Experienced artist Arnie Weimer undaunted by heat and cold

Arnie Weimer with his scale model and plan of the mural, Song of the Seasons, which was painted on the north wall of the Beanery Cafe in Aitkin.

By ANN SCHWARTZ
Arnie Weimer's Song of the Seasons mural is complete and painted on the north wall of the Beanery Cafe in downtown Aitkin. Many house painters throughout the years have repainted the north wall of that building, only to see it peel and become unsightly again.

A panel of local folks had a vision of that wall carrying art for the public to enjoy. Weimer, an Aitkin native who has lived in Alaska for more than 30 years, designed the mural concept. "It is a cubist representation of the seasons, my memories of Aitkin and my evolution as an artist," Weimer said.

Inside the Beanery, a scale model for the mural hangs in the dining area. He painstakingly transferred those images to the wall of the building and commenced painting the 15-ft. by 90-ft. piece of outdoor public art.

Those who pass through or by downtown Aitkin were able to witness the faithful Arnie Weimer out on the scaffold, painting in early morning chill and late afternoon fading sun in the autumnal Minnesota weather. No longer a young person, Weimer admitted: "It was a physical challenge painting the mural."

The Beanery has created an outdoor eating space by the mural (maybe closed for the season soon) and hosted an event honoring Weimer and his great work.

Funds were raised from the Iron Range Resources, Aitkin County Friends of the Arts, John and Diane Neumann and fundraisers and community donations.

PICK MICK Re-elect Mick Moriarty • Aitkin County Recorder

Over a decade ago I began working for Aitkin County and was elected to serve as your Recorder in 2014. The documents we preserve are of the utmost importance for legal and business transactions and a vast store of our county's history. I led the digitalization process, and technology is great, but without accuracy, it means nothing. I am knowledgeable, meticulous and detail oriented. I know the importance of tax revenues and expenditures to stay fiscally sound. My years of service have been an asset and my campaign ethical and honest. Taxpayers deserve someone who is principled, experienced, friendly, and helpful. My focus is you. I am asking for your vote this November.

Statewide youth and early antlerless-only deer seasons return

Minnesota's youth deer season began statewide Thursday, Oct. 20, and continues through Sunday, Oct. 23. The season coincides with statewide teacher workshops, so many Minnesota students don't have school during the youth season.

To participate, youth must be 10-17 years old and have a deer license. Participant numbers are not limited and there is no special permit, so parents should purchase or obtain a regular deer hunting license for the youth who will be hunting.

An adult parent, guardian, or mentor must accompany youth ages 10-13. All hunters and mentors, regardless of whether they are participating in youth deer season, must follow blaze orange or blaze pink clothing requirements. Adults may not hunt unless they are in an area open during the early antlerless season and have the corresponding license. Complete youth season details are available on the DNR youth deer hunting page (mndnr.gov/Hunting/Deer/Youth.html).

Early antlerless-only

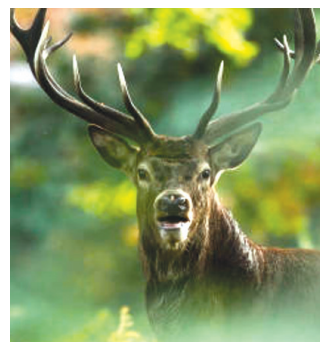

Hunters can participate in an early antlerless-only deer season through Sunday, Oct. 23. The season increases opportunities for hunters in areas where deer populations are above population goals or where there is an increased risk of Chronic Wasting Disease. Permit areas open during the hunt are 209, 213, 214, 215, 218, 219, 221, 222, 223, 225, 227, 229, 236, 240, 277, 341, 342, 343, 604, 605, 643, 645, 646, 647, 648, 649, 661 and 701.

The DNR offers this opportunity to hunters in an effort to manage local deer herds. This year, the bag limit has been reduced from five to three antlerless deer and hunters are no longer required to obtain an early antlerless permit to participate in the early antlerless season.

To participate, hunters must hunt in one of the 28 open deer permit areas and use a deer license that matches the weapon used during the season (for example, using a firearm for a firearms season license or archery equipment for an archery license). Hunters have the option of using their regular season parent license or they can use early antlerless permits, bonus permits, or disease management permits (only in 600-series permit areas) to fill the limit. Deer hunting regulations are available in the Minnesota Hunting and Trapping Regulations (mndnr.gov/Regulations/Hunting).

Merrifield hunter injured from deer stand fall

On October 15 at approximately 6:19 p.m., the Crow Wing County Sheriff's Office responded to a male that fell out of a deer stand and was injured, in the 11000 Block of Leisure Lane, Maple Grove Township. It was reported that a family member that was hunting on the same property as the male had talked to him by phone and knew he was injured, but did not know where he was. Upon arrival, deputies and Zone 1 First Responders located the victim, 28-year-old Leroy Zollner, of Merrifield. Deputies learned that Zollner was bow hunting when he fell approximately 25-30 feet from his tree stand. The Garrison Fire Department assisted with removing Zollner from the woods. Zollner was airlifted to Centacare - St Cloud Hospital, with unknown injuries.

The Sheriff's Office was assisted by the Garrison Fire Department, Zone 1 First Responders, Crow Wing County Sheriff's Office UAS Team, North Memorial Ambulance Service and North Memorial Aircare.
