ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You're eager to "Ram" headfirst into that new project. But before you do, find out why some of your colleagues might not appear to be as gung-ho about it as you are.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) All that dedicated hard work you've been putting in pays off better than you expected. So go ahead, reward yourself with something befitting a beauty-loving Bovine.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) It's a good time to take on that new challenge. And if your self-confidence is lacking, instead of telling yourself why you can't do it, list all the reasons why you can.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) This is one time when you might want to put some distance between you and the job at hand. It will give you a better perspective on what you've done and what you still need to do.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Resist that occasional lapse into Leonine laziness that sometimes overtakes the Big Cat. Don't cut corners. Do the job right at this time, or you might have to redo it later.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You know how you like to do things. And that's fine. But watch that you don't impose your methods on others. A current financial crunch soon eases.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Someone might try to take advantage of your generosity. But before your sensitivity toward others overwhelms your good sense, check their story out carefully.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Your strong Scorpian sense of fairness lets you see all sides of a dispute. Continue to remain impartial as you help each person work through their particular grievance.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Trust your keen Sagittarian insight to help you see through an offer that might not be all it claims to be. A closer look could reveal disturbing elements.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) With the Goat exhibiting a more dominant aspect these days, you could find it easier to make your case in front of even the most skeptical audience.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Take things nice and easy as you continue to build up your energy reserves for a big upcoming change. You'll need your strength for what lies ahead.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Recent news from someone you trust could help you make an important decision. Also, be prepared to confront an upcoming change in a personal situation.

BORN THIS WEEK: You can be firm in your own views, but also flexible enough to welcome the views of others.

75-year-old Dad

My 75-year-old Dad was taking his daily walk through the park when he heard a tiny voice calling to him. "Hey, mister! Pssst, mister!" Dad looked all around, and spotted a little frog sitting in the grass looking up at

"Hey mister," said the frog. "A wicked witch cast a spell on me, and turned me into an ugly frog. If you'll just kiss me I'll turn back into a beautiful princess and be forever grateful."

Dad reached down, picked up the frog, put it in his pocket, and proceeded to walk on. The frog called out to him again, "Hey! Didn't you hear me? I said if you'll kiss me, I'll turn into a beautiful princess and be forever grateful."

Dad replied, "I heard you, but at my age, I'd rather just have a talking frog!"

Piedmont Pets

November 10, 2022

When cold weather comes, I always remember an incident from ears ago when I was in my late teens. I still lived with my parents. We lived in a nice family-friendly, quiet neighborhood. One day, however, as I was taking our dog for a walk, I noticed that a new family had moved in around the corner. I was horrified to see that they had three big dogs that were chained in the yard; the only shelter provided was rusty barrels. It was late fall, and I worried and prayed non-stop about those dogs.

I simply could not stand another minute of worrying about those dogs being so cold when the weather forecast predicted freezing temperatures. I bought several large towels to put in the barrels. At the last minute, I included my big, fluffy yellow bathrobe. I decided the dogs needed that fluffy robe more than I did, so I put it in the pile with the towels and walked around the corner to where the dogs were chained.

A woman answered the door when I knocked. I told her that I was concerned about the dogs being cold, so I would like her to put the towels and the robe in their barrels. She looked at me like I had lost my mind, but took the large pile from me. She closed the door, and I went back home.

The next day, I walked back by the house and did not see any towels or yellow robe in the barrels. All I saw were chained dogs huddled by the barrels. The temperature had dipped overnight and it was freezing. I knocked on the door again, and when the woman opened the door, she was wearing my fluffy yellow robe. I told her I was disappointed, and then went back home.

A few weeks later, the dogs disappeared, and I hoped they were in a better place.

996 South Boston Rd., Danville, VA 24540 Phone: (434) 799-0843

With colder temperatures coming soon, this would be a good time to remind owners of companion animals that they must provide adequate shelter for all of their animals. It must be an adequate size, must be safe, must provide a solid surface, and must be easily cleaned. The shelter must "protect each animal from injury, rain, sleet, snow, hail, direct sunlight, the adverse effects of heat or cold, physical suffering and impairment of health."

