City Slicker

My wife and I went to a "Dude Ranch" while in Texas. The cowboy preparing the horses asked if she wanted a Western or English saddle, and she asked what the difference was.

He told her one had a horn and one didn't, she replied, "The one without the horn is fine. I don't expect we'll run into too much traffic."

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Your work on a recent job assignment is impressive and sure to be noticed. Meanwhile, expect to receive news about an upcoming holiday event you won't want to miss.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Saving the world one person at a time is what you were born to do. So accept it when people ask you for help, especially during the holiday season.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Now that you've resolved all doubts about an important decision, you can surprise a lot of people by defending your stand with strong and well-reasoned arguments.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) The holiday mood stirs your need to nurture everyone, from the family cat to great-grandma. But don't overdo it, especially with teens, who like to feel grown up.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Enjoy basking in the warm love of family and close friends this holiday season. But don't fall into a prolonged catnap yet. There's still much to do before you can fully put up your paws and relax.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Avoid pushing others to work as hard as you do on a common project. Instead, encourage them to do their best, and they might well reward you with a pleasant surprise.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Like the sensible Libra you are, you no doubt already started your holiday shopping. But be careful to keep within your budget. Shop around for the best buys.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Love and friendship remain strong in your aspect over the next several days. This is a good time to develop new relationships and strengthen old ones.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A beloved family member has news that will brighten your holidays. Also expect to hear from friends who had long since moved out of your life.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Family and friends are in for a surprise when you accept the need to make a change without being talked into it. (Bet it surprised you, too, didn't it?)

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Restoring an old friendship might not be as easy as you had hoped. You might want to explore the reasons for your former buddy's reluctance to cooperate.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Your party-going activities pick up as the holiday season takes off. Enjoy your plunge into the social swim as you make new friends and renew old friendships.

BORN THIS WEEK: You are caring and considerate -- two wonderful attributes that endear you to people of all ages.

A young country preacher was going to do his first funeral at a little countryside cemetery. This was the first burial in this cemetery.

He got lost trying to find the cemetery and was an hour late. He sees the grave is dug and goes over and was surprised that they already had the coffin in the encasement. The gravediggers were already having lunch over by the backhoe and dump truck. So he takes out his Bible and starts preaching and the workers were saying, "Amen, praise the Lord. Hallelujah."

This encouraged him and he preached two and a half hours. So, he walks back to his car and opens the door and took off his jacket to put it in the seat and heard one of the men say, "Man I have been installing septic tanks for fifteen years and I have never seen anything like this."

Piedmont Pets

December 15, 2022

When my sister and I were children, we would write letters to Santa. In fact, our mother still has a section of the Manhattan, Kansas newspaper that printed lots of letters from our classes in Northview Elementary School. We laugh now because my letters and even my whispers to Santa as I sat on his lap reflected what my sister told me I wanted for Christmas. In her defense, let me add that I still have the patty cake doll she told me to ask Santa to bring me. And I did love the white and purple plastic dishes, as well as the toy pink telephone.

This year, if I were to write a letter, I would ask for the fulfillment of a thought expressed by Charles Dickens, "Have a heart that never hardens, a touch that never hurts, and a temper that never tires." Each time that thought comes to my mind, the thought is accompanied by remembrances of animals I have seen.

At the shelter this year, we have seen the best and worst of human hearts, touches, and tempers.

Most of the time, we see the best of the human hearts when people come to the shelter to bring an animal, to volunteer, to adopt, or to donate.

Each of the thousands of animals we receive each year comes with a sad story. The reality is that animals are at the mercy of the people with whom they come into contact. Sometimes, that is a horrible reality and sometimes, it means the animal will be helped. My office files are filled with pictures of animals that most people would never want to see.

Most of the animals we receive have been touched by the worst and by the best. The worst is a person who has abandoned, or abused, or neglected the animal. The best is a police officer, animal control officer, or member of the public who sees a need in the animal and acts to help.

