Orchards Mall Welcomes a NEW Store "Open Box Outlet"

For the first time in recent memory, The Orchards Mall is growing.

Open Box Outlet, a southern Ohio-based franchise of outlet stores, has officially moved into the Orchards Mall in Benton Harbor. The store is located inside the former JoAnn Fabric space, and features a wide variety of name-brand furniture, home goods and other items at heavily discounted prices.

According to store manager Rob Peterson, the store specializes in liquidation and over-stock furniture bought from online manufacturers, and new products come in daily.

"It's either open box, scratch and dent or just things they didn't sell," Peterson said. "Our prices reflect that. It's very nice name-brand stuff, but it's affordable. ... Our trucks are like Christmas morning - we never know what we're going to get out of them."

Peterson said he expects the store to compete against other local stores with higher mark-ups.

"We sell the same quality furniture they do for a fraction of the price," he said. "I went into one of the other big stores here and they had the same top-grain leather couch we have, but it was $3,000. Here, it's $600. The savings alone is worth it. People could live a bougie lifestyle without spending a lot of money."

Store owner Taylor Tribble started Open Box Outlet with his wife six years ago out of their garage, and has expanded into six loca-

Chamber Day with the Detroit Lions

One of the best things about working at the Chamber is the ability to watch business leaders and their staff connect with one another. Knowing that those connections could potentially provide opportunities for business growth and collaboration are one of many reasons why I love what I do. Throw in any type of sporting event and you've pretty much made my entire year! Which is why we are excited to share this fantastic opportunity with Detroit Lions fans out there.

Coming off their wins against the Green Bay Packers and Chicago Bears, (sorry Packers and Bears fans) the Detroit Lions are pleased to offer all members of the Southwest Michigan Regional Chamber special savings for the Lions game against the Minnesota Vikings on December 11th. Each ticket will include access to a pregame networking tailgate inside the Comerica Gridiron Club, which includes one (1) food and one (1) beverage item in the Gridiron Club during pregame, as an opportunity to network with other chamber members from across the state of Michigan.

Be sure to share the offer with friends and family once you purchase your tickets. Please note that if you would like to sit together all tickets must be purchased through one transaction. You will be assigned the best available seats within the section you choose at time of purchase. Space is limited so purchase your tickets as soon as possible.

After your purchase, you will be able to see your seat number in the Detroit Lions App. For mobile ticket help, please visit detroitlions.com/tickets/digital-ticketing

If you have any questions or would like assistance purchasing your tickets, please contact Brian Nordstrom at 313-262-2213 or brian.nordstrom@Lions.nfl.net.

So far we've seen a mixture of employers treating their staff to the game, families using this as an early Christmas gift, and business owners looking to grow their business and make connections with other businesses across the state. No matter how you plan on using them, this is a fantastic opportunity to watch the Lions play and hopefully cheer them on to yet another victory.

Lions Disclaimer: Offer is for a limited time only, subject to availability, has no cash value, is not valid on previously purchased tickets and is not good in conjunction with any other promotional offer. All sales are final and there are no refunds or cancellations. The Detroit Lions reserve the right to restrict or cancel orders. Please note that tickets purchased through this offer are restricted from resale

If you'd like more information about these or on any other upcoming event, simply visit our website smrchamber.com. If you'd like to connect directly, email sspoonholtz@smrchamber.com or call 269-932-4040. Looking forward to seeing you around Southwest Michigan this winter.

Don Things You Never Knew about Thanks-trivia-ing

Stuart

This column was originally designed to stimulate lighthearted conversations around the Thanksgiving dinner table, as it contains a number of diverting topics that would steer the discussion away from silly family arguments. Unfortunately, it appears there's a high concentration of the naturally-occurring sedative tryptophan in this content: While testing the column on my family, they all fell asleep. Oh well, it still serves the purpose of preventing silly family arguments!

The word "turkey" supposedly comes from the Hebrew word "tukki," which means "big bird" or "pheasant bird." But my wife is concerned it actually comes from the Yiddish word "tuchus," which is where she worries any Thanksgiving weight gain will go.

Over the years, you may have once in a while overcooked a dish for the Thanksgiving table, but whatever happened couldn't have been as bad as what happened to the first character balloon to appear in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. It was a gargantuan helium-filled Felix the Cat, who was sort of the Garfield of his day. At some point, the balloon was "released," whether accidentally or on purpose is unclear. This was not a good thing, since it flew about as well as today's domesticated tukki. . .which don't. Felix got tangled in some sort of overhead wiring and caught fire. "Felix" in Latin means "happy" or "fortunate," but not so much that day, I guess.