In Virginia, the definition of "adequate shelter" also includes the requirement that "during cold weather, has a windbreak at its entrance and provides a quantity of bedding material consisting of straw, cedar shavings or the equivalent that is sufficient to protect the animal from cold and promote the retention of body heat."

Clearly, rusty barrels are no longer be considered adequate shelter, thank goodness!

As pet owners prepare their outside companion animals (and cats are not excluded) for cold weather, we strongly urge them to consider examine the shelter provided and determine if it meets the legal requirements.

It is the least they can do for the outside companion animals.

Garrison Memorial Kevin Lee Garrison 05/18/1968 - 10/20/2022 Born in Dover NJ, grew up in Succussanna and lived in NJ before moving to Danville, VA in 1999 then Centreville VA in 2009. He was married for 25 years to Michele Rotondi, and was the proud father of Alexander G Garrison. He is also survived by his father, Gail E. Garrison, his mother Marie Fritz Garrison, and his brother Scott Garrison, wife Debra Garrison, niece Lauren Garrison Cruz, nephew Michael Garrison, and the many other people he called family and friends, too numerous to name. He had recently found love again, and Nicolett Kaposvari deeply mourns his loss as well. Kevin loved life even as he battled depression and heart issues. He loved Renaissance Faires and some of his favorite parts of life were working for Lundegaard Armory at both the NYRF and the CRF. He made many friends over the years through the community there where he was known for his good nature and snarky sense of humor. He was an artist who loved working with leather, wood and even painting/repainting Windstone dragons and other figures. He will be missed by many. ### RIVERVIEW ROTARY CALLS FOR PARADE FATRIFS

Danville's Riverview Rotary Club is seeking entrants for their annual Riverview Rotary Christmas Parade. The 2022 parade will take place in downtown Danville on December 4 at 5 p.m. The application deadline is November 10 at 5 p.m. Applications submitted after this date will incur a late fee.

Entrants can craft their own parade experience by entering with any of these options:

- Commercial float/decorated trailer (entered by a business; no fee)
- •Non-commercial float/decorated trailer (entered by a non-profit; no fee)
- Marching unit
- •Performance group (JROTC, dance groups, etc.)
- •Active emergency/public safety vehicles (first vehicle free; additional vehicles $25/each)
- •Solo vehicle (applies to each vehicle not classified as a float—drivers must be 18 years of age or older. All vehicles are $50/each)
- •Motorcycle/off-road group (six motorcycles/machines for $50)

This year's theme is "Christmas Around the World" and all entrants are required to adhere to the theme.

The Blue & Gold Marching Machine of North Carolina A&T University, sponsored by Caesars Entertainment, will be performing in this year's parade.

For more information, call (434) 857-3384.

KOVELS Antiques & Collecting

Poster Art

This 1894 poster could have been made for an Olympic event in the early 1900s or well into the 20th century. Tandem bicycling was a Summer Olympics event in 1908 and then again from 1920 to 1972. Two-rider teams raced for 2,000 meters on tandem bicycles. In 1908, 34 riders from seven countries took part. France won the gold medal. In 1972, the last year before it was dropped, the event included 28 riders from 14 nations. Tandem bicycle races are still part of the Paralympics.

This antique bicycle advertising poster sold for $6,600 at Poster Auctions International. It pictures a pair of riders on a tandem bike racing from Earth toward the stars. The prophetic poster was created by Ferdinand Lunel (1857-1933), known best for his humorous drawings.

My mom lives in Colorado and has some furniture that she believes may be worth money, and she would like to have the pieces appraised. I'm helping her, but I'm not sure what to look for when looking for an appraiser. Can you provide me with some guidance?

