Julee Laurent Pens Book About Experiences at 'Spago'

One of our own at MoodyOnTheMarket.com, contributing writer Julee Laurent, is publishing her second book. And you can be one of the first to pick it up later this month at a Book Release Reception in downtown St. Joseph.

Laurent will host a reception releasing the book A Seat with the A-list on Friday evening, January 27, at Waterfront House of Framing & Fashion on State Street near Ship. The book chronicles the time she worked for Wolfgang Puck at Spago restaurant in Los Angeles in the early 90's.

"I had all these stories about working for one of the greatest chefs of our generation in a restaurant where there were famous people in our door every night," says Julee. "I wanted them to live somewhere and give people a glimpse of what it was like to be in that environment."

Stories in the book include: Sylvester Stallone, Brigitte Nielson, Johnny Carson, Madonna, Whitney Houston, Donald Sutherland, Dodi Fayed and more.

It also gives an overview of what it was like to be under the constant pressure of working with high profile Hollywood clients while avoiding revealing press leaks and protecting celebrities from autograph seekers. Mostly, it is about working for one of the most groundbreaking chefs of our generation.

Julee fondly remembers those days. "I learned so much at my time there about people and, of course, great food and wine. It showed me the pressure that celebrities are under and that, in the end, their job makes the public want to have access to them, but they just want to have quiet moments at dinner like everyone else. Also, being around personalities that big gave me an interesting view about the different ways people react to celebrity, wealth and fame. It was an amazing learning experience."

Julee Laurent is a mother of two that has spent the last twenty years as a freelance

Fun and interesting things to do in Southwest Michigan

Greetings MailMax readers. Beautiful Southwest Michigan has something for everyone in the winter weeks ahead.

The Mendel Center will host bestselling author, prize-winning journalist, acclaimed biographer and cultural historian, Wil Haygood, on Thursday, January 19 at 7:30 p.m. He tells the story of America through the lens of history, politics, sports, race, and the lives of change making African Americans. Best known as the author of the New York Times bestsellers The Butler and Showdown; his work has chronicled America's civil rights journey through the biographies of Thurgood Marshall, Adam Clayton Powell, Jr., Sammy Davis, Jr., Sugar Ray Robinson, and Eugene Allen, the real-life inspiration for Lee Daniels' award-winning film, The Butler. During Colorization: One Hundred Years of Black Films in a White World, Haygood offers an unprecedented look at the history of Black cinema, examining 100 years of Black movies. From Gone with the Wind to Blaxploitation films, to Black Panther, he uses the struggles and triumphs of the artists, and the films themselves, as a prism to explore Black culture, civil rights, and racism.

Join the YMCA of Greater Michiana at The Livery EVERY THIRD SUNDAY for an hour of yoga followed by your favorite Livery brews. Non-alcoholic drinks will also be available. Please bring a mat. The Livery will be partnering with the YMCA of Greater Michiana for Yoga on Tap. Starting at 12:30p.m., attendees can participate in a one-hour yoga session that comes with a 16-ounce beer provided by The Livery.

If you're looking for a perfect date night or something unique to do with your bestie, join the Plank's Tavern chefs and learn how to roll four different types of Sushi. Take home your own rolling mat and chopsticks. The Couples Sushi Rolling Class is Tuesday, January 24 at 6 p.m. at the Inn at Harbor Shores.

It will be an exciting and entertaining night out when you attend Dueling Pianos on Friday, January 27 at 7 p.m. at the Mendel Center Grand Upton Hall. The pair of piano players will have the audience in stitches as they involve them in a unique interactive experience. You will hear music and comedy all rolled into one fun night. Dueling Pianos is presented by the Southwest Michigan Symphony Orchestra.

Don't miss the 2023 Chili Tour on Friday, January 27 at 5 p.m. in downtown St. Joe. Participating locations or "Chili Stops" will host as you stop by and try their best recipes. Return Saturday, January 28 from noon to 4 p.m. as craft beer novices and enthusiasts are invited to enjoy sampling from local and regional Michigan breweries from noon to 4 p.m. Bundle up and venture outdoors for the annual St. Joe Winter Beer Fest, ages 21 and older are welcome.