(By the way, my wife reminds me I am wrong about Felix' fate being worse than anything that's happened during Thanksgiving meal preparation: geez, you [meaning me] forget just once to turn the oven on to roast the turkey, and you [also meaning me] never hear the end of it!) While there was a pretty fair variety of vitales at Thanksgiving #1, there was not a potato to be found. The Pilgrims had never seen potatoes before and feared they might be poisonous. Which is exactly how my kids regard any potato that isn't French fried and lathered in twice its weight in ketchup.

There's a town in North Carolina called Turkey. And one in Texas, too. Naturally the one in Texas is bigger - 421 people to 295 in the NC Turkey. But North Carolina supposedly produces more turkeys than any other state in the union, so nyah-nyah-nyah Texas!

If you have enough time on your hands and want to take a tour that only visits towns with Thanksgiving-ish names, you could certainly start in one of the Turkey's, and then journey to: Spuds, Florida (which is thankfully not covered in twice its weight in ketchup); Corn, Oklahoma; Roll, Arizona; Cranberry, Pennsylvania. But there's one place where you should definitely conclude your trip: Gnowbone, Indiana!

By the way, the most notable thing I can find to say about either of the towns named Turkey is that, in 2011, the animal rights organization People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals petitioned Turkey, TX, to change its name to "Tofurkey." Really.

Tofurkey is supposedly a tasty, soy-based alternative to the meat of the bird, although we'll never find out in my house, because the one year we had it on the Thanksgiving menu, somebody forgot to turn the oven on, and here we are in 2022 and that somebody still hasn't heard the END OF IT!

tions in Ohio, Indiana and now Michigan. According to Peterson, Tribble hopes the store can be a stepping stone for the turnaround of the mall, which has a reputation of being 'dead.'

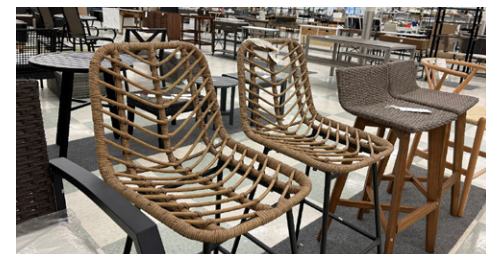

The opening of the Open Box Outlet comes in stark contrast to virtually all the stories about the Mall for the past ten years. Stores closing, announcements of plans that never materialized and pictures of thousands of sea gulls in the empty parking lot have been the theme of mall stories over the years. So a new store, with actual new merchandise there is truly 'news'. The Open Box Outlet manager says it's for real and not an aberration.

"The new owner of the mall is actually spending a lot of money, doing a lot of work here," Peterson said. "He's trying to revitalize the mall. He's trying to get it back up and running and back in its prime again. We're going to kick it off, and start bringing attention back to the area. Hopefully, other businesses will start following suit and opening up as well."

Peterson said locals have already expressed excitement of the new store, which was set to host a grand opening starting on Friday, Nov. 18. Currently, hours are 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Saturday and noon to 5 p.m. on Sunday.

"It's really cool to me to see new life in the previously dead mall," Peterson said. "I was sticker shocked when I [saw] the prices, but in a good way."

Corewell Health South Formally Opens New Public Spaces at Lakeland Hospital

Corewell Health South is marking the completion of the latest phase of its 'pavilion' project -new hospital space plus renovation of existing space. At a Monday gathering, representatives of Corewell Health said the more than $180 million project will mean better care for patients and a better experience for visitors and staff. Corewell Health CEO Tina Freese Decker said the project represents the human spirit at work.

"This building is just one step forward to help us achieve and realize our mission and our vision, a future where health is simple, affordable, equitable, and exceptional," Freese Decker said.

After six years of work, the pavilion is open and the public can see it, beginning with a dramatically expanded and spacious entrance and lobby, flowing into the new 'Main Street', connecting all major areas of the facility.

Corewell Health South CEO Loren Hamel told us the facility is designed for comfort and ease.

"We have improved a lot of technology, improved a lot of space," Hamel said. "We believe this is a place where our friends and neighbors will be blessed with healthcare, and we fell it's a place where we can attract a new generation of healthcare workers, doctors, nurses, and other healthcare professionals."