. First decide what kind of A appraisal you need. If you want a written appraisal, with details about the age, maker and condition included, you can contact one of the major appraisal organizations: American Society of Appraisers (isa.appraisers .org), Appraisers Association of America (appraisersassociation.org) or International Society of Appraisers (www.isa-appraisers.org). They list qualified appraisers by area and specialty. You can also browse or search for appraisal services on Kovels.com. Tell the appraiser you want to know the market value of the furniture. Appraisals for insurance purposes or for estate taxes usually require further documentation, and the value might be different. Be sure to ask what the charges are before hiring someone. If you just want an idea of what the furniture will sell for, a verbal appraisal by an antiques dealer in your area might be enough. Choose someone who is not a potential buyer. If the furniture includes pieces that will sell for $1,000 or more, contact an auction house to sell them. They will probably get the highest prices.

TIP: Make your furniture friendly. Chairs should be about 42 to 120 inches apart in a room meant for conversation, like a living room or den. Too close and personal space is threatened; farther away and it's bad for hearing or eye contact.

Roach ranks gold and silver in marketing

Bobby Allen Roach earned gold and silver awards for Danville Community College (DCC) from the National Council of Marketing and Public Relations' (NCMPR) Medallion Awards last week.

Winners were announced during the annual NCMPR District 2 conference on Tuesday, October 25, at Sirata Beach Resort in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Roach won gold for DCC in print advertisement and silver in computer-generated illustration. DCC was also recognized with a bronze medallion for print advertising.

"I am immensely proud of this recognition from the Council," Roach said. "My contributions at DCC hold a special place in my heart, especially my most recently unveiled project: The advertising design for one of Danville's city buses."

Roach resigned from his six-year public relations and marketing role at DCC in September after accepting a remote working opportunity with New York-based Brooklyn Financial Independence as marketing coordinator.

Laidback Golf Tour Chatmoss Tournament Results

On Wednesday November 2nd nineteen members of the Laidback Golf Tour competed in the last Major of their 2022 Season at Chatmoss Country Club in Martinsville. The Tour last played there in 2019 when twenty-five players participated. In 2019 the group was able to post five players with scores in the seventies and carded 23 birdies. The 2022 group again found the Mini Verde Ultra Dwarf Bermuda greens to be very fast and challenging as they gave up no rounds in the seventies and only four rounds in the eighties. The low round for the day was recorded by Fran Hensley who had an 83. There was twelve birdies made by the entire group with way more three and more putts being made than birdies. All cash payouts and points were awarded by net scores for todays event. Mike Asbury claimed his 5th season win in the A Flight with his net 73. Meanwhile Tony Henderson claimed the B Flight's top spot with net 72 and winning a card match of the handicap hole with Robbie Revis who also had a net 72. Bart Truesdell finished with a net 76 for his 2nd win in the C Flight. Tour Director Kenny Powell had his best finish of the season as he turned in the only under par net score of the day with net 66 to win the D Flight.

The Tour ended their 2022 season Monday November 7th at Goodyear Golf Club with an awards ceremony and meal following play at the course. 2023 Tour memberships are on sale now at a discounted price of $30 until December 31,2022. After January 1,2023 memberships will be $40 per year. The 2023 season is scheduled to begin Thursday March 16,2023 at Southern Hills Golf Club in Danville. ### ACJA-LAE Region IV Conference

Four ACJA-LAE Alpha Upsilon Lambda Professional Chapter members participated in the November 3-5 Region IV Conference held at West Chester University (PA) and the Chester County Public Safety Training Campus. The conference theme of police K-9 programs featured lectures on K-9 training and certification and arson, bomb and patrol dog demonstrations. Members returned to Danville with 11 1st, 2nd & 3rd place trophies ranging from Criminal Law, Homeland Security, Policing, LAE Knowledge and Corrections. Taressa McNeal, Shirley Redd, Ivan Jones and John also participated in a (1) crime scene practicum exam, (2) firearms competition and (3) physical agility. John serves as AUL's chapter advisor.

Holiday schedule for offices, services

The Municipal Building and all other city government offices will be closed on Friday, Nov. 11, for Veterans Day. Also, the public library and the James F. Ingram Justice Center (courthouse) will be closed.

However, Danville Transit will operate, and household trash and yard waste will be collected on Friday as regularly scheduled.

