not the worst of it," the man said. "Once I got to the office, I couldn't help it: I started calling everyone Happy, Grumpy, Dopey and so on. What's the matter with me?" "I'm pretty sure I've got it," the doctor says. "You're having Disney spells."

Well, He Wanted to Know

After years of wondering why he didn't look like his younger sister or brother, a young man finally got up the nerve to ask his mother if he was adopted. "Yes, you were son," his mother said as she started to cry softly. "But it didn't work out and they brought you back."

Advice From Mother

A daughter asks her mother, "What are character qualities that I should look for in a marriage partner? You know, for someone that I will be spending eternity with." The mother replied, "Go ask your father, he did better than I did."