Lalo Cura returns to The Livery for another incredible show, Saturday, January 28. Latin-Soul Fusion band, Lalo Cura has developed a unique sound that stems from its powerful rhythm section, Santana-inspired guitar solos, culturally progressive lyrics as well as synchronized guitar and horn lines. Although Lalo Cura sings primarily in Spanish; language has not been a barrier for the band to connect with its diverse audience. From love to social issues, Lalo Cura describes experiences lived by many in the US, Latin America, and throughout the world. Doors open at 7 p.m., the show starts at 8 p.m. If you would like more information on these and many more events and activities in the area, please visit our website at swmichigan.org.

Business Recognition Awards

The 2023 Business Recognition Awards Ceremony and Annual Meeting will be held on Friday, February 17, 2023, at Lake Michigan College Mendel Center's Grand Upton Hall. Doors will open with a full breakfast and coffee at 7:00 a.m. with the program beginning at 7:30 a.m.

Steve Baker, President and Chief Operating Officer of Indiana Michigan Power, an AEP Company will provide the keynote. In his current role, Baker oversees the company's distribution of operations and a wide range of customer and regulatory relationships. Previously he served as Vice President of Distribution Operations for Public Service Company of Oklahoma (PSO), responsible for the operation and maintenance of the electric distribution system for approximately 554,000 customers throughout Oklahoma.

His career in the energy industry began as a field operation engineer with West Texas Utilities in Abilene, Texas. Since then, he has held a variety of leadership positions within Central and Southwest Corporation and American Electric Power.

Baker received a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering from Texas Tech University, completed the Executive Program-Darden School of Business at the University of Virginia, the AEP Management Development Program at Ohio State University, and the Texas A&M Management Development Program. He is also a graduate of the Leadership Tulsa and Leadership Oklahoma programs.

Currently he serves on the board for Greater Fort Wayne Inc., Indiana Energy Association and is an executive sponsor for AEP's Hispanic Origin Latin American (HOLA) employee resource group.

Arthur Havlicek, President & CEO of the Southwest Michigan Regional Chamber said, "We are excited to work with a great community partner in Indiana Michigan Power to share key information about what we can expect moving forward with current energy demands on the grid and requirements from both D.C. and Lansing. Steve's keynote will be educational, informational, and easy to understand for anyone not in the industry."

Early bird tickets are available, through January 31, 2023 online at www.bit.ly/BRB2023 at $55 per person, or a table of 10 for $450. February first through the tenth, tickets will be available for $60 per person, or a table of 10 for $500.

In addition to breakfast and the keynote, attendees will hear a recap of 2022 and hear exciting news planned for 2023 from Havlicek, approve the new Board of Directors and Executive Board Slate, and

New Downtown BH Apartments Accepting Applicants

Emma Jean Hull Flats, an 80-unit multi-family housing development being constructed on Riverview Drive, near Main Street in Benton Harbor, is now accepting applications for new residents.

The $23 million project, slated to open in the spring of 2023, is a key initiative of both the city and Whirlpool Corporation to promote housing that will be attractive to both Whirlpool employees as well as other residents of Benton Harbor.

In collaboration with the city of Benton Harbor and Whirlpool Corp's Equality Pledge, this development is leading by example by expanding high-quality, market-rate housing in Benton Harbor that will attract new occupants to be residents of the community.

When fully leased, the one and two-bedroom units in Emma Jean Hull Flats will be home to approximately 100 permanent residents of Benton Harbor, adding to the city's tax base and stimulating new business and economic growth, consistent with the city's comprehensive development plan.