- * Got soap scum? Mix dishwashing detergent with baking soda and use it to scrub bathroom walls. It's very effective, and surprisingly gentle, as baking soda is a mild abrasive that works well without scratching.
- * "Unless the label states otherwise, the best rinse temperature for clothing is cold water. It will help the clothing retain its shape and color better, and -- bonus -- it's the least expensive setting." -- I.F. in Texas
- * When whipping egg whites, make sure you bring your eggs to room temperature beforehand. They will yield greater volume.
- * Store asparagus in the fridge only for a few days before serving. Trim the cut end and use wet paper towels to wrap it. Keep it in the crisper drawer.
- * Getting your old deck of cards out to play? If they feel gummy, put them in a plastic baggie, add a little bit of talc, baby powder or cornstarch, seal the bag and shake. Knock the excess off before removing from the bag. Shuffle as usual.
- * "Wanna spot clean your floor? Spray an old pair of socks with floor cleaner, put them on and do the chacha-cha." -- V.B. in Iowa

Moments in time

• On Nov. 12, 1892, William "Pudge" Heffelfinger becomes the first professional football player when Pittsburgh's Allegheny Athletic Association pays him $500 to play as a ringer in a game against the rival Pittsburgh Athletic Club. Before then, players had traded their services on the field for expense money or trinkets, not cash.

• On Nov. 11, 1918, at 11 o'clock of the 11th day of the 11th month, the First World War comes to an end. The Great War claimed the lives of 9 million soldiers; 21 million more were wounded. Civilian casualties caused indirectly by the war numbered close to 10 million.

• On Nov. 10, 1969, "Sesame Street," a TV show that would teach generations of young children the alphabet and counting, makes its broadcast debut. Over the years, critics have blamed the show and its use of brief segments for shrinking children's attention spans.

• On Nov. 13, 1974, Karen Silkwood

is killed in a car accident in Oklahoma on her way to a meet with a reporter. She reportedly carried documents proving that Kerr-McGee Corp. was negligent when it came to worker safety at its plutonium plant. The theory was that someone forced her off the road to prevent the meeting.

• On Nov. 8, 1974, Salt Lake City resident Carol DaRonch narrowly escapes being abducted by serial killer Ted Bundy. When Bundy was finally captured in 1978 in Florida, he confessed to the murders of 28 women, and was executed in 1989.

• On Nov. 12, 1799, Andrew Ellicott Douglass, an early American astronomer born in Vermont, witnesses the Leonids meteor shower from a ship off the Florida Keys. Douglass' journal entry is the first known record of a meteor shower in North America.

• On Nov. 13, 1969, in Washington, protesters stage a symbolic "March Against Death" with more than 45,000 participants, each with a placard bearing the name of a soldier who had died in Vietnam. The march lasted for two days and two nights. President Richard Nixon was deeply angered by the protests, but publicly feigned indifference.

• On Nov. 11, 1973, the Soviet Union announces that, because of its opposition to the overthrow of the government of Chilean President Allende, it would not play a World Cup Soccer match against the Chilean team. It was the first time in the history of World Cup Soccer that a team had boycotted over political

Serve Up Smiles with Favorite Holiday Sides

urkey and ham may sit centerstage, but classic holiday sides can make the season truly special. You can bring smiles to your loved ones' faces by dishing out those favorite recipes everyone asks for year after year.

Made with a delicious combination of rice, cheddar cheese, cream of mushroom soup and broccoli florets, this quick and easy version of Broccoli and Cheese Rice Casserole is an ideal one-pot dish to keep the holidays simple. With three easy steps and everyday ingredients, it comes together with minimal effort for traditional casserole taste.

When it comes to feeding a crowd, it's often best to let your oven do the work. This Brussels Sprouts and Ham Rice Gratin recipe allows you to serve up a filling favorite with little effort using pantry staples. Plus, it's a kid-friendly way to encourage veggies at this year's holiday meal with gooey cheese providing tempting taste bud motivation.