Finally, at this holiday season, we are grateful for the good people who have helped us help the animals that have been hurt by the bad ones. Our childish letters to Santa have been replaced by grown-up prayers: "Please help everyone to have hearts that never harden, gentle touches that never hurt, and tempers that never tire."

Area Students Win Awards at DCC Idea Fair

DANVILLE, VA — On Friday, December 9th, students from Danville Public Schools, Pittsylvania County Public Schools, Hargrave Military Academy, DCC Early College Program, and Danville Community College (DCC) gathered person in Oliver Hall on the DCC campus to attend the 2022 Idea Fair Awards Ceremony.

“The Idea Fair is possible because of many sponsors and organizations who want to support the entrepreneurial spirit of high school and college students in our community,” said Dr. Willie Sherman, coordinator of the Idea Fair and professor of business at DCC.

The Idea Fair is hosted and facilitated by Danville Community College as part of the Dan River Region Entrepreneur Ecosystem, which also includes The Launch Place, the Danville Pittsylvania Chamber of Commerce, the River District Association, and Longwood Small Business Development Center.

“Our participants each had an opportunity to present their business idea to our panel of judges, explaining how their idea works, how it would remain viable, and answering any questions the judges might have,” said Dr. Sherman.

First, second, and third place winners are selected from each participating school. Out of more than 70 participants, 41 students placed and received an award.

“The grant that allows us to host the Idea Fair provides us with the funds to award these brilliant minds with $300 for first place, $200 for second place, and $100 for third place,” said Dr. Sherman.

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — It was widely reported that Mickey Kuhn, the last surviving credited cast member of the 1939 classic "Gone With the Wind," passed away Nov. 20 in Naples, Florida, at 90. Kuhn played Beau Wilkes, son of Ashley and Melanie Wilkes. But it was not reported that Patrick Curtis, married to Raquel Welch from 1967-1973, played (uncredited) Beau Wilkes as a baby, which technically makes him the last living cast member. (Wonder how he got the part? Oh, that's right, he was legendary director Billy Wilder's nephew!) Olivia de Havilland, who played Melanie, was the last living principal character to pass away, in 2020 at 104.

Courtesy of Warner Bros. & MGM
"Gone With the Wind" director Victor Fleming holds a young Mickey Kuhn on set.

It's not even Christmas, and Dwayne Johnson has already launched a new franchise: the action-adventure Christmas film "Red One," co-starring Chris Evans, Lucy Liu and J.K. Simmons, slated for Christmas 2023. Johnson keeps busy between acting projects by producing films like "Shazam! Fury of the Gods," due in theaters March 17, 2023.

Not long ago, Ryan Reynolds was crying the blues because the Christmas "Deadpool" movie he wrote was a casualty when Disney acquired 20th Century Fox and passed on the project. But they did eventually greenlight "Deadpool 3." (Was there ever any doubt with the first two "Deadpool" films grossing $800 million each?) "Deadpool 3" will have the added box-office power of Hugh Jackman as Wolverine.

Reynolds' current film, "Spirited," with Will Ferrell, grossed $100 million before hitting AppleTV+ a week later. Reynolds' next film is John Krasinski's "IF" (which Krasinski wrote, is producing, directing and starring in). "IF" also stars Steve Carell and "Fleabag's" Phoebe Waller-Bridge. Due May 2024, the film's about a child's journey to rediscover their imagination.

Fans of "Pee-wee's Playhouse" will appreciate that John Paragon, aka Jambi the Genie, who died April 2021 at 66 from heart disease, was re-laid to rest. In November, his ashes were interred at the Hollywood Forever Cemetery in a unique urn memorializing his character, Jambi — a purple and gold box similar to Jambi's box in the playhouse.