"Despite supply chain disruption, labor shortages, inflation, and some significant weather challenges, the Emma Jean Hull Flats housing development will be opening for residents in Spring of 2023," said Whirlpool Corp. Sr. VP of Corporate Relations and Sustainability Pam Klyn. "This project would not have been possible without strong collaboration between the City of Benton Harbor and Whirlpool Corporation. We're excited about the important role this new housing development will play in attracting and retaining talent locally. We know the lack of housing has been a barrier up to this point, and we're confident the Emma Jean Hull Flats project will serve as a catalyst for even more housing development in Benton Harbor." Consistent with the objective of linking the project to the local community, the apartment will reserve units for public service workers (teachers, police officers, firefighters, etc). This program for Hometown Heroes will ensure that the building's residents are connected to the community they call home. Those interested in the Hometown Hero program must complete an application and meet the same leasing criteria as any other resident. Hometown Heroes will be eligible for reduced rent based on financial need. Eligibility for the program will be consistent with all federal, state and local housing laws.

"We want to continue to grow our city to become a place that welcomes all people to live here, including those Hometown Heroes who work hard to make our community better every single day, our underrepresented colleagues who will be joining Whirlpool, and others looking to settle in our community, such as the graduates of our local high school," said Benton Harbor Mayor Marcus Muhammad. "This waterfront facility can be the magnet to attract a talented and diverse set of residents, proud to call Benton Harbor home."

All residents will be required to be permanent residents of the city of Benton Harbor for the entire duration of the lease. Short-term, part-time, or vacation rentals will not be allowed for any of the units, and monthly rents will start at $1,350 for one-bedroom units and $1,650 for two-bedroom units.

Emma Jean Hull Flats will offer its residents modern amenities, including a rooftop patio with spectacular waterfront views and a dog park. With easy access to walking paths, kayaking, fishing, golf, and local restaurants, developers believe this property offers one of the best apartment living experiences in Southwest Michigan.

Superior Properties, an independent, local property management company, manages the property for Whirlpool Corporation. Anyone interested in becoming a resident of Emma Jean Hull Flats can obtain a rental application online at www.emmajhullflats.com or by contacting Superior Property Management by emailing ejhullflats@superiormgmtmi.com or by phone at 269-743-4870.

Approval Rating

Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptized by John. But John tried to deter him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?" Jesus replied, "Let it be so now; it is proper for us to do this to fulfill all righteousness." Then John consented. As soon as Jesus was baptized, he went up out of the water. At that moment heaven was opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and lighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased."

Matthew 3:13-17

Whether at work, school, or home, we are constantly graded, compared against others, and rated. The boss gives us our annual review. The teacher hands out report cards. The son informs mom that her mac and cheese isn't as good as what Dylan's mom makes.

It is interesting how these "ratings" can affect our day, isn't it? If they're good, we feel good. If they're lousy, we feel lousy. If they're nothing special, then we are tempted to feel that we're nothing special.

How's your approval rating with God? How have you been keeping up with those Ten Commandments? Remember, they're not God's suggestions; they are his commands. How's it going between you and your neighbor, all your neighbors? Jesus said, "Love your neighbor as yourself."

If we're going to talk comparisons, why not go all the way and, as God says, compare ourselves to him? "Be holy, for I the Lord your God am holy." Will I ever meet with God's approval? Will God ever say of me, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased?"

This is what makes Jesus' baptism, as well as our own baptism, so special. God, in his grace, has connected me to Jesus. God has given me faith in Jesus as my Savior. Jesus has taken away all my sins and gives me his perfection and holiness. When God looks at me, he can say, "This is my son, my daughter, whom I love! With him, with her, I am well pleased." Approval ratings don't get any higher than this. God be praised!

Prayer: Dear Jesus, when doubts of my worth come, drown them in the waters of baptism and remind me of your love for me in Jesus. Amen.

Dave Says:
Managing A Friend's Will

Dear Dave,
Our next-door neighbor was an older single man with no family, and my wife and I always tried to look out for him and help with things. He died recently, and in his will, he left us his home, his car and the money he had in his bank account. The will was handwritten, and it said the house was worth around $350,000, with $150,000 left on the mortgage. The car is worth about $10,000. Officials at our county office building said the money in the bank account wouldn't have to go into probate since I was listed as the beneficiary, and I was given a check for that amount. We've just never handled anything like this before, and my wife and I were hoping you would help us navigate things.