These seasonal classics and more are made quick and easy with an option like Success Boilin-Bag Rice, a pre-measured, mess-free way to make fluffy, high-quality rice. It's cooked by simply dropping a bag of rice in a pot of water or broth then boiling it for 10 minutes. BPA-free and FDA-approved, the bags are safe to use and made to withstand high temperatures.

An added bonus: If you're aiming to achieve a particular flavor, just season the rice by cooking in water infused with herbs, spices, broth, coconut milk or other liquids like juice for sweeter recipes. Visit SuccessRice.com to find more holiday recipe inspiration.

Broccoli and Cheese Rice Casserole Prep time: 5 minutes Cook time: 30 minutes

- 5. Name the song that contains these lyrics: "I never needed love like I need you, And I never lived for nobody, but I live for you."

Answers

- 1. Dion, in 1961. Despite the song's popularity, Dion wasn't inducted into the Grammy Hall of Fame for the song until 2002.
- 2. He's afraid of losing his girlfriend if her former boyfriend comes back. In a rarity, the song was written with no chorus. Because of high sales of both the A and B side songs ("Love Hurts"), the record was considered a double A-side record.
- 3. Carly Simon, in 1975. It was Simon's first disco release.
- 4. In Paul McCartney's song of the same name, it's in Scotland where he owns a farm.
- 5. "When I'm With You," by Sheriff in 1983. The song hit the Top Ten charts in Canada immediately, but it took six years to top the charts in the U.S. -- which was four years after the group disband-

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD - Daniel Craig has played the macho "007" five times, but post-Bond, he's stretching his acting chops to play Benoit Blanc again, this time as a gay man. At the London Film Festival, "Glass Onion: A Knives Out Mystery" director Rian Johnson was asked after the film screening if Blanc was gay in reference to a scene showing the detective living with a man. "Yes, he obviously is," he replied. While the identity of "that man" has been withheld, Craig offered, "No spoilers, but who wouldn't want to live with that person?" We'll have to wait until Nov. 23 to know who he's talking about. The film boasts Angela Lansbury and Stephen Sondheim in a video chat cameo.

Harrison Ford will be General Thaddeus "Thunderbolt" Ross (previously played by the late William Hurt) in "Captain America: New World Order," due May 3, 2024. Chris Evans, who played Captain America in three films and seven "Avenger" movies, has moved on, and the character Sam Wilson (portrayed by Anthony Mackie) has now become Captain America, as seen in the Disney+ series "The Falcon and the Winter Soldier," to great success. At 80, Ford's going strong with "Indiana Jones 5" out June 2023 and "Thunderbolts" due July 2024. Evans moved on to voicing Buzz Lightyear in "Lightyear," as well as roles in AppleTV+'s "Ghosted," with Ana de Armas and Adrien Brody, and Netflix's "Pain Hustlers," with Emily Blunt and Andy Garcia.

Peter Billingsley is returning as Ralphie in HBO Max's "A Christmas Story Christmas," the sequel to the 1983 classic "A Christmas Story" ($3.3 million cost, $20.8 million gross). It has had annual Christmas showings that have made it the must-watch holiday classic it's become. Billingsley was 12 and is 51 years old now. It follows adult Ralphie (Billingsley) in the 1970s, returning to the house on Cleveland Street to deliver his kids a magical Christmas like the ones he had growing up. The original film was based on material from Jean Shepherd's collection of short stories, "In God We Trust: All Others Pay Cash," and starred Darren McGavin and Melinda Dillon. There have already been two sequels: "It Runs in the Family" (1994) and "A Christmas Story 2." This upcoming "official" sequel will be true to the original, since it's being produced by Billingsley and Vince Vaughn.

Get ready to have some really great ladies in the palm of your hand. The U.S. Mint is releasing five new quarters in February, with the faces of astronaut Sally Ride, Cherokee Nation Chief Wilma Mankiller, suffrage movement leader Nina Otero-Warren, and silent-screen actress Anna May Wong. We "haft" keep looking over our shoulders when carrying a "Mankiller" in our pockets!
