SUNDAY, NOV. 6: Nunda Historical Society presents Harry Williams Day: Remembering the Life and Work of Artist Herbert John Graff, 2-4 PM at the Nunda Historic Society, 24 Portage Street, Nunda. Itinerant painter Herbert Graff was a frequent visitor to the Mount Morris/Nunda Areas in the 1930s and 1940s. He usually signed his popular paintings "Harry Williams." The NHS has been collecting information on this colorful artist and is documenting his works. Several of his paintings will be on display and a short program on Graff's life will begin at 3 PM. The public will be invited to share any memories or stories of Harry Williams and encouraged to bring his paintings to show. For more information, call 585-465-0971.

• Livingston County Office of Veteran Services Launches New Website •

The Livingston County Office for Veteran Services unveiled an additional resource on Wednesday intended to better serve veterans as it announced the launch of a newly designed website – www.livcovets.com.

"We are very pleased to partner with Veterans One-Stop Center of Western New York in developing this website," mentioned David L. Terry who is the Director of Veteran Services in Livingston County. "Our goal is to provide our veterans with resources while also giving them a forum to interact with one another. The new website will also create an added opportunity for veterans to connect with the County and its Peer Support Specialist and learn more about different events and programming available to them."

The website features an updated calendar of veteran-focused events happening throughout the area, calls attention to the Livingston County Veterans Monument and provides a place for veterans to find support services and outreach.

To learn more, please visit the newly launched Livingston County veterans website.