Hamel said the idea for the new facility came about more than 20 years ago, and at the time, leaders of Lakeland Health decided on a "replacement hospital in place," still at the location between Benton Harbor and St. Joseph. All clinical services are being moved out of old 1950's vintage buildings into the renovated portion of the hospital.

The Choice

To the LORD your God belong the heavens, even the highest heavens, the earth and everything in it. Yet the LORD set his affection on your ancestors and loved them, and he chose you, their descendants, above all the nations—as it is today.

Deuteronomy 10:14,15

Eleven millionaires were on the Titanic, the famous luxury cruise ship that sank in 1912. One of those millionaires was Major A. H. Peuchen who brought along with him onto the Titanic over $300,000 in cash, jewelry, and securities. When the ship was going down, however, he didn't grab any of those things on his way to the lifeboats. Instead, he grabbed three oranges. He thought the oranges would be more valuable to him at the time.

God can always have whatever he wants. "To the Lord belongs the heavens ... the earth and everything in it," Moses reminds the nation of Israel. If he wants a beautiful sunrise, it's his. If he wants an oceanfront view, it's done. If he wants a jaw-dropping view of the Rockies, no problem. But when he saw that this world was going down on account of our sin, he didn't choose to reach for any of those things. "He chose you," Moses said. And that truth doesn't apply just to the nation of Israel. It applies to all who benefit from the work of the Savior who was born from that nation—the Savior who took the whip to save you, felt the nails to redeem you, dropped his blood to cleanse you, broke out of his grave to prove that your grave will one day release you, and sits up on high preparing the most wonderful place in all eternity just for you.

When you are reminded that we live in a world that is dying—remember God's gracious choice of sending a Savior to save us from it.

Prayer: Gracious God, keep me firmly rooted in your choice to send Jesus to be my Savior. Amen.

The Pet Corner

You know the season is upon us when it's almost time for the Animal Aid Open House and the annual Reindog Parade. Both events will take place on Saturday, December 3, in downtown St. Joseph. The Open House runs from 12-3pm at the library at 500 Market St. Adoptable pets will be present and you can start your holiday shopping early by perusing the gift items, stocking stuffers, and silent auction. Remember a beloved pet at the Memory Tree and stop at the bake sale for some tasty treats. Pets are welcome. Donations to Animal Aid are always appreciated. This group that has been active in our area for over 40 years rescuing and rehoming pets. A recent visit to their Facebook page showed the many, many cats and kittens looking for furever homes; there are also guinea pigs and rabbits needing new digs and someone to love them.

The Fanny Mae Memorial Reindog Parade steps off at 3pm. Pre-registration is available online at www.stjoetoday.com/reindog or by calling 269-985-1111. You may also register from 1-2:45pm the day of the parade at the St. Joseph Today Welcome Center, 301 State St. The cost is $5.00 per dog with additional dogs entered at $3.00. Let's hope for great weather for this fun holiday event.

As we head into the holidays, here is a needs list for the Humane Society of Southwestern Michigan. For dogs: Purina One wet food and large Milkbones. For cats: dry and wet kitten and cat food and cat treats. Large trash bags, laundry pods, and dish soap are always welcome. Please see their website www.humanesocietyswm.org for a more specific list. Donations may be left in the bins outside the shelter at 5400 Niles Rd., St. Joseph, or at any of the Forte Coffee locations. Donation bins are also available at PawMart by Martin's Supermarket in St. Joseph for all of the rescue groups. I think cat and dog toys should also be added to any of the needs lists, as what pet doesn't need a new toy to pass the time?

Speaking of toys, our granddog Elliot is back in Michigan, bringing with him his new favorite thing, a large bone he found while hiking somewhere in the wilds of Wyoming. I hear he carried it along the hike, determined to bring it home. Not sure what sort of animal it belonged to at one time. An elk? A cow? A moose? Who knows. I do know it's heavy and old, and he's very proud of it. It's not my idea of a favorite toy but sometimes you just have to let a dog be a dog. From the time he was a puppy (could that really be two years ago?) he loved to find sticks and carry them around. As he grew, so did the size of the sticks, until he was trying to carry branches and small trees, always very proud of himself to find such a treasure. Looking at pictures of him from two years ago, when he could fit in the kitchen sink for a bath, to his now 80 lbs., it's hard to imagine he is the same dog. But he is a big dog with a big heart who thinks he's still small enough to sit on your lap and love you. Isn't that what dogs do best?