- Steven

Dear Steven,
There are a couple hundred thousand dollars in equity involved here. The fact that the will is handwritten doesn't necessarily invalidate it, but it does increase the possibility of encountering some bumps down the road. I'm not a lawyer, so the first thing I'd do is talk to a couple of probate attorneys in your county. Find out what they'd charge to handle things. I wouldn't spend thousands of dollars to get this done, but I would pay $500, maybe $1,000, to let someone who knows what they're doing handle things. If your county affairs people are right and everything's easy and straightforward, it's not a lot of legal work for an attorney.

On top of that, if the attorney you work with knows folks at the courthouse and is familiar with how things work there, then it's kind of like traffic court, you know? It's almost automatic. I mean, we're only talking about three assets here—a bank account that's already been handed off, a car and a house that's mortgaged. For me, it'd be worth a little money to have someone on my side who knows the path through the woods.

I'm sorry to hear your friend and neighbor passed on, Steven. But I hope I've been able to help.

- Dave

Humorist

Friday the fear-teenth!!!

I've had 20 previous opportunities to write this column, but never have. Yep, since I started penning these driv-el-driven screeds, I've let 20 Friday the 13ths slide by without comment. But the time has come! Let's explore deep dank corners of this supposedly jinxed day, and the number 13 itself!

• If you have genuine fear of days labeled "Friday the 13th," there's a word for that: "paraskavedekatriaphobia." If this condition affects you, you're not alone. Amurrcans harbor a lot of superstitions. And laying low on F-13th is apparently one of them; fewer people book air or train travel on F-13ths, and workplace absenteeism is said to be higher than normal. I'm an example - I haven't worked on Friday the 13th for over three years. (Full disclosure: I haven't worked at all for over three years, so...)

• Now it could be that your hang-ups about Friday the 13th go deeper than just that square on a calendar. Maybe you're fearful of the number 13 in general! In that case, you suffer from "triskaidekaphobia." Luckily, I don't have this. Although I am being treated for an irrational fear of the word "triskaidekaphobia."

• By the way, these multi-syllabic, science-y terms are all well and good, but I really wish I'd been in the room where they first happened. I would've made dang sure that at least one of them contained EXACTLY 13 letters.

• A website called Livescience.com once published a list of "strange, tragic and notorious events occurring on Friday the 13ths throughout history."

I actually personally lived through one of these events.: A snowfall of 22 inches on Friday, October 13, 2006, in Buffalo, New York. It was called the "October Surprise" by Western New Yorkers, because not a single local weather forecaster had the slightest inkling that it was coming.

But folks, I knew it was coming! You might recall I wrote about this.: It happened because the afternoon before, one of the pesky neighbor kids who constantly hung around our house roamed around singing the holiday favorite "Sleigh Ride" - in October. The little creep.

• Scholars of such things say the concept of Friday the 13th as unlucky got a big boost in an early-20th century novel by a guy named Thomas W. Lawson, called - well, what else? "Friday, the Thirteenth." Then, to make matters slightly creepier, a ship named after Thomas W.

Lawson was caught in a storm and ship-wrecked. On the night of Friday, December 13, 1907.

• Weird: Mary Kate Olson, who became wholly-famous as half of Michelle on "Full House," was born on a Friday the 13th. AND, her name has 13 letters! AND, her twin sister was born ON THE SAME DAY!!

• Scarier than that: The accordion was patented Friday, January 13, 1854. (All right, you accordion aficionados, let me have it. But before you do, let it be known - my mom played the accordion.)

• But to me, this is the most frightening "13 IS UNLUCKY" story I've ever heard!!!: The author Mark Twain was once asked to a dinner party. He was advised he was the 13th guest invited. A superstitious friend strenuously begged him not to go. And afterward, Twain said he wished he hadn't; "It was bad luck. They only had food for 12."