This feat of magic was performed by Paul Reubens (Pee-wee Herman), Cassandra Peterson (known for playing Elvira, Mistress of the Dark) and a GoFundMe, which raised more than $14,000 from fans. Paragon, also a writer and director for "Pee-wee's Playhouse," connected with Reubens when they were members of the improv group The Groundlings. Paragon and Peterson also played shows together at Knott's Berry Farm. If you have to be laid to rest in Hollywood Forever, it might as well be in a magic box!

* To control the level of garlic in a recipe, add it at the beginning for a lighter taste and at the end for a stronger taste. To get garlic out of the clove quickly instead of tedious peeling, just smash it and squeeze it out.

* The best cure for a foggy windshield is a chalkboard eraser. You can purchase them at office supply stores. They can be stored easily in your glove box. No window cleaner required for a quick clear windshield, and you can see well after. A clean windshield is a safety issue! -- M.T. in South Carolina

* Fill measuring cups with hot water and empty quickly before measuring sticky substances like honey or peanut butter. It will slide out much easier.

* Banana trick: For faster ripening, leave bunches together and store in a bag. For slower ripening, separate the bananas. They will ripen faster if stored near apples or citrus fruit. Also, remember that just because the outside is getting brown spots, the inside isn't necessarily going soft.

* Warm up refrigerated baked goods in the microwave, but add a mug of water. It will keep the moisture in the bread. If your bread loaf is going stale, wrap it in foil and pop it in the oven for about 10 minutes at 300 F. It will freshen the bread!

5 Tips to Pull Off Holiday Hosting

FAMILY FEATURES

With stay-at-home holidays a thing of the past for many families, they're now busy preparing for full-blown celebrations. The return of traditional festivities brings seemingly never-ending to-do lists and pressure to be the perfect host.

From mastering a mouthwatering menu and donning your home with decadent decor to ensuring guests enjoy the evening to the fullest, hosting duties bring plenty of responsibilities. This year, though, you can avoid those anxious feelings with some preparation ahead of the big day.

To help pull off a sensational seasonal soiree, consider these tips from the entertaining experts at Sun-Maid to make the holidays brighter and more manageable so you can navigate the stresses of hosting.

Invite Others to Share Favorite Traditions

Especially with stay-at-home holidays in recent years, some friends and family members may have developed their own special traditions from new recipes and foods to seasonal games and activities. Inviting your guests to bring or share something that represents their favorite part of the holidays can help everyone feel welcome.

Take Time for Yourself

Remember to make time for yourself so you can enjoy the fruits of your labor right alongside guests. The busyness of this time of year can add stress but reflecting on the true meaning of the season and reveling in your favorite parts of the holidays can help you avoid feeling overwhelmed.

Add New Ingredients to Your Menu

While pairing this year's turkey or ham with the classics provides comfort and calls to mind holiday memories of the past, cooking with new ingredients and adding fresh recipes to the menu can put a fun spin on the season and maybe even create your own traditions to carry forward.

For example, baking with an option like Sun-Maid Raisins provides a whole fruit option with zero grams of added sugars per 1/4-cup serving. They're an easy, better-for-you substitution to reduce overall sugar intake without compromising flavor or texture when compared with dried cranberries, which contain 27 grams of added sugars per 1/4-cup serving. The natural sugars of raisins make them a versatile, useful addition to a wide variety of holiday-worthy dishes.

Hop On Hot Food Trends

One of this year's most popular trends in the kitchen is food boards, a fun and easy way to elevate flavor while incorporating favorites like cured meats, cold cuts, cheese slices and cubes, dips, nuts and more. Plus, you can keep your board balanced with nutritious items like vegetables and fruit, such as raisins, which provide sweet flavor without the added sugars.

A Time for Truce

Gathering for the holidays is about coming together with loved ones, family, friends and neighbors – and pulling it off means catering to everyone's needs and wants. It's a time for compromises and truces. To help add a little extra spark this year, try incorporating a theme to the party or coordinate fun activities and games that can be enjoyed by all. For example, holiday-themed charades, a seasonal "name that tune" game and gift exchanges all give guests ways to get in on the excitement.
